OBITUARIES

● MRS. GEORGE R. HALSEY

Services were held Monday at the Proctor Funeral Home for Mrs. George Halsey, 81, who died Saturday morning at Maple Lane Manor, where she had made her home for three years.

She had been ill for several years.

Born in Sherwood, O., July 18, 1883, she married Mr. Halsey in Sherwood and in later life moved to Lenawee.

Her husband died Sept. 18, 1951.

Mrs. Halsey is survived by a son, Carl, whose address is unknown.

She also is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Otto George, 216 W. Cummins, and Mrs. Edward Handy, rural Tecumseh.

Eleven grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren also survive.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham officiated and burial was in Tipton Cemetery.

—o—

● FRANK ARNOLD

Services were held Friday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Frank Arnold, 81, of 405 W. Patterson St., who was found dead in his bed Wednesday by his son.

Coroner Clarence Brown of Hudson said that death occurred sometime Tuesday evening, the result of natural causes.

Mr. Arnold was born Jan. 7, 1883, at Tipton, Ind., the son of John and Phoebe DeWitt Arnold.

He married Nina Belle Gibson Dec. 23, 1905, at Sandwich, Ont. She died Jan. 10, 1961.

Mr. Arnold was an inspector at the Cyclone Fence Co. until the firm moved from Tecumseh.

For the last several years he had operated a vegetable garden in the city.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Donald Prichard, 602 E. Logan; two sons, Dudley of Detroit and Tracy Arnold of DeKalb, Ill.; a brother, Bert of Tipton, Ind.; and nine grandchildren.

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne officiated and burial was in the Brookside Cemetery.

—o—

● ZIGMONT TANANA

Services were held Wednesday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Zigmont Tanana, 74, of 9415 Clinton-Macon Rd., who died Sunday morning at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

He had been in failing health for the last year and a patient at the hospital since Friday.

Mr. Tanana was born Sept. 16, 1890, in Poland, the son of Klenet and Vicenta Tanana.

He has lived in the Macon area for the last 28 years.

He was employed in farming until he retired. Nov. 24, 1936, he married Anna Zdnodowski, who survives.

In addition he is survived by a brother, Leo, of Detroit; five stepsons and three stepdaughters.

The Rev. Ronald Corl officiated and burial was in Macon Cemetery.

Form Committee To Study Athletic Field Improvement

A proposal to improve a three-acre portion of the high school athletic field was turned over to a committee for study by the School Board Monday night.

Vic Lawson, athletic director, asked the Board for top soil, seed and fertilizer and said the estimated cost was $2,700.

The area, just north of the high school building, is used daily by physical education classes during the spring and fall, and also by the varsity football team and band.

The site has been rocky and rough for years.

If the area is improved, youngsters in the Pony League may have to play their games elsewhere next summer. Probable site is a new diamond at Herrick Park School.

Board prexy Aden Mead named a committee of R. H. Moore, Bill Brown and Fred Freeman to investigate the situation and report back at the October meeting.

School Recreation Facilities Available for Adult Programs

Don Moffatt, recreation superintendent, received assurance from the School Board Monday night that school recreation facilities for evening adult programs could be available.

The director said he was planning programs for both ladies and men and was interested in either the high school or junior high gyms.

A small fee would be charged each participant to cover the costs of heating, lighting and custodial services.

Music Studio Will Be Open at Hoag Home

Mrs. Rosemond Hoag has opened Rosemond's Music Studio at her home, 134 W. Brown St.

A native of Tecumseh, Mrs. Hoag attended Tecumseh High School, taking part in many musical programs and extravaganzas.

She moved to Lincoln, Neb., where she studied piano for two years at Union College.

She has taught both children and adults, five years in Champaign, Ill., and two years in Seattle, Wash., before returning to Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen of Allen's Trailer Court, Clinton, are parents of Mrs. Hoag.

She and her children, Larry, 12, and Brenda, 9, frequently sing modern sacred and semi-modern secular music as a trio.

—o—

Mrs. Harold Gasner of Clinton returned home Thursday from St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor, following ear surgery.

Past Chiefs Will Visit Hospital

TIPTON — The Past Chiefs Club met at the home of Mrs. John Jones at Kilarney Lake last Wednesday.

Plans were made for the Past Chiefs and Pythians Sisters to go to Veterans' Hospital in Ann Arbor where they will furnish refreshments and entertainment for the patients.

Mrs. Glen Kempf received the gift of the day and Mrs. Lyle Bailey received the traveling prize.

The game of "500" was played with Mrs. Earl Luce winning high prize and Mrs. Howard Luce winning the low prize.

Refreshments were served to the 24 guests by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Grover Swarts.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Richard Platt assisted by Mrs. Garrett Linger.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Miller of Hastings are staying with his parents Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Miller of Clinton for a few weeks.

FIRE CALLS

The emergency wagon was called to Airport Bowl Wednesday, Sept. 16, where smoke was detected but no fire could be located.

A fire at the rear of the empty Marian Murphy apartment bldg. at 210 E. Chicago Blvd. was extinguished by the department Friday, Sept. 18, at 1:55 a.m.

The same day at 8:30 p.m., the department was called to the athletic field, where a transformer caught fire during the football game.

Sunday, Sept. 20, a gas dryer at the laundromat at the corner of E. Pottawatamie and S. Ottawa caught fire at 2:50 p.m. Little damage occurred.

Methodist Church To Hold Three Dedication Services

Three services of dedication will be held Sunday, Sept. 27, at the Tecumseh Methodist Church.

Babies will be dedicated in Christian Baptism at the worship service at 10 a.m. when the Rev. Donald C. Porteous will speak on the theme, "The Christian and His World".

Immediately following the 11 a.m. service, the congregation will assemble at the southeast corner of the church building where a newly-installed memorial bulletin board will be dedicated.

Also a recently-installed aluminum cross will be dedicated.

A church membership training class will be held in the balcony during the church school hour at 11:10 a.m.

The Rev. Porteous extends an invitation to the public to attend classes for all ages.

Young People Invited to Join Music Makers

Mrs. James E. Danforth and Mrs. Orrie Gilbert, advisors of the Music Makers, are inviting any interested young people in grades seven through 12 to join the club.

Mrs. Raymond Reece, State Junior Music Club Counselor, of Ferndale will be the guest speaker for the first meeting Sunday, Oct. 4.

The meeting will be held at the Friends Church at 2:30 p.m. when Mrs. Reece will also conduct installation services for the new officers.

About 40 members of the Junior Music Club gathered at the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian Church Saturday for a potluck dinner followed by musical games.

Rear End Collision

CLINTON — A summons for failure to stop in the assured clear distance ahead was issued to Clifford W. Kolle, 21, of Clinton after the car he was driving struck a car in the rear.

Lowell E. Blaker, 21, and his wife, Peggy Jo, 18, of Adrian suffered minor cuts and bruises at 5:25 p.m. Friday on M-52 at Curtis Rd.

Mr. Blaker said he slowed to make a left turn when Mr. Kolle struck his car in the rear.

Buses Can't Take Students to Away Tilts

Youngsters planning to attend future Tecumseh athletic events will have to find their own transportation.

The School Board confirmed a statement from Vic Lawson, athletic director, that he had heard the schools were not sending buses to games.

Board members reported that they had been advised that their insurance did not cover the trips free or financed by the Board of Education.

In the past, students paid their way.

The athletic director was told that the schools are still operating on a curtailed budget and money to transport the students simply was not available.

Tipton Church Notes

The painting at the church which was to be held last Saturday afternoon was postponed because of rain until a later date to be announced.

Election of officers was held Tuesday evening at the meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the Tipton Community Church held at the home of Mrs. Howard Kronberg. Officers for the coming year are:

President — Mrs. Grover Swarts
Vice-president — Mrs. Lee Griffin
Treasurer — Mrs. Jack Allen
Secretary — Mrs. Earl Luce
Reporter — Mrs. Wallace Wilkin
Christian Education — Mrs. Raymond Platt
Evangelism world missions — Mrs. Lyle Whelan
Social Concerns — Mrs. Kenneth Munger.

A discussion was held on plans for the coming year and it was announced that the Fall Workshop will be October 14 at Manchester. The annual Church Fair will be November 4.

The Senior choir will resume rehearsals Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. All who are interested in singing are urged to attend.

A potluck dinner was held at noon Sunday at the Church to greet the Rev. and Mrs. Phillip Rustin. The Rev. Rustin will fill the pulpit during the absence of Dr. John Metler who is on leave of absence to continue his studies at the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis.

About 60 attended. Dr. Metler was presented with a gold pen and pencil set from the membership.

The Annual Church meeting will be held next Sunday evening at 7 p.m., followed by a coffee hour.

Gaylene Johnstone Weds Tommy Sherman

Baskets of asters and gladioli on the altar, palms and lighted tapers formed the background at the Methodist Church Sept. 19 for the wedding ceremony of Gaylene Johnstone and Tommy D. Sherman.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Lorena Johnstone of Tipton and William Johnstone of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. James Sherman of rural Adrian.

The Rev. Donald Porter performed the ceremony and Mrs. Ronald Hill was the soloist.

GERALD JOHNSTONE escorted his sister down the white carpeted aisle to the altar. She was wearing a floor-length gown of white peau de soie fashioned with fitted basquet bodice, Sabrina neckline and chapel train.

Her three-tiered veil, re-embroidered with sequins and crystal, was secured to a net crown of petal illusion.

The bride carried a traditional bouquet of red roses centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Norbert Sederbauer was the matron of honor, wearing a floor-length gown of soft blue nylon over taffeta with a matching headpiece of flower petals accented by pearls.

Cynthia Covell served as bridesmaid in a gown of soft blue nylon over taffeta with a matching headpiece. Both attendants carried a bouquet of pink asters and white Fugi chrysanthemums.

Don Sherman was his brother's best man and the 200 guests were seated by Ken McGuire and Charles Johnstone.

A RECEPTION was held at the North Adrian Grange Hall where a floral arrangement and lighted candles centered the refreshment table.

Mrs. Charles Johnstone and Mrs. Gerald Johnstone, sisters-in-law of the bride, assisted at the reception.

Both young people attended Adrian High School.

They will make their home at Fort Hood, Texas, where the groom is stationed with the army.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents.

MRS. TOMMY D. SHERMAN

Joan Mitchell, Maxwell Smith Exchange Vows

Red gladioli and carnations were used on the altar of St. Marks Episcopal Church in Grand Rapids for the wedding of Joan Carrol Mitchell and S. Maxwell Smith Sept. 12.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. J. Howard Mitchell of Grand Rapids and the late Mr. Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. G. Maxwell Smith, 505 Seminole St.

The bride wore a floor length gown of peau de soi with white blouse and skirt of plush pink with rose pink sash.

She wore a Dior bow of matching material on her head and carried a nosegay of pink rosettes and stephanotis.

Darcy Harwood of Grand Rapids was the maid of honor in a gown of blush pink and rose pink peau de soi. She carried a nosegay of red rosettes and white stephanotis.

G. Thomas Smith was his brother's best man.

Henry Hungerford presented a program of organ selections as David W. Elliott seated the guests.

A WEDDING breakfast for 50 guests was served at Morton House, Grand Rapids.

The bride received a bachelor of arts degree in choral education from Michigan State University and her husband a BA in hotel and restaurant management from MSU. He is currently a member of the US Army Officers Candidate School.

The couple will live at Fort Benning, Ga., after a trip to the Wisconsin Dells.

Rehearsal dinner given by the groom's parents was held at Schnitzelbanks in Grand Rapids.

Democrats Plan Dinner

The Democratic Party's annual Second Congressional District Dinner will be held Saturday, Oct. 3 at the Michigan Union in Ann Arbor.

About 1,350 persons were served at the St. Elizabeth Roast Beef dinner Sunday, with probably a $1,600 profit, the same as last year.

All bills have not been paid and a total of the proceeds will not be available until the Rev. Fr. [illegible] from retreat Friday.

Harvey Wilson won the television set. The radio was won by William Kane of Rockwood and the record player by James Monroe of Ann Arbor.

Sight of Eye Still Question for Cheryl Johns

Cheryl Johns, soon to be five, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johns, 902 Murray Dr., started to Tecumseh Acres School Monday.

The kindergartener was struck in the eye Aug. 31 and was hospitalized until Sept. 12.

Physicians have allowed her to attend school if she is not too active.

They have still not determined whether she will lose the sight of her left eye.

Memoriam

IN MEMORY of our loving son and brother, RICKY FRANK HORTON, who left us so suddenly one year ago SEPTEMBER 29, 1963.
We do not need a special day
To bring you to our mind;
We miss you, RICK, every day,
And will 'til the end of time.
GOD knows how much we miss you;
HE knows our thoughts each day,
And when HE calls us home to you,
Your smile will lead the way.
Greatly missed by his mother, dad and brother

Indian Rally Whips WR

An off-and-on Tecumseh 11 kicked off its '64 season here last Friday night with a 26-7 lacing of Willow Run, the state's top ranked Class B power last year.

A three-TD second half rally accounted for the winning margin, one which could have been greater if Coach Tom Fagan had not relented by clearing the bench.

Ron Bolz and Tim Collins sparked the initial score early in the first period after Willow Run received the opening kick-off and failed to move.

Bolz broke through and blocked a punt on WR's 12. In two plays Collins tallied, the last run covering just three yards. His run for the extra point just missed.

THE FLYERS bounced back late in the second quarter to go ahead.

Highlight of their 39-yard drive was the old Statue of Liberty play, good for 21 yards and one which pulled them out of a hole in a third-down and 11 situation.

The Indians went ahead for good at the 3:44 mark in the third period when 194-pound halfback Don Baird turned right end for 12 yards, the last five with red-and-white jerseys hanging on.

Quarterback Jeff Osburn, utilizing the wedge play up the middle numerous times during the fray, relied on it again for Tecumseh's extra point.

Early in the fourth period, the Indians started the rout when Osburn passed to Mark Blatchford for 34 yards and paydirt. Fullback Greg McEnroe plunged for the extra point.

McEnroe then capped the scoring a few minutes later on a six-yard jaunt, twice faking would-be tacklers off their feet.

★

WHILE THE Indians played rather spotty first-half ball, they capitalized on many WR mistakes and showed promising signs in the second half.

Both clubs made numerous mistakes, but the Flyers were in a class of their own — jumping offside, a back illegally in motion and once tossed a pass beyond the line of scrimmage.

WR had eight penalties in the first half, five in the first quarter and three in its first series of plays.

Alhough the visitors were less jittery in the second half, the Indians started to tackle and block, taking complete control of the game.

The potential of the Indians broke through in the second half, and while Coach Fagan's club may be thin, Tecumseh showed enough to foster hopes of a successful season — possibly, a fine season.

COLLINS AND McENROE are capable runners and there's indication that Baird also slides into this category.

Osburn erased any doubts about handling the club and proved the Indians can score via the pass, too.

The Indians defense stiffened in the final two quarters, and while several sparkled linebacker Kirk Lucas had the fans humming on several tackles.

Redskins Set Fast TD Pace

CLINTON — Clinton's Redskins opened their 1964 football season on a winning note last Friday when they trampled Britton, 48-0.

Tackle Roger Proctor opened the scoring by kicking a 23-yard field goal.

Quarterback Dennis Sweet crossed the Tory line for the first two touchdowns, with runs of 16 and 23 yards, before quarterback Dennis Drazic unlimbered his arm and hit fullback Wayne Poore with a 20-yard scoring pass.

In the third quarter, Donald Papsdorf raced 60 yards for a touchdown and Dan Hathaway followed with a 12-yard scoring pass to Sweet.

Larry Heirholzer squeezed out two yards for six points in the fourth quarter. Drazic passed to end Roger Mann for 19 yards and the final touchdown.

Britton Tories never went past the Redskin 30-yard line.

DEFENSIVE ACE — Kirk Lucas, gaining a few yards here against Willow Run Friday night, really sparkled on defense from his outside linebacker post. The stocky senior, who backs up Gregg McEnroe at fullback on offense, crashed Willow Run's Holly in a tackle that had the fans humming in the last quarter.

SENIOR CITIZENS

This week Thursday, Sept. 24, all area senior citizens are invited to attend the group's gathering at the Community Center from 2 to 4 in the afternoon.

Things will start with a short business meeting, when the group will select a club name and suggest types of programs they would enjoy this fall and winter.

Following this meeting, the planned program of various social table games will be handled by this month's volunteer committee: Mrs. Clara Miller, Mrs. William Holrum, Mrs. Oren Feight and Mrs. Ralph Peotter.

The committee have asked that a call for more chess and checker players should be made. There are a few who have been attending these gettogethers who enjoy these table games, but would like to see if there aren't more who enjoy playing chess or checkers.

These sessions are for all area senior citizens who would like to attend. If transportation is needed by any of them, they should contact city hall and leave their name, address and phone number.

There are several people who will be willing to pick them up and return them home again.

Cookies, donuts and coffee will be served.

COMMUNITY CENTER

Saturday, the Shawnee Squares will meet and dance western-style from 8 to 11 p.m. Then on Sunday, Sept. 27, they will offer their square dance lessons from 7:30 to 10, also at the Center.

A PRODUCT OF Ford MOTOR COMPANY • LINCOLN-MERCURY DIVISION

Announcement:

Ford Motor Company introduces an entirely new kind of Mercury for 1965... now in the Lincoln Continental tradition

We predict that many people seeing a 1965 Mercury for the first time will wonder: "What car is that?" Mercury is that new. The look is new. Completely. Low, sleek, beautifully proportioned. (Notice the long, low proportions of the hood, the full-width grille, the unique front pillar lights.) The ride is new. It's smoother, solider, quieter. Inside, there's a wide selection of options for personal customizing—luxury features once reserved only for the most expensive cars. The idea behind all this newness is to bring you the most luxurious, best-riding car in its field . . . a Mercury that reflects the Lincoln Continental tradition. See how well the idea works—at your Mercury dealer's. No medium-price automobile has ever come so near in luxury to the high-price class.

1965 Models Go on Display

This is the big week for area automobile agencies.

Gleaming 1965 models go on display, with open houses slated for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Coffee and cider will flow, donuts and cookies will be munched as visitors carefully check the latest word from Detroit.

Chevrolets and Buicks can be viewed at Schneiders in Tecumseh, while Chevys and Pontiacs are on display at John Underwood's in Clinton.

Fords and Falcons are being shown at Tecumseh Motor Sales, as well as George Underwood's in Clinton, who also has 1965 Mercurys, Comets and Lincoln Continentals.

Plymouth, Valiant and Rambler are being unveiled at Wilson Motor Sales in Tecumseh.

Here's a rundown on the 1965 models:

► CHEVROLET has all-new cars in two lines:

1. The regular Chevrolet, long-time industry sales leader, moves to a new prestige plateau with the greatest comfort and luxury ever offered.

2. The Corvair makes a dramatic advance with its first major styling change in five years.

Customer approved design, with significant styling refinements, is continued for the Chevelle, Chevy II and Corvette lines. The Corvette also becomes the first American car to provide four-wheel disc brakes as standard equipment.

Among approximately 400 accessories and optional features available on 1965 Chevrolets is the first FM stereo system offered by an auto maker. Another is a telescoping steering column to give greater driving comfort for Corvairs and Corvettes.

Fifteen models in four series stress a bigger car concept in the regular Chevy, more than three inches longer.

Interiors offer greater roominess — three inches more shoulder room — plus inreased leg room, both front and rear. The luggage compartment has a flat floor for easier loading.

The front fenders sweep through the body into gracefully contoured rear quarter panels. The grille is framed by deeply recessed headlights.

A "wide stance" chassis gives wider front and rear tread.

Corvair, Chevrolet's popular small, sports-type car makes the first major styling change since its introduction in 1960.

It's longer, wider and lower while offering increased engine power. It retains its 108-inch wheelbase plus the air-cooled, rear-mounted engine and frame integral body which make it unique among American built cars.

Corvair's model lineup for 1965 emphasizes increased sportiness. Pillar sedans and the coupe have been dropped. The seven new models are either convertibles or two- and four-door hardtops.

► OLDSMOBILE is introducing a new full-size product line called the Delta 88, a glamorous new companion to the Dynamic 88. These models, along with the Petstar 1, Starfires and 98's, are powered by a recently developed 425 cubic inch Super Rocket engine teamed with a brand new Turbo Hydramatic transmission.

The new Super Rocket is a bigger, more powerful engine of lightweight cast-iron design, yet engine weight has been substantially reduced.

Other mechanical design changes include a new frame for increased rigidity and improved stability. Front and rear suspensions are newly-designed for better ride and handling. The new chassis also features wider front brakes on the Dynamic and Delta 88's, Jetstar 1 and Starfires for greater brake life. On the 98's both front and rear brake widths have been increased.

► FORD'S most-changed models in the 15-year history of the firm include vertical-mounted dual headlamps and modernistic, hexagonal-shaped taillights, accenting the crisp look of the new Ford. Side styling features straight-through lines emphasized by a sharp, full-length fender line from front to rear.

An ultra modern six-cylinder engine rated at 150 horsepower — lighter, more powerful, smoother-running and more economical than any other six-cylinder engine previously offered in the Ford line — heads a list of additional owner-benefits which include such items as the industry's first center-facing dual-rear seats in 1965 Ford station wagons.

All 1965 Ford models have been completely restyled. Five separate roof lines and different series ornamentation give new and more complete distinction between the models.

Vertical-mounted dual headlamps highlight the front with a grille that features thin horizontal bars. The turn signal-parklights are concealed behind the grille and are visible only when illuminated.

From the side, 1965 Fords feature straight-through lines emphasized by a sharp, full-length fender line from front to rear. At the front, the fender line carries forward of the headlamps, dramatizing Ford's long look.

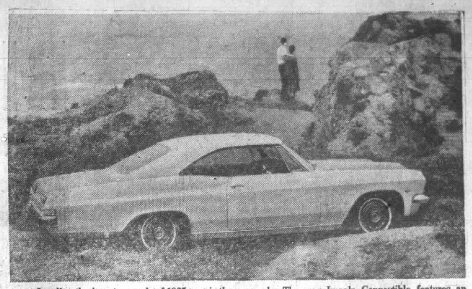
► RAMBLER'S three lines — Ambassador, Classic and American — have separate wheelbases and each has its own strong "curbstone" identity.

In summary, there are 29 models and seven engines offered in the three Rambler lines for 1965.

1. American — 10 models, including two and four-door sedans, four-door station wagons, convertibles and two-door hardtops. Engines include six-cylinder 90-horsepower L-head, 125-horsepower overhead valve and 155-horsepower Torque Command.

2. Classic — 11 models, including two and four-door sedans, four-door station wagons, convertibles, and two-door hardtops. Engines include six-cylinder 128-horsepower, 145-horsepower and 155-horsepower Torque Command, 198-horsepower V-8 and 270-horsepower V-8.

3. Ambassador — 8 models, including two and four-door sedans, four-door station wagons, convertibles and two-door hardtops. Engines include six-cylinder 155-horsepower Torque Command, 198-horsepower V-8 and 270-horsepower V-8.



Leading the beauty parade of 1965 cars is the elegant Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe (above) with new flowing lines, new roominess and a distinctive profile. Stylish roof lines and curved side windows blend with the gracefully contoured rear quarter panels. The new Impala Convertible features an inward folding top with tempered glass rear window. The regular-size Chevrolet is available in 15 models in four series. The public announcement date for all Chevrolet-built passenger cars is September 24.

UNVEILED FOR TECUMSEHLAND FOLKS — The 1965 Mercurys, sporting new squared-off styling, will be shown this week at George Urderwood's Fordland beginning Thursday evening. This is the elegant Park Lane four-door hardtop. The '65 boasts a 300 horse power standard engine

The Rambler Ambassador is the longest and most luxurious of three distinctively different lines of American Motors cars for 1965. Over-all length has been increased 10 inches on models other than station wagons, and a convertible has been added to the Ambassador line for the first time. Ambassador styling is all-new with a bold horizontal grille separated by vertical dividing strips, dual vertical headlights and full-height vertical taillights. Shown is the Ambassador 990 four-door sedan. Other Ambassador models include two-door sedans, station wagons, hardtops and the new convertible. The Ambassador horsepower range is from the new 155 "six" to the 270 V-8.

NEW FORD — A new look of size and motion is combined in the 1965 Fairlane, restyled from bumper to bumper for the first time since its introduction three years ago. Although new styling makes the middleweight Fairlane look bigger, it remains about the size of the 1956 Ford on the outside and the 1959 Ford on the inside.

Dieting Can Be Zany Business

(Editor's Note — Trying to drop a few pounds has become a pretty familiar project with a lot of people. Mrs. Robert Grigg, 519 E. Chicago Blvd., just cheered her daughter through the loss of 17 lbs. or more so that she might meet the requirements of a nursing school in Saginaw. She shares with Herald readers one of the happy bits of nonsense she used when spirits dropped.)

I just had four double straight chocolate ice cream sodas. And as soon as I can stand up I'm going to order a hamburger with mayonnaise and mustard and catsup and whipped cream and gravy.

Hungry? I'm not hungry. I'm bitter.

Look. Two weeks ago I went on a diet. I really diet. I mean, I didn't even talk about it. And all I ate was one head of lettuce. So?

So yesterday I woke up gorgeous. Weak in the knees, maybe — but chic? I reeked.

Naturally, I blazed forth to celebrate. And honestly, all I had were a couple of thin nogs and the littlest bit of cheese. And do you know, this morning every one of those silly five pounds are right back in their little nest!

I AM A MOUSE in a maze. Up. And down. Put it on. Take it off. It will never cease. Die means "death," and ting means "to make a high sound." Put them together and what have you got? Screaming death.

It's just that it's forever. At least if you're in a plaster cast you can stand it because you know someday you'll be out of the plaster cast. But if you diet and suffer and lose five pounds — they don't really go away. They just follow you around the rest of your life waiting to hop on again.

There are days when the only thing in the world that keeps me going is my unwavering faith that there will be no stomachs in Heaven.

Also these cute no-pain, no-strain diet routines are fast beginning to pall. You know, the candies and cookies and pills. Sure you can lose weight with them.

Because while you take the magic potion you have to follow the enclosed diet plan. These plans are gems. First day: 1 pill and ½ tip of asparagus. Second day: 1 tip of asparagus and ½ pill.

OR TAKE THE much-hooplaed diets. (Man, there ain't nothing I haven't tried.) The way you play this game is that you diet one day — off the next.

On D-days put a teaspoon of the secret powder in a glass of milk and — oh no, you don't drink it. When you get hungry you just go stir it awhile. Keeps your grabby little hands out of the cookie jar.

I suppose you could drink it, but it tastes like lavender chalk.

And speaking of "seeing your doctor first"—well, don't. I did. And he just gave me an inspired lecture on how I should change my eating habits. Give up fudge and Alexanders and muffins and roquefort dressing.

Change my eating habits? I'd rather diet!

★

BUT FRANKLY, the subject is making me paranoid. I haven't given up fudge yet, but lately when I buy some I've been hiding down in the cellar to eat it.

So, philosophically, something must be done.

It is too late for our generation. But if mothers would unite and instill in their sons the appreciation for round things — round-all-the-way-down things, I mean — it would be keen achievement in woman suffrage, and little girls would feel safe and secure and could grow up and out.

That is the thought for the day.

Flat Rock Rams Rated High

How does Coach Tom Fagan size up his Huron League opponents for the upcoming season?

"They're all tough, but look for Flat Rock and Airport to be the surprise teams," observed the Indian mentor.

The Rams lost only two from their starting eleven and could be a title contender.

Airport gets started with a sophomore team two years ago, but they're now grown up and ready. Airport has long been taken as a softie — but not this year.

THREE OTHER teams — Grosse Ile, Milan and Blissfield — should show some improvement over their '63 squads.

The Royals, despite seemingly great losses through graduation, are clamoring about taking the league championship. Their game with Tecumseh on Oct. 22 could be a crucial one for both teams.

GI and Milan always have given Tecumseh trouble, whether they have outstanding teams or not. Milan could be the best of the two, but GI consistently comes up with some surprises.

WHERE DO the Indians stand?

Tom Fagan refused to predict a championship, but said he'd be greatly disappointed if the Indians weren't right up there with the leaders.

Keeping Tecumseh out of the Huron League title race is about the only thing Ohio State and Big Ten throne — it takes some doing.

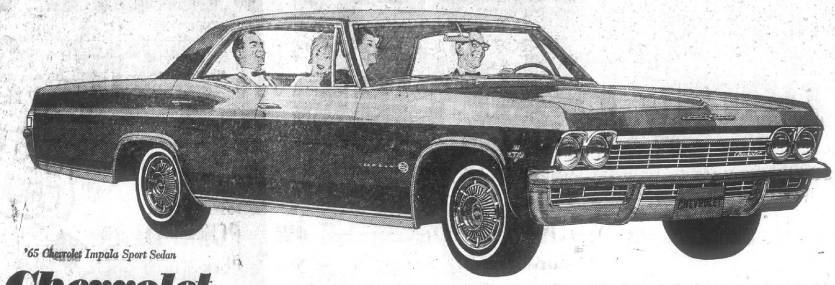
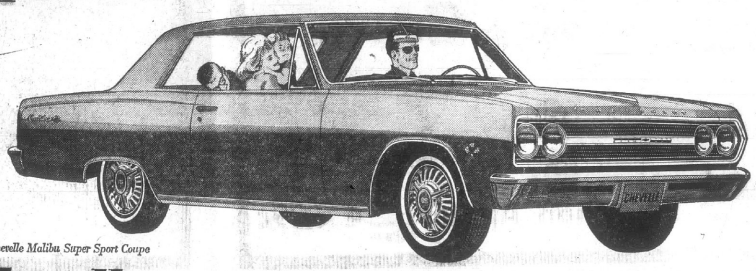
now! the beautiful shapes for '65



'65 Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan

Chevrolet Impala '65

It's longer, lower, wider—with interior comforts that'll have many an expensive car wondering why it didn't think of them first. More shoulder room, more leg room up front. Curved side windows, rich new fabrics and an instrument panel that's a conversation piece all by itself (in the Impalas it has the look of hand-rubbed walnut). In fact, just about everything's new right down to the road. And even that'll seem newer because the Jet-smooth ride is smoother than ever.



'65 Chevelle Malibu Super Sport Coupe

Chevelle Malibu '65

New style, new ride—and plenty of V8 stuff. Here's all that made Chevelle America's most popular new-sized car—plus some surprises that promise to make it come on even stronger. Like those cleaner, bolder lines. Like the silky way its new ride skims over the choppiest roads. Like V8 power that'll make you think we stole some of Corvette's stuff—which we did. All told, five engines are available from a quicker six to a V8 that comes on 300 horses strong.

'65 Chevy II Nova 4-Door Sedan

Chevy II Nova '65

It may very well be the expensive-est looking thrift car you've laid eyes on. But thrifty it is. The big difference being that Chevy II's marvelous mechanical efficiency now wears a debonair new look. And offers a new range of engines, including a new 300-hp V8. If you go by all the fine new features, you could get the idea that saving you money was about the last thing we had in mind. And in a way it was. Right up until we pasted on the price sticker.

New top-of-the-line Corvair Corsa Sport Coupe

CHEVROLET

Corvair Corsa '65

How's this for sport with an international flair? The longer, wider design gives all closed models a hardtop roof, accented by frameless curved side windows. It also allows more shoulder and entrance room. And to go with the racier look, there's up to 180 hp available in the new Corsa series, up to 140 hp in the Monza and 500 series. Also a flatter riding independent suspension system, bigger self-adjusting brakes, more responsive steering and a wider road stance.

Macon Notes

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE, JR.

Sunday, Sept. 27, will be observed as Christian Education Day in the Methodist Church.

Parents are invited to attend church school with their children at 9:45 a.m.

Churchmenship classes will be held Tuesday, Sept. 29 from 7 till 9 p.m. in the Adrian and Ypsilanti Methodist Churches. Sessions will continue each Tuesday for five weeks. Classes will feature new material and other topics. Anyone interested will be welcomed.

Mrs. Truman Jordan will be the hostess for the Oct. 1 meeting of the Faith Circle at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Charles Gorton Sr. will have the program on "A New Age Opens New Doors." Mrs. Dil Burleson will present devotions.

Mrs. Carl Hawkins, Mrs. Guy Zeluff, Mrs. Harold Ruhl, Mrs. Dean Moore and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore were in Dixboro Thursday afternoon for Ann Arbor District Program Planning meeting.

Members of the Mary-Martha Circle invite the public to come to a cafeteria supper Friday, Sept. 25, with serving at 5 p.m. They are having Swiss steak.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Travis and May Baker have returned from a trip to Pork City, Ky. where they visited friends for several days. En route home they called on relatives in Dayton and Sydney, O.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bigelow and son of Sault Ste Marie were Saturday callers of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow. They were en route home from a visit with his parents in Ohio.

Teri, Kathy and Beth Miller were Saturday overnight guests of their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller in Saline.

Mrs. James Thomas entertained at a picnic Thursday for the Macon Hobby Club. Following the dinner Mrs. Clayton Bigelow took charge of the business meeting. Mrs. Terry Ross, Mrs. Welch joined the club. Mrs. Ernest Gilbert of Saline was a visitor. Members of the group will take a trip to Cambridge Junction next month and tour Walker Tavern.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rhoades of Manchester entertained 16 members of the Young Adult group Saturday evening. The Rev. Ronald Corl had the meditation. The group had been bowling in Tecumseh before coming to the Rhoades. For the October meeting a progressive supper will be featured, starting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gorton Jr. They will go to the Dean Moore's and then to the Paul Hovers for dessert. The group meets on the third Saturday and welcome any young adult who wishes to join.

Mr. and Mrs. Galen McGowan of Jackson Center, O. were Saturday visitors in the Melvin Travis home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore were Sunday dinner guests of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore and son Rodney, in Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halliwell and infant son Sunday evening in Onsted.

Watershed Air Tours Lined Up

A birds-eye view of the River Raisin watershed will be offered to interested persons Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 when an air tour of the river basin will be conducted.

Plans of the trip are being made by three groups, the Lenawee and Monroe Soil Conservation Districts and the River Raisin Watershed Association, Inc.

Lloyd Ruesink, secretary of the Lenawee SCD and Harold Easton, RRWA president, are co-chairmen of the tour.

Ten planes are being provided by the Michigan Flying Farmers and Jacobs' Flying Service.

Actually two tours will be offered, one to the southeast and a second to the northwest.

★

THE FLIGHTS will originate at the Tecumseh Products Airport, located on Stone Rd., northeast of Tecumseh. Persons making the tour will have their choice of which tour they take.

The flight to the southeast will be over Tecumseh, Adrian, Palmyra, Blissfield, Deerfield, Petersburg, Dundee and back to Tecumseh.

The northwest trip will be over Tecumseh, Clinton, Manchester, Brooklyn and back to Tecumseh.

Both trips will be about 45 air miles in length and will take about 30 minutes.

The tour will be open to the public. An announcement of ticket sales will be made as soon as final details are worked out. They will be available on a reserved time basis.

Flights will be made between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Oct. 31 and from 1 to 4 p.m. on November 1.

★

PATRONS OF the air tour will also be treated to numerous educational displays to be set up on the ground at the air strip. Sponsors of the tour plan a pre-flight briefing for all those taking the trip to give them an indication of what to look for when they get into the air.

Assisting the three sponsors with the River Raisin Air Tour is the Adrian Area Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber President Allan Graybiel has appointed Fred Rex to work with the tour committees in developing flight details and briefing the pilots who will be doing the flying.

ADDITIONAL HELP is also being received from members of several Lenawee and Monroe county FFA chapters, who will help with the selling of tickets and the loading of the planes the day of the tour.

The Lenawee County Extension Service is also assisting in preparing publicity for both the tour and the ground displays.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Lanning and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McConnell have returned from a week's vacation at South Branch.

Practical Nurses Graduate

Three from the Tecumseh area were among the 60 graduates of the Ann Arbor Practical Nurse Education Center when exercises were held in the auditorium of the Ann Arbor High School Sept. 3.

Mrs. Paul Velandra, 213 W. Logan St.; Carol Marks of Britton and Mrs. James Shandley, Raisin Center Hwy. are the graduates.

MRS. PAUL VELANDRA

CAROL MARKS

MRS. JAMES SHANDLEY

They are all presently employed at Bixby Hospital, where they were affiliated for hospital experience in connection with their courses.

★

THE PRACTICAL nurses are given four months of theory in Ann Arbor from 8:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. each day and then receive clinical affiliation at a hospital in their own county with one-half day class room work and one-half day with a hospital instructor.

During the clinical affiliation period they receive 50c an hour for their work.

Most hospitals pay practical nurses about $12.31 per day. Practical nurses take a big load from the regular staff.

Mrs. Velandra said, "It's the only thing I've ever wanted to do."

Mother of seven, Mrs. Velandra worked at Herrick Memorial Hospital for seven years and Bixby one year before taking the practical nursing course.

LOCAL BUSINESS

Advertising works best if it reaches the consumer when he is in the proper mood and attitude.

This axiom, widely accepted by marketing experts, accounts for major food stores spending from 75 to 100% of their advertising budgets in newspapers.

Grocery advertising fills a need which is valued by the busy American housewife. It saves her time and money which could be translated into billions of dollars annually.

Grocery advertising provides the latest information at a time when it is most wanted. It is complete; it tells where to buy and what to buy. It gives specific details on prices.

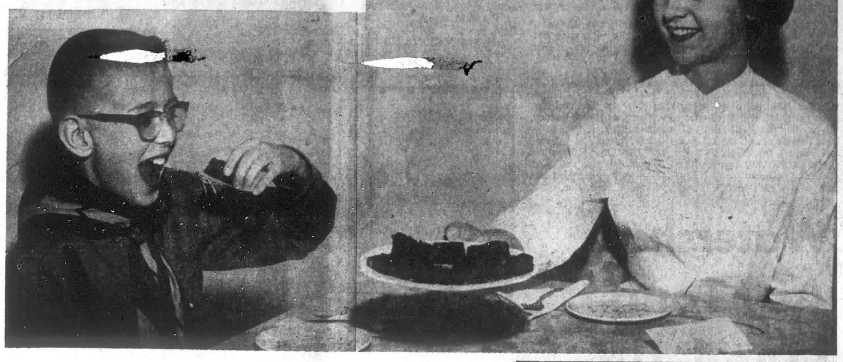
Important to the housewife and retailer alike, grocery advertising in the newspaper is accepted without question. It is a convenient basis for a shopping list in which the housewife has full confidence.

Buying is certain to follow advertising accepted under such conditions. Grocery stores have not found a medium which duplicate the local newspaper in creating such conditions at so little cost.

The grocers' choice of the local newspaper as a primary information outlet is not a matter of speculation. Sales are the surest and best test. The larger grocers have tried all

But after experiments they return to the local newspaper as the best medium for reaching the housewife when she is "in the proper mood and attitude."

SHARON AIDS DIABETIC — Sharon Burleson (right) contributed the recipe for Diabetic Brownies which resulted in the immense pleasure of her young patient, Jackie King, 12, on the left. Miss Burleson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burleson, 7120 Pennington Rd., completed her diabetic internship at Colorado State Hospital in June. She is presently employed as head dietician of the employees' cafeteria there. Sharon's interest in Jackie's problem resulted in this picture printed in The Pueblo Star-Journal and Sunday Chieftain.



Eldridge Model 'T' Takes First

Eugene and James Eldridge were awarded first place in divisional car judging Sept. 13, at the Old Car Festival at Greenfield Village.

They also won first place in the cranking and drag race.

The 1909 Model T entered by the two young men has taken up much of their leisure time during the past two years since they purchased it.

It was the only entry from the Tecumseh area. The Eldridge brothers live at 1571 Taylor Rd.

All blue ribbon winners were judged for authenticity and were required to have their entries in working order.

The Model T was also one of those competing in the grand championship finale.

Cars from 1896 to 1916 were represented by many makes and styles.

Proceeds Help Girls

Poinsettias will brighten Tecumseh streets Friday and Saturday, Oct. 2 and 3, when Mothers of World War II sell the gay red posies.

Proceeds from the sale are used for veterans and their families. This past year, two girls whose parents were killed in an auto accident leaving them without relatives, were assisted.

The older girl was furnished money and clothing to complete her senior year in high school and her little sister was financed in a boarding home.

The Mothers keep on hand comforters they have tied off to be used for families that have burned out.

They assisted a family this past year in the amount of $50.

★

MAGAZINES, books, lap robes, bibs, scuffs and other articles are made and purchased for eight different hospitals in the state including those in Ann Arbor, Dearborn and Battle Creek.

The ladies also furnished and attend hospital parties for the patients in the three aforementioned hospitals.

Financial assistance is sent for parties in other hospitals outstate.

Mrs. Leonard B. LaCoe, president, will be assisted during the sale by Mrs. Thomas Brehmer, Mrs. Homer Proutfoot, Mrs. Tony Pierceal, Mrs. Louis Jackson, Purl Young, Irene Spangler and other members.

KNOW Your Doctor . . .

Some folks just don't try to know their Doctor. Actually it's wrong to conceal or neglect sickness now, or to let it grow to serious or fatal proportions, simply to save your Doctor's small fee.

The better plan is to know your Doctor, and let him know your system and its needs. It will actually save you money, and will bring great peace of mind.

City May Get More Ice Rinks

Superintendent of parks and recreation, Donald Moffatt, was the guest speaker at the Child Study Club Monday, Sept. 14.

The club met at the home of Mrs. Robert Ries with 23 members. Mrs. Robert Lepp was a guest.

The program was discussed for the coming year and the new yearbooks were passed out.

Roll call was answered by how the members spend their summer.

The program "opportunity for family enrichment" was in charge of Mrs. Hugh Des Ermia with several members helping.

★

MR. MOFFATT told of the facilities and program offered by the recreation department for the summer and of the increase in participants from a year ago. Overall they were high.

He told of plans for more ice skating rinks and possibly use the Pit and add lighting to it.

Mr. Moffatt said, if there are enough people interested they would have one evening for adults at the Community Center.

The program was closed with a question-and-answer period.

Mrs. Richard Gates and Mrs. Norman Bilby were the co-hostess and the favors were made by Mrs. William Adams, Mrs. Keith Barron and Mrs. Gene Bosche.

The October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. William Snook, with the program topic on the Lenawee Youth Center, the group will tour the Center earlier in the afternoon.

Red Cross Volunteers Are Sought

The Lenawee County Chapter of the American Red Cross will offer a training course for volunteers in October.

At present volunteers help at the Chapter House, at Maple Lane Manor, Bixby Hospital, the Girls' Training School, Herrick Memorial Hospital and Herrick Nursing Home, as well as with the county-wide Bloodmobile visits.

Anyone interested may call the Chapter House, 263-1904.

Goodwill Pay Tops $10,000

Goodwill Industries of southeastern Michigan has reached a new milestone in its operation in Lenawee and Monroe Counties.

The payroll to handicapped workers totaled over $10,000 for the month of August, the first time in the six-year history of Goodwill.

Last August the payroll was $7,921. This represents a 30% increase.

For the first eight months of 1964, the payroll has been $65,950 compared with $49,733 for the same period last year.

Executive Director Claude Whitehead pointed out that 3½ million pieces of contract work were processed during August.

The most significant result of this growth is the hiring of 10 new handicapped people.

New hirees during August include an ex-advertising man confined to a wheelchair by Parkinson's disease; a woman severely crippled by polio at an early age; two young clients with brain damage; a deaf-mute woman unemployed for 11 years.

These people are now either totally independent or at least semi-dependent, and earning their own way in an independent society.

Vocational evaluation and training programs for the mentally-retarded and cerebral palsied students attending Lenawee Institute will be resumed.

Plan Consultant Service Is Sought

A planning consultant service is being sought by the city.

The organization will work with the City Planning Commission, Chairman Joe Rice was authorized to cooperate with City Manager Cal Zorn on making the selection.

G. Racey Appointed Instructor

George L. Racey, 503 Adrian St., has been appointed a Home Firearms Safety Instructor by the National Rifle Association, sponsor of a new course designed to help reduce shooting accidents in the home.

The NRA course promotes safety among those who normally do not use firearms for recreation, but have them in their home. It emphasizes the recognition of unsafe practices and conditions and points out how to correct them.

Mr. Racey was awarded an NRA instructor's certificate following successful completion of a written examination.

He is now qualified to conduct the course locally. It runs about four hours and requires no shooting range since actual firing is not included.

THE NEW COURSE supplements the NRA's 13-year-old Hunter Safety Course, which has been instrumental in helping to reduce accidents in the field.

Nearly two million students have completed this course. In this time, the total number of hunting accidents has declined, while the number of hunters has increased.

For further information concerning either course, contact Program Division, National Rifle Association, 1600 Rhode Island Ave., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Founded in 1871, the NRA is a non-profit organization supported entirely by individual and club membership fees.

Payments to Jobless Take Dip

Lenawee County employers hired 198 workers through the Adrian office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission during August.

This is the largest number of applicants placed during a month since May, 1958. Only 15 were temporary jobs.

Manufacturing employers hired 140 individuals, wholesale and retail trades establishments hired 21 individuals.

THE ADRIAN OFFICE of the Employment Security Commission paid 320 Lenawee County unemployed individuals 1,341 checks amounting to $50,536 in August.

One month earlier, the dollar value of unemployment compensation payments amounted to $72,507 to 435 individuals.

A year ago, benefit payments to Lenawee County unemployed individuals totaled $134,659 in August.

Lenawee Will Receive $72,708 for Road Funds

Lenawee County will receive $72,708 in a breakdown of the apportionment of federal matching funds for construction on state and county secondary roads, said State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie recently.

Michigan counties will receive $5.4 million, with federal funds being matched by counties on a 50-50 basis for construction purpose only.

The money is allocated to the county on the basis of land area, population and road mileage.

Of the $8.5 million grant in federal funds, the state highway department will retain 39 per cent for use on its secondary system.

2 Are Named to Committee

The Rev. Paul Brantingham, pastor of the Tecumseh Friends Church, and Robert Hamilton, 914 W. Logan St., were named to a special Planning Commission committee.

They'll serve on the subdivision regulations group in cooperation with Chairman Joe Rice and City Manager Cal Zorn.

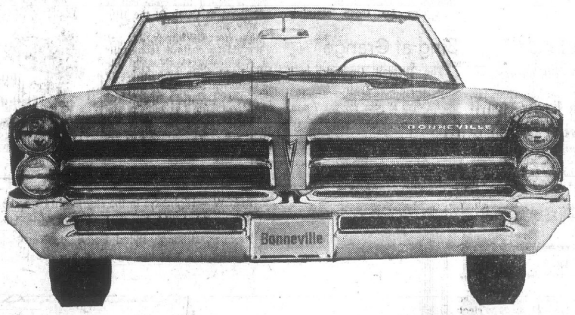
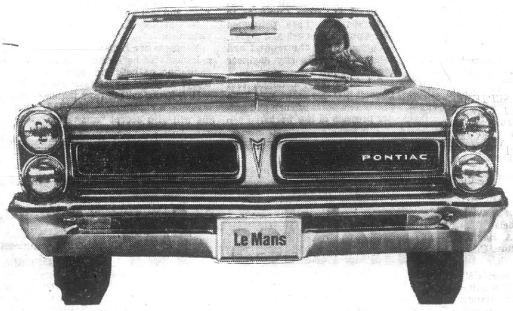
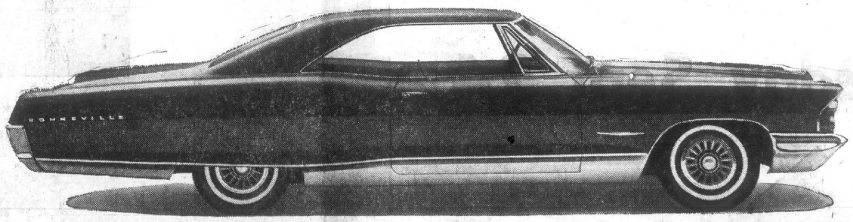
Today is '65 Pontiac Day.

1965: The year of the Quick Wide-Tracks

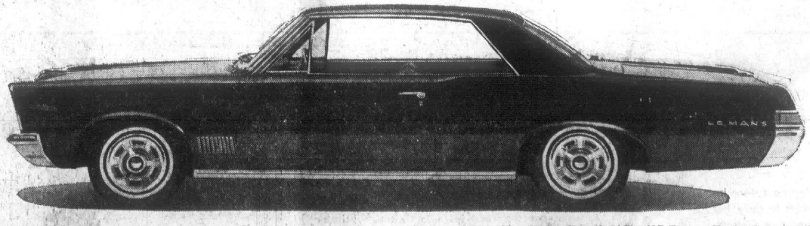




What do we mean by "quick"? Just this: A new-all-over Pontiac Pontiac offering a new Turbo Hydra-Matic—the silkiest, swiftest-shifting automatic transmission you ever touched a toe to; eager new Trophy V-8 power; new steering agility; a surer-footed Wide-Track ride. And a new Pontiac Tempest that's become even more of a Pontiac with new style, new length and Pontiac-quick reflexes to match. You never knew cars could be so beautiful, and so keenly alert to your touch. This is your year to drive a Wide-Track—quick!



'65 Pontiac Pontiac How does the success car outdo itself for 1965? Beautifully, just beautifully. But this Pontiac has no intention of getting by on looks alone, though it could. So there's new quickness, Pontiac style. A new nimbleness. New fuel savings. A smooth, easy new ride. Drive a '65 Pontiac and see how one success leads to another.



'65 Pontiac Tempest Tempest's even more of a Pontiac now, and what more could a car be than that! The '65 Tempest looks like a Pontiac, as you can see. Rides like a Pontiac on Wide-Track. Goes like a Pontiac, too: a 140-hp six is standard. Or you can get a quick V-8, up to 285 hp. You'll wonder how we can keep the price so low on so much car.

300 Attend Hoaglands' Open House

BRITTON — Over 300 friends, relatives and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland attended the open house Sunday afternoon at the Congregational Christian Church, honoring the couple on their 40th wedding anniversary.

Their grandson, Tom Tucker, and nephews, Rick and Jeff Patterson, greeted the guests at the door and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Tucker, Charles Paterson and Al Musson were hosts.

Mrs. Clarence Starkweather, mother of Mrs. Hoagland, and her granddaughter, Tammie Tucker, were in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Larry Patterson, Mrs. Jack Patterson, Mrs. Lee Musson and Mrs. Arnold Sell, nieces of the honored couple served punch.

Mrs. Charles Patterson and Mrs. Al Musson presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Gerald Benedict and Mrs. Clay Croll served the groom's cake.

*

MRS. HENRY KEMPF and Mrs. Percy Cadmus served the five-tier anniversary cake, which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Clair Morse.

Mrs. Lawrence Kirkton of Rochester and the Rev. and Mrs. G. O. Hannevik sang.

The refreshment table was centered with a floral arrangement of peppermint stick carnations and the theme of ruby and white was carried out throughout the Fellowship Center.

Sylvia Kirkton and Tammie Tucker assisted in opening the many gifts and floral arrangements from guests of Cleveland and North Canton, O., Richmond, Rochester, Flint, Ypsilanti, Adrian, Tipton, Clinton, Tecumseh and the surrounding area.

Others assisting at the reception were, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Röhrback, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Dicks, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ash, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Morse, Henry Kempf, Percy Cadmus, Gerald Benedict and Jack and Larry Patterson.

Plenty of Work on Curb, Gutter for City Crews

Residents along two blocks of S. Pearl St., from Cummins to Patterson Sts., have petitioned City Council for curb and gutter.

Council OKed the request and referred it to the city engineer for scheduling.

Cal Zorn, city manager, told Council that city crews now have nearly two years of curb and gutter projects in the works.

OFF TO THE PICNIC — Fifteen from the Herrick Nursing Home including Mrs. Anna Sweet, above, were entertained by members of the Hospital Auxiliary Sept. 16. Helping Mrs. Sweet of Clinton into the car are Mrs. Robert Sage, nurse Joan Hart and Dorothy Jewell, an aide. Two station wagons and four passenger cars were used to transport the patients to the Hayes State Park at Wamplers Lake for a picnic dinner prepared by the hospital kitchen staff. Mrs. Lenore Westgate and Miss Jewell accompanied members of the auxiliary, Mrs. Sage, Mrs. Neville Hart, president, Mrs. Hugh Andrews, Mrs. William MacBeth, Mrs. James Barton, Mrs. Ted Rundell and Mrs. C. W. Hanna. The day was so enjoyed by the group that plans have been made for a color tour in October.

14 Girl Scout Leaders Gather

Fourteen Girl Scout Troop leaders of Tecumseh Neighborhood and Mrs. Wayne Balliet, District advisor, met at the Scout Cabin Thursday to make local plans and learn of council events.

Mrs. Stanley Kruse presided as chairman.

Members are hoping that soon a leader will be elected and organization of both old and new troops may get underway.

Mrs. Kruse will answer inquiries until a chairman is installed. She will also accept "kits" from leaders who have resigned their positions.

Mrs. Kruse urged that these be returned without delay.

Calendar sales plans were reviewed. The sale will be conducted from Nov. 16 to Dec. 1 with orders sent to the office no later than Oct. 15.

Mrs. Richard Dustin will be chairman of distribution.

Policies for troop camping were given to the leaders.

All leaders present desired district camping again on Junior and Cadette levels.

It is hoped that time can be scheduled at Camp O' the Hills in May.

Mrs. Harry Withrow, Jr., volunteered to chair a scout rally in celebration of Founder Juliette Low's birthday anniversary in October.

Mrs. Jack Curtiss volunteered to chair a Yule Log hunt in December for Cadettes.

Sweet Adelines Sing at Grange

The Irish Hills Chapter of Sweet Adelines will present a program of music Thursday, Sept. 24, for Booster Night at the Tecumseh Grange Hall.

The Driscoll Orchestra will provide music for dancing.

Each family will bring chicken and a dish to pass for the 7 p.m. dinner.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

BOOST EGG PRODUCTION with artificial light during the fall when the day length grows shorter. Decreasing day length has a depressing effect on hens' egg production. Set time clocks to turn lights on long enough in the morning and evening to maintain a 15½-hour day. The clock should be reset periodically to adjust for later sunrise and earlier sunsets. The sun sets an average of 8½ minutes earlier each week.

BEGINNING CORN HARVESTING when moisture is about 26 to 28 percent will pay the cost of drying by reducing harvest losses. At this time corn is standing well, reducing clogging of the harvester. Under 22 percent moisture, field losses of ear corn increase sharply. By starting harvest at the higher moisture levels you will just about be finished by the time losses become excessive. Losses vary widely depending on the harvesting system. Picker-huskers average 15 percent loss; picker-shellers, 8 percent; and corn combines, 5 percent.

FINELY-GROUND FEED improved rate of gain and feed efficiency of growing-finishing pigs in recent Indiana trials. However, labor and power required increased with this type of ration. Feeding shelled corn and supplement free-choice brought the slowest gains for pigs in the experiment. In other tests, a mixture of four parts haylage and one part corn proved to be an excellent feed for gestating sows and gilts.

CATTLE PRICES SHOULD HOLD STEADY into late October. Move fed cattle out as they reach proper weight and grade. Schedule sales earlier for those that can be pushed along to finish next month. Increasing receipts will mean weaker prices.

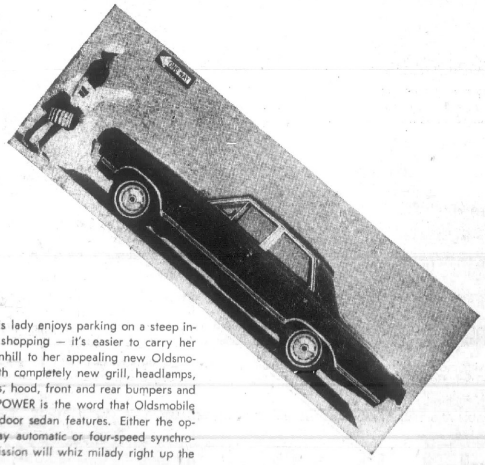
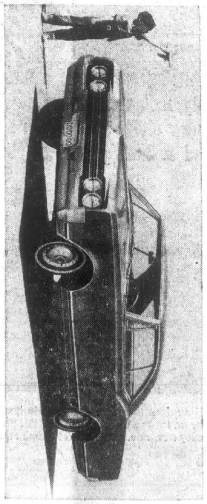
Oldsmobiles for '65 Will Arrive at Keith Bailey Motors Thursday, Sept. 24



RIGHT — This lady enjoys parking on a steep incline when shopping — it's easier to carry her bundle downhill to her appealing new Oldsmobile F-85 with completely new grill, headlamps, front fenders, hood, front and rear bumpers and tail lamps. POWER is the word that Oldsmobile Deluxe four-door sedan features. Either the optional Jetaway automatic or four-speed synchromesh transmission will whiz milady right up the hill.



ABOVE — Ready for blast-off is the distinctively new Delta 88 Holiday Coupe, powered by Oldsmobile's new 425-cubic-inch Super Rocket engine with optional Turbo-Hydramatic transmission. Rocket action tapered design of the Holiday Coupe is complemented by a fashionable interior with a sporty front seat with split back and dropping center arm rest to keep astronauts comfy in flight.

BELOW — Highways in the sky might be a challenge, but roads on earth float by as you ride in this impressive new Oldsmobile Jetstar 88 Holiday Sedan with its roomier, strikingly-styled body. Jetfire Rocket engine and optional Jetaway transmission feel like you're flying on smooth air, lifted by redesigned chassis with sweeping new roof line.

Class of '65 Lends Hand on Project

Tecumseh High School's Class of 1965 has lent a helping hand to the Booster Club.

Members of the class poured the floor and apron of the refreshment stand along with some other improvements at the press box at Recreation Field.

The Booster Club plans to lay bricks on the north and south end of the press box.

At present, there is a debt of $33.78 on the original building. It is expected this shall be retired by the Oct. 9 game with Milan.

A total of $30.85 from parking was realized at the Willow Run game.

Anyone interested in joining and promoting the Booster Club can contact Wallace MacGeorge, 423-7101.

30 and Up Will Hold Fall Dance

The first fall dance of the YMCA's 30 and Up Club will be held Friday, Sept. 25, from 9 until 12 p.m. at the Jackson Y.

There will be door prizes and refreshments.

Bill Manthei Orchestra featuring Al Gamez will play for dancing.

Buick '65 Buick

We changed the Buick a lot this year. And you may never be the same again yourself.

We doubt you'll want to be the same. Not once you set eyes on our new Buicks. On the Buick Special and the Skylark. The LeSabre, Electra 225, Riviera. And on the sleek, modified fastback of the wild, wilder, Wildcat in the picture. True, there's a new high-style touch. But that's hardly all. Engineering still has the emphasis. It's a Buick tradition. So are the extras Buick spends a little extra on. Like finned brake drums that do a little better. And smoother drivelines. A tuned suspension to smooth ribcage roads. Now add Buick's Super Turbine transmissions—and you have an idea of what Buick owners have always liked about Buick. We think you'll feel the same.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick

TORY SCHOOL NEWS

By KAY BENEDICT

Homecoming has caused a lot of excitement at Britton High this week.

Lots of things must be done to make a Homecoming a success.

Dance, float theme, and plans were discussed at the Student Council meeting Tuesday. They formed committees for the dance, historical sayings were chosen for the float themes, and other plans were made to make the homecoming a success.

Queen candidates, nominated by the football team Tuesday night after school, are Mary Anne Komon, Sharen Mann and Brenda Palmer.

√

Student Council officers election was held Monday. This year's officers are:

President — Barry Branham
Vice-president — Jack Brown
Secretary — Sharen Mann
Treasurer — Ginger Frazier.

√

Homecoming, PTA Fun Nite, and dues were the topics at the senior class meeting.

The seniors formed committees for both the homecoming and Fun Nite. They voted on $6 for class dues.

√

King and Queen were elected in the junior class meeting. Their King is Jack Brown and Queen Mary Lou Servoss.

√

Larry Ash was elected King and Pam Judkins Queen at the sophomore class meeting. The sophomores discussed their raffle for Fun Nite.

Homecoming plans were the big topic at the freshman and eighth grades class meetings.

Joan Check was elected FHA Princess Thursday night after school.

The Tories lost their first football game to Clinton last Friday, 48-0.

√

The [illegible] was elected the Reflector and Annual Staffs.

The Reflector staff assembles the school newspaper and the annual staff assembles the Britonian.

$3,123 Is Donated to Building Fund of Baptist Church

BRITTON—The annual meeting of the Bethel Baptist Church was held Saturday.

Members gathered to listen to the year's reports and note the progress toward the new building fund. It was reported that $3,123.39 had been contributed as of Sept. 20.

Twenty-three new members joined the church this year swelling the membership to 106. The average attendance for the year was 120 a the morning worship, 127 at Sunday school and 73 for the evening service, an increase of 47 in two years.

Professions of faith in Christ were made by 83 persons.

Those baptized totaled 20.

★

THE NEED for a new building to accommodate the growing membership was recognized last September.

Members of the Heavenly Sunshine Class, on their own initiative, started the building fund wih an offering of $10.

Of the more than $3,000 contributed so far, $550 has been used to engage the service of an architect.

A scale model of the new church has been constructed.

A climax to the year was the observance of the 25th anniversary of the church.

$1,700 Goal

BRITTON — Annual fund drive for the Britton-Macon Community Fund Foundation will begin Monday, Oct. 12, for one week.

The Rev. G. O. Hannevik, chairman for the drive, announces that the goal for this year is set at $1,700.

A number of gift books were received during the summer from Mrs. Helen Millyard and Mrs. Lilah Hittle.

Library hours are 11:30 to 5 Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and 1 to 4 on Saturday.

24 Attend Crusade

BRITTON — A group of 24 from the Congregational Christian Church attended the Teen Life Crusade at Dawson Auditorium in Adrian Saturday evening.

Dr. Sherwood Wirt, editor of Decision magazine, was the speaker for the evening.

Fun Nite Features Thrift Shop

BRITTON — A thrift shop and white elephant sale will be attractions of Fun Nite at Britton-Macon School, Saturday, Oct. 3.

Mrs. John Beal and Mrs. Walter Prill, co-chairmen of the thrift shop, are asking that anyone having items to donate please take them to either of their homes.

If you have no way of taking the items, you may call the chairmen, they may also be taken to the school by 3 p.m. on Oct. 3.

Knick-knacks, small furniture and toys are some of the items needed.

COMING EVENTS

THURSDAY, SEPT. 24

Have Daughter

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anspach received word last week of the birth of a new granddaughter in Italy.

Adrianna Gena weighed 7 lbs., 6¾ oz. when she arrived at the hospital in Verona, Italy, August 24.

Her parents are Spec. 4 and Mrs. Charles Anspach.

Pictures of Hawaii Are Shown

BRITTON — About 70 persons attended Family Night Sept. 16 in the Fellowship Center of the Congregational Christian Church.

Duets Class members were hosts for the cooperative supper, which preceded the showing of color[illegible] by Lt. James Wood.

Lt. Woods and his family spent the past three years in Hawaii while he was stationed there with the army.

His slides were many and varied, including most of the points of interest on the several islands, from the beach at Waikiki, Pearl Harbor, the Army and Air Force installations and several active and inactive volcanoes and craters.

Following the program, a short meeting was held by members of the class and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Tucker volunteered as hosts for the next meeting, Wednesday, Oct. 21, to be held in the Fellowship Center.

Lutheran Hour Starts 32nd Year

BRITTON — The 32nd broadcasting season of The Lutheran Hour, world-wide radio mission co-sponsored by the Emmanuel Lutheran Church of Britton, begins Sunday.

The broadcast will be heard on CKLW at 12:30 p.m.

Dr. Oswald Hoffmann will begin his 10th year as Lutheran Hour speaker.

He recently returned from a meeting of the United Bible Societies in Driebergen, Holland and this fall will attend the vatican Council at the invitation of the Roman Catholic Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity.

In the season opening Lutheran Hour Broadcast, the world renowned churchman will inaugurate a series of programs based on St. Paul's Letter to the Romans.

DR. HOFFFMANN will explain, "The word Paul used for 'power' when he spoke of the 'power of God for salvation' is the same one from which we get our word 'dynamite' today. 'I am not ashamed of the Gospel,' said St. Paul; 'it is the dynamite' of God for the salvation of men — for ALL Men Everywhere'. (Romans 1:16).

Broadcast in 21 languages, The Lutheran Hour is heard by at least 30 million persons each week in more than 120 lands. Headquartered in St. Louis, it has 24 branch offices around the world.

The sole purpose of the broadcast is expressed in its motto, "Bringing Christ to the Nations."

It is sponsored by the Lutheran Laymen's League, 142,000-member affiliate of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, producers of TV's "This Is the Life."

The same spiritual blessings offered each Sunday at Emmanuel Church in services at 10:30 a.m. and in Sunday School and Bible classes at 9:30 a.m.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By BARRY FLYNT

Boysville began its school year on Sept. 8 with several changes in the faculty.

Transferred were Brothers Oliver and Roger, who were assigned to Holy Cross High School in River Grove, Ill., and Brothers James Caley and Paul.

Brother James is studying at Notre Dame University preparing to take up duties in the foreign missions of East Pakistan next February.

Brother Paul is teaching at St. Patrick's High School in Monrovia, Liberia.

To take the places of the four Brothers, Boysville's faculty added Brother James Greteman, CSC, who came to the school from Dacca, East Pakistan; Brother Richard Emge, CSC, who taught at Holy Cross High School in River Grove; Brother Stephen Withey, CSC, who taught at St. Joseph High School in South Bend; and Brother Gerald Liston, CSC, who was stationed at Reitz Memorial High School in Evansville.

Also changed was the Rev. Fr. Harry Stegman, CSC, presently engaged in parish work at Christ the King Church in South Bend, Ind.

The Rev. Fr. Mark Thompson, chaplain at the Milan Federal Penitentiary, substituted for a month until the arrival of Boysville's new chaplain, tht Rev. Fr. Gabriel DesHarnais from Detroit.

The front corridor of Boysville's school building is now graced with a handsome picture of the late President John F. Kennedy.

The picture, a color sketch by a General Motors artist, was presented by William Sullivan, a Vice Supreme Master of the Knights of Columbus. It is framed beautifully and has non-reflecting glass for better viewing.

√

Boysville bi-weekly mimeographed newspaper, The Campus Info, has gone electric. During the summer a brand new electric mimeograph machine was purchased for the school.

The machine will, of course, be used to print up forms, letters, programs, etc., in addition to the school paper.

Brothers Robert and Thomas, the moderators of the Campus Info, expressed their satisfaction with the new machine. There is little comparison, they felt, between the new one and the old hand-cranked model.

Try-outs for the cheerleading squad were conducted in the gymnasium Sept. 14. Brother Thomas Friel, CSC, moderator of the cheerleaders, appointed four boys to the team; David Levites, Arden Valentine, Christopher Jordan and Willie Dozier.

The cheerleaders were put to work on Saturday evening, when Boysville met St. Charles of Coldwater in football at Coldwater. Cheerleaders remaining from last year's squad are Richard Cowan, Bannie Thomas and Wayne Toms.

√

The Freshman class, under the direction of Brother Gerald Liston, CSC, conducted its first activity of the season, sponsoring a marshmallow roast near their recreation hall. Music for the occasion was furnished by a Boysville singing group led by Greg Gard and Scott Heinske.

√

Boysville's intramural football season began last week under the direction of Brother Aloysius, CSC.

Brother and several of the boys got together and picked out teams to compete in touch football contests throughout the fall season. The teams are divided into two leagues, the major and minor.

Teams compete for emblems, which are awarded to the champlonship club in each league.

Boysville's varsity Fighting Knights lost Saturday to Coldwater St. Charles High School, 12-7, in the opening football game of the year for both teams.

Although the Knights fought to come from behind in the third quarter, the Cougars drove ovtr for an additional score late in the fourth period to cap the victory.

Boysville's team is composed principally of sophomores and juniors.

Coach Pat Conners and his assistant, Ken Romain, are filling in the vacancies with inexperienced boys.

Brother Romain, CSC, Boysville's Athletic Director, stated that "the squad has only seven players back from last year. Our line is not strong yet and our biggest strength in the backfield is Moe Jacobs" (Lenawee County scoring champion last year).

The game with St. Charles indicated that Boysville's inexperienced team has great potential.

Moe, hampered by a thigh muscle injury, lacked his usual speed, but still managed to score one touchdown in a fine end run and to do well on defense in the secondary.

Don Chalmers, running at halfback, showed good speed and power.

The defensive team showed decided improvement over last year and should be increasingly tough to break through as the season goes on.

The Knights' next contest is at Deerfield Friday. It will be the first River Raisin League game for the Knights this year.

√

A pep rally preceded Boysville's first football game. Held during the last school period of the day on Friday, the rally featured introduction of the team, talks by Coach Pat Conners and Brother Philip, CSC, Director of Boysville, musical selections by Greg Gard's vocal and instrumental group and yells led by the newly-appointed cheerleaders.

Several small skits were presenttd during the rally, which was under the direction of the cheerleaders and their moderator, Brother Thomas, CSC.

A new truck — new to Boysville, that is — was donated to the school recently by Spike Lawrence of Detroit.

The truck is a white International model, formerly utilized in laundry delivery. Housing a rebuilt motor and new paint job, the truck will prove to be handy for innumerable campus and off-campus errands as soon as the proper licensing can be obtained.

PRESENTING Cadillac FOR 1965

SO NEW! SO RIGHT! SO OBVIOUSLY CADILLAC!

The 1965 Cadillac is the most dramatically new Cadillac in sixteen years; new from chassis to rooftop and new from start to stop. Its remarkable styling—elegant, majestic and impressive as never before—establishes it instantly as an all-time Cadillac great. And not only is it an inspiration to look at—it is a revelation to drive! The marvelous responsiveness of Turbo Hydra-Matic is now standard on all eleven models. A new concept of frame and suspension gives the car incredible steadiness and levelness of ride—even under the severest conditions of cornering and handling. And there is quiet—a quiet beyond anything you imagined possible in a motor car! Cadillac's new and more spacious interiors are marvelously rich and luxurious—and include such personal options as an exclusive tilt and telescope steering wheel. Cadillac owner or Cadillac admirer—you owe yourself a journey at the wheel without delay.

You will know at once that this is—in every way—the new Standard of the World!

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

To Frank Angelo, managing editor of The Detroit Free Press, it "seems like 15 or 20 years ago" when the strike began.

Frank can't recall the exact number of days to date, but he'll probably never forget the kick-off of the walkout — July 13, 1964 at 5 p.m.

This makes the shutdown of Detroit's two dailies the longest on record, pushing towards three months.

Far from being "on vacation", Frank and other key Free Press people have been busy, working and preparing for the day that the presses begin rolling once more.

His staff is flung over much of the nation — all on loan. Frank's team of editors and writers will be back the minute there is an agreement between the papers and the two striking unions, the paper and plate handlers and the pressmen.

Down at The Miami Herald, a sister Knight paper, are drama editor Louis Cook, Jean Sharley, top feature writer, and John Millhone, an editorial writer.

Fred Olmsted, Free Press automotive editor, is doing public relations work for Campbell - Ewald Advertising Agency.

Industry and auto writer Tom Kleene, is helping out at public relations of Dodge Motor.

Harry Golden, Jr., is with the New York Post for the "duration".

Columnist Judd Arnett, real popular around these parts, is busy at his desk doing a special assignment.

Mrs. Jean Pearson, science and aviation writer, is one of several Free Press folks helping to produce The Detroit Daily Press, a temporary sheet that goes out each day to about 200,000 homes in the metropolitan area.

A few other FP'ers are stationed temporarily at The Charlotte (N. C.) Observer, which is also a Knight newspaper.

Members of Gov. George Romney's blue ribbon commission had personal commitments this week and union officials have an annual convention in Washington, so negotiations were discontinued, scheduled to be resumed Monday at 10 am.

Next week could be the turning point.

About three million Michiganders sincerely hope so.

Frank told me Tuesday, as we chatted by telephone about the strike, that the paper's offices have been completely refurbished and he has hired three top-flight editorial people to start work the day the Friendly Free Press goes back into action.

He has appointed a new city editor, Gene Roberts, former labor writer.

Take heart, folks, you should be finding that old friend on your doorstep one of these mornings soon— as welcome at many homes, as that first cup of coffee.

Church in City Gains Fame in Hong Kong

Because of its famous refrigerator compressors, the name Tecumseh is known the world over.

Tecumseh is also known in such far away places as Mito, Japan and Hong Kong, China, but for a completely different reason.

Standing in Mito, Japan, is a modest Lutheran Church building, a gift from the members of Grace English Lutheran of Tecumseh.

The erection of this Chapel, a church-to-church or hands across the sea project, was the result of Grace's second and third three-day Mission Weekends,

★

THIS YEAR the Mission Weekend idea, conceived, born, and raised in Grace Lutheran of Tecumseh, has been expanded to cover most of the Michigan District of the Wisconsin Synod.

Involved are seven Mission Weekends in various parts of the state, reaching into over 100 congregations of the Synod.

Called "Operation Hong Kong," the project is being directed and coordinated by the Mission Committee of Grace Lutheran.

The District goal is $25,000, which will be used by the newest mission of the Wisconsin Synod, the Christian Chinese Lutheran Mission of Hong Kong.

THE FOURTH Annual Mission Weekend of Grace English begins Friday with a 1:30 p.m. "Women For Christ Silver Tea".

Saturday's events are the "Children For Christ" program starting at 10 a.m. and the "Adult or Couples Night" starting with a steak supper at 6 p.m.

Holy Communion will be celebrated in both Sunday morning worship services, 9:30 and 10.45 a.m., and the Festival concludes with a special worship service at 4 p.m., followed by a Festival meal served by the Ladies Aid.

FEATURED SPEAKER for this Weekend will be Pastor Peter Chang of Hong Kong, who is not only the founder of the Christian Chinese Lutheran Mission, but is also the "father" of Hong Kong's famous roof-top schools.

Pastor Chang, a young energetic convert to Christianity from Budhism, directs the activities of over 1,000 souls who are gathered together in three congregations and two schools.

Much of the work of the mission revolves around the poor refugees of the city, most of whom have had to flee from the terror of the Communists of Red China.

Pastor Chang will be the main speaker at the "Tea" Friday. He will address the children on Saturday morning, take part in the round-table discussion of Saturday night and fill the pulpit Sunday afternoon.

Joining him to complete the mission team" will be Pastor James Schaefer of Milwaukee, the public relations director of the Wisconsin Synod; Pastor Leonard Koeninger of Lansing, and Pastor Edward Zell of Detroit.

Pastors Zell and Koeninger are members of the Wisconsin Synod's Board for World Relief. These three men will participate in all of the events of Saturday and Sunday.

Special Mission displays and colorful decorations are being prepared by many of the groups and organizations of Grace Lutheran so that the anticipated 1,300 members, guests and visitors may be stimulated both by sight and sound.

Members of the Mission Committee who plan and direct the activities are Gaza Kish, Allan Wagenschutz, Mrs. Douglas Maves, Mrs. Herbert Simon and Mrs. Richard Whelan.

Grace Lutheran Pastor Kurt F. Koeplin is cordially inviting interested people to all of these functions.

Prior reservations are requested for the Saturday evening supper only. Reservations may be made by calling the church office, 423-3716.

Seager Collection Will Be 'Nucleus' at Boston Library

Boston University's new library will contain an Allan Seager collection.

The Tecumseh novelist has given permission to a request from the eastern school for the special section.

BU chief of reference and special collections, Howard Gotlief, told Mr. Seager that the university is in the midst of planning a "magnificent new library on the Charles River campus."

It will be "a center of study and research in contemporary literature," Mr. Gotlief explained.

"It is our hope," he went on, "to collect the papers of outstanding contemporary literary figures, house and curate the materials under the optimum archival condition and attract to us scholars in the field who would utilize our institution as a research base.

"An Allan Seager collection would certainly be a distinguished nucleus around which this university could build a great literary center," he concluded.

MR. SEAGER is presently writing a new novel while on sabbatical from his University of Michigan teaching duties, where he instructs graduate English courses.

His past novels include Equinox, Amos Berry, The Inheritance, The Death of Anger and A Frieze of Girls.

A collection of his short stories appeared as The Old Man of the Mountain.

His fiction runs often in Saturday Evening Post, Esquire and many other popular magazines.

★

WHEN ESQUIRE editors several years ago asked playwright Arthur Miller whom he would like to do a biography on him, Mr. Miller named Mr. Seager.

While a student at Michigan, Seager swam on a Big Ten championship team under Matt Mann and later at Oxford University in England, where he was a Rhodes Scholar.

Mr. Seager is now facing the job of getting together various papers, drafts and correspondence for the Boston University collection.

Tipton Grange Booster Night Will Be Friday

TIPTON — Booster Night will be held at Tipton Grange Friday night with a turkey supper at 7:30 p.m. with dancing and cards to follow.

Grange members are invited to bring a prospective family as their guests.

Unless otherwise notified, members are to furnish buttered rolls, dessert and either a vegetable or salad and table service.

Bleacher Fund Richer by $400 from Dawn Patrol

A net profit of $400 for the Athletic Field Bleacher Fund from the Dawn Patrol was reported at the Exchange Club meeting Monday evening by Treasurer George Derby.

The Fund is set aside for use by the school board to extend the present permanent bleachers.

Members hope that other organizations and individuals will add their contributions that the necessary addition can be made in time for the 1965 football season.

Oncoming Car Crosses Line, Driver Swerves

CLINTON — Nancy F. Nichols, 37, of Adrian told Clinton State Police Sept. 22 that an unidentified car traveling in the opposite direction crossed the center line toward her at 7:20 a.m. on US-12.

She swerved to the right, lost control of her car and struck a tree.

The driver was not injured, but the car had to be towed away.

Cal's Tog Shop Will Relocate in Brandt Store

Cal and Helen Damon have purchased the former Brandt 5c and 10c store in downtown Tecumseh and plan to move their sportswear store, Cal's Tog Shop, there next month or early in January.

The store will be extensively remodeled by local contractor, Russell Cheever.

The building was purchased from Mrs. C. N. Brodersen.

Tells of Trip to S. America

IT'S SO EASY. Mrs. John J. Walper, who'll handle distribution of polio vaccine at Tecumseh Acres School Sunday, makes a test run with her niece, Molly Rudd, 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rudd, 507 Blanchard St. The tiny cubes of sugar will also be available at the Community Center. Feeding will take place from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Cubes of Sugar Help Fight Polio

Polio prevention, via a yummy sugar cube, is the goal for all Lenawee County residents Sunday.

In a mass county immunization program, little cubes of sugar will be given from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday to thousands of people under the direction of volunteer registered nurses.

Area locations and chairman include:

► Britton-Macon School — Mrs. W. T. Claxton

► Tecumseh Community Center — Mrs. Donald Geringer

► Tecumseh Acres School — Mrs. John Walper

► Clinton School — Mrs. Reuben Kjellman

For the huge undertaking, pharmacists have donated their time to dispense the vaccine, locations have been donated and custodians have offered to help set up and clean up the clinics.

Teachers are giving application forms to students for parents to bring to the Oct. 4 feeding.

A record will be sent to the family doctor and a portion given to the family for their own records.

Registration forms will also be available at the feeding stations.

PURPOSE OF THE mass feeding is to eliminate polio in Lenawee County. No person will be turned away, although a 50c donation for the vaccine will be accepted.

Ham radio operators, stationed at each location, will relay messages and questions to headquarters and also transmit supply needs.

Ministers have been asked to put reminders in church bulletins and to announce that the feeding stations will open at 11 a.m. Sunday.

Each person receiving the sugar cube will be given an identification card to fill out and carry in his wallet. Upon taking the second dose Dec. 6, the card will be stamped and no further registration will be necessary.

The cards are furnished by the Lenawee County doctors to allow each family to keep an accurate record of immunization and other medical history.

Fire Fighters Will Learn New Skills as Home Burns

Lenawee county firemen will use old skills and learn new ones during Field Day activities Oct. 4 and again Oct. 11.

The burning of half of a three-family house at Ford Rd. and M-50 will be the final event.

The back half of the house will be burned Oct. 4 with the front preserved for burning the following Sunday, Oct. 11.

A three car garage at the rear of the house is also to be preserved.

★

OTHER FIRE fighting skills will be used in second-floor rescues, attic and basement fires, closet and furniture fires.

Hose layouts and ladder work will also be included.

Since original plans were made, most of the doors of the residence have been removed as well as some of the plaster, which will permit greater fire travel and increase problems of restricting a blaze to the back half.

★

WATERBALL finals will begin at 1 p.m. in back of the Tecumseh Fire Station according to Tecumseh Chief Wallace MacGeorge. Teams will represent Palmyra, Madison, Hudson and Tecumseh departments in the county waterball finals.

Ladies from Madison and Morenci will stage a waterball exhibition.

A parade of fire equipment to the burning site will take place about 1:45 p.m. with a sheriff's posse on hand to handle traffic and parking.

Wives of the Tecumseh firemen will operate a lunch stand at the burning site.

Chief MacGeorge invites the public to "come out and watch your departments at work",

Wayne Ruhl Receives Highest Scouting Award

Wayne Ruhl received an Eagle Award in a ceremony performed by Frazier Tubbs at a meeting of Explorer Post 87 Sept. 27 at the VFW.

Mr. Tubbs, Wolverine Boy Scout Council executive, was assisted by Walter McCallum, district representative.

Mrs. Lester Ruhl pinned her son's award to his uniform and he gave her a necklace bearing the Eagle insignia. To his father, Wayne presented a tie clasp with the insignia,

The charter for the Explorer Post was presented to Dick Perry, institutional representative of the VFW Post 4187, which sponsored the Explorers.

Two certificates of recognition were awarded to Carroll Conklin and Journey Stoner for their assistance to the Explorer Post.

Richard Witt, Explorer Post advisor, closed the charter presentation ceremony. Cake and ice cream were served to guests by the VFW Auxiliary.

Deadlines Established

With the Herald growing steadily in both news and advertising content, a series of deadlines has had to be established.

Co-Publishers James Lincoln and Tom Riordan state that they must be followed without exception.

Tremendous buildups of late stories and ads on Wednesday press days triggered the need for a strict deadline schedule.

On the editorial side, copy deadlines will be as follows:

1. Weekend weddings — noon Monday.
2. Reports on meetings during the previous week — noon Monday.
3. Monday meetings — noon Tuesday.
4. Advance stories on coming events— noon Monday.

☆

ADVERTISING deadlines:

1. Real estate listings — 5 p.m. Monday.
2. Used car listings — noon Tuesday.
3. General display — 3 p.m. Tuesday.
4. Classified — 5 p.m. Tuesday.

Behind Page One

Anyone read the Detroit Free Press more than 65 years? Mel Partridge thinks perhaps he has a record. He and Emma have taken the Detroit daily all of their 57 years of married life and Mel read it a good many years before that. The strike has been no fun for them.

"Now don't throw The Herald away again before I've read it, Lee Fogelsong," scolded Roma. That happened Thursday night. She came hustling into the newspaper office Friday morning, complaining about her husband's tidying up spree of the evening before and to pick up another copy.

Democrats of Lenawee County are concentrating on a drive to have voters register, notes Chairman Jerry Horky. Last day is Oct. 5 — that's Monday — if you want to ballot in the Nov. 3 general election.

Speaking of elections, did you know a guy by the name of Grant Matthews may run for president? Tecumseh Players say you can get all details by seeing their "State of The Union", coming up the end of October.

Michigan's 385-mile I-75 freeway is titled this month as the "Most Scenic Highway in the United States." It does so at a time when the rugged woodlands which abound along its northernmost sections are splashed with blazing, multi-colored hues of red, yellow, green and gold.

Recent story on the old Sutton Place being made into offices for Stauffer Chemical Co. brought back memories to Bill Dettmann of Britton. Living across from the famed home, Bill recalls going there to get the mail, also to obtain vinegar. The Suttons had apple orchards, but never sold cider, only vinegar. Incidentally, Bill, who'll be 74 next week, is still actively employed as a carpenter at Boysville.

Don't sit on your seat belt. You could die neglecting to hook up.

We hope that observation of our new deadlines will permit a full slate of editorials each week. With stories and ads in early, we'll have time to prepare these words of wisdom.

Mrs. James Fielder, with The Herald for more than a year, is leaving to go into real estate sales with the Jack Schrum organization. Judy will continue as a correspondent for the Jackson Citizen Patriot ... and, we hope, do a yarn now and again for The Herald.

A Republican caravan will wend its way through Tecumseh Friday, Oct. 9, at about 1:30 p.m. Elly Peterson will be aboard with wives of state candidates. Lenawee County candidates are also expected. The jaunt is to start in Albion, hit Jackson, Adrian, Tecumseh, Ann Arbor and Monroe.

There is no more boot training for navy recruits — it's now basic. Stories from the Fleet Home Town News Center, about local lads in navy blue, made the change without fanfare in recent weeks, obviously following a top brass directive. Wonder how the old salts feel about this?

Tipton School Notes

THIRD GRADE

Third graders at Tipton School are learning about the different continents and oceans this year, Africa first.

We made a chart listing the different questions we wanted to answer about Africa. Many children have made a jungle with many animals and huts.

Some boys and girls have made African scenes at home. We are planning to have a play about Africa.

FIFTH GRADE

We are making fall designs with finger paints and chalk. In our Social Studies we are studying about Columbus and the discovery of the new world and we are making maps.

Rae Ann Outman is back with us. She has been sick with poison ivy.

We are enjoying our Mathematics. In it we are studying geometry.

In science, we have several projects. Chubb Crater, the moon and planets. We are making news reports. Some news reports are very good.

SIXTH GRADE

We brush our teeth every noon hour. We are going to make Social Studies projects. We are to also have a project for the science fair.

Our class writes a composition every week. We have written about trips this summer, pets and hobbies.

Yes, we have—

RELIC OF THE PAST — Solid gold antique pocket watch, featured in last week's Herald article on the Charles Des Ermia collection, is centered with half-carat oval diamond. Rose gold flowers and green gold leaves are overlaid on the case, which has an engraved border.

Watch Story Keeps Store Phone Busy

By JUDY FIELDER

I'm going to have another telephone installed at the store for business if this keeps up," joked Lyle DesErmia, after a hectic Thursday answering calls about the antique collection belonging to his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DesErmia.

The Herald article prompted 20 calls to the furniture store the day of publication.

Charles, his wife, Marcia, and children recently returned to Tecumseh and do not have a phone listing yet, so callers tried the store.

Lois L. Lancaster of Clinton mailed a letter to the younger Mr. DesErmia, telling him that the mysterious watch with the name, Kirchgessner, with a Tecumseh address engraved on the dial, was truly from a jeweler in Tecumseh.

Miss Lancaster wrote, "Mr. Kirchgessner was a jeweler in Tecumseh and his sisters were great friends of my grandmother. The coincidence that struck me was that Frank Gilman of Clinton was in my office yesterday with a Clinton Local dated 1896, in which Mr. Kirchgessner had an ad for his jewelry store."

★

ANOTHER PERSON called to say that the Kirchgessner store had been located between Baldwin Hardware's present location and the Four Corners. He advised Mr. DesErmia to contact local historian Clara Waldron for further details.

A woman from Deerfield telephoned the store Thursday, saying that she knew a retired railroad employee, who now lives in Toledo and thought the watch had belonged to him.

Mr. DesErmia said that although the name was the same, the engraving was a jeweler's identification because it was on the dial of the watch.

Strangers, friends and neighbors contacted the couple, showing interest in the collection and offering to show them their antique time pieces.

Mr. DesErmia has been offered several watches and asked to appraise many items.

THURSDAY EVENING, he was busy studying a chain and locket that a man had brought to his home, saying he had taken it from a dead Japanese during World War II and wondered if it was foreign made, valuable or otherwise.

After looking carefully for identification, Mr. DesErmia discovered that the chain was American-make and assumed the locket was the same, speculating that the Japanese soldier had earlier taken it from an American.

The article in The Herald, which has more than 12,000 readers, has given Mr. DesErmia leads on old watches and antiques in general to keep him hopping for months.

Dolls for Needy Girls

Mrs. Richard Creswell distributed Christmas dolls to members of the Jaycee Auxiliary at the meeting held Sept. 23 in the city hall.

Members will return the dolls at the November meeting with two outfits which they will make. A display from Thanksgiving until Dec. 23 will be shown in the window of Helms Furniture, when the dolls will be given to needy children for Christmas.

MRS. DONALD MOFFATT will be chairman from the Auxiliary when the group help with the Community Halloween party, Oct. 31, at the Community Center.

Mrs. Walter Elwartowski will be hostess for the Auxiliary Halloween party Oct. 28, when a special surprise program will highlight the evening.

Mrs. James Rundell has been appointed chairman to furnish coffee for the volunteer workers at the oral polio clinic Sunday.

An orientation meeting will be Oct. 13 at the home of Mrs. Earl Nisbet after the board meeting.

★

MRS. WALTER WONDERLY has accepted the chairmanship of the Mitchell catalog project. She and Mrs. Nisbett took the district travel trophy to Saline.

Mrs. Wonderly and Mrs. Fred Johnson were named delegates to fall board meeting Oct. 16 and 17 with Mrs. James Fielder as alternate.

Mrs. Robert Kerr and Mrs. Charles Robinson were welcomed as new members.

Mrs. Donald Stoner assisted Mrs. Elwartowski in serving refreshments to 17 members present.

Connie Dinius, Jim Furgason Speak Vows

MRS. JAMES FURGASON

Connie Dinius and James Furgason were united in marriage Saturday at the Ridgeway Methodist Church by the Rev. Allison Mitchinson.

Fifty lighted tapers in a cathedral candelabra faced with yellow and white gladioli and Jade foliage were used to enhance the chancel for the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. George C. Dinius, 10687 Billmyer Rd. and Mrs. Leonard Furgason, 506 W. Kilbuck St., and the late Mr. Furgason.

Mrs. Wesley Proctor of Clinton, aunt of the bride, presided at the organ.

The bride entered the white carpeted aisle on the arm of her father in a gown of white peau de soie and Alencon created by Maude Bell.

★

THE FLOOR-LENGTH dress was fashioned with fitted bodice, rounded neckline and long, tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt with cathedral train was accented with handmade roses placed at gathered points to give fullness and a soft draped effect.

The full tiered elbow-length veil of English silk illusion flowed from an arrangement of Alencon lace and roses.

The bride carried a cascade of white roses, chrysanthemums centered with three clusters of pearlized white grapes outlined with ivy.

Her only jewelry was a gold heart shaped necklace, gift of the groom.

Mrs. Gary Bournes, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and Sherry Dinius, another sister of the bride, and Ruth Ann Milosh were the bridesmaids.

All were attired in identical gowns of peau de soie made by Mrs. Franklin Schroeder. The floor-length dresses were styled with bateau necklines, elbow-length sleeves and fitted bodices of avocado green.

The flowing bell skirts of mint green were accented with avocado trim at the bottom and a rose and streamers at the back.

Small Dior bows secured the bouffant veils of the bride's attendants.

They carried modernized crescents of toast and bronze pompons, tied with velvet ribbon accented with clusters of grapes.

WALTER FURGASON served as his brother's best man and 250 guests were seated by Tom Dinius, brother of the bride, and Alton Hayford.

A reception was held at the Tecumseh High School cafeteria, where 30 small tables centered by lighted tapers were used to seat the guests for refreshments.

The tiered decorated cake made by the bride's mother was flanked by three branched candelabra enhanced by yellow and white pompons.

Among those assisting at the reception were Mrs. William Stark, Mrs. Charles Barnsdale, Mrs. Walter Furgason, Mrs. Alton Hayford, Mrs. Vernon Thalmann, Mrs. George Steers, Mrs. George Wacker, Mrs. Van Frayer and Elaine Cadmus.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Davenport and Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Pidd were the hosts.

★

THE YOUNG couple are both graduates of Tecumseh High School. The bride is employed at Faraday Division of the Gray Manufacturing Co. and her husband is employed at Ford's Rawsonville plant.

Following a week's trip to the World's Fair in New York the newlyweds will make their home at 313 W. Logan St.

The rehearsal dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Furgason.

Barbara Buku and Ronald Petee Marry

MRS. RONALD PETEE

Barbara Buku was attended by her three sisters, Sharon, Elise and Judy, when the Rev. Thomas J. Collins officiated at the wedding ceremony Saturday uniting Miss Buku and Ronald Petee.

Wallace Whiting was the soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Johnson at the St. Elizabeth Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Buku, 114 S. Wyandotte St., and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Petee of Petersburg.

White chrysanthemums were used on the altar and the family pews were marked with foliage.

★

THE RADIANT bride wore a floor-length gown of organza and lace in redingote style, the front accented by a colonial drape over a chapel train of Lace De Peau Ance.

Her veil of Spanish illusion edged in Chantilly lace and appliqued motifs and extending to a point in the back was attached to a crown of pearls and lace.

She carried a cascade arrangement of yellow garnet roses centered by three large white Fugi chrysanthemums and edged with ivy.

Sharon Buku, maid of honor, wore a street-length gown of yellow brocade with elbow-length sleeves and bell skirt accented at the back with a bow.

She wore a Dior bow on her head and a wispy veil to match her dress and carried bronze chrysanthemums in an umbrella-shaped wicker basket.

★

THE MISSES Elise and Judy Buku wore green brocade gowns in identical design to that of the maid of honor and they carried umbrellas filled with yellow chrysanthemums.

Donald Heiden, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man and the 300 guests were seated by William Berger and Harold Schankens.

A dinner was held at the Knights of Columbus hall in Adrian.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and attended Cleary College.

The groom is a graduate of Summerfield High School in Petersburg and attended Adrian College.

Following a wedding trip thru the eastern states and Canada, the couple will make their home in Petersburg.

Marilee Kiser Weds Richard Birdwell

Yellow and white snapdragons and azure blue asters were used on the altar of St. Peter's Episcopal Church Saturday for the wedding of Marilee Anne Kiser and Richard Lawrence Birdwell.

The Rev. Frank W. Hawthorne performed the ceremony before the immediate families.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white street length dress with fitted bodice, cummerbund waistline and full skirt. Her brief lace jacket with elbow length sleeves featured a rounded neckline.

A shoulder length veil was secured to a small crown edged with seed pearls and she wore a pearl pendant, gift of the groom.

Her colonial style bouquet was of snowdrift pompons, yellow sweetheart roses and blue agapanthus florets.

Marilyn Jean Pepper of Addison was the bride's attendant in a simple frock of yellow nylon over taffeta with fitted bodice, cummerbund waist and full skirt with lace panel in the front.

She wore a yellow crown with short veil similar to the bride's.

She carried yellow and white snowdrift pompons and blue florets.

James Cubberly served as best man.

A reception for the families was held at the home of the bride's parents before the couple left on a weekend trip to the upper peninsula.

Both young people are 1964 graduates of Tecumseh High School.

They will make their home at 111 N. Pearl St. Mr. Birdwell is employed by Don's Super Service.

"STATE OF THE UNION" is a three-act comedy with a timely plot for an election year.

Grant Matthews, wealthy and idealistic young industrialist has been persuaded by Kay Thorndike, newspaper publisher and Sam Conover, politician, to throw his hat into the political ring.

Through him they plan to control the country. His wife, Mary, although estranged from him, agrees to make a campaign trip.

She watches with dismay the gradual breakdown of his original plans and the compromises he is influenced to make.

He seems to have forgotten his promise "to appeal only to the best in the American people".

It will be presented at the Tecumseh Oddfellows Hall on Green Hwy. Oct. 21, 22, 24, 28 29 and 31 at 8 p.m.

GM and City Make Verbal Agreement

By JIM LINCOLN

A verbal agreement was reached last week by General Motors and Tecumseh officials regarding construction of an eight-inch pressure sewer from the new Fisher Body Plant to a hook-up at S. Maumee and Russell Rd.

Terms of the agreement, officially approved by the city at a special meeting of Council Thursday night, are being prepared by attorneys.

In general, the agreement stipulates that GM will give the city p to $112,000 for construction of the sewer and a lift station at the plant site.

GM also requested that the city own and maintain the lift station, which will force sanitary and pre-treated industrial wastes through the new sewer.

CITY MANAGER Cal Zorn already has sought sewer main bids for about 16,000 feet and expects Council to award the pipe contract at Monday night's meeting.

A four to six-week delay in securing sewer pipe is anticipated.

Officials hope to advertise and secure bids for construction work by the middle of October, with actual installation work to start immediately afterwards.

Plant representatives have asked the sewer be operable by Feb. 1.

Before the end of the year, local officials expect to announce their plans to enlarge the local disposal treatment plant — a requirement by the State Health Department before Tecumseh will be allowed to accept more sewage.

Mr. Zorn says the disposal plant expansion will probably be financed by general obligation bonds through a vote of the people, with the issue to be placed on the ballot next April.

ADDED TO THE cost of enlarging the capacity of the disposal plant will be the $112,000 given the city by GM.

After the sale of the bonds, the city will return $112,000 to GM, which in turn will pay the same amount back to Tecumseh, plus interest, over a period of 20 or 25 years.

The interest rate will be the same as charged in the general obligation bonds.

Since the Fisher Body plant is outside the city limits and not taxable by the city, GM has agreed, in lieu of taxes, to pay annually its proportionate share of the cost to enlarge the disposal plant.

Its share will be based on gallonage and could run as high as 20%, or an estimated $4,200 per year.

Whether Tecumseh accepted sewage from Fisher Body or not, the local disposal plant must be enlarged, says Mr. Zorn.

When Fisher Body starts operations next spring, process and sanitary sewage is estimated at 82,000 gallons per day. Future sewage is expected to reach 138,000 gallons per day.

Ellen Schmidt and Joseph R. O'Donnell Exchange Wedding Vows in Clinton

CLINTON — Ellen Marie Schmidt and Joseph R. O'Donnell exchanged vows in a double ring candlelight ceremony performed by the Rev. George Miller at 8 p.m. Sept. 19 in Clinton Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans T. Schmidt, Michigan Ave., Clinton and the groom is the son of Mrs. William Pratt of Hallandale, Fla. and the late Joseph O'Donnell.

Mrs. Wesley Proctor played several organ selections.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage before the immediate family.

In keeping with simplicity, she selected a street length gown in pastel blue with matching headpiece.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidt of Birmingham, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, were the attendants. Wesley Proctor was the usher.

After a short wedding trip, the newlyweds will be at home at 1440 North St., Washington, D.C.

She is a graduate of Clinton High School and Siena Heights College secretarial school. She recently returned from San Francisco, Calif. Previously, she was employed by the government in Washington, D.C.

The groom, a native of Johnstown, Pa., is employed by the U.S. Information Agency in Washington, D.C.

TWO COUPLES — Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell and her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schmidt of Bonn, Germany, were guests of honor at a reception following the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt were married in Germany June 20. She is making her first visit to the U.S.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Schmidt were hosts and introduced their new son-in-law, Mr. O'Donnell and new daughter-in-law Mrs. Schmidt to 130 relatives and friends at Roumell's Dining Room.

Two wedding cakes were featured at the buffet supper table.

Mrs. Jerry Goldsmith of Chicago, Ill., served the O'Donnell cake and Mrs. Donald Corwin served the Schmidt cake.

Assisting at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meyers and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Proctor, Mrs. Leon Van Deusen and Roy Meyers.

Fire Calls

A car belonging to Frank Csokasy caught fire Saturday, Sept. 26. Damages amounted to about $300.

The department was called Tuesday, Sept. 29, to the home of David Jedele, 504 Occidental Rd., when insulation under the house caught fire as a result of soldering repairs being made.

Firemen had to crawl under the house to put out the flames. Damages were estimated at $500.

St. Elizabeth School Clippings

● FOOTBALL PRACTICE

It's 3:15 p.m. School is out and it's time for football practice. All the members head for the church basement and change into their uniforms.

When the players are ready, they take a lap around the telephone poles and then start their calisthenics. After about 20 minutes of exercising, the team begins practicing their offensive plays.

Then comes the fun! The first string offense scrimmages with the rest of the team, trying sweeps, reverses and passes in getting it to the imaginary goal line.

Sometimes the offense goes for a 40-yard gain, and yet other times they are smeared for a 10-yard loss.

With the two assistant coaches, James Green and James Biscupski, in there fighting, the line has to play exceptionally hard. After the brief but rough scrimmage, the team takes a few tiring wind sprints and heads for home.

By Davivd Laidlaw

● THE SMALL TEAM

You could call the St. Elizabeth School Cubs a small team. They're small in number and, on the average, they're small in size, but they've got the one necessity in football — spirit.

As the coaches keep reminding the team, football is 80% spirit and 20% skill. If a team has the spirit and will to win, it can come out on top.

First test was to be this Wednesday night at Onsted.

● ROAST BEEF DINNER

The Roast Beef Dinner, an annual event at St. Elizabeth Parish, proved to be a stupendous success when it was held for the 11th consecutive year on Sept. 20.

The school took an active part in the production of this popular activity. Many seventh and eighth grade students were employed in helping to make all necessary preparations, such as setting up tables and chairs and table settings.

A number of students also helped on the day of the dinner as tray boys and waitresses. Boy Scout Troop 4, which is sponsored by the Church, kept the hallway clear and offered any needed assistance.

The pupils were glad to be of service in this activity and are anxious to be called upon again in the near future.

● THE NEW LIBRARY

St. Elizabeth School has opened its library. It has a large selection of books — some old, some new, some adventurous, some mysterious — from which the students can choose. Librarians Nancy Ford and Carol Riordan are there to assist the students.

This year the Library will be opened at 3 p.m. to the sixth, seventh and eighth graders.

The different divisions of books show selections for enjoyment as well as for studies. There are fictional, historical, biographical, religious and scientific books and also new encyclopedias given to the school as a gift from last year's student teachers from Siena Heights College.

Sister Maureen Therese, OP, the principal, and the other Sisters should be thanked for preparing this new library and in showing this thanks, the pupils who use it should help in keeping it neat and clean.

If pupils lose, tear, or damage a book in any way, they will have to pay a fine. They will also be charged if the book is overdue.

With this new addition, St. Elizabeth's is looking forward to a good year in reading.

By Carol Riordan and Charles Fitch

● PHYSICAL FITNESS

This year St. Elizabeth's is continuing the Physical Fitness Program in keeping with our late President Kennedy's wishes.

During the 15 minutes, the pupils have races, plus the exercises that are required. Two girls lead the girls and two boys lead the boys in these exercises.

Some of these exercises are the Jumping Jacks, the Tortoise and the Hare, the sit-ups and the like. Participating in this program helps build bodies strong and when bodies are strong, they will fight infection and illness.

Three of Seven Accidents Occur on Private Property

Three of seven accidents investigated by Tecumseh police during the past week occurred on private property.

Pansy V. Jones, 901 Murray Dr., sideswiped a parked car while backing in the Wright Drug Store parking lot.

Gabriel A. Desharnas of Boysville backed into a parked auto owned by Clayton Greenwald, owner of Greenwald's Cleaners and Laundry. Damages were confined to the Desharnas car.

A witness reported the license number of the pickkup truck and reported it to the police who contacted E. Kryzaniak of Manchester.

He told police that he had not been driving the truck but would see Mrs. Baughy about damages to her car.

IN A FREAK accident at the Party Shop, Russel V. Pilbeam, 60, of 302 S. Maumee, was slightly injured when the hand brake on his car failed and the auto ran over his left leg.

Mr. Pilbeam drove the car away but was later taken to the hospital for x-rays when he was unable to use his leg.

No charges were made last Wednesday when James J. Lister, 42, Britton, and Harold E. Sibrel, Adrian, sideswiped on Chicago Blvd.

Bruno Baron, 41, Milan, was cited for leaving the scene of a property damage accident Sunday when he hit a road sign on E. Chicago Blvd.

No action was taken Saturday when John L. Montalvo, 31, Britton, reported that he had hit another car from behind the day before. He was not able to identify the other car or driver, who checked his own vehicle and found no damages.

Montalvo's car sustained front end damages.

Huron League Play Starts for Indians

Tecumseh Indians open their campaign for the Huron League championship this Friday night against the Rams at Flat Rock.

The Rams have a veteran team and could upset the Indians if they're able to muster a defense comparable to Jackson St. John's forward line.

Tecumseh, whether weak offensively or simply matched against a spirited St. John's team, failed to show any signs of an offensive threat last Saturday evening.

The Indians proved, however, that they're basically a strong team on defense and capable of stymying an opposing team's attack.

In Jackson's Tom Goodwin, Tecumseh bumped up against one of the state's top backs. Although he tallied once and passed for another, the Indians were able to contain him otherwise.

SHORT GAINER — A quick pass from Jeff Osburn to halfback Don Baird here Saturday night gained seven yards just before the final gun.

St. John's Bounces Tecumseh 14 to 0

By JIM LINCOLN

JACKSON — A tough St. John's 11 bottled up the Tecumseh Indians last Saturday night here for a 14-0 victory.

The margin of the win is deceiving.

Tecumseh never threatened to score and only reached the Gaels' territory once, that time in the third period and then only to St. John's 45.

St. John's second touchdown was an absolute gift from the Indians in the third quarter. Tecumseh had Jackson's outstanding back Tom Goodwin trapped on fourth down for a big loss, only to have the youngster toss a lob pass to end Mike Simmons all alone in the end zone.

The first tally by the victors had considerable assistance with 20 yards of their 50-yard drive resulting from Tecumseh penalties.

Although the Indians were outplayed, particularly on offense, the game in mist and rain, could easily have ended in a scoreless deadlock.

Tecumseh tried throughout the game to move against St. John's defense, which often had the linebackers up tight for an eight-man forward wall.

Indian runners — Tim Collins, Gregg McEnroe, Don Baird, Jeff Osburn and Kirk Lucas — could not move against the defense and often were trapped for losses.

To loosen on the defense, Osburn attempted 10 passes, connecting on five. However, most were short tosses, hurried by an on-rushing St. John's line.

While the winners were outstanding on defense, Tecumseh was equally tough — or almost. The Indians gave up only 113 yards by rushing and 15 via passes.

Redskins Win No. 2 for Season

YPSILANTI — Quarterback Dennis Sweet scored twice as Clinton shut out Ypsilanti-Lincoln, 22-0, Friday evening.

This was the Redskins' first action as a member of the new Lakeland C Conference.

Dennis scored on a 17-yard run, also went in from the one.

An aerial from Dennis Drazic to Roger Mann, good for almost 50 yards, set up the initial score.

The final Redskin TD came as Wayne Poore dashed over from the one to climax a 47-yard drive.

John Basinger nailed a Ypsi runner behind the goal for a safety to end the scoring.

Friday night, Clinton meets Whitmore Lake.

Detective Game Costly Backfire for Lloyd Mann

Playing detective last week may have backfired for Lloyd Mann, 413 S. Pearl, St.

Thursday he discovered some silver dollars and other change had been stolen from his home. He reported it to Tecumseh police and informed them that there were five silver dollars left.

He painted the edges red and informed many local merchants of his scheme to nab the thief.

Monday he discovered the silver dollars gone, plus five place settings of Towle silverware, two suitcases, his 1958 Mercury Station Wagon, and a set of license plates from another vehicle.

Stanley J. Gipson, 18, Ft. Meyers, Fla., a roomer, who was asleep on the Mann couch when Mr. Mann left the house Monday morning was arrested Tuesday in Detroit. Before being sent to a boys' training school, he confessed to the thefts here.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Sixty-five area senior citizens met at the Community Center last Thursday afternoon for cards and other table games.

The group also held a short business meeting, and voted on a name to identify their own special group. Out of the 19 names suggested, they chose to be known as: "The Tecumseh Senior Citizens".

Other business discussed included various types of programs for the group's enjoyment this fall and winter.

Several good programs were suggested, including:

- Holiday Programs
- Travel films and slides
- Hobby Show
- Potluck Luncheons
- Birthday Parties.

It was decided that the next get-together would be a potluck luncheon. The date for this has been scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 15, starting at 1 p.m., at the Community Center.

Everyone is asked to supply table setting, rolls, and a favorite dish to pass.

Arrangements have been made with Music, Inc., of Adrian, to supply entertaining organ music. Mrs. William Feight will play.

Mrs. Feight is the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Feight, one of the charter members of our Tecumseh Senior Citizens.

There is no charge for these parties.

ADULT RECREATION

Plans are now being made to organize evening sessions for the winter months indoor recreation activities.

Arrangements with the Tecumseh Public Schools will be completed in the next week or two, for the use of the high school gym two evenings a week, one for area men and the other for women.

Activities will include volleyball, basketball and other team and individual activities.

There will be a small registration fee.

DANCING LESSONS

Plans are being completed now to offer dancing lessons to all area youths and adults. These lessons would be given at the Community Center for a small fee. More details on this program in two weeks.

COMMUNITY CENTER VISITORS

This past weekend saw over 1,500 out-state visitors stop at the Community Center for coffee and to inspect our facilities.

The Toledo Automobile Club of America sponsored a mystery hunt auto drive and ended their hunt at the Center.

Tecumseh Jaycees and Auxiliary played host to these Ohio travelers, serving free coffee and cookies in the Glass Room.

Speedway Race Is 100 Laps

Manchester Speedway will close its season with a giant program Sunday afternoon.

On tap will be a 100-lap event, a 50-lap run and a 25-lap consolation. Lap prize money totals $725. Five heat races and a pursuit are also scheduled.

Time trials begin at 1 p.m. with racing at 2:30. In event of rain, the affair goes on Oct. 18.

For the spectators, there will be $50 in cash give-aways, plus other prizes.

★

IN RECENT action at the track, Harold Schill of Manchester, broke his own record, only to have Lee Brayton of Coldwater nip the time shortly afterwards.

Mr. Schill established a new 10-lap record in the first heat and then also grabbed the checkered flag in the feature.

Other winners:

Second heat — Dick Slade
Third heat — Jack Long
Fourth heat — Ken Horn
Fifth heat — Neil Grady
Pursuit — Lee Brayton
Consi — Bill Cattell
Semi — Neil Baggett

Corn Picking Contest Will Be October 8

Seventh annual Michigan Mechanical Corn Picking Contest, sponsored by the Adrian Kiwanis Club, will be held Thursday, Oct. 8, at the farm operated by T. V. Brittain and Sons.

The Brittain farm is just west of Adrian on US-223 at Sand Creek Hwy.

Michigan State University, Farm Bureau, Grange and Kiwanis Clubs of Lenawee County all lend hands in staging of this contest.

Melvin Beebe of the Adrian Kiwanis Club is general chairman.

PROMOTION OF FARM safety is a major purpose of the contest, which will be governed by the national contest committee rules. Michigan State University will supervise the application and interpretation of these rules.

The contest will be limited to 32 entries on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Entries must be submitted on the official entry blank which may be obtained now from the general chairman, care of Adrian Grain Co., in Adrian.

Three cash prizes will be awarded in each class made up of two-row pickers, two-row picker shellers, and corn combines. Each first place winner will also receive a trophy and will be eligible to represent Michigan at the National Contest at Sioux Falls, S. D.

ADMISSION TO the contest is free and ample free parking space has been provided. Major farm equipment manufacturers and their dealers will display the latest in safe, labor-saving farm machinery. Local civic and service organizations will have food and refreshment booths on the grounds.

Lawrence Fisher of Palmyra, national winner in 1962 and again in 1963, will be on hand. With the winners of this Oct. 8 contest, Mr. Fisher will represent Michigan in the 1964 national contest.

Paul Rowlands' Are Surprised on Anniversary

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rowlands were surprised last Saturday evening when three couples arrived with gifts and floral arrangements in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary.

The honored couple were then invited out for an evening of dining and dancing in Toledo by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. George Brablec.

The Rowlands were married in Napoleon, O., Sept. 30, 1939.

Their only attendants were Mr. Rowlands sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fischer, former Britton residents, now living in St. Petersburg, Fla.

14,000 Hear Goldwater 'Freedom Is Basic Issue'

By DOROTHY GRIGG

DETROIT — "Government spending must stop before it cannibalizes all of us," said Barry Goldwater Saturday night as he spoke to nearly 14,000 people gathered in the gigantic arena of Cobo Hall.

"This merry-go-round of fiscal irresponsibility just has to stop," continued the senator from Arizona, Republican candidate for the highest office in the land.

Amid the applause, the chant "We want Barry" could be heard from the Young Republicans seated at the back of the floor.

Before continuing his address, the smiling senator satisfied the young people by remarking, "You have him".

He also thanked the group for their display of welcome extended to he and his wife, Peggy, as they were escorted from their hotel room to Cobo Hall.

Hundreds of huge sparklers lined the street, held by the youth.

★

SENATOR GOLDWATER said, "If we had half that much sparkle in Washington, we wouldn't be complaining."

"Freedom is the basic issue of this campaign," said the distinguished gentleman to the well-behaved crowd.

He said, "President Johnson speaks about peace, prosperity and justice, but he forgets freedom. In November he will be sorry that he forgot freedom."

The only disturbance during the evening was made by some young people high in the galleries shouting "LBJ" at pertinent moments during a talk given by Representative Gerald Ford, before his introduction of Governor George Romney.

Police promptly escorted the pranksters from the hall.

Mr. Goldwater remarked soon after he started his address, "I can't get over how big this place is."

★

HE THANKED Governor Romney for his warm welcome and continued to say that he knew the strength and stature of the Romney family.

He said, "It's none of my business but if I lived in Michigan I would vote for George Romney." The power to tax is the power to destroy," he quoted and "It's the power to destroy freedom."

He continued his address giving in brief detail the plan carefully studied by his committee for tax reformation under a Republican administration if he is elected.

He said, "Spending can be held in check without harming any of the needed programs we have in government today and believe me, if we are elected, we will.

"We can cut taxes and still balance revenue against spending." Republicans will reduce the national debt. The plan to do this is no hastily-arranged gimmick to create an artificial boom until just past election day.

Income taxes can be cut 5% per year and by the fifth year the total reduction would be 25%.

★

THE SENATOR promised a return to sound principles so that the individual citizenry and not the bureaucracy may decide how to spend their money.

The government must be kept responsible to the people it serves. "It's perfectly natural and perfectly logical that you should keep the money that you are working harder and harder to earn."

Over 100 programs at a cost of over $10 billion are now subservient to a huge federal bureaucracy each year, he said.

Is saving that much per acre good enough reason for using our Anhydrous Ammonia this fall? We hope so. Particularly when you know that Anhydrous Ammonia from Dow is the most concentrated form of nitrogen you can buy—82%. You can save as much as $6 to $8 an acre by using a fertilizer program we can recommend.

Apply it to soil now in the fall when you're plowing down summer crop stubble. It won't leach out over the winter. Come spring and it will release needed nitrogen into the soil. Crops will develop stronger roots with more resistance to drought. Have a higher protein content for feeding.

Do right by your wallet and your crops with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia. We have it—all you need.

Recognize Responsibilities

Public interest demands that leaders of unions that struck Detroit's two newspapers should "recognize their responsibility to accept fair and reasonable offers," employees of the Detroit Free Press were told in a letter by Publisher Lee Hills.

The message to all Free Press employees and their families was sent this past weekend. It reviewed what had happened in strike negotiations in the recent past.

"Federal and state mediators, the Governor (Romney), the Mayor (Cavanaugh) and another union (The Newspaper Guild of Detroit) all proposed or supported proposals aimed at a fair and fast settlement," wrote Hills. "You are entitled to know what has happened."

Hills then reported that newspapers had made a fourth offer to the pressmen at a meeting last Wednesday and that they had made a further "settlement offer" which was handed to Governor Romney (at the Governor's request) last Wednesday night.

Hills pointed out that the publishers agreed to have this "settlement offer" put to a secret vote of the striking unions under State Mediation supervision. He said the newspapers also accepted the suggestion made by the Guild (the union of editorial and business office personnel at the Free Press) that the dispute go to an arbitrator.

"The strike leaders have rejected every offer of settlement of the strike," Hills concluded. "They have rejected our offers for generous contract improvements. They have refused the Governor's request for the secret ballot election. They have so far rejected arbitration.

"The public interest and the interest of 4,100 newspaper employees demand that the strike leaders recognize their responsibility to accept fair and reasonable offers."

The strike against the Detroit Free Press and the Detroit News started July 13. It was called by the Detroit locals of Pressmen's Union and the Paper and Plate Handlers' Union, both of which are associated with the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union.

They have joint contracts with the two Detroit newspapers which are affiliated in the Detroit Newspaper Publishers Association.

Swim, Slim Class at 'Y' for Women

Women's classes at the YMCA of Lenawee County in Adrian will be Thursdays, with a new special Mother-Tot class Tuesday mornings.

Two Thursday classes, one from 1:30 to 3 p.m., the other 7-8:30 p.m. Both classes will be taught by Mrs. Robert Murray and will feature conditioning exercises, slimnastics, volleyball, badminton and swimming.

The new mother-tot swim instruction class enables mothers to take their four or five-year-old youngster to the pool. They will go into the water with them to help them learn to swim.

Instructor Mrs. Robert Nystrom is on hand to give the expert advice needed. The class will meet Tuesday mornings from 10:10-10:45.

Registration may be made or additional information obtained by calling the 'Y' at 263-2151.

'Christ's Worth' Is Sunday Sermon at Friends Church

The Sunday 10 a.m. sermon by the Rev. Paul Brantingham of Tecumseh Friends Church will be relative to "The Worth of Christ".

He will point out that ignorance of God's worth is the cause of much of the spiritual apathy and poverty today.

At the 11:10 a.m. hour the 24 Sunday School classes will be meeting under the superintendency of Richard Butler.

At 6:30 Sunday evening three of the groups meet to study the Word of God.

Mr. and Mrs. Jon Mosher of Monroe County, Ohio, will be ministering in the 7:30 p.m. service. They have recently returned from a visit to the island of Formosa.

Their visit was to visit their daughter and family, missionaries Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moore.

Graphic pictures of the island will be shown.

Mr. Mosher will give an enlightening report on the work of Ohio Yearly Meeting missionaries as well.

Mr. Mosher will be speaking Monday evening 7:30 to the Adrian Quarterly meeting of Men in Missions held at the Tecumseh Friends Church.

● MRS. RICHARD PRESTON

A requiem memorial service of the Holy Communion was held Wednesday at St. Peter's Episcopal Church for Mrs. Richard Preston, 53, of 316 W. Pottawatamie St., who died Monday at 1 a.m.

She was a patient at Herrick Hospital for five weeks and had been in failing health since 1956.

Mrs. Preston had been one of Tecumseh's finest servants, assisting many organizations in their efforts to help unfortunate or needy families. She often worked alone on these projects, thereby shunning any credit or recognition for her assistance.

She was a member of the Tecumseh Service Club for many years, and a member of the Tecumseh Community Chest Board, Child Study Club, and more recently, the Citizens Committee for the schools.

A former principal of the Austin School at Albion, reputed to have one of the finest health departments in the state, Mrs. Preston assisted with a health survey for Lenawee County, which in 1957 was compiled into a book, entitled "Community Involvement."

Her other activities also involved Girl Scout and Red Cross programs.

She was born on May 30, 1911, in Coldwater, the daughter of James and Anabel Ressigirie Hiesrodt.

In 1933 she received a bachelor's degree from Western Michigan College.

She was a school teacher for a few years and June 17, 1938, she married Richard Preston.

Mrs. Preston was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two daughters, Anne, a teacher in Royal Oak, and Jean, a student at Hillsdale College; and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Loveless of Hillsdale.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother.

The burial service was read Wednesday afternoon at the church by the Rev. Frank Hawthorne.

Burial was in Brookside Cemetery. Arrangements were by the Green-Dunn Funeral Home.

● MRS. LISETTE C. HALL

Funeral services were held in East [illegible] for Mrs. Lisette Hall, 81, of 1075 E. Pottawatamie St., who died Saturday morning at the home of her daughter.

Mrs. Hall had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Whitney [illegible] for the last nine years. [illegible] failing health [illegible] years.

Mrs. Hall was born Dec. 1, 1862, in Shenley, England, the daughter of Robert and Elizabeth Frost.

She received her early education in England and was married in 1908 in Lansing to Robert Hall who died Sept. 4, 1951.

Mrs. Hall was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Lansing, and a life member of the O.E.S. of East Lansing.

She moved to Lansing early in 1908 with a brother, William Frost, and has lived the remainder of her life there, except for a year in Detroit, before coming to live with her daughter.

In addition to Mrs. Berdan, Mrs. Hall is survived by two sons, William H. of Phoenix, Ariz., and David J. of Tucson; eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The body was taken to East Lansing Sunday from the Proctor Funeral Home.

● EDWARD SAYLER

Services will be held Tuesday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Edward Sayler, 73, of 4739 Green Hwy., who died early [illegible] day at [illegible] Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Sayler was admitted to the hospital Sept. 23. He had been in failing health since suffering a heart attack in 1961.

He was born Nov. 11, 1890, in Ogden Township, the son of Christian and Bertha Dreske Sayler.

He was employed at the Stubnitz-Greene Corp. for 15 years before retiring in 1960.

Mr. Sayler made his home in Raisin Township for the last 20 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mae Somes Sayler; four sons, Duaine and Arnold of Adrian and Donald and Richard of Tecumseh; three daughters, Mrs. Richard Sager and Mrs. Larry Dushane, both of Adrian and Mrs. Keith Woodby of Tecumseh; 24 grandchildren and one great grandson.

Three brothers, William of Blissfield, Fred of Britton and George of Jasper also survive.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Mrs. Everett McKenzie in 1961, a granddaughter, Lisa Ann Sayler, two brothers and three sisters.

Mr. Sayler attended the Raisin Valley Friends Church and was a member of the Pathfinders Class.

The Rev. Lawrence Cox officiated and burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

● MELVIN J. McWILLIAMS

Services will be held Thursday at the Valentine and McNeil Funeral Home in Deerfield for Melvin McWilliams, 69, who was found dead at his residence, 3394 Rogers Hwy., about 10:30 a.m. Monday.

Mr. McWilliams was born June 22, 1895, at the same home where he spent his entire life.

He was the son of the late Andrew and Jennie Rainey McWilliams. He farmed the homestead property.

He was married Dec. 22, 1917, to Zorah Dickinson.

Mr. McWilliams was a member of the Holloway Presbyterian Church and the Farm Bureau.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by one son, Mason McWilliams, [illegible] two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth Mathias of Deerfield and Mrs. R. W. Andrews of Whittier, Calif.; and nine grandchildren.

Burial will be in the Holloway Cemetery.

● HERBERT C. WATKINS

Services were held Wednesday for Herbert C. Watkins, 61, of 515 W. Cummins St., who died Sunday morning at Herrick Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient for 11 days.

Mr. Watkins had been in failing health for many years.

He was born March 6, 1903, in Swanton, O., the son of Frank and Belle Keyes Watkins.

September 27, 1924, he married Myrtle Teegarden in Adrian.

Mr. Watkins operated a taxi service in Tecumseh for the last 20 years.

He was a member of the Eagles Club here.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three brothers, Marvin, 112 S. Oneida, Henry of Wayne, and a twin brother, Robert Watkins, of Sand Creek; and one sister, Mrs. William Raymond of Tipton.

The Rev. Harold Speer officiated and burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

● ERWIN FRENCH PIDD

Services were held Wednesday in Dexter for Erwin Pidd, 53, an area representative for the Farm Bureau who died of a heart attack in his car near his home on the Dexter-Chelsea Rd. Sunday evening.

Mr. Pidd was born Jan. 18, 1911, at Dexter, the son of J. William and Ada French Pidd.

He married Mable Proctor in Dexter March 10, 1932.

In addition to his wife he is survived by his father, William Pidd of Dexter; four sons, four daughters; two foster children and a sister.

Arrangements were made by the Proctor Funeral Home, Clinton and burial was in the Forest Lawn Cemetery at Dexter.

OUR READERS WRITE

TO THE EDITORS:

In last week's edition of "Lenawee County's Oldest Newspaper", there was an erroneous entry in your "Off to College Classes" column.

As indicated in the excerpt below, the name of our institution of higher learning was changed some time ago.

THE FERRIS STORY

History

Ferris State College was founded in 1884 by Woodbridge Ferris and was known for a few months as "Big Rapids Industrial School". Thereafter, until 1899 it was known as "The Ferris Industrial School". In 1899 its name was changed to "Ferris Institute". It was privately-owned and operated until 1931 when it became a non-profit, non-stock, educational corporation.

In 1949 Ferris Institute was offered to the State of Michigan as a memorial to its founder who had served the state as Governor and as U. S. Senator. It was established as a state college by the Legislature and Public Act 114, Michigan Public Acts of 1953. On July 1, 1963 by act of the Legislature the name was changed to Ferris State College effective July 1, 1963.

Being devout students, proud of our college, we feel it our duty to inform the general public of this important legislative act of 1963.

While [illegible] our college will be referred to other than [illegible] we would appreciate your being accurate in the future.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,

Raymond T. Miller

TO THE EDITORS:

We wish to thank you for the excellent cooperation and coverage you gave our flower show again this year. It made the job of the Publicity Committee a lot easier.

Yours truly,

Dee Foffatt and

Carole Dunn,

Publicity co-chairmen.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITTAKER

A weekend vacation, planned to break the routine of school life, is coming up in the near future.

The students will leave campus at Saturday afternoon at 3, return to the campus on Monday evening by 8.

The Boysville Fighting Knights lost a heartbreaker to the Minutemen of Deerfield Friday night, 6-0.

Both teams were held scoreless until early in the third quarter when a Deerfield back managed to break loose from a host of tacklers and race for a touchdown.

The Fighting Knights lived up to their name and fought back savagely through the fourth quarter, but to no avail. The final gun found the Knights on the Deerfield 17 yard line.

Moe Jacobs, Lenawee County scoring champion of 1963, was sidelined during the Deerfield game with a muscle injury in his leg suffered during a pre-season scrimmage.

√

A new chaplain is now in residence at Boysville. He is the Rev. Fr. Gabriel DesHarnais, who was assigned to take over from the Rev. Fr. Mark Thompson. Fr. Thompson was doubling as chaplain of the Milan Federal Penitentiary and of Boysville.

Fr. DesHarnais comes from Detroit, was ordained in 1959 after graduating from St. John's Provincial Seminary.

√

The past two weeks have been election time for the student class officers. Students were encouraged by their class moderators to vote for boys who are responsible and who will fulfill the tasks of their position.

Senior Class officers are:
Jim Fedorko — president
Jim Felder — vice-president
Paul Scully — secretary
Ron Klos — treasurer.

Junior officers:
Norris McFarland — president
Joe Pawlus — vice-president
Moe Jacobs — secretary
Joe Bauman — treasurer.

The sophomores elected:
Rick Currie — president
Bob Hazen — vice-president
Rick Kay! — secretary
Paul DeWaelsche — treasurer.

The freshmen executives are:
Joe Gordon — president
Nick Orlando — vice-president.

Other officers of the freshman class will be elected later.

The eighth graders chose Mike Campbell, Dave Rockwell, Dan Henshaw and Steve Carroll as their officers.

√

A bunco party was held in the dining hall last Saturday night. This occasion afforded a break in the routine schedule.

Prizes varied from things like a Boysville sweatshirt to stationery, candy and soda pop. Paul Scully won first prize.

Following the bunco party, a movie was shown in the gym.

Midquarter exams are coming up this Friday and with this ending of the first half of the first quarter comes the initial "default" period.

Defaults are given for the purpose of letting the student know that he is doing failing work in a certain subject, so that he can devote more time to studying for that subject in the eight o'clock evening study hall.

The Student Council was formed last week for the 1964-65 school year. Its members are composed of some or all of the class officers of each class.

Friday Is Closing Day for Directory

Closing date for the Britton, Clinton, Tipton and Tecumseh directory is Friday, General Telephone district manager Ken Conway states.

Customers who wish to make corrections or additions to the directory are asked to call the Tecumseh General Telephone business office.

"We 'lock-up' the directory right after the closing deadline and send it immediately to the General Telephone Directory Company in Des Plaines, Ill., for printing," Mr. Conway said.

"The directory company, which prints millions of phone books each year, operates on a deadline basis much like a newspaper and for this reason we cannot accept any changes after the October date," he said.

Adrian College Will Soon Have $500,000 Building

Adrian College will soon have a new $500,000 classroom building, the 18th new structure to be erected on the campus since since 1957.

Groundbreaking will be Oct. 17 as part of the annual Homecoming festivities.

The three story structure will have 37,000 square feet of floor space for 18 classrooms, three seminar rooms and 20 faculty offices.

A large fully air-conditioned amphitheatre in it will accommodate 250 people.

The building will be connected to the present Peelle Hall of Science by a heated hallway and will face Charles Street.

The department of natural science and other academic departments will be housed in the new structure.

To be designed by Marr and Marr Associates of Detroit, it will be constructed of reinforced concrete and faced with Indiana Limestone.

The 4-H's stand for Head, Heart, Hands and Health.

JUDGE JAMES T. KALLMAN

Township Officials Will Meet

The annual meeting of all township officials for the four counties of the second congressional district consisting of Hillsdale, Lenawee, Monroe and Washtenaw Counties will be held at the Paragon Restaurant, Hillsdale Tuesday, Oct. 6, at 10 a.m.

Merrill Hull, supervisor of Blissfield Township and a member of the board of directors of Michigan Townships Association, said recently that the meeting is designed to bring together those who make the laws and enforce them.

It will feature a "Face to Face" discussion with congressmen, state senators, representatives, state officers, county officers and township officials.

Congressman George Meader has been invited to attend, along with congressman Neil Staebler, state senator Elmer R. Porter, state representative Rollo G. Conlin and others.

Police Arrest Ypsilanti Man

CLINTON — Jerry Lando Hulsey, 25, of Ypsilanti was arrested by Clinton State Police about 1:30 a.m. Sept. 27, on M-52 south of Billington corners.

Charged with driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor, he entered a plea of not guilty before Justice Ernest Oliver. Trial is pending.

Probate Judge Will Be Speaker at Union Service

James T. Kallman, Ingham County Probate Judge, will be the speaker at a union service Sunday, Oct. 11, at 8 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church.

The service, under the auspices of the Tecumseh Ministerial Association, is for the public.

Ministers of the community are extending the invitation.

Judge Kallman was born in Bronx, N.Y., attended grammar schools in the eastern states and three years in Finland.

He completed college prep courses at Gladstone, Mich., and attended the Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

He received a bachelor degree in pre-law and medical science from the University of Michigan in 1937 and graduated from Wayne State University Law School in 1957.

DURING WORLD WAR II Mr. Kallman was in the infantry and was later assigned to the War Department Special Staff.

In 1949 he began work as an adjuster with the Lumbermans Mutual Casualty Company in Chicago.

He was recalled to active duty as a cryptoanalyst, which is the breaking of secret codes and cipher systems.

He was an officer during the Korean conflict and returned to adjusting for Lumbermans in the Detroit office in 1952.

After graduation from law school, he worked as a claims adjuster in Lansing. In 1960 he was appointed Ingham County Circuit Court Commissioner, being re-elected the following year.

He also tried city cases for the Lansing City Attorney.

He was appointed Ingham County Probate Judge in February of 1963.

JUDGE AND MRS. Kallman have five children.

Judge Kallman has been a deacon, trustee, treasurer, Sunday school teacher, assistant church school superintendent, and is presently a member of the South Baptist Church in Lansing.

A member of the Gideons, he is also affiliated with numerous state and national Bar Associations.

An article written by Judge Kallman was printed last year in the Michigan Courthouse Review.

'War on Poverty' Bill Attempts To Weaken Local Government, Says Elly

Mrs. Elly Peterson of Charlotte, who hopes to become the first woman in Michigan history to win a seat in the U. S. Senate, addressed city managers, mayors and local officials at the Michigan Municipal League's annual meeting in Lansing Sept. 18.

She told the audience that the recently-approved "War on Poverty" bill, of which her opponent, Senator Philip Hart, was a co-sponsor, was an obvious attempt to diminish the influence of local government in favor of a system of direct control by a "Poverty Czar" in Washington.

Although scheduled to be on the program, Mr. Hart was unable to appear.

In her talk, "The Future of Federal-Local Relations", Mrs. Peterson pointed out that the bill as introduced by Mr. Hart would have authorized outright federal grants to local non-profit organizations with no check by local officials or even governors.

The passed revised bill permitted a governor to veto a grant within 30 days, but local officials would be ignored.

She said there were no restrictions other than the governor's veto on the use of domestic peace corpsmen in local programs, citing a Yorktown, Va., case where the "Poverty Czar" decreed a job corps camp without consulting local residents or public officials.

She drew applause by concluding that local governments were a vital and irreplaceable element in the American federal system, and that efforts to weaken or bypass them, as proposed by Senator Hart, were in reality, efforts to achieve a completely centralized government.

Mrs. Hamilton Shows Mementos of Ireland Trip

Mrs. Thomas Hamilton spoke and showed mementos of her trip to Ireland to 58 members and friends of the Tecumseh Monday Club Sept. 14.

Mrs. E. J. Aebersold was the hostess for the Friendly Tea, assisted by members of the executive board.

Mrs. Jennie Satterlee opened the program with the reading of a poem.

Dainty refreshments were served from a lace-covered table with Mrs. Earl Wickwire and Mrs. George Green, Sr., pouring beverages.

Mrs. Russell McAfee of Adrian will review the book, "Across the Wide Missouri" at the fall luncheon to be held Monday, Oct. 5, at the Youth House of the First Baptist Church.

"The mark of a true execu- ...ually illegible."

Members Seek Spring Flowers for Landscaping

Members of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Landscaping Fund are hoping for a donation for daffodil and tulip bulbs to be placed in the ground cover of the nursing home.

Mrs. Carlton Cook of the landscaping committee said Tuesday, "I don't think people realize how permanent such plantings really are. The tulips will multiply and in six years have to be divided and the daffodils will be pretty for many years".

Members of the auxiliary will plant the bulbs, which require little care.

The group is anxious to get the work done to make the grounds lovely in spring.

An open house is planned upon completion.

"Recent rains have helped since grass and many trees have been planted," continued Mrs. Cook. "The plan now calls for three Sunburst Locust trees at $10 each and nine bird feeders at $10 each."

Well drillers arrived Monday to continue with that phase of the project.

Oils, Watercolors Will Be Entered in Art Exhibition

The 15th annual Downtown Art Exhibition, held at The National Bank of Toledo's main office at Madison and Huron, is scheduled for Nov. 10-20.

Adult and high school artists from 11 counties including Lenawee, are being invited to enter the competition, which is divided into two categories, oils and watercolors, in each of the two sections, high school and adult.

Entries in both sections may be submitted at the Toledo Artists' Club, 3128 Collingworth Blvd., Toledo, between Saturday, October 31, and Friday, November 6.

High school entry deadline is 3:30 p.m. Nov. 6, while adult entries will be accepted until 6 p.m. on that date. No entry fee is required.

In the adult section, first, second and third awards of $75, $50 and $25 will be made in each of the two categories, and awards of $25, $10 and $5 will be made on the same basis for the high school group.

The number of favorable ballots cast by the public during the time of the exhibition will determine the adult winner of a $50 popular prize.

All inquiries should be addressed to Mr. Charles B. Helburn at The National Bank of Toledo or to the Toledo Artists Club.

Fall Signup for '65 Winter Wheat Program

Winter wheat growers who sign up this fall to participate in the 1965 wheat program will be able to change their diversion or overplanting intentions any time before the close of the fall grain and wheat program signup next spring.

Leland D. Bush, chairman of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County committee, announced that this is being done so winter wheat growers will have the same opportunity as spring wheat growers in selecting a cropping pattern based on feed grain program and other information available at sign-up time next spring.

The major purpose of prompt sign-up is to qualify a producer for the wheat program's price-support loans and for diversion and certificate payments the first step for participating in the 1965 wheat program.

Growers of winter wheat who wish to take part in the 1965 wheat program need to file program applications by the October 2 sign-up deadline.

For 1965, the diversion programs offer participating growers the choice of substituting wheat for feed grains or feed grains for wheat while still qualifying for certain benefits of the two programs.

In 1964, participants lost all payments if they did not divert as agreed at sign-up time. This also will be true for 1965 after the signup deadline next spring.

The Lenawee County ASC Office will be open through October 2 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Evert Netchers To Be Honored at Open House

SOCIAL SECURITY

Question and Answers

QUESTION: I worked under social security for a short time during World War II. A few years ago I was told that I hadn't worked long enough to qualify for social security when I reached 65. I'm over 65 now — could I work some more and add enough social security credit to get old age benefits?

ANSWER: Yes, you can, but check with your social security office first. In the last several years the amount of work you need in order to get social security has been cut in half and the work you did during the war may be enough for you to qualify.

QUESTION: I am 74 years old but have never applied for social security as I am still working and making in the neighborhood of $8000 per year. Should I apply for social security now?

ANSWER: Yes, you should. The social security law states that a person can receive his benefits after he becomes 72 no matter how much he earns; you could apply and receive all your benefits despite your high earnings.

QUESTION: I haven't worked enough to get social security payments. I've heard people say you can "pay up" your social security all at once even if you have never worked. Is that true?

ANSWER: No. that's not true. You get social security credits by working for wages or operating a business. There is no other way.

'Doorways' Go to Hawaii, Western U.S.

Twenty-three members and guests of the Power Class of the Tecumseh Friends Church entered "Doorways to Adventure," Saturday evening.

This was the theme of the party, held in the basement of the church, which led the group on an imaginary trip.

First stop was Hawaii.

After entering a door with the greeting "Aloha" on it, each person was presented with a colorful lei by the hostesses, Carolyn and Marjorie Chase, Marjorie Martin, and Ardis Drewyor.

Mrs. Lee Spohr, class president, conducted the business meeting and led devotions, using Psalms 100 and 150.

Dividing into four smaller groups, class members presented skits, utilizing varius objects from grab bags. The two teams headed by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sommers won prizes for their presentations.

Returning from Hawaii, the imaginary jet put the travelers down in the western part of the United States.

Grand Canyon and Bryce Canyon, as well as other scenic spots, were visited by means of colored slides which Miss Drewyor had taken on her vacation this past summer.

Several members of the group appeared in appropriate costumes for the evening. Mu-mus were worn by the hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Spohr wore matching riding habits and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker of Clinton wore costumes of the old West.

The church basement was decorated with large paper fans, colorful lanterns, a surf-fishing net and exotic flowers.

Even the refreshments spoke of Hawaii — pork (for sandwiches), fruit served in melon baskets and Hawaiian punch.

Guests for the evening included Marilyn Nobles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore of Britton, Judy and Patti Wilson of Clinton and Mrs. Nancy Hamilton and her sister of Adrian.

THE CROP IS SHORN — Jeff Langham, 11, isn't a beatle — he's an actor. Jeff spent the summer performing in Shakespearean dramas at Irish Hills Playhouse and a proper young Englishman from olden days wore long locks. Jeff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Langham, 706 Outer Dr., decided that school days should bring Jeff's hair up-to-date. Russ Garno gladly performs the task. Can't tell if Jeff is sad or if he is practicing his method acting.

Two Ministers Will Speak at Homecoming

The Rev. Donald MacPherson and the Rev. Lindsay MacPherson will be the speakers for the third annual homecoming of the Tecumseh Assembly of God.

The event will be held Sunday, Oct. 11, with all-day services beginning at 10 a.m.

The MacPherson brothers formerly pastored in Tecumseh.

The Rev. Donald MacPherson, now of Ganaoque, Ont., Canada, will be the speaker at the 11 a.m. service following Sunday School.

The Rev. Lindsay MacPherson, now of Atlanta, will speak at the evening service at 7:30.

A fellowship dinner will be held in the Products Workers Union Hall at 1 p.m. with a fellowship sing at 3 and the Christ Ambassador service at 6:30 p.m.

Pastor Harold E. Speer and Frances A. Pinkard, committee chairman, extend a special invitation to the public.

Deerfield Catholic Church Celebrates 100th Birthday

By MRS. WILLIAM K. GEE

DEERFIELD — The centennial celebration of the dedication of St. Alphonsus Catholic Church at Deerfield will be observed by three former pastors with the present pastor, the Rev. Fr. J. William Griffith, and the parishioners on Sunday, Oct. 11.

The observance will begin with Solemn High Mass at 12 noon, followed by a buffet luncheon from 2 to 4 p.m., to be held in Deerfield High School cafeteria.

The centennial celebration will conclude with a homecoming social event from 8 to 12 in the evening in the High School.

An historical display will be arranged in the high school gymnasium of items important to the lives of the parishioners of an earlier day.

★

FRIENDS OF St. Alphonsus, both in Deerfield and from other points, have searched their attics or have loaned valuable family heirlooms for the display.

A centennial book, dedicated to 100 years in God's service and containing several pictures with a brief history, has been prepared for distribution at the event.

Celebrant of the solemn high Mass will be the Rev. Fr. George H. Kerby, former pastor to St. Alphonsus, who served there from 1938 until 1950.

Assisting Fr. Kerby will be the Rev. Fr. John L. Foley as deacon and the Rev. Fr. Sigismund Osmialowski, sub-deacon, both former pastors, with Fr. Griffith.

The Rev. Fr. Henry McKeever, CSSR, of Holy Redeemer Church in Detroit, has accepted the invitation to deliver the sermon, in memory of the pioneer Redemptorist Fathers who founded the first Catholic Church in the Deerfield area.

Scout Cabin Fund Needs Donations

The Tecumseh Scout Cabin Organization is still short of money in the building fund to meet the needs of Tecumseh Scouters.

To prove that every donation helps, no matter how large or small, Troop No. 102 of the Tecumseh Girl Scouts has sent in the remainder of their troop treasury, increasing the building fund to $1,556.64. This is only 31% of the $5,000 goal.

All contributions may be sent to the Tecumseh Scout Cabin Organization Building Fund, % Mrs. John Robinson, 1210 Shady Lane.

2 Different Worlds

George Haney, a member of the Peace Corps in Monrovia, Liberia, West Africa, recently wrote to Arthur Collingsworth about a vacation trip to the interior of Cape Mount County with the Agriculture Extension agent, Victor Yates, who is living in two different worlds: tribal and civilized.

Mr. Yates was born deep in the interior of Cape Mount, where there are no roads, no schools and no communication facilities.

Although his mother was a member of a local tribe, the Vai, he was distinguished because his father was from the "civilized" community because he was descended from the freed American slaves who colonized that part of the West African coast and subjugated the native inhabitants prior to the U.S. Civil War.

Helped by this distinction, Mr. Yates worked his way through college, receiving a bachelor's degree in agriculture from the mission college.

Although his public life is that of any modern, well-educated man with a responsible government position, his roots are in the tribal society in which he was raised.

★

AT HIS HOME, only the Vai dialect is spoken, along with smatterings of country (pidgen) English; only country chop is eaten (a huge platter of rice covered with fish or meat stew, called "soup"); and the woman he is living with is his country wife (he is separated from his "legal" or "civilized" wife).

The adjective "country" means that something is done according to traditional or tribal customs as opposed to modern conventions or methods.

Mr. Yates was an ideal guide, for he speaks both English and Vai fluently and knows local conditions and customs.

A 20-minute flight by chartered plane took the men to the county seat of Cape Mount, Robertsport, which is inaccessible by road because of coastal marches and swamps surrounding it.

Here they saw the last of electricity, plumbing and ice cubes, for the town, although isolated boasted a town wide power system.

After one and a half hour's travel in an oversized rowboat with an outboard motor, they reached the town of Dia on the Maffa River, where a trail begins which the people have widened into a motor road. The men transferred their things into a Land Rover to ride to the other end of the 20-mile "road" in a little over two hours.

"IT WAS A HERO'S welcome Mr. Haney," Mr. Yates said, "near the town of Jene Wondee, that we would spend the next three weeks."

"The hospitality of Victor's brother-in-law was most generous, and his family went out of their way to make me comfortable (giving me the only mattress and not putting the usual amount of hot, hot Liberian peppers in the chop).

Friends and relatives from miles around arrived every day at noon carying a complete dinner for us. This consisted of a huge bowl of country rice (brown-not polished — and much more flavorful than the polished variety) and a bowl of "soup" to be served on top of the rice.

"The soup is invariable a rich palm oil, in which has been cooked any number of various meats and fish — whatever happens to be available at the time (bush cow, bush hog, chicken, ground hog, goat, monkey or large insects).

"It also contains vegetables — usually potato greens or collard greens, but occasionally eggplant, tomatoes or other vegetables popular in the States.

"I didn't find the greens tasty, but the soup containing eggplant, or "bitterballs" was delicious.

MAIN PURPOSE of the trip was to encourage area people to change their primitive farming methods and the men traveled by foot to six major villages.

In the morning, when it was less hot, they walked two to three hours, reaching a village in time for dinner. They would bathe in rivers because it was too far inland to be bothered by crocodiles.

When darkness came and everyone was in from the fields, they would hold a meeting, which opened with an ingenious kerosene projector, while Mr. Yates explained the farm scenes in the local dialect, pointing out how modern agricultural practices could improve their farms.

"After the meeting we would retire to the village "guest house", where I was surprised anew each evening by the cleanliness and comfort of our accommodations in each different town.

"We stayed in a large mud house with a roof of zinc, rather than traditional thatch; had a comfortable bed with western style frame and foot-thick mattress of straw.

"Occasionally we had a mosquito net, though mostly I had to rely on my trusty spray can of Shelltox to fight the cockroaches, mosquitoes and flies.

"MY DIET in these villages was mostly fruit and rice. Of course we were offered plenty of rice and soup, but it was actually painful for me to eat it — with its usually large number of hot peppers.

"I enjoyed the abundance of bananas, pineapples and yoco yams along the trail; and even got used to eating kola nuts, which are extremely bitter, have a high caffine content and are supposed to keep you from getting hungry. They are also an important ingredient in Cocoa-Cola.

In the large village of Bangoma, the two men witnessed part of the initiation ceremony of a two-year long "bush school," run by the Sandae, a women's secret society, which was just coming to a close.

Feasting and all-night dancing lasted for four days.

At the end of this time, the initiates, (12 to 15 years old) were dressed by their families in the most colorful and ostentatious garments they could afford and put on display. Men from all the surrounding villages would come to choose a wife . . . or two or three.

Highest official in the county, the Superintendent, second in the eyes of the people only to the president of the nation, toured the area.

The "Sup" was greeted everywhere with great rejoicing and huge celebrations, with each town trying to outdo the other in the amount of noise made, gifts presented, stout and whisky consumed and number of women available.

"The trip was probably the most fascinating experience I've had since coming to Liberia. It gave me a deeper insight into the traditional African way of life than I had ever expected to have, as well as being a very productive "working vacation," ended Mr. Haney.

Enrollment Hits 3,229

Present enrollment in the Tecumseh Public Schools is 3,229, nine more students than officials had budgeted for and 84 more than the official enrollment of 1963'64.

The official enrollment for state aid for 1964'65 will be determined Friday, Sept. 25.

The high school did not quite reach an anticipated figure of 940. Principal Neville Hart reports attendance there of 928.

Guest of Honor at Bridal Shower is Marilee Kiser

Marilee Kiser was honored at a bridal shower given by Shirley Hunt and Beverly Miller at the Miller home Sept. 21.

Eight guests attended from Clinton, Addison, Adrian and Tecumseh.

In lieu of the usual games, each guest prepared a page for a scrap book, using magazine clippings, depicting the years from childhood to 25 years of wedded life.

A doll cake and a heart-shaped cake topped with a wedding bell and small bridal couple made by Mrs. Robert Hunt were featured at the refreshment table.

Miss Kiser's marriage to Richard Birdwell will be an event of Sept. 26 at St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Skeet Shooters Invited To Join Conservation Club

Officers of the Tecumseh Conservation Club invites people interested in trap and skeet shooting to join the club.

J. J. Walper is the president and Jack Curtiss, vice-president.

The members have 80 acres of land with two trap houses and the only skeet range in Lenawee County.

Tom Rudd, secretary and treasurer, would like to hear from interested persons after 6 p.m. His phone number is 423-3153.

BUILDING PERMITS

Tecumseh Township has zoning regulations and a permit is needed to build, alter or repair any dwelling. A first floor plan is required which will be kept by Building Inspector.

Permits should be secured before construction is started.

No House Trailers will be lived in, any place in Tecumseh Township, except in Trailer Parks.

Also required is an electrical permit for any type wiring. This permit can be secured from the City Engineer of Tecumseh.

Township Board meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month at The Tecumseh Implement Company.

Value of Buildings	4,201,150.00
Value of Equipment	305,600.00
Number of Buildings		10
Number of Classrooms		87
Number of Teachers		106½
Teachers' Salaries
Minimum	$4500.00
Maximum	7420.00
Median	5660.00
Number of Elementary Pupils, Resident		1827
Number of Elementary Pupils, Non-Resident		-0-
Number of Secondary Pupils, Resident		1360
Number of Secondary Pupils, Non-Resident		3
Ratio of pupils to teachers		29.953

Unusual progress has been made this year in providing for the educational needs of this community. Although in 1960-61 Tecumseh had outstanding school buildings and curriculums from kindergarten through the 12th grade as well as adult education programs, the years since were at an all time low until this year due to lack of funds and a debt which the Board had promised the electorate to pay. However, this year many services have been restored and plans formulated to return the schools to an even higher quality educationally than ever before. This year, in addition to paying off the debt in full, there is a balance of $32,312.99. The Board of Education as well as the staff have worked diligently to achieve these advances and balance.

A staff of 176 serves our 3190 children. It is made up of a superintendent of schools, assistant superintendent for business affairs, a high school principal, assistant high school principal, junior high school principal, two full time and three teaching principals, 58 elementary and 49 secondary teachers, 2 public librarians, three bookkeepers, one attendance officer, three secretaries, maintenance engineer, 10 custodians, bus supervisor, bus mechanic, 23 bus drivers, electrician, grounds keeper, hot lunch manager and 3 assistants, and nine lunch supervisors. Included in the teaching staff are two full time vocal music teachers, two full time instrumental teachers, four physical education teachers, two school librarians, one art teacher, two secondary guidance directors, a teacher of the physically handicapped, and five teachers of the mentally retarded.

Since some of the operating millage was not needed to pay off the deficit and extra state aid was available, the Board reinstated vocal music classes to the grades by hiring two vocal teachers. The Sutton School was again operated for Special Education pupils who are trainable but not educable, and this program was financed by the Lenawee County Special Education Funds. The Junior High School program ran on a full time basis for the first time since 1961 thus providing an adequate program for the Junior High. The Senior High was operated as in the past except for improved and augmented curriculums which enabled the pupils to be served more adquately. Since there is a limit to which the facilities of the high school can be stretched without the elimination of study hall periods, as the building is already over-taxed by approximately 250 pupils more than its rated capacity of 600, tentative plans were formulated for additions in the future. A generous donor provided four hundred thousand dollars with which to build and equip additions and the construction of same is expected to be completed by fall.

The bus garage was completed and the complete bus system was reorganized Transportation has been very efficient and reasonable in cost. The new bus supervisor and mechanic have cooperated with the assistant superintendent in making this service run smoothly and efficiently. The Board successfully presented a millage proposition, four mills for five years, a campaign to become a Third Class School District, and a .6 mill operational millage for the operation of the public library. Gifts were received during the year which enabled the high school to operate more efficiently in the shop area and in business education. The public library and school library also were the recipients of gift funds to augment their services.

Two Appointed to Scout Council for Girl's Roundup

Two from Tecumseh are members of the committee for the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council for the Senior Roundup to be held at Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, next summer.

Mrs. Donald Creger is serving on the try-out committee and Mrs. John Cameron on finance with Mrs. Allen Whiteman of Clinton.

They attended a meeting Sept. 24 in Jackson when Mrs. G. L. Murphy, president of the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council, announced the appointment of Mrs. Maude Herman as the local Council Roundup Coordinator.

Applications are in the hands of the Senior Girl Scouts of the Irish Hills Council now and the tryout date is set for Saturday, Oct. 17, at Camp O' the Hills on Wamplers Lake from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

All registered senior girl scouts who have submitted applications for Roundup training will participate.

Training of the selected girls will continue until time for the Roundup.

Antique Show To Be in Detroit

The Great Lakes Antique Show will open at the Fountain Room of Detroit's Masonic Temple Wednesday, Oct. 21, to Saturday, Oct. 24.

'New Age Opens New Doors'

"The New Age Opens New Doors" was the topic of the program presented by Mrs. Tracy Lord for the Irene Circle of the Methodist Church Monday evening.

She was assisted in the program by Mrs. Harry West, Mrs. Glenn Hargis and Mrs. George Green.

Seventeen members met at the home of Mrs. Herbert Dillon.

Announcement was made of a study hour beginning Oct. 14 at 9 a.m. and meeting weekly. The subject for study will be "Christian Family Living".

Refreshments were served in conclusion by Mrs. Glenn Rupp and Mrs. Lee Kayner.

—o—

Mrs. Warren Puffer and Mrs. Claude Sebring attended a workshop for nursery school teachers Saturday at the Merrill Palmer Institute in Detroit. The meeting was sponsored by the Pre-School Association of Metropolitan Detroit.

Poinsettia Sale Helps Youngsters

"Thank you for the gifts. They were very nice. I had a nice graduation," wrote Darlene Jurlovic to the World War II Mothers.

The 18-year-old girl's step-father and her mother died on consecutive days in May and were buried at the same service.

This left Darlene and her 13-year-old sister, Margie, with only their grandmother, whom they had not seen in many years, as their only living relative.

★

DARLENE'S LETTER of thanks was for financial aid and clothing given her to help with her graduation from high school by the Mothers of World War II.

The Mothers use proceeds from the sale of miniature poinsettias to help veterans and their families.

The group from Manitou Beach will be selling the little flowers Friday and Saturday in downtown Tecumseh streets.

Ann Beardsley Picked Prexy of 4-H Club

Ann Beardsley was elected president of the North Franklin Maidens at an organizational meeting Sept. 24 at the home of Cheryl and Patti Aebersold.

Other officers are:

Vice-president — Lorrie Beevers
Secretary — Patti Aebersold
Treasurer — Susie Beardsley
Reporter — Cathy Beevers

Thursday nights were chosen for meetings. A demonstration on "How To Pick a Pattern" was presented on the theme.

Mrs. Aebersold served refreshments.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 8 at the home of Mrs. Roger Williams.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Will Seat Belts Help

Can the highway slaughter be stopped?

The answer, unfortunately, is most probably "No." But most certainly the great number of automobile deaths can be lessened.

One of the simplest ways to slash the rate is for people to wear seat belts.

This point is brought out by two University of Michigan medical school faculty members, Dr. Paul Gikas and Dr. Donald F. Hauelke, who have studied more than 200 highway fatalities in Washtenaw County during the past 2½ years.

Before an audience of area newspaper editors and publishers at the medical school amphitheater, Dr. Gikas unfolded the findings. He showed slide after slide of death scenes.

"We project the driver back into his place and see if he could have been saved had he remained there."

In case after case, it was proved that a simple lap seat belt would have prevented deaths in most cases. The area around the driver's place was usually left unscathed, even with roof damage.

Alcohol is a factor in half of the traffic deaths studied, but we wonder if this can ever be corrected.

We know that seat belts can help.

The medico said they should be placed on every passenger, especially small children, who will fly like a rubber ball through the interior of a car involved in a mishap.

The doctor said many people have seat belts, but use them only when they drive in the country. Yet, 75% of car accidents take place in the city driving at relatively slow speeds.

New cars now must have seat belts up front, by state law. (They should be in back, too.) But this doesn't mean people will wear them. That's going to take education, plenty of it.

As a starter, one of the best ways we can think of would be to arrange for driver education classes to attend a lecture by Dr. Gikas or Dr. Haulke at U of M, similar to the one given Friday night. Dads and moms of students might also go.

Pleasant Sort of Hurt

As our friend Hugh Walter would say, "That sounds like a pleasant sort of a hurt".

Well, it is, actually, this steady growth of your community weekly newspaper.

Our press run has quietly rolled upward in the past year. This week the figure is 3,600.

But the number of papers is only part of the story. The advertising and news columns have gotten more imposing, too. In last week's paper, there were 24 pages with 2,737 inches of ad materials and 1,275 inches devoted to news stories, features and pictures.

Nearly all of the news is local, telling the Tecumseh-land story from a hundred different angles.

Producing a community paper of this scope takes its toll, physically and mentally, especially under our recent jammed-up Wednesday schedule. That's the day the paper is run, gathered into sections, addressed and delivered to the post office and 19 newsstands all over the area.

Way too much news copy and advertising has been handled Wednesday, throwing our mechanical side into an awful bind. A work day from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. — and later — has become common.

Much of the tardy material could have been in the office up to 36 hours earlier. But we all know human nature. Often a person will neglect to get a story or ad ready Monday.

Well, the only solution would seem to be a series of deadlines, which we have hammered together in a story on the front page. Like any regulation, they'll only be of value if they are followed to the letter.

We're certain that as folks learn of our "pleasant sort of a hurt" they'll do their best to help relieve the situation.

City - School Cooperation

For any community, two of the most important groups operating are the city council and school board.

Through lack of communication, there can be crossed wires and misunderstanding sometimes.

In the last Tecumseh Council session, several city fathers expressed the opinion that it might be a good idea for Councilmen and school boardmen to have informal meetings to discuss common projects.

This is difficult since the two bodies both meet on the third Monday night of the month — Council also huddles on the first Monday — each body having packed agendas.

When the city business was completed that night, about 10:30 p.m., Councilmen decided to buzz over to the board of ed gathering and carry out the idea expressed earlier.

School boardmen were happy to have the guests and when their toil was done, the two groups chit-chatted informally.

With so many items in common, we think such get-togethers by our officials make a lot of good sense and will certainly benefit local citizens.

Want to Tour Boysville?

How many residents of the area know what Boysville is?

We're afraid too many fail to realize this is a bona fide boarding school with an enrollment of 175 young men, instructed by Roman Catholic Brothers of Holy Cross.

Because the youngsters come from broken homes, a lot of people get the idea Boysville is some sort of reform school.

Negative!

We have always felt that the name could well be changed because this in itself might help dispell the idea that the attractive campus, located in Macon, is a disciplinary institution.

We favor Cardinal Mooney Academy, naming it in honor of the late and distinguished church leader.

In chatting with Brother Phillip, CSC, director of Boysville, we learned that Tecumseh organizations would be most welcome to tour the school. Kiwanis Club members visited Boysville last week as part of their regular program and were amazed at the campus.

Arrangements can be made by calling Brother Phillip.

"Some p[illegible] believe they are having a good time unless they're doing something they can't afford."

City Bills of $12,561 Are Paid

City Councilmen approved the payment of $12,561.30 in bills from the general fund at Monday's meeting.

Among them were:

Selder's Excavating (refund street repair deposit) — $200.00

Ellen Snedicor (refund street repair fund) — $200.00

Don's Beef Buffet (selection of ficial dinners) — $31.74

New York Central (repair of tracks following city sewer work) — $145.54

Michigan Tractor and Machinery Co. (miscellaneous highway equipment) — $103.90

Adrian Sand & Gravel (street maintenance) — $140.16

Employees Retirement Fund (city's contribution) — $559.41

Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. (Compensation Insurance) — $165.03.

General Telephone Co. — $271.06

Michigan Hospital Service (Blue Cross) — $683.43

Bills paid from the sewage disposal operation and maintenance fund totaled $430.51, while water department and maintenance fund bills totaled $162.91.

Recreation Needs Are Pointed Out

A list of needs for the city's recreation program was submitted to Council Sept. 21 in the report from Superintendent Don Moffatt.

Included are:

► Park development on Shady Lane.

► Expand park area at Kiwanis Park.

Keep Him in Peace

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee." is the quotation from Isaiah (26:3) to be read at Christian Science church Sunday.

Also included will be a quotation from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Subject of the lesson-sermon is "Unreality".

TEEN TALK

By DEBORAH EARLING

Seniors had their first experience working with the refreshment stand Sept. 18 at the football game.

Nancy Swane[illegible] are chairmen for the project. Improvements were made on the main refreshment stand and two new ones were built.

New techniques for preparing and selling food were introduced and seemed to work out to the satisfaction of both workers and customers.

The money earned is divided among the workers to be put toward the senior trip.

Plastic - covered "Indian pillows", designed to make an evening on the bleachers more comfortable, are also on sale in the main stand.

The profits made on this go to the senior cheerleaders and players who are unable to work in the refreshment stands during the games.

√

At the sophomores' first class meetings, they discussed the activities that they will be sponsoring throughout the 1964-65 year — the first big one being the float for Homecoming.

Sophomores will order their class rings in November.

Freshmen are busy adjusting to their new "home".

Frosh officers include:

President — G[illegible] Fraser

Vice-president — Philip Van Valkenburg

Secretary — Kathy Beevers

Treasurer — John Hamilton

Student Council — Debbie Blanchard, Jim Mobley, Pat Boltz and George Surratt.

√

GAA members elected officers at their first meeting.

President — Mary Jo Mensing

Vice-president — Janice Matteson

Secretary — Cindy Calhoun

Treasurer — Diane Lake

Student Council — Gayle Murdock

Planned for this fall are touch football and archery, including two football games with other schools.

Key chains and sweatshirts will be on sale soon.

GAA sponsored the dance that was held in the cafeteria after the victorious football game Sept. 18.

Last May, the Latin Club elected officers for the 1964-'65 school year.

President — Jerry Hale

Vice-president — Jeff Long

Secretary — Mary Ann Allen

Treasurer — Joe Poley

Reporter — [illegible] Barkey

At the officers' meeting Sept. 22, the agenda for this year was discussed.

Included in these plans are an initiation for all new members and either movies or guest speakers for each meeting.

The annual Banquet will be held some time in May.

At the Teen Club dance September 9, a total of 143 membership cards were sold. The seniors won top attendance with 46 present, followed by the freshmen with 45, then 37 juniors and last were the sophomores with 24 attendants.

Four new representatives from each class will be elected to the Legislature Oct. 3 from the list of following nominees:

Juniors — Pat Schwartz, Marcia Lord, Cathy Carter, Jana Barron, Beth O'Neil, John Goodman, Ron Bolz and Kingsley Dunn.

Seniors — Pam Spicer, Linda Easton, Kay Becker, Marianne Johnston, Chuck Trickey, Rusty O'Neil, Russ Blanden and Jerry Hale.

NEW ORGAN FILLS ST. PETER'S CHOIR LOFT

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

When Bob Feller, as an Iowa farm boy, showed signs of becoming a baseball standout, his dad built a diamond behind the barn and formed a team.

This gave the hard-throwing youngster a chance to get plenty of baseball action. As most sports fans recall, Bob developed into an all-time pitching sensation — thanks greatly to those early years on the family field.

Which brings this scribbler to a prediction—some day, a chap named Harold Schill of Manchester will whizz around speedways at such places as Indianapolis and Daytona with the nation's best.

This may seem a trifle farfetched, but look what happened to Bob Feller.

★

HAROLD'S DAD, Veryl, a long-time Tecumseh Products Co. employee, got an idea four years ago when his son started driving stock cars at Buller Speedway in Quincy.

"Why not have a track of our own?" an inner voice asked Veryl.

He mentioned his thought to several friends and they agreed to go along. Land was purchased south of Manchester, where the terrain offered a huge basin, amphitheatre style, ideal for a banked oval and seating.

Along the way, the others dropped out of the project, but Veryl pushed boldly ahead.

Manchester Speedway opened for racing the summer of 1962 on a ¾-mile run, with seats for about 2,000. One of the first cars entered was No. 65, Harold Schill's pink-painted fireball.

Week after week the program at the Speedway grew. Always among the top racers was No. 65.

★

THE HIGHLY - SUCCESSFUL '64 season came to a close Sunday afternoon with 70 stocks in the pit and 1,500 people in the stands.

For Harold Schill in his No. 65, it started as a big day.

In the first heat race, for the 10 fastest qualifiers, Harold carefully threaded his way thru the field and finished out front.

His next venture was the pursuit, in which a car must drop from the running when another passes it.

Harold, being top qualifier, selected last place at the start, letting the other cars battle over eliminating one another, then, zoom, he was past the last few cars and had captured another checkered flag.

Other events followed, including the 25-lap const, which was taken by Art Horn of Adrian and the 50-lap semi, that went to Dick Hinkle of Litchfield.

HAROLD DIDN'T run in these, waiting for the 100-lap event, which is the year's grand finale.

No. 65 purred like a kitty as the field puffed and heaved for positions. Twice the race had to be stopped when accidents occurred, but after each new start,

FISHER BODY PLANT GROWS — Folks driving along Occidental Hwy. these days have quite a sight to view as they near Gady Rd. It's the giant Fisher Body plant taking shape. Currently, brick work is being done on the front of the 290,000 square-feet layout with steel framing nearly complete. Overseeing the operation is Joe Reeson, resident engineer for Argonaut Division of General Motors.

18th Band Festival Coming October 13

For the 18th consecutive year Tecumseh plays host for all the high school bands of Lenawee County in one of the most impressive pageants in this area. The annual Band Festival will be 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 13, on the Tecumseh High School football field.

This impressive outdoor event started eighteen years ago when an idea of Clare Camburn, showman and musician, came into reality. The annual Band Festival can best be described by the Rev. Blair O. Bashore who was one of the originators of the festival:

"In the summer of 1946 a great bandmaster and friend of youth, the late Clare Camburn, came to me with an idea which he had dreamed about for years. This burning idea, could, he said, 'be realized by having a group of high school bands, each doing its part through music and drama, perform some historical or religious event of national or world significance'.

"This idea struck a warm spot in my heart. Mr. Camburn asked, "will you help"? and I replied with a firm 'yes'.

"FOR THE FIRST fifteen years of the Lenawee County Band Festival it was my high honor to work with Mr. Camburn in the promotion of what we felt was Lenawee County's greatest band entertainment of the year.

"One of the rules made at the inception of the Festival was that here would be no prize given for excellence. This would give each band, regardless of size, an equal opportunity. Also, each band was to share equally in the gate receipts.

"Mr. Camburn and I felt from the very beginning that the concluding numbers at each Festival should be done by the massed bands.

"After 17 festivals I am convinced that the dream Mr. Camburn had has become an annual reality. It is something thousands of citizens look forward to each year."

★

THIS YEAR the participating bands and directors are:

Addison, Kenneth Spaulding
Adrian, Robert Whitacre and Myron Teague
Blissfield, Bruce McCormick
Britton-Macon, George Berryman
Clinton, Karl Wirt
Deerfield, Ed Klenk
Hudson, Norm Vance, Joe Regner
Madison, Francis Johns
Morenci, Gerald Bach
Onsted, Earl Haberkamp
Sand Creek, Dick Farley
Tecumseh, Don Johnson and Miles Cowdrey

★

EACH BAND will perform an individual show and at the close of the program all the bands will combine to perform, "The Whiffenpoof Song," "The Thunderer," and "The Star Spangled Banner." The massed band selections will be conducted by Miles Cowdrey, president of the Lenawee County Band Directors Association. Rev. Blair O. Bashore will narrate the entire show for the 18th consecutive year.

G-M Sewer Could Start This Month

Actual construction of an eight-inch pressure sewer from the city to G-M's Fisher Body Plant on Occidental Hwy. could start yet this month.

Council approved purchase of the pipe Monday night, and learned that construction bids may be in for the Oct. 18 meeting.

City Manager Cal Zorn says the engineering plans are nearly finished and bids will probably be sought next week.

Although the line might be completely installed by early December, a new lift station at the plant site will not be completed until later.

'Mobile Home Sales' Is OK

A request to include "mobile home sales" in the highway business use ordinance was approved for Murray and Doris Day Monday night by Council.

The Days own property along W. Chicago Blvd. and north on Occidental Hwy.

Indians, Big Reds Tangle in Friday's League Meeting

Tecumseh Indians meet Milan here Friday night in hopes of scoring their second straight win in the Huron League football race.

One-point victors over Flat Rock last week, the Indians may face an up-hill battle against the Big Reds, who are having a mediocre season, losing to Chelsea in their opener.

Milan has racked up two straight victories, defeating Airport, 20-0, last week.

With the Tecumseh offense being stymied by eight and nine-man lines, the Friday night tilt is rated a tossup.

Two Students from Tecumseh Are Honored

Two Tecumseh High School students have been honored for their high performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test last spring.

They are Jeffrey Noe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Noe of 803 N. Union St. and Joseph E. Poley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Poley of 311 W. Patterson St.

The youths received a formal letter of commendation signed by Neville Hart, THS principal, and John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corp.

Blaze Damages Parked Vehicle

A car owned by Frank Mapes of Addison was damaged by fire early Monday morning as it was parked on the Tecumseh Products Co. parking lot.

The fire was confined to the front seat of the automobile. It was extinguished by the Tecumseh Fire Department.

Walt in Town

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Nichols of Avon Lake, O., were back in the city for a visit with friends Wednesday. Walt operates a theatre there.

Acres PTA To Blacktop Hoop Court

Marvin Nelson was installed as president of Tecumseh Acres PTA at the initial meeting on Sept. 30.

Other officers:

Secretary — Mrs. Clyde Grady
Treasurer — Mrs. Thomas Mitchell
Teacher vice-president — Mrs. Carl Barnes

Members voted to use the proceeds from last year's Fun Night to blacktop the basketball court, with the balance of the cost to be met by the Tecumseh School Board.

James McDowell, superintendent of the Tecumseh Schools, was the guest speaker.

Indian Hills Storm Sewer Is Sought

A request for a special assessment for a storm sewer in the Indian Hills subdivision was accepted for consideration by Council Monday night.

C. K. Larnerd, Detroit builder, told city officials that he had purchased 50 lots in the subdivision, but was not aware that a storm sewer did not exist.

The city has refused him a building permit until the sewer is installed. Estimated sewer cost is $6,000.

He proposed to Council that all lots in the subdivision, including those now occupied by homes and property owners, share equally in the cost.

Over a four-year proposed period, cost to present property owners was estimated at about $13 a year.

One-Year Contract Not Sufficient Chief Declares

Police Chief Murell Clark told councilmen Monday night that the plan to employ a juvenile officer by the city and schools was not sufficient.

He said all interested applicants would not accept a one-year contract.

Both Council and the School Board had approved expenditures for one year, but neither had made provisions for a longer period.

Council suggested a meeting with school officials to consider employment of an officer for two or three-year term.

German Built Pipe Organ Is Installed

By DELLA SHELTON

St. Peter's Episcopal Church Sunday will be filled for the first time with the glorious music of the new classic von Beckerath pipe organ.

The 992-pipe instrument, costing $15,000, is said to be one of the finest small pope organs in the nation.

It will be blessed at Sunday's 10 a.m. Morning Prayer.

A dedication festival concert will be held at 8 p.m. with Prof. Erich Goldschmidt of the department of music of Eastern Michigan University, recitalist, and the EMU choir singing under the direction of Blaine Ballard. The public is invited to the concert by the Rev. Frank Hawthorne, rector.

Mr. Goldschmidt, who drew up the stop list for the organ, will be guest organist at the morning service.

Mrs. Blaine Ballard, church organist, will also play. Special music will be provided by St. Peter's Choir with the anthems including "Veni, Creator" — Oh, Come, Creator Spirit."

★

A RECEPTION in the parish hall will follow, giving worshippers an opportunity to meet Rudolph von Beckerath of Hamburg, Germany, designer and builder of the organ, and one of his two assistants, Richard Hammar.

A second assistant, Timm Sckopp, will have left the city before Sunday.

The organ is of the tracher action type. It differs from the usual modern pipe organ in that each key on the console is connected by mechanical linkage to the pallet and controls the speech of the pipes.

Most present-day organs have the pipes opened by electronic impulses.

Such construction permits a sharper, more brilliant tone.

"The music from this organ will have the fresh quality of sparkling, running water," Mr. von Beckerath said.

★

THE BUILDER, who is known by professional organists as one of the world's greatest designers and builders, has long been interested in the classic organs of the type used in the time of Bach.

Dr. Albert Schwitzer, called the world's finest interpreter of Bach, sparked a revival of interest in the classic type of organ in the early decades of the 20th century.

Mr. von Beckerath, who worked for other builders before establishing his own firm, has installed five organs on this continent, including those in St. Paul's Roman Catholic Cathedral in Pittsburgh, Pa., and in St. Joseph's Shrine in Montreal, Que.

If you'll note the dates of the Tecumseh Players' initial offering of the year, "State of the Union," you'll see it does not play either Friday night of the two weeks. Reason. Tecumseh is a noised of football fans and the Players wouldn't want to keep anyone from seeing the action — themselves included.

There aren't any nuts left by the road any more, said Lyle Grigg, "all the 'nuts' from Toledo and Detroit have been scrounging around gathering them up".

Crisp, sunny days of Fall bring golden leaves raining down. Children all over the city are collecting chestnuts and reminding Mom to stock up on marshmallows, "So when we have enough leaves, we can roast them in the bonfire".

Adrian Woman Reviews Volume for Monday Club

Mrs. Russell McAfee of Adrian reviewed the book, "Across the Wide Missouri" by Bernard DeVoto at the fall luncheon of the Tecumseh Monday Club Oct. 5.

Eighty-seven members and friends, including several county officers, attended the event in the Youth House in the First Baptist Church.

Table were decorated in fall colors, complimented by many Indian mementoes to accent the book review.

Two large ceramic Indians flanked a huge white tureen, filled with autumn blossoms and centered the speakers table.

Past presidents of the club entertained with a surprise musical selection, singing "Beautiful Dreamer", accompanied by Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

WHEN THE new church was designed, plans were made for the installation of a classic organ. A committee of members sought the services of Prof. Goldschmidt, who drew up a stop list for Mr. von Beckerath's consideration.

In 1962, he visited the church, measured the building and the organ gallery and returned to Germany to proceed with design and construction.

Five craftsmen, working under his direction, devoted months to the actual manufacture of the instrument.

Two of the men, Mr. Hammar and Mr. Sckopp, packed it in 20 crates and accompanied them to Tecumseh.

Mr. von Beckerath came here this week to do the voicing and the tonal finishing of the instrument.

there was Harold Schill edging forward toward the lead.

He got it about one-third of the way through and was holding a one-quarter lap edge over Louie J. Stemen of Hillsdale in No. 88.

Then suddenly the race was over for Harold. The drive shaft in his racer had snapped.

Mr. Stemen went on to win the 100 and ended up pocketing nearly $400 in prize money. He also was awarded high-point trophy for the year (the Schills decided Harold shouldn't be entered in this category) and another by fan vote as Sportsman of 1964.

WITH MR. AND MRS. SCHILL as managers, the plant requires about 32 employees — from corn poppers to pit stewards — and 95% of them are Schill relatives.

Veryl's mother, Mrs. Fred Schill of Manchester, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. John Ackerson of Jerome, head up the booming concession business, assisted by an assortment of nieces and nephews, most of whom are high school students.

John Ackerson takes tickets, which are sold by Mrs. Duane Keibler of Bridgewater, who's a Schill niece. Mr. Keibler is down in the pit as a steward.

To say that Manchester Speedway is a family affair would be the understatement of the year.

And how those Schills love it.

5,568 Given Polio Vaccine at 2 Clinics

A total of 5,568 persons received their first oral polio vaccine Sunday at two Tecumseh clinics.

A second and final dose will be available Dec. 2.

The drive, sponsored by the Lenawee County Medical Association and the Lenawee County Drug Association and directed by the Lenawee County Health Department, was held locally in the Tecumseh Acres School and the Community Center.

The vaccine was served on sugar lumps to 2,868 persons at the Community Center, where Mrs. Donald Geringer was clinical director.

At the Tecumseh Acres School, under the direction of Mrs. J. J. Walper, some 2,700 persons received the vaccine.

★

WORKING AT the first clinic were pharmacists Carl Lamb and LeMoyne Rost, members of the Jaycees, two members of the Future Nurses Club, a high school student working on a government class assignment and other volunteers.

Under Mrs. Walper's direction were pharmacists Mr. and Mrs. William Wright, Gray Ladies, members of the Jaycee Auxiliary and four high school government class students.

★

MEMBERS OF THE Raisin Valley CB Club, a citizens short-wave radio group hourly notifying headquarters at Adrian of progress of the clinics and made known availability of vaccine.

Mrs. Robert Bowers of the United Savings Bank handled the finances.

Mrs. Glenn Davis, Jr., and Mary Harsh worked prior to the drive setting up lists of patients of local doctors.

Fall Fashions To Be Shown

Fall fashions from Cal's Tog Shop and Green's Men and Boys Wear will be shown by local models at the Republican Headquarters Friday, Oct. 9, at 1:30 p.m.

The Republican Women Hi-Neighbor Caravan with candidates wives and Elly Peterson will be present for the afternoon.

The models are Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. James Robideau, Mrs. Don Smith, Mrs. Bill Hanna, James Fielder and Robert and Mark Murray.

Mrs. James Fielder will be the narrator. Mrs. Harold Pickard will assist. Decor and background furniture will be provided by Des Ermias.

The House of Glamour will do the hair styling for the ladies.

Among the candidates wives attending will be Mrs. George Meader, Mrs. Alvin Bentley, Mrs. William Milliken, Mrs. Myer Warshawski and Mrs. Allison Green.

Refreshments will be served courtesy of the Republican party.

$50,000 Goal Set for Drive

A goal of $50,000 has been set for the 1964 drive of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

It begins Wednesday, Oct. 14 with the industrial division. Business, professional and residential segments open Oct. 23.

Charitable budget for the year is $34,000, explains general chairman Kenneth Conway.

All donations over and above this amount will go towards improvement of the Pit, purchase of new books for the library and $1,000 in administrative expenses.

The Pit development project will eventually cost about $70,000 and include a new bath house, picnic areas, blacktop drives, fence, band shell and general landscaping.

Paying for this will follow a pattern set by Foundation trustees in building the new library. Its three-year mortgage was burned last winter — a year early — with a final payment of $26,500.

In the 1963 campaign, Tecumseh was 123% of its goal, which turned out to be top percentage for the entire state.

3 Autos Involved in Crash

Of five traffic accidents investigated by Tecumseh police during the past week, one involved three cars Saturday at the intersection of W. Chicago Blvd. and Union.

Arnold Shook, 61, of 1204 Shady Lane, has been charged with running a red light after first hitting a car driven by Velera J. Waynick, 16, 3125 Roger's Hwy., and then glancing off to hit Jerry L. Butler, 24, of 208 Cairns.

The Butler car was stopped for the light while the Waynick vehicle was making a right turn off Union onto the boulevard.

Orville D. Dewey, 67, of 215 N. Pearl, was taken to Herrick Hospital for treatment after a collision at E. Chicago Blvd. and Ottawa St. with Richard J. Bailey, 52, of 207 N. Democrat.

Dewey was cited for failing to yield the right of way.

LENORE C. BEDORE, 48, of 618 N. Evans St., was charged with disregard of a traffic light Tuesday when cars she and Donald L. Schmidt, 21, of 208 W. Cummins St., were driving collided in the intersection of Maumee and E. Chicago.

ETERNAL TRIANGLE — Sparking the plot of "State of the Union," being presented by the Tecumseh Players this month, is a romantic triangle between Mrs. Gene Earling (left), who publishes a chain of newspapers, Mrs. Howard Gentry, who plays the wife of Dr. Robert Murray. Dr. Murray will be Grant Matthews, a potential presidential candidate, with Mrs. Earling as a prime mover in getting him to run. The show opens Oct. 21, playing six nights over two weekends. It's being staged at the Players' new Little Theatre on Green Hwy., south of Tecumseh.

Area Obituaries

● JAMES FREDERICK STEELE

Services were held Monday at the Missionary Baptist Church for James F. Steele, 62, of 207 N. Pearl St., who died of a heart attack Thursday morning.

Employed as a carpenter by Jack Hughes, Mr. Steele was working on a new house at 6711 Mills Highway when he was stricken.

Coroner Edward Braun ruled the death the result of natural causes. Mr. Steele had been in ill health for the last year.

Born in Oak Shade, O., he was the son of James and Phoebe Kline Steele.

He parried Prudence Fretwell in Adrian Sept. 7, 1935. He was a member of the Tecumseh Missionary Baptist Church and the IOOF Lodge in Tecumseh.

Mr. Steele had lived at the North Pearl Street address only two months but had been a resident of Tecumseh most of his life, except for a year in Adrian.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter in Toledo by a former marriage. Her name and address are unknown.

He also is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ray Woolever of Michigan Center and Mrs. Seaman Martin, 5503 Tecumseh-Macon Rd., and a number of nieces and nephews.

Three brothers, Harry, George and John, preceded him in death.

The Rev. Seal Janeway officiated and burial was in the Lenawee Hills Memorial Park, Adrian.

Arrangements were made by the Proctor Funeral Home.

● MRS. JAMES GABLER

Services will be held Thursday in El Cajon, Calif. for Mrs. Dorothy Babcock Gabler, 46, who died Monday at her home in Lakeside, Calif., after a month's illness. Death was the result of heart failure.

Born in Tecumseh Jan. 29, 1918, she married James Gabler in 1941.

The family moved to California nine years ago.

Besides her husband she is survived by a daughter, Jamie Sue; a son, Mark William; her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith of Battle Creek.

Her father, William Babcock, preceded her in death.

Burial will be in the Chapel of the Roses Cemetery, El Cajon.

● CHARLES CLAYTON INGERSON

Services were held in Hudson for Charles Ingerson, 23, who was fatally injured in an auto accident Thursday evening near Evans Lake.

Mr. Ingerson had been employed as a foreman at the Standard Steel Products Corp., Clinton. He was a resident of Allen's Trailer Park.

A native of the Addison area and a member of the Rollin Center Methodist Church, he had lived in Clinton since May.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ingerson, and two sisters, Susan Ruth and Mary Lou, are in Amman, Jordan, where Mr. Ingerson is employed by the U.S. government in a farm program.

In addition to his wife, Joan, Mr. Ingerson is survived by two sons, David and John, all of Clinton.

● WILLIAM R. MONTGOMERY

Services were held Tuesday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for William Montgomery, 94, who died Sunday afternoon at the Beach Nursing Home, Monroe, where he had been a patient for the past two and one-half years.

Mr. Montgomery was born Jan. 5, 1870, at Kennett Square, Pa., the son of John and Hannah Robinson Montgomery.

Jan. 11, 1892, he married Gertrude A. Smith at Kennett Square.

Mr. Montgomery lived in Tecumseh from 1928 until 1962 and before his retirement was a press operator at Tecumseh Products Co.

He was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge in Pennsylvania. His wife died in 1955.

He is survived by three daughters, Miss Alice Montgomery of Monroe, Miss Gertrude C. Montgomery of Ypsilanti and Mrs. C. A. Reams of Dearborn; a son, William Montgomery of Ogden, Utah; four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Paul Markham of Monroe officiated and burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

Blood Road Bridge Closed

One of he oldest bridges in the area was ordered closed immediately by Council Monday night to all traffic.

Victim is the Blood Rd. bridge over River Raisin.

City Manager Cal Zorn reported to Council that the steel supports and braces in the bridge had deteriorated badly and recommended it be closed.

Future plans for development in the area include extending Russell Rd. east to Rogers Hwy. A new bridge would then be constructed over the river.

Dream Coming True

By JUDY FIELDER

Four area men have startd to turn a dream into reality by forming a religious and lay order for church service and parochial education.

They are attempting to establish a religious community for boys, who, for one reason or another have no home and cannot be accepted by any of the present boys' homes.

The Rev. Thomas Drobena of Emmanuel Lutheran Church near Britton has been trying to work out a feasible organization for nearly four years.

About a year ago he discovered that Gerald Schultz of Ridge Rd., Melvin Schafer of Tecumseh-Macon Rd., and Elwood Bush of Pennington Rd., had the same thoughts.

They were legally incorporated Sept. 15, under the name Saints Cyril and Methodius.

★

COUNTLESS ARRESTS occur with boys who break the law and wait for police to come because "these boys have not place to call home," indicates Michigan State Police Commissioner Joseph P. Childs.

Present institutions, geared for 15 and 16-year-olds, do not account for boys too old for the training schools with a future of prison or skid row.

A sixth-grade educational average is their overwhelming handicap. Although slow to learn, untrained and socially lost, "they are amiable boys as long as they have the security of room and board," said authorities at the training school for boys at Whitmore Lake.

Site for the home will be east of Oxford, about 30 miles north of Detroit. The 700-acre tract has a small swimming pond and a 700-acre lake within 200 hilly and wooded acres and 500 slightly rolling fields.

"The large area would enable the community to become as self-supporting as possible through farming," said the Rev. Drobena.

Current buildings on the land would house 50 boys.

★

TEACHERS AND foster parents, selected on the basis of their [illegible] attitude, ability and Christian way of life, would live on the premises.

"People have already volunteered to live and work in the community with their only compensation being room, board and necessities," added Rev. Drobena.

At the present time, the four men are expanding their energies attempting to turn their dream into a reality in the near future by contacting several charitable foundations.

CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM IN ACTION — For the third consecutive year the waterball team of the Tecumseh Fire Department won the waterball championship of the Lenawee County Firemen's Association. They defeated teams from Palmyra, Madison and Hudson, finalists in an earlier elimination contest. Shown directing the stream of water at the ball are Mahlon Sebring (front) and Richard Beasley. In the foreground is Harold Easton, first assistant fire chief and mayor. Supporting the hose in the background is Wallace MacGeorge, fire chief. David Faling is a fifth member of the team. In the afternoon county fire departments demonstrated their fire-fighting skills when they burned the rear section of a three-family house at Ford Rd. and M-50. In spite of high winds they confined the blaze and prevented its spread to the remainder of the house and a garage. These will be burned beginning at 10 a.m. Sunday. Mr. MacGeorge points out the firefighters welcome the public to observe their field day exercises.

Rector Takes Short Course

Music Makers Install Officers

Linda Gilbert was installed the president of the Tecumseh Music Makers Club Sunday at the Friends Church.

Others were:

Vice-president — Jamie McWilliams

Second vice-president — Linda Oberlin

Secretary - treasurer — Cathy Beevers

Mrs. Raymond Reece of Ferndale, second vice-president of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs and division chairman of the junior counselors of the state, conducted the installation ceremonies.

Linda Sinkey led the singing of the hymn of the month by the group.

★

MRS. REECE spoke to the members asking the question, "Do You Appreciate What Your Parents Are Doing For You?"

She said that food, clothing and shelter are necessities, but music lessons are an extra.

She asked if students really appreciate the hours that counselors spend in the interest of the junior music club members.

Sherrie Smith of Adrian and Linda Sinkey presented vocal selections. Dexter Bailey played the organ and joined Linda Gilbert in a piano duet.

Refreshments were served to 35 by Counselors Mrs. James E. Danforth and Mrs. Orrie Gilbert.

Harsh Residence Site for Meeting of Extension Club

Mrs. Leonard Harsh entertained the Raisin Center Extension Study Group Sept. 28 at her home on Wilmoth Hwy.

Boys in PP&K Football Contest Must Register Here by Friday

Registration for the fourth annual punt, pass and kick competition being sponsored locally by the Tecumseh Motors Inc. will close Friday according to James Finch of the firm. About 35 youngsters 8 through 13 years of age have signed up so far, Mr. Finch said.

The contest, which will be based on the distance and accuracy the participant punts, passes and kicks a football, will be held at 9:30 a.m. Oct. 17, at Recreation Field with Robert Karle in charge. Last year about 40 local youths participated.

A parent or guardian must countersign registration forms, Mr. Finch said. Senior high school students and members of school athletic teams are not eligible.

Winners of the local contest will compete in district competition and will go on to compete in area contests which will be held before or during the halves of 14 National Football League games. Those winners will participate in the national competition.

The top scorers, six from the eastern NFL division and six from the western NFL division will meet in the "runnerup" NFL game in Miami, Fla. These boys and their parents will be guests of Ford dealers and will travel on a "Tour of Champions" to the NFL game.

Eighteen awards, including football warmup jackets, place kicker devices, regulation size footballs and winner certificates will go to winners of local contests.

PUNT, PASS & KICK — Distance, plus accuracy, are two big winning factors in the Tecumseh Motor's annual PP&K contest. The local Ford agency gives away jackets, helmets and footballs to the top three winners in each age category. The contest, held on a nationwide basis, always attracts a sizable number of youngsters who compete here on the athletic field.

Redskin Star Sweet Hurt, Out for Year

CLINTON — What started as a great season for Clinton quarterback Dennis Sweet ended in a hard tackle Friday night.

Dennis broke his ankle when stopped early in the fourth period of the Whitmore Lake game, which ended in a 6-6 tie.

In Clinton wins over Britton and Ypsilanti-Lincoln, the junior speedster had tallied four touchdowns and was headed for all sorts of honors.

Wayne Poore tallied the lone Redskin touchdown against Whitemore Lake with Roger Proctor trying, but missing, the extra point.

Poore also galloped more than 60 yards for a tally, but it was erased with a clipping penalty.

Indian 11 Stops Rams by 1 Tally

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh outdueled Flat Rock Friday night, 21-20, in a game of fumbles and errors — which accounted for four of the six touchdowns tallied.

For the second straight week, the Indians' offense sputtered and failed to produce a sustained drive.

Like Jackson St. John's, Flat Rock tossed a stacked defense against Tecumseh's running game and with one exception, practically held the Indians to a standstill.

The Rams defense, more often than not, had two, sometimes three of their linebackers in the line to make it nearly impossible for the Indians to gain rushing.

Gregg McEnroe made the lone exception on the second play of the game. Taking a handoff from quarterback Jeff Osburn, the Indians fullback squirted through left tackle and outraced the FR defenders for a 76-yard score.

★

THE OTHER Tecumseh touchdowns were made after breaks.

Shortly after the second quarter started, a FR back fumbled a punt from Ron Bolz on the one and Tecumseh recovered. On the first play, Osburn pushed through the middle for the TD.

Leading 14-0, thanks to two extra points by Tim Collins, the Rams capitalized on an Indian fumble on Tecumseh's 34. Five plays later, Jim Williams of the Rams scored and Denny Riley kicked the extra point.

Tecumseh upped its lead midway in the third quarter when the FR center, in a punting situation on Tecumseh's 48, passed the ball over the kicker's head with the Indians gaining possession on FR's 17.

With Collins running four of five plays, the hardworking Indian back shot through left tackle from the six for Tecumseh's final score.

Collins then ran what proved to be the winning point.

★

IN THE FINAL period, the roof all but fell in on the Indians.

With a fourth down and 14 situation, the Rams connected on a pass for 70 yards — Paul Spoehr to Bill Tarr — and their second TD. Riley again place-kicked the extra point.

Less than two minutes later, FR fell on an Indian bobble at the Tecumseh 18. Again on a fourth down, FR hit on the same pass play, this time for 14 yards and another score.

Riley's placekick was wide to the left, preserving a one point Tecumseh victory.

At the end of the game, Tecumseh took over on FR's 38, and moved to the 25 on five straight power plays up the middle with Osburn controlling the pigskin each time to run out the clock.

Auxiliary Hosts VFW League Team

The Auxiliary to Hall-Slater VFW entertained 41 children and their parents at a banquet honoring the Pony League team sponsored by the VFW. The team won the Little League championship this summer.

The Auxiliary served cake and ice cream Sept. 23 to VFW-sponsored Explorer Post 86 and their parents.

Attending the Sixth District Rally at Camp Woodbury near Chelsea were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Whitecotton of Livonia, Lee Coffee, post service officer of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stites and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Perry.

Members traveled to Veterans' Hospital in Ann Arbor Tuesday evening to entertain and serve refreshments to 100 veterans.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Stites, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eisenminger, Mr. and Mrs. James Felton, Mr. and Mrs. Arla Kapnick, Mr. and Mrs. Whitecotton, Mrs. Raymond Sisty, Mrs. Norman Sisty and Mrs. Kenneth Hunter, hospital chairman of the Auxiliary.

Golden Text

The Golden Text for Christian Science churches this Sunday is from Jeremiah (17:14) — "Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise." The Bible lesson is on the subject, "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?"

Needs of City are Outlined For Members of BPW Club

Joe Rice brought out many interesting improvement possibilities for Tecumseh when he spoke to 47 members of the Business and Professional Women's Club Sept. 28.

Mr. Rice, assisted by his wife, showed slides on the master plan in the dining room of Pearl's Cafe.

In conjunction with the topic, "Our Town", Mr. Rice brought out the need for retiree housing, arcades for small shops, multiple housing, a more adequate water supply and disposal plant, and a new fire station which might better house the 200-bed emergency hospital.

★

CHAIRMAN OF THE planning commission, Mr. Rice has spent much time and money at his own expense studying various aspects of the master plan including the traffic program.

He also stated that a junior college, strictly vocational, is a necessity as is a planning consultant service.

"A master plan would have to be revised every five years," said the speaker.

★

MR. RICE showed slides of homes and churches in Amsterdam and told of the need to preserve Tecumseh's heritage.

He mentioned the fine community spirit shown here at the July 4 celebration.

"Legal Wills" will be the topic of the meeting Oct. 26.

UNICEF Drive Will Be Oct. 29

UNICEF donations will be collected Thursday, Oct. 29 from 6 to 8 p.m.

Drivers will meet at the Presbyterian church with refreshments served to the drivers and children upon their return.

Area residents will be reminded to turn on their porch lights.

Recreation Activities

By DON MOFFATT, Superintendent

When this article is printed, I will be in Miami Beach, Fla., attending the 46th annual National Recreation Association Convention. The convention agenda appears to be jammed with fruitful information that should help us with our local recreation movement.

A complete report of this convention will be submitted on my return to Tecumseh next week.

√

RECREATION ACTIVITIES COMING UP

It should be well to note some of the various programs being planned for the winter season:

Adult recreation classes for both men and women

Adult bridge lessons (beginners)

Dance instruction for all ages

Senior Citizens get-togethers

Special community programs

Ice skating and sliding

√

COMMUNITY CENTER VISITORS

Baton twirling lessons are offered to all area boys and girls at the Community Center each Wednesday at 4:15. Our local baton twirling club, known as the AOWAKIYAS, is sponsoring these lessons in this area.

The adult leaders, Mrs. Wallace MacGeorge and Mrs. William Frownfelder, have engaged as the instructor, Diane Ferguson from Deerfield.

There will be a charge of 75c per lesson. Enrollment will close on Oct. 31.

The Tecumseh Rifle & Pistol Club meet at 7:30 p.m. each Monday evening in the basement of the Community Center.

All area residents interested in fire-arm safety and target practice are invited to join this group's activities. The club has a junior division, which meets at 2 p.m. each Saturday in the same location.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Don't forget to mark the calendar now, for the next potluck luncheon. The date is 1 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 15. Dinner music will be provided by Music Inc. of Adrian.

This and all get-togethers are offered to all area senior citizens free of charge. On Oct. 15 each guest must furnish his own table service and a dish to pass.

Rev. Harold Speer Heads Ministers

The Rev. Harold Speer was elected president of the Tecumseh Ministerial Association for the year 1964-65.

The Rev. Donald Porteous is the secretary and treasurer.

The two officers extend an invitation to any minister in Tecumseh or the surrounding area to join the group.

Meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month.

Seven Tecumseh Bank Employees Attend Meeting

Seven members of the staff of the United Savings Bank attended the annual fall meeting of the Michigan Bankers Association Wednesday at the Jackson Country Club.

Charles E. Finley, president of the Association and of the Industrial State Bank of Kalamazoo, spoke and Dr. J. Donald Phillips, president of Hillsdale College, was the banquet speaker.

Those from Tecumseh included Pat Meadows, Merlyn Downing, Jerry Stoner, Andrew Woodward, Arnold Sayler, Lincoln Loyd and Paul Mann.

Ruth Frost, Donald Sowle Exchange Wedding Vows

Ruth Anne Frost became the bride of Ronald Dale Sowle in a wedding of simplicity Friday evening at the Grace Lutheran Church.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Walter Solarski, 1200 E. Munger Rd., and Charles Frost, 413 W. Logan. Mr. Sowle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sowle of Angola, Ind.

Mrs. Harold Hunt of Onsted was matron of honor and Ray Titsworth of Adrian served as best man.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. K. F. Koeplin before the immediate families and a few close friends.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and attended Valparaiso University and Adrian College. She is employed by The Ford Motor Co. in Rawsonville.

Her husband is a graduate of Coldwater High School and is employed at Elmer's Body Shop.

News From Boysville

By MARTIN WHITTAKER

The Boysville Student Council, under the direction of Brother Robert Fillmore, CSC, met for the first time last Sunday.

Among the various topics covered were the qualities of leadership and the future activities of the school.

Among the social activities planned by the Student Council is a record hop, which will be held in the dining hall on Saturday if everything goes well.

Partners for the boys are invited from St. Joseph Academy in Adrian.

√

Boysville has a new faculty member.

Mrs. Frank Hawthorne of Tecumseh has taken up duties as French teacher. Mrs. Hawthorne teaches at Tecumseh High School in the morning, then travels out to Boysville for a couple of afternoon classes.

Incidentally, Mrs. Hawthorne is the first woman teacher in Boysville's short history.

The Knights of the Altar met in the chapel last Sunday. Servers were measured for their own individual cassocks and new white loafer-type tennis shoes, which will be worn in the sanctuary.

The new white shoes were purchased with the idea of saving on the wear of the new green carpet, which will be installed in the near future. For the time being, only the veteran servers will be assigned to serve.

The membership of the Knights of the Altar so far consists of eight seniors, 11 juniors, and 13 sophomores.

Money for the new shoes was donated by the Knights of Columbus from District 15.

The Boysville Fighting Knights put to rout the Tories of Britton, 26-0, last Friday night on the Tories' home field.

The Knights boasted a strong defense and a hard-hitting offense in their first victory of the season.

Touchdowns were scored by Moe Jacobs, Don Chalmers and two by Joe Pawlus. Again Boysville displayed its potential despite a lack of experience.

The Knights demonstrated a cracking offense in the sure fingers of end Ron Klos and the hard-driving of halfback Don Chalmers.

Moe Jacobs, still hampered by a bruised thigh muscle, saw little action.

The Junior Knights of Boysville opened their season with a smashing victory over Whiteford's JV 19-6. Boysville's touchdowns were scored by Jim Moore and Nick Orlando.

Orlando scored twice, once on a seventy-yard punt return and once on a double reverse.

Moore found a hole in the middle of the Whiteford line and went over for the other score.

The Boysville Drum and Bugle Corps will open the 1964-65 marching season Oct. 11 in Detroit. The occasion is the celebration of Columbus Day by the Knights of Columbus in the Detroit area.

The Corps will march, leading the assembled Knights, to and from St. Aloysius Church.

√

The student body returned after a short vacation, first in a series of weekend breaks the boys will enjoy during the school year.

√

The Junior Class plans to journey to Kalamazoo Saturday to take a tour of the Upjohn Pharmaceutical Co.

From there, they'll go to Notre Dame University in South Bend, Ind. for a brief tour of the campus.

The boys will depart at 8 a.m. from Boysville and will return to the campus early in the evening.

Given Role in 'Fair Lady'

KALAMAZOO — Ric Kureth, a well-known theater personality in Tecumseh, will play a leading role in the Kalamazoo Civic Player's production of "My Fair Lady."

Enacting the role of Colonel Pickering, Mr. Kureth will play the close friend with whom Henry Higgins makes a bet that he can turn a grubby street urchin into a high-toned lady in six months simply by teaching her to speak correctly.

As the speech lessons progress, Kureth will join in the singing of "The Rain in Spain" and will also sing "You Did It" when he loses the bet.

Kalamazoo's production opens today and continues through a matinee Sunday, Oct. 18.

Chelsea Has Color Tour, Barbecue

Autumn's festival of colors is expected to be at its peak Sunday during the ninth annual Chelsea Jaycee Chicken Barbecue and Chamber of Commerce-sponsored color tours.

About 1,500 color tourists are expected to be served at Pierce Park, beginning at noon.

Maps of the routes, chosen for their variety and scenic beauties as well as color, will be available at the park.

Tour 1 is 30 miles long, and takes visitors through the Pinckney Recreation Area, the communities of Hell and Unadilla, and back to Chelsea.

Tour 2 is 35 miles long, and takes visitors through the Waterloo Recreation Area, Winnawana Flood Area, the communities of Waterloo and Cavanaugh Lake and back to Chelsea.

Both tour routes begin at the Pierce Park Barbecue.

THE MEAL will include one-half chicken, charcoal broiled, cole slaw, potato chips, hot roll with butter and hot coffee for $1.50.

Milk and soft drinks will be provided extra.

Door prizes will be given.

The proceeds from the barbecue will be used by the Jaycees for community development projects.

Color tour routes and picnic sites have been posted with directional signs by Chamber of Commerce committees.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

Michigan is on the move in the field of education. We have moved to correct past deficiencies, to meet current needs and to build the foundation for a strong educational system for the entire state.

The return of fiscal integrity to state government has been essential to good state educational programs. Fiscal integrity became the primary and most important goal of state government in 1963. This goal was achieved. We now have a solid foundation upon which to build future progress in education.

In elementary and secondary education, here is the record:

► State aid to local school districts has been increased in two years by about $52 million. For years, the percentage of the total local school budget paid by state aid has been declining. This decline has been halted.

► An orderly procedure to reduce the number of school districts and increase the local quality and efficiency has been established by the School District Reorganization Act of 1964.

► Local programs for education of the mentally and physically handicapped have been expanded and strengthened by an increase of $2½ million in state matching funds for special education.

► Improvements in the School Bond Loan Program have stimulated needed school construction.

► New ways for school districts and community colleges to set up area vocational education programs, and other new state-local cooperative programs of vocational education and technical training will help the dropout problem.

► We have extended to Michigan children attending non-public schools the health and safety protection of bus service in districts where it is extended to public students.

We have encouraged religious training through the "Release Time" Bill whereby public school students can receive their own religious education more easily.

► The people, through the new Constitution, have provided a new State Board of Education, with the responsibility to plan, coordinate and budget all education from kindergarten through university.

★

WE STILL NEED a broader and fairer school aid formula, and I am dedicated to that end so that state aid to local schools will be fuller, fairer and more equitable to all students across the state.

Inquirers Are Given Yearbooks

Members of the Inquirers Extension Club dined at Carmer's Restaurant in Brooklyn Sept. 29.

Following the meal Mrs. Wallace Rutherford distributed yearbooks and lessons and co-hostesses for the year were assigned.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edward Turk with Mrs. John Cameron as co-hostess.

RESOLUTION

Meeting of the Common Council of the City of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan held on the 21st day of September, 1964, in the Council Chambers of the City Hall at 7:30 p.m.

PRESENT: Mayor Easton, Councilmen Bonner, Hamilton, McCombs, Puffer, Sunderland, Tuckey.

ABSENT: None.

The following preamble and resolution was offered by Councilman McCombs and supported by Councilman Hamilton.

WHEREAS it is the desire of this body that a continuing improvement be made in supplying the City with adequate curb and gutter installations:

WHEREAS residents have petitioned the Council, praying for such installation adjacent to their property.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the installation of curb and gutter shall be undertaken as soon as practicable on both sides of the street.
   a. 100 Block on North Van Buren between W. Chicago Blvd. and W. Logan Streets.
   b. Island Drive between Outer Drive and Herrick Park Dr.

Beach Brothers., announces a sensational new high combustion heating oil...

new premium quality Fleet-Heat with CI 2*

(at no increase in price)

Now your furnace can produce more heat than ever before possible...with no increase in fuel oil consumption.

CI 2 is a patented compound manufactured by Ethyl Corporation—creators of premium gasoline additives. It is the most effective* COMBUSTION IMPROVER ever developed to increase the heat producing elements of fuel oil in any oil burning furnace.

CI 2 improves fuel oil combustion in any furnace.

CI 2 causes more of the oil to burn to produce more heat.

CI 2 increases the efficiency of your furnace.

CI 2 decreases soot and smoke by as much as 50 per cent.

CI 2 reduces the need for furnace cleaning and adjustments.

Here's how premium Fleet-Heat with CI 2 works for you.

CI 2 (Combustion Improver) acts as a catalyst to lower the burning temperature of the heavyweight molecules in fuel oil. Particles and heavy oils that might be wasted in fumes up the chimney are converted into warm and useful heat. More of the oil is burned. You get more heat per gallon of fuel oil burned. Soot and smoke are reduced by as much as 50 per cent.

New premium Fleet-Heat with CI 2 cleans your burner...and keeps it clean.

With a clean efficient burner, your furnace produces hotter heat...reacts more readily to thermostat controls..."stays on" for shorter heating periods. Your rooms maintain warmer, more comfortable temperatures. You save gallons and gallons of fuel oil during the heating season.

New premium Fleet-Heat with CI 2 costs you nothing extra.

Frankly, it would be easier and less expensive for us to market FLEET-HEAT FUEL OIL without CI 2. You'd still receive America's finest heating oil. But adding CI 2 to FLEET-HEAT is one way for us to say "Thank You" to our customers. We appreciate your patronage and hope to go on deserving it by continuing to give you the best in product, in service, and in courtesy—at no extra cost to you.

New Math Being Discussed at Patterson on Oct. 14

"New math" — what is it. Where did it come from? Why is it being taught?

These are some of the questions that will be answered Wed., Oct. 14 at 8 p.m. in the Patterson School multipurpose room.

This meeting is planned as an introduction [illegible] mathematics now being taught in the Tecumseh Public Schools.

Parents of all elementary school children are invited to attend.

A PANEL consisting of Supt. James McDowell, Mrs. Schwartz, Mrs. Keith Swain, Mrs. Steve Illeck, Mrs. Frank Lasky, Mrs. Geraldine Beal, Mrs. Horatio Bailey, Carl Hale and Herbert Beck will discuss modern math.

Mrs. Jones will teach a fifth grade class demonstrating some of the principles of the "new" math.

Parents will have an opportunity to ask questions following the program.

Exchange Seats, Greet Neighbors

Seventy-five parents and teachers participated in a get-acquainted session prior to the meeting of the Ridgeway-Macon Area PTA Sept. 23.

Exchanging of seats and interviewing for acquaintance was encouraged. Mrs. Wayne Blanchard and Mrs. William Osburn, program chairmen, presided over a quiz session.

Mrs. Franklin Schroeder, president, opened the meeting with a prayer and reading of the PTA objectives.

THIS YEAR'S other officers are:

Vice president — Mrs. Richard Chatters

Teacher vice President — Jerome Kujawa

Corresponding Secretary — Mrs. Ronald Purple

Asst. Corresponding Secretary — Mrs. Donald Aebersold

Secretary — Mrs. John Escott

Treasurer— Mrs. Clifford Brown.

The traffic problem and child safety near the school will be investigated further.

A new projector screen will be purchased by the PTA.

A committee was assigned to investigate purchasing of drapes for the school library. The committee is Mrs. Charles Lembrick, Mrs. John Hewlett, Mrs. John Babcock and Mrs. Robert Blanks.

Due to the success of last year's PTA dances at Ridgeway School, the group voted to hold another dance. The committee appointed to carry out arrangements is Mrs. William Osburn, Fred Long, Mrs. Gerald Miller and Mrs. Terry Ross.

The dance will be held Oct. 24 with the "Lamp Lighters" providing music.

Each teacher gave a short summary of their teaching ideas and outlook for the year.

Parents were invited to visit the classrooms and refreshments were served by the officers.

LOCAL BUSINESS

A major oil company for two years has pioneered in a type of advertising which may revolutionize national product advertising.

The company diverted $13,000,000 from national media to local newspapers in communities wherever they had dealers. The newspapers ranged in size from the smallest weeklies to large dailies.

The change to the small community newspaper was an unusual step in an age of centralization of national advertising. But the move paid off. To local consumers, the great international company took on the character of a local institution, aiding local dealers and supporting the local news medium.

The oil company did something else which was considered drastic among national advrtisers. It included detailed copy, often running over a thousand words in each advertisement.

Because the copy was interesting and because it offered valuable information to readers on automobile maintenance it was thoroughly read. Even the company was amazed by the interest in its advertisements.

After a year of experiment the company was so pleased it repeated its approach.

The lesson here is two-fold. And it applies to local as well as national advertisers:

1. All business is local and products must be sold at the local level regardless of the size of the company; and

2. If advertising copy promises something to the reader it will be thoroughly read regardless of length.

Clinton Teacher Directs Opener

Tecumseh Players' first production of the new season, "State Of The Union," is being directed by Mrs. Donald Geiger of Clinton.

Born and raised in Saline, Mrs. Geiger received her bachelor's degree in musical education at Eastern Michigan University.

While attending school she added to her musical background by singing with a dance band.

Since leaving school, Mrs. Geiger has been a professional church soloist and choir director.

★

THIS IS HER first experience with little theatre, although she is well grounded in dramatics having directed plays while attending college and at Melvindale High School, where she taught before coming to the Clinton school system to teach first grade.

Mrs. Geiger's husband is president of Merit Products, located in Saline and they have two children Cynthia, 7 and Rex, 3.

Mrs. Charles Parker, also a teacher at Clinton and known to local theatre goers for her roles in "Angel Street" and "Male Animal," will act as assistant director.

SEASON TICKETS and those for "State of the Union" may be procured by calling 423-4281 or 423-4669.

Student tickets, at 75 cents, are available for Oct. 21 and 28 ONLY.

All other tickets are $1.50.

Season tickets are $4.50.

TO THE EDITORS:

Enjoyed some news of Goldwater on the Britton page of The Herald.

Might I suggest an editorial on the smears against the senator. "Time", "U. S. News and World Report" made the "trigger-happy" issue come to a screeching halt.

The senator said, "If I can be called trigger happy for suggesting it, what can you call the president for having already done it?"

You could enlighten your readers about ADA, of which Hubert Humphrey has resigned as vice chairman to run as vice president of the USA.

I would like to know why their eagerness to ban the bomb without inspection provisions.

In 1958 the senate Republican policy committee staff made an intensive study of the origins, platforms and policies of ADA and concluded:

"The ADA is a group of left-wing Democrats who hope, as either the senior or junior partner of a labor alliance, to capture the Democratic party and bring about a system which would amount to national socialism in America."

Is this why Senator Goldwater claims to be on a freedom campaign?

My friends and neighbors selected me to go into the army to fight for freedom in 1941.

I guess I never took the discharge in 1945 seriously. I am still willing to struggle for freedom.

TO THE EDITORS:

We have been receiving The Herald since 1958, and we enjoy it very much. We would like to renew our subscription for another year.

Also we would like to correct you on a name. We were home in August to visit his folks and you had Mr. and Mrs. L. Williams and then the next week yu had Mr. and Mrs. Jo Williams. The correct name is Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams.

Sincerely yours

TEEN TALK

By DEBBIE EARLING

The Latin Club had its first official meeting Tuesday, Sept. 22 with the 23 persons present including four initiates. Committees were formed to plan the program for the year which will include initiation and a banquet early in the second semester. Suggestions are sought for a theme. Dennis McClure was elected Student Council representative. The club accepted the responsibility for selling the Homecoming tickets the week preceding the dance.

√

The Teen Club will sponsor dances Saturday, Oct. 17 and Saturday, Oct. 31, All Hallows Eve.

Elected to the 1964-65 Legislature during last Saturday's dance were:

Ninth Grade — Pat Boltz, Linda Baaske, Charles Gillies and John Hamilton.

Tenth Grade — Nancy Coffey, Shirley Rupp, Bob Powell and Roger Long.

Eleventh Grade — Ron Boltz, John Goodman, Pat Schwartz and Cathy Carter.

Twelfth Grade — Edward O'Neill, Charles Trickey, Pam Spicer and Linda Easton.

The Junior Class kickoff for magazine sales was Sept. 25. Jeff Lone is sales manager assisted by Marilyn Dick and Jim Wilbar. Goal has been set for $6,709. Last Friday a total of $3,833.68 had been collected. Linda Gilbert is top salesman with $131.45, followed by second place holder Judy Barnell who collected $118.88.

All salesmen have reached their quota.

The Student Council will sponsor the Homecoming dance which will be held from 10 p.m. to midnight after the game with Airport, Oct. 23.

The Art Club is in charge of advertising; the Latin Club, tickets; the Future Teachers Club, decorations; and the Future Homemakers Club, refreshments.

This year's officers are:

President—Tim Dickinson
Vice-president—Don Baird
Secretary—Mary Ann Allen
Treasurer—Tom Elliott

There are four representatives from each class and one from each club.

√

Chairmen are:

Construction — Carl Collingsworth and Debbie Black.

Idea — Debbie Earling, Barbara Clark and Sherry Harper.

Transportation — Vickie Manly and Jeanette Mannino.

Wagon — Louie Caterina.

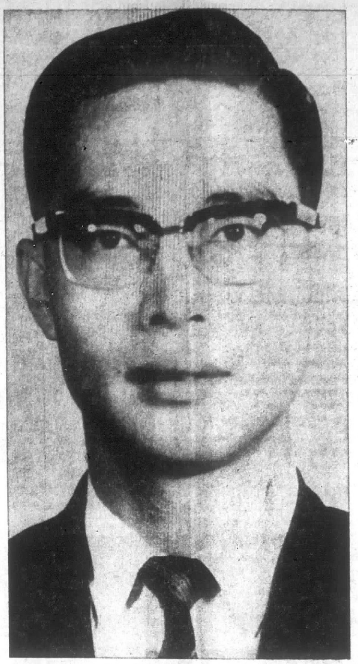
Chess Club—A Chess Club has been formed. Membership includes 23 persons among them four teachers.

While most of the members know how to play the game others are new to its pleasures. Meetings may be held once a week and when the program is well underway tournaments will be held.

Faculty members are William Raeburn, club advisor; John Centa, Dale Perry and Peter Kalom.

Meader Group Will Gather

Representative George Meader's 2nd Congressional District committee will meet at the Republican headquarters in Tecumseh at 9 p.m. Oct. 13, following the Band Festival. Refreshments will be served.



SPEAKS AT "MISSION WEEKEND" — Pastor Peter Chang of Hong Kong, founder of the Christian Chinese Lutheran Mission there and "father" of Hong Kong's roof-top schools, was one of the speakers participating in the "Mission Weekend" program of the Grace Lutheran Church. Members of his congregations and student bodies are mostly Red China refugees.

Hong Kong Pastor Tells of Mission

An overflow crowd of. worshippers in Grace English Lutheran Church Sunday afternoon heard Pastor Peter Chang of Hong Kong deliver an accented but readily understandable challenge to his "American brothers and sisters in Christ."

He said, "They dare not be selfish with the good news of salvation but must, out of love for the Savior of every race, pray, work, and sacrifice in ever greater proportions."

The afternoon service was the climax of the three-day "Mission Weekend" when approximately 1150 members, guests and visitors learned first hand of the Christian Chinese Lutheran Mission of Hong Kong.

THE MISSION WEEKEND, the fourth in the church's history, is now a part of a Michigan District effort to lend financial assistance to the CCLM until the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod meets in convention next August at which time official fellowship status is expected to be granted to this mission in Hong Kong.

Joining Pastor Chang to complete the mission team for the various events on Friday, Saturday morning and evening, as well as Sunday morning and afternoon were Pastor James P. Schaefer of Milwaukee, Synod public relations director, and Pastors Edward A. Zell of Detroit and Leonard J. Koeninger of Lansing. The latter two are members of the Wisconsin Synod's Board for World Relief.

TOTAL OFFERING for "Operation Hong Kong" amounted to over $2,100. At the halfway point of the seven Mission Weekends throughout the Michigan District the approximate total now raised for the CCLM amounts to more than $13,700. In addition to these offerings many people have pledged scholarship support to scores of refugee children of Hong Kong.

Women's Society Schedules Study Of Family Life

A Christian family living group sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church begins weekly discussions Wednesday, Oct. 14, in the Church Social Room from 9 to 10 a.m.

Initiated by the spiritual life secretary, Mrs. Lynn Noble, the group plans to discuss family problems present in Christian homes.

The first session will be led by the Rev. Donald Porteous and followed in ensuing weeks by participating members.

Anyone having children in the home is invited to attend.

A nursery will be provided for pre-schoolers and coffee will be served.

Henry K. Smith Elected Chairman of Aebersold Clan

Henry K. Smith was elected chairman of the annual Aebersold family reunion, held Oct. 4 at St. Mary's Lake in Battle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Randels were the hosts.

Seventy-seven attended from Coldwater, Birmingham, Manitou Beach, Pontiac, Brooklyn, Britton, Wayne, Adrian, Ann Arbor and Tecumseh, Stryker and Jamestown, O.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tilton of Tecumseh had charge of the games.

Matrons Guests of Mrs. Beland

Mrs. Harry Beland entertained members of the Past Matrons Club Sept. 30 for a potluck supper.

During the business session, Mrs. Beland was appointed chairman for the group's part in the OES installation Oct. 23.

A tentative date Oct. 28, was set for the next meeting.

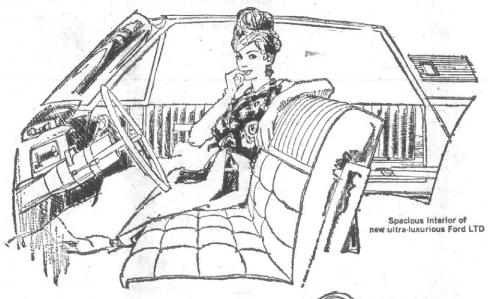
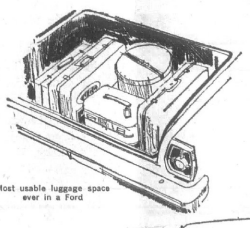
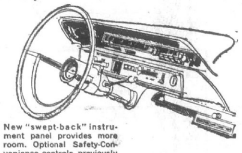
Total Performance 1965 Ford Galaxie 500 LTD 4-Door Hardtop



Spacious interior of new ultra-luxurious Ford LTD

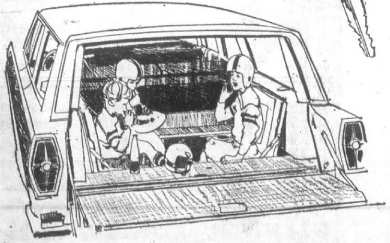


Most usable luggage space ever in a Ford



New "swept-back" instrument panel provides more room. Optional Safety-Convenience controls previously on Thunderbirds only.

Unique reversible key works either side up



Only in Ford wagons: dual facing rear seats

PRODUCTS OF Ford MOTOR COMPANY

Only 17 cars (and they're all Fords) offer all these exciting new features for 1965!

From a new series of limousine-like ultra-luxurious Fords (Galaxie 500 LTD's) . . . sporty XL hardtops and convertibles . . . to the most dramatically improved wagons in 15 years . . . there are 17 full-size Fords to choose from. This is the widest selection in the whole popular-priced field. And these Fords offer features you won't find on other cars—at any price.

New body-frame-suspension system—Result: The strongest, smoothest Fords ever built. And the quietest—their all-new frame, body and suspensions virtually seal off noise and road shock.

New—automatic transmissions are all 3-speed Smoother, more economical than the 2-speed automatics offered on some competing cars.

New 240-cu. in. Big Six—Gives you low gas bills, high performance. Bigger 6-cylinder engine than in any competing car. (V-8 powered Fords are livelier this year, too.)

New Safety-Convenience control panel—This luxury option lets you lock all doors with the flick of a switch. Also: lights warn you when fuel's low, doors are ajar, and remind you that seat belts are unfastened.

New and bigger trunk—Generous room for various sizes and kinds of luggage as illustrated . . . or room for four big 2-suiters upright.

New dual facing rear seats in Ford wagons A Ford exclusive, ideal for families up to 10. Seats fold down to give you 7.6 cu. ft. of lockable, below-deck storage space.

New reversible key—No more fumbling with an armful of packages, to get the key right side up. Ford's exclusive new reversible key is the same on both edges. It works no matter which side is up.

New interior spaciousness—Lower transmission tunnel, new "swept-back" dash, and other interior changes make these the most comfortable Fords ever.

New array of courtesy lights—Illuminated doorway, ash tray and interior. A real convenience for night driving.

Take a test drive—From special new 15" low-profile tires (better traction—longer tire life) . . . to new windows with stylish curved side glass (more shoulder room) . . . the list of new features goes on and on. The total result is something you simply have to see, feel, touch. Come in soon.

EMU Rites Attended by Residents

BRITTON — Mrs. Douglas Palmer and Mrs. Paul Rowlands attended the dedication of the new Physical Education Building on the campus of Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, last Tuesday.

Governor George Romney was the dedicatory speaker and dedicated the building in memory of the late Joseph E. Warner, a former member of the Michigan State Legislature.

The Governor emphasized the field of physical education, declaring it is as important to the youth of the nation to have strong bodies as well as sound minds.

Susan Rowlands, a second year physical education major at Eastern, took her mother and Mrs. Palmer on a tour of the building before the dedication.

They also heard the governor speak at Arborland when he told of the many educational buildings that have been and are being built on many of the campuses throughout the state of Michigan.

Macon Notes

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE, JR.

Layman's Sunday will be observed Oct. 11 in the Macon Church.

√

The official church board will meet Tuesday, Oct. 13, at 8 p.m. in the church dining room.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow were Sunday dinner guests of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Below, near Manchester.

√

Members of the Macon Hobby Club will visit Walker Museum at Cambridge Junction Thursday, Oct. 15. Anyone wishing to go should be at the church by 12:30. Some of the members plan to go to the Hathaway House in Blissfield for luncheon and Richland Furs style show at a later date. Anyone interested in going should make their reservations with Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg or Mrs. Mildred Moore. It will be the latter part of October or the first Wednesday in November.

√

Plans have been made for the Young Adult club to have a progressive supper Saturday, Oct. 17. They will start their supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gorton, Jr., then go to Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moores for the main course, then to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hover's for dessert.

√

Mrs. Hal Yoder called on friends and relatives in Piqua and Findlay, O., recently. She was called to Ohio by the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Rosilee Francis of Piqua. Mrs. Francis was almost 98 years old.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Osborne arrived home by plane Monday evening, from Mabel, Minn. They had spent three weeks visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Merritt, formerly of Milan.

Mrs. Truman Jordan opened her home for the Faith Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service last Thursday. Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore conducted the business meeting.

The group decided to challenge the other two circles to an attendance contest, beginning with the October general meeting and end with the April meeting.

Roll call was answered by reciting a favorite Bible verse.

The November meeting roll call will be something to be thankful for. The Supply giving money of 55c per member is to be given to Mrs. Harold Kuder.

It was decided to adopt four ladies from the Chelsea Methodist Home for the coming year, who do not have any close relatives. They will be remembered throughout the year.

The Chelsea Home has need of worn cotton sheet blankets that are still good enough to be used as fillers for quilts. Jams and jellies are needed, too.

The Youth will be going to the Chelsea Home Harvest Festival Sunday, Nov. 22.

It was voted to withdraw $15.00 from the Sunshine Fund and present it to the Memorial fund.

Mrs. Mabel Burleson gave the devotions and Mrs. Charles Gorton, Sr., presented a very enlightening program on "A New Age Opens New Doors."

Frozen fruit salad and assorted crackers were served by the host and Mrs. Ray Williams and Mrs. Charles Howell.

√

Sue Collier spent Wednesday overnight with Teresa Rowe. Sharon Rowe visited Robin Collier overnight Wednesday.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lindsley and sons of Adrian, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Year's most talked-about new cars

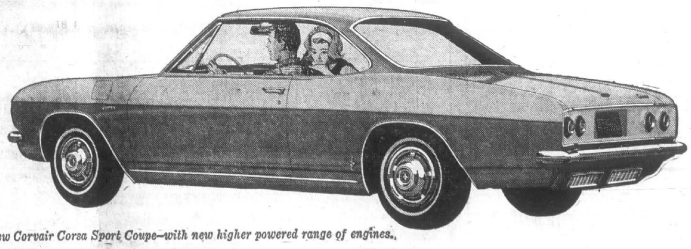
'65 Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan—with a roof line all its own.

'65 Chevrolet Impala

It's '65's biggest, most beautiful change. There's striking new styling. New length, width and lowness. A roomier new Body by Fisher housing an interior that's a knockout—with richer looking fabrics and new curved side windows. Also a showpiece of an instrument panel with the look of walnut in the Impala series. And a more serene Jet-smooth ride that's rooted in a new Full Coil suspension system and Wide-Stance design. Fact is, if you overlook just one thing you can easily convince yourself you're onto a big expensive car here. And that one thing is its Chevrolet price.

CHEVROLET



New Corvair Corsa Sport Coupe—with new higher powered range of engines.

'65 Corvair Corsa

There's never been anything like it from either side of the Atlantic. From the new top-of-the-line Corsa series to the Monzas and lowest priced 500's, there's new thin-line hardtop styling for all closed models. More length and width, more entrance and shoulder room in all models. Dramatically new interiors. A flatter ride with a more solid feel stemming from a new independent suspension and wider wheel stance. And a higher powered range of engines—with up to 180 hp available in the Corsas. How sporty can a car get? Your dealer's got the Corvair that'll show you.

Insurance Agency in Tipton Holding Open House Oct. 14

TIPTON — An open house is planned for friends and patrons next Wednesday at the new office of Kemp and Murphy Insurance Agency here.

Located directly across from the post office, the office is in a completely renovated house. New fixtures, lighting and equipment have been installed.

The senior partner, Glen L. Kemp, has been in the insurance business for 32 years. He first worked with the late F. C. Hanna, well-known Tecumseh insuranceman.

Mr. Kemp and his wife, the former Grace M. Lowry, started the agency in October, 1933, and she contributed much to its early success.

William J. Murphy joined the business in 1953, upon returning home from service. In 1958, he was made a partner.

On Aug. 14, the Tipton businessmen moved their agency into its new home at 3917 Monroe Rd.

Gloria Dei Sunday School Uses New Study Materials

The congregations of the four merged Lutheran Churches in America reached an important cornerstone Sunday when the new educational material was used in their Sunday Schools.

The children and adults of the Gloria Dei Evangelical Lutheran Church enjoyed the new method. Two new teachers, Mrs. William Rohweder and Ted Todd, were added to the Sunday School staff.

During the worship service Keye Lynn, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rumpf, was baptized. Godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ruettinger.

★

THE NEW dartball season started Wedensday among the Lutheran Churches of Riga, Britton, Adrian, Tecumseh and Metamora.

Vaccine Available In Clinton Store

CLINTON — Persons unable to take the oral polio vaccine at Sunday's clinic in the Clinton High School may obtain it at any time Friday in Steffens Drug Store. Contributions of 50 cents per dose will be accepted.

At Sunday's clinic 1,668 persons took the vaccine.

Two Injured In Accident

CLINTON — William O. Conklin, 21, of 515 N. Evans St., suffered a broken elbow and foot, and head cuts last Thursday at 4:15 p.m. when a car in which he was riding ran off the road and rolled over.

John R. McKenzie of 506 N. Evans St., was driving on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd. when the car ran off the road and traveled 779 feet before rolling on its side.

Clinton State Police stated the car was traveling at an excessive rate of speed.

Mr. McKenzie suffered cuts and bruises.

Both were taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital for treatment.

Mr. McKenzie was released and Mr. Conklin was transferred to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, Friday. He underwent surgery Monday and his condition is improving. His room number is 3048.

Baptists To Hear Of "Life I Owe"

Mrs. Thomas Brooks will present the program entitled, "The Life I Owe" at a meeting of the Women's Society of the First Baptist Church Monday, Oct. 12.

Clinton Man Dies as Car Leaves Road

CLINTON — Charles Clayton Ingerson, 23, of Allen Trailer Park in Clinton died of head injuries in his wrecked car at 9:40 p.m. Thursday near Evans Lake.

The accident happened on US-12 near Breyman Hwy.

Clinton State Police said the eastbound Ingerson car went off the road after the driver apparently fell asleep at the wheel.

Coroner Edward Braun of Adrian ruled the death accidental.

Mr. Ingerson's 1-year-old son, David was found uninjured in the right rear of the car.

Mr. Ingerson has been employed as a foreman at the Standard Steel Products Corp. in Clinton.

He was a native of the Addison area and has lived in Clinton since May.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING

FALL CORN PRICES should be higher than last year's harvest-time prices by at least 5c or 3c. Whereas Chicago prices fell to $1.17 last year at harvest look for a low of about $1.20 this year. One reason is that the crop will be about 10% smaller than last year due in part to drouth damage. Where prices are at or above gross loan, a sale will likely net the best returns, otherwise, plan to hold. Profits from storing should be equal or better than last season.

LAGOONS FOR LIQUID MANURE have been less than satisfactory for many hog producers because of the odor problem. Trend now is toward some combination of storage tanks along with lagoons or a series of lagoons. Tanks relieve the pressure on lagoons. They also offer a choice of lagoon disposal or cropland use. New costs for tanks and equipment range from $2 to $6 per hog depending on size of operation, while lagoons run from 30c to 80c per hog.

WEANING WEIGHT AND CALF CROP are significant factors in cow herd profits. In a Purdue study, where weaning weights were 550 to 650 pounds, a net return of $13.39 resulted per cow. But when weaning weights dropped to 250 to 349 pounds the result was a net loss of $28.31 per cow. Indiana data further show that returns from a 500-pound calf netted $15.58 with a 100% calf crop, while a 70% calf crop yielded a net loss of $14.04.

FALL FERTILIZATION APPLICATION lightens the spring workload. Besides autumn weather is usually better for applying fertilizer. Phosphorus and potassium are not subject to leaching losses. Nitrogen loss can be held to a minimum by waiting until soil temperatures drop to around 45 degrees and by using an ammonia form. You may also be able to obtain a discount by purchasing this fall.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Best Percentage in State

Once more, the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation is about to start its annual charitable drive.

As in the past, money donated over and above the city's $34,000 charity budget will go into betterment of facilities, which can be used by all area residents.

It was the Foundation which built our library. The mortgage was burned last spring.

Now, attention is turned towards the "Pit" program, plus the purchase of $1,000 in books for the library.

As we have noted in previous editorials — since 1959 when the Foundation was established — this setup is unique in the nation.

To area newcomers, we might explain that with this arrangement, we take care of all charitable obligations, then with overages tackle bricks-and-mortar projcts.

Last year, Tecumseh was 123% of its goal — best in the state. We're sure, folks will again respond in 1964 as they have in the past.

Polio Project Run Beautifully

Administration of polio vaccine Sunday was one of the smoothest undertakings ever staged in Tecumseh.

It had to be.

With 5,975 persons passing through two clinics in Tecumseh, 1,608 in Clinton and 1,361 in Britton, during a period of six hours, excellent organization was needed.

The county total was 39,300.

A great deal of painful preparations were made so that efforts of volunteer workers would be meshed into a smooth-working pattern.

Nearly a week before the "'feeding day," school children were provided with forms, which could be filled out beforehand, giving pertinent data regarding every family member who would take the cube of sugar.

Naturally, some didn't have the filled-out questionnaires and they had to be handled with an extra step, but this didn't cause any holdups.

The whole thing ran so well, some might have felt at first brush that the project was quite simple. If they added up the hours of planning, it would become apparent, this was a giant effort, done extremely well.

For those who missed Sunday, there will be feedings at all county drug stores Thursday afternoon and all day Friday.

Art Show

When the library recently staged an art show, we applauded.

There's a lot of talent hereabouts and maybe others could be held from time to time.

Tecumseh's No. 1 man with the brush, Russell Steinke, is presently working on an "official" portrait of Chief Tecumseh. When it is finished, we think that could be the time for another show, maybe this one to be staged downtown.

In addition to the new oil of Tecumseh, works of other Tecumseh folks could be shown.

What About Lights?

If anything is going to be done this autumn in getting new lights for the Tecumseh football field, a campaign better be started immediately.

In checking with Consumers Power Co. lighting engineers, the figure $20,000 seems to be what is needed to get a first-class system.

That's a lot of money and will take some doing to raise.

Should a drive be started, it probably couldn't run beyond the present season, since interest among the average fan will fall off drastically when the last whistle is blown.

That leaves precious little time.

There seems to be no question that the 23-year-old lights, which give only a faint imitation of real gridiron illumination (see Adrian's setup), should be replaced before another fall rolls around.

She Helped Others

"She was there when I needed somebody."

With a great deal of feeling, several in the city made this remark of Mrs. Richard Preston, who died last week after a long and painful illness. She had been a Tecumseh elementary teacher until illness demanded her retirement.

Quiet, patient, helpful Dot will long be remembered for her compassion and ability tactfully to assist her fellowman, both in giving and receiving.

She never wanted any credit, neither did she want her work to be called charity, though she assisted many families in the area who found themselves in a financial bind.

Dot had a special talent for helping those in need, whether it was for a pair of shoes or assistance with their daily work.

She gave generously of herself so that others might be happier, healthier and better able to do their work.

A capable teacher in her own right, she often gave of her time to help those who were new to the profession.

Because she was closely associated with school authorities, Dot could often make arrangements to spend a day in a troubled teacher's room, thus freeing the teacher to observe other's methods of handling problems .

Dot's work for the Tecumseh Community Chest and Foundation was known only because she was either seeking help or helping someone much of the time.

A great void will be experienced by those with whom she worked.

'Freedom Library' Books

((Editor's note — more books have been purchased by Mrs. Harold Wilson, 1010 Red Mill Dr., for the "Freedom Library" — as she terms it — and given to the Tecumseh Library for general use. About $25 has been donated to Mrs. Wilson by various friends for the project. Her goal includes about 20 volumes, all pertaining to Americanism, socialism and communism.)

Power In The People by Felix Morley.

This book is a study of the characteristics which have made the government of the United States unique in history. It traces es the sources of our institutions to their origins in the formative years of the Republic and the birth of a new civilization based on what William Penn called "the power in the people."

The Republic is grounded in the belief that the individual can govern himself. On the validity of that belief it will stand or fall.

This book is an examination of the power people possess as individuals, and that which has been entrusted to them as citizens.

It is, at the same time, an examination of whether or not this generation will guard with sufficient zeal the heritage provisionally entrusted to it.

It will prompt a searching self-examination of both individual and group activities in defense of freedom.

The American Cause by Russell Kirk.

This little book is a statement of the moral and social principles which the American nation upholds in our time of troubles. It is not a collection of slogans, nor a history of American politics.

It is rather an appraisal of the beliefs Americans live by.

At the same time, it is an effort to put into words what all good Americans carry in their hearts — the enduring truths that give life to our nation.

What are the things that an American lives for? What are the things that he is willing if necessary, to die for?

This book will remind you — and reassure you.

● THIRD GRADE ACTIVITY

During the past week, the third graders have been bringing specimens from their various collections of rocks, leaves, insects, shells and nic-nacks.

● GUESS WHO?

"Susie" Rohrer, a hampster, visited the third grade last week. "Susie" became part of the Rohrer clan Feb. 2.

Later that day, Mrs. Towers asked. "Do you have a brother younger than you?"

Billy Rohrer whispered to her, "Can I put my sister's name instead, because I don't have a younger brother?"

Miss Towers replied that it would be all right.

Guess whose name appeared?

● STUDENT TEACHERS

Student teachers from Siena Heights College come to St. Elizabeth's to observe the sisters and teachers instruct.

Student teachers this year are Jenny Connors, Linda Kresser, Cynthia Schell and Catherine Toner.

By Paul Velandra

● A TRIBUTE TO TEACHER

Students paid special tribute to Sister Maureen Theresa, O.P., Friday with a feast day program.

Presentations included a poem recited by the third graders and singing by the seventh and eighth graders, which lent to the happy atmosphere in wishing Sister a happy Feast Day.

The students also attended Holy Mass at 8 a.m. on Saturday, which was her feast day.

Sister Maureen has been with St. Elizabeth's for five years as principal, also teaching eighth grade.

By Ruth Warner

● SERVICE SQUAD

St. Elizabeth's safety patrol is part of the 40,000-member squad working in Michigan.

As they begin another year of new adventures in safety, the St. Elizabeth girls held a meeting and elected Nancy Ford as captain and Kathy O'Conner as lieutenant.

The service squad girls set good example for new members and also assists the little children who rely on their help.

They can also be trusted and depended upon by the principal, teachers, fellow members and schoolmates. Attention to duty reflects credit on teachers, parents and school.

Vicki Biscupski was named Service Girl of the Month of September for outstanding devotion to duty.

● MOCK ELECTION

Sometime this month the eighth graders of St. Elizabeth's will hold a mock presidential election. As everyone knows, the candidates are Republican Senator, Barry Goldwater and Democratic President, Lyndon B. Johnson.

It will be quite interesting to see who the class of 43 students wants for our next President.

● POLITICS SUPREME

Latest occurrences of the national political parties have been subjects of hot discussion in such everyday surroundings as street corners, shops and even in school.

In these days of new strong thinking, even the younger generation believe it to be a duty to campaign for favorite candidates.

People may consider politics to be a drab affair, but many bright-minded students think of it as a challenge to their understanding and wit.

By William Whiting

● FOOTBALL LOSS

The Cubs football squad dropped a heart-breaker to Onsted, 7-0, in the opening game of the year last week. Coming up will be Cement City, Thursday at 4:30 p.m. on their opponent's gridiron.

● TECUMSEH—300 YEARS AGO

Fourth graders have drawn a mural of Tecumseh as it appeared 300 years ago. The drawing was supervised by Sister Mary Constance, O.P., — a faculty newcomer.

This six-foot picture contains Indians, teepees and trees and was drawn during rainy noon hours and specific times that Sister allowed them.

Beside this unusual picture, there is a modern map of Tecumseh, showing the difference and progress of time.

By Ann Beardsley

● SPANISH CLASS

As a new subject, Spanish is quite popular. The children are enthusiastic about learning this language.

From the first phrase, "Buenas Dias, Hermana," to the last, every minute of class is both educational and fun.

The students are learning the names of the colors and objects around them and then are connecting them into meaningful sentences.

Head-On Smashup Kills Two

Two truck drivers died instantly in a violent head-on crash Wednesday morning at dawn on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd. in front of Peerless Gear's plant.

Dead are:

- Louis John Wilhelm, 49, of Delphos, O.
- Dave Drumright, 53, of Wayne.

An explosion followed the crash by 30 seconds, starting a fire, which completely burned out the two cabs.

Clinton and Tecumseh firemen subdued the flames, then went about the difficult task of removing the two bodies, which were burned and wedged into the wreckage.

It took several hours to complete this task.

Joe Smith of Clinton, a volunteer fireman, who lives about 500 yards from the scene, stepped out his back door at 6:35, as is his usual custom, when he heard the crash and saw smoke rising near the Peerless plant.

"It was real loud. Then there was another explosion," he said.

The fire siren sounded almost immediately and Mr. Smith, a Tecumseh Products Co. employee, along with other volunteers, was on his way. At first, firemen thought the plant was ablaze.

★

JAMES CAMPBELL of Tipton, another first-shift Products worker, was driving behind the Drumright vehicle, which was heading south, loaded with bales of waste cardboard.

Mr. Campbell watched in horror as the Wilhelm truck suddenly veered into the opposite lane and the two trucks crashed together. Fog had limited visibility.

Peerless Gear security force Sgt. Uphold, was on duty when the accident took place, heard the tremendous noise, looked out and saw the twisted masses of burning debris. He immediately phoned State Police.

★

THE WILHELM TRUCK, a 38-foot semi and trailer belonging to the Delphos Bending Co., was running empty.

Mr. Drumright is survived by his wife, Willa, who was undergoing major surgery Wednesday, at almost the same time as the accident.

State Police Sgt. Carl Anderson talked to her physician, who said he would break the tragic news of her husband's death.

Both bodies were taken to Proctor Funeral Home in Clinton.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

It's good not to be Zolton A. Ferency these days.

He's the state Democratic Party chairman, who kicked up some fuss last week about Republican Elly Peterson, a candidate for the United States Senate.

Loosely tied into the National Guard hoopla was her husband, a colonel, who in 1959 bought some land near Camp Grayling along with a lot of other Guard personnel.

When the Michigan Guard scandal broke last week, the list of all the purchasers became public information and there was Col. Peterson's name.

★

FIRING FROM the hip, Zolton allowed as how Mrs. Peterson should be carefully checked out, which sounded awfully ridiculous at the time and got to appearing even more crazy as the hours wore on.

Well, it turned out the colonel and other land buyers were all innocent of any taint.

Elly held a press conference Monday to set the records straight and when she spoke, her voice was firm and throaty.

She's' mad," smiled my wife as we heard it over the radio.

"I'd hate to be Mr. Ferency the next time he sees Elly," was my rejoiner.

There is nothing to match a woman scorned — or one whose husband has been accused of being a manipulator at the public expense.

★

CERTAINLY, if Elly were not a candidate for public office, it's a certainty that Col. Peterson's name would never have been mentioned.

Elly's opponent, Sen. Philip Hart was quick to say the land purchase was not a campaign issue, ditto Neil Staebler, who opposes GOP Gov. George Romney next month, this being a gentle kick in the teeth for the state chairman.

The storm is calmed now, but Zolton A. Ferency still has to look forward to the next time he sees one Elly Peterson.

Good luck, Zolton.

Music Fills Air at 18th Band Festival

Sand Creek, Blissfield, Adrian and Clinton bands were outstanding at Tuesday night's 18th annual Tecumseh Band Festival.

Blissfield and Adrian were both fined for overtime performances which were really a joy for both the audience and the bands.

A fine of $5 for each 30 seconds over the allotted seven minutes is charged, with the fines going to the Lenawee County Band Directors Association to be used for Interlochen scholarships.

Robert Ruesink, Adrian's drum major, carrying the Olympic torch, strutted through the lighting ceremonies of the recreated 1964 Olympic Games opening as the band played "March of the Olympians."

The $40 fine was well worth it for the TV panorama, which included a colorful bit entitled "Peanut Vendor."

★

THE EXCELLENT presentation of Blissfield's concert-style selections cost them $20 for overtime. The bass drummers were remarkable as the percussion section was featured in "Lullaby of Broadway."

Sand Creek's 50-yard-wide chorus line presented a brassy "Hello, Dolly" with terrific volume.

Clinton's crisp, high-stepping marchers gave a musical salute to girls with lots of volume on "Nothing Like a Dame."

Tecumseh's Glen Barton and Gary Stretch were featured cornetists as the Indian band presented "Block Band Jazz" in a stereo production with lots of excellent brass.

Onsted's peppy marchers did a production on the presidential scene with a snappy drum section during "Another Opening, Another Show."

Britton changed "Herman, a typical student with small problems, from a sad to a happy boy picturing his face in their formation.

★

DEERFIELD DREW attention to their new uniforms with the presentation of "Hey, Look Me Over."

Madison for their first time in the Festival presented a sharp "The Erie Canal."

Addison featured "What Takes My Fancy" from the Broadway

'64 Drive Opens

The annual Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation Drive started here Wednesday with the industrial division again leading solicitations.

Ken Conway, General Telephone manager, is chairman of the campaign for the third consecutive year and announces a goal of $50,000.

Last year, the Foundation raised $77,000.

Other scheduled drives, all to start Oct. 23, and division chairmen are:

Dyke Helms — commercial.
Norval Bovee — professional.
Don Moffatt — municipal.
Mrs. Paul Craft — residential.
Tim Neill heads the industrial.

All chairmen, except Mr. Moffatt, have handled the drives for the past three years. Tentative date for all drives to be completed is Nov. 1.

The charity budget this year is approximately $34,000, about the same as in the past.

Monies in excess of this budget will be devoted mainly to development and improvement of "The Pit," a favorite swimming hole recently acquired by the Foundation.

Other planned expenditures are for purchase of new books for the public library.

READY FOR OPENING NIGHT — Among cast members of the Tecumseh Players' "State of the Union" are these four, Duane Steele, Mrs. James Vanzo, Mrs. Mel Wagner and Lou Hardesty, all set for the first curtain call Wednesday, Oct. 21. The play continues Thursday and Saturday of next week and the following weekend, Oct. 28, 29 and 31. Story on next page.

Key Contest Pits THS, Grosse Ile on Friday Night

What may well be called the championship game for the Huron League title sends the Tecumseh Indians to Grosse Ile Friday night.

It's a must game for both clubs who share the top rung with 2-0 marks. If the Indians win, they'll have a fairly smooth road the rest of the way with only oft-beaten Airport and Blissfield remaining.

Subdivision Will Have 95 Homes

A new Tecumseh subdivision at the southwest corner of Russell and Occidental Rds. materialized last week with the sale of 40 acres by Carroll Frost.

Mr. Frost, who intends to live in the subdivision, sold the property to Jess LaVoy of Temperance.

The J. LaVoy Builders are planning 95 houses, ranging in cost from $15,000 to $20,000. The homes will be ranch and split-level. Brick and aluminum siding exterior construction will be used.

Lots will vary from 90x135 to 90x168 feet. The site runs about one-quarter mile west on Russell Rd. from Occidental Hwy., and over 1,000 feet south from Russell on Occidental.

Mr. LaVoy anticipates starting a model within a few weeks and is hoping for an early spring showing.

Whether or not the new subdivision is annexed to the city has not been decided.

Science, Space Races Subject of Monday Club

"Let's Keep Pace With Science and Space" is the subject of the program to be presented Monday, Oct. 19, by Mrs. Robert Bonner for the Monday Club.

Ken Conway, manager at the General Telephone Co., will participate with others on a round table discussion.

The program will precede the 2 p.m. meeting at the Methodist Church.

Gifts for Goodwill Industries bazaar will be gathered at this meeting.

Behind Page One

Tecumseh provides outstanding citizens. Harold H. Schreder, born and raised here and now president of Group Securities, Inc., of New York City, was the speaker in London last week for a joint meeting of financial wizards. Mr. Schreder is regarded as one of the leading economists in this country.

Governor George Romney has declared October as PTA Membership Enrollment Month. The Michigan and National Congress invite civic-minded adults to join.

Prettiest tree in town is the red maple at the corner of E. Pottawatamie and Wyandotte Sts. Take a look when the sun hits it.

Trophies for the big races at Manchester Speedway in the year's finale were donated by Underwood Chevrolet-Pontiac and George Underwood Fordland.

For the sixth time in 10 bow-and-arrow seasons, Ken Hinkleman, 207 N. Maiden Lane, got his deer. His 20-yard shot this year brought down a spike horn, weighing about 100 pounds late Saturday afternoon. He was in a blind, hunting from a cabin owned by his wife's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Krohn, near Curran.

If you like apples, there are oddles at most orchards, many places inviting people to pick their own. For cider makers, the supply of "drops" is limitless.

A new byline is appearing in The Herald. Joining the staff is Mrs. Hollie Shelton of Milan, who was with The Monroe Evening News for five years. She's both a writer and photographer.

We're "politically" taken to task in a letter this week. See it on the last page.

If you're searching for a candidate in the Michigan 2nd District Court of Appeals, try Timothy C. Quinn. He gets an unqualified boost from Harry Myers, editor emeritus of the Lapeer County Press.

C. R. Jansen, of Wesselsbron, South Africa, was in town last week to line up a Meyers 200C for use by his agency. It will be ready for delivery in early December, to be flown 10,000 miles by Capt. George Parsons, Mr. Jansen's partner and a former South African Airways transport pilot.

Emergency feed loans are now available to farmers in Lenawee County as a result of extensive damage and losses to crops, pasture and livestock from prolonged drought and other adverse weather conditions.

It's no doubt true, as Gilbert and Sullivan pattered,

"That every boy and every gal
That's born into the world alive
Is either a little Liberal,
Or else a little Conservative!"

Duncan Leckta is hustlin' off to Buffalo. The former Tecumseh football coach has been named ticket manager for the Buffalo Bills, an American Football League club. Dunc will also help out with player personnel. For the past three years, he has been at Michigan State University as assistant ticket manager.

How folks love those Band Festivals. There was applause for every unit's each number. Tecumseh can certainly be proud of this event.

Jim Lawson says he'll leave a color TV set in Republican headquarters until Nov. 4 for free viewing.

"I never missd one yet," said banker Andy Woodward as he stepped up to go for a 3-7-10 split in bowling action last week at Airport Bowl. Andy sliced the No. 3, which spun across and cracked the No. 7. The ball banged into the No. 10 and the alley was clear. "You just made a believer of me grinned one of Andy's opponents, Lonal Bishop. Actually, Andy hadn't fractured the simon pure. It was the first 3-7-10 of his career.

A special pictorial supplement on education in Tecumseh will be issued by The Herald during American Education Week of Nov. 8 to 14. It will highlight modern math, new elementary reading instruction, junior and senior high specialties. Select ads will be included, Mr. Storeman. It's going to be like our basketball and Fisher Body ground-breaking sections.

No quarters or half dollars were available at the United Savings Bank Wednesday morning at 10.

MRS. EDNA HEILMAN, WHO REMEMBERS 1900 OPENING, ADMIRES DAUGHTER'S NEW STORE

New White House Hopeful

Many familiar faces will be seen in The Tecumseh Players production of "State Of The Union."

First of six performances will be Wednesday, Oct. 21, at Odd Fellows Hall on Green Hwy., just south of Tecumseh.

Dr. Robert Murray, known for his roles in "You Can't Take It With You", "The Man Who Came To Dinner", and "Born Yesterday", has also been cast in many Clark Lake Players productions. He has the lead as Grant Matthews.

Mrs. Howard Gentry, who made her first appearance on the Tecumseh stage in "Male Animal" and previously was in many Wayne Players' shows, is Grant's wife, Mary.

Mrs. Gene Earling, as Kay Thorndyke, makes her first appearance in a major role in Tecumseh. She will be remembered as a Mexican waitress in "Girl Crazy". She played the lead in a Galveston, Ind., production of "Adam's Evening".

★

GRANT IS THE prize in a tug of war between Mary and Kay. Mary does not want her husband to be groomed as a presidential candidate at the price of compromising his ideals.

Kay is convinced that through him she will hold in her hands the reins of government. She is aided and abetted in her schemes by wily Sam Conover, played by Guil Rothfuss of Brooklyn.

Guil had roles in "Ten Little Indians", "Born Yesterday" and "Male Animal". His wife, Vesta, is a welcome addition to the group in the part of Mrs. Draper.

Spike MacManus, a newspaper reporter who has been assigned by Kay to keep Grant in line, but who eventually winds up in Mary's camp, is played by William Frownfelder of "Born Yesterday" and "Male Animal".

Judge Alexander and wife, Lulubelle, handled by veterans Duane Steele and Mrs. James Vanzo are convincing as a couple from the deep south.

Duane, who has been in Clark Lake productions, was in "You Can't Take It With You", "The Man Who Came To Dinner", "Born Yesterday" and "Pajama Game", and Judy appeared in "Ten Little Indians" and "Male Animal".

★

LOU HARDESTY, from "Born Yesterday", plays industrialist Sam Parrish.

Miles Cowdrey is making his first on-stage appearance as the imperturbable houseman, Swenson.

Mrs. Mel Wegner, a maid in "The Man Who Came To Dinner", holds a similar role in the Conover home.

Gene Earling, a member of the Four Dads' quartette, has had roles in "Ten Little Indians", "The Man Who Came To Dinner", "Girl Crazy", and "Pajama Game". He's Senator Lauterback.

David Nelson as William Hardy, a labor leader, Hal Weakley, a waiter and Don Partridge as a bellboy were all seen in "Male Animal".

You Told Us

Thirty-five persons attended a unique open house Sunday at the home of Mrs. Roger Williams. The affair was given for her aunts, Mrs. Emma McDowell of Lansing and Mrs. Earl Watson of Chula Vista, Calif., former Tipton area residents.

The sisters greeted relatives and friends of 30 years ago in the Williams home at 2505 Russell Rd. The house was attractively decorated with pumpkins and gourds in keeping with the season.

While attending the Tecumseh High School, the women lived on the farm owned by their father, Arthur Joseph, now a part of Hidden Lake Gardens.

Mrs. McDowell has been a private secretary in the state senate for many years. Her sister and brother-in-law are members of the Gem and Mineral Society in their area of the Golden State. They make out the bulletin received here by the local club.

It is the feeling of this columnist that the party was an extremely kind deed extended to her aunts by Mrs. Williams.

Vicky Mohr stayed with her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Mohr.

Punt, Pass, Kick Meet Saturday

The annual Punt, Pass & Kick contest for boys eight through 13 of age will be held this Saturday morning at the athletic field.

Tecumseh Motors, local Ford agency, is in charge of the contest and will award footballs, helmets and jackets as prizes to the winners.

Schedule for the different age brackets are:

Eight-year-olds—9 a.m.
Nine-year-olds—9:30 a.m.
10-year-olds—10:15 a.m.
11-year-olds—11 a.m.
12-year-olds—11:30 a.m.
13-year-olds—noon.

Youngsters and parents have been notified of the time schedule.

Jewelry Celebrates Its 64th Birthday

One of the oldest stores in Tecumseh not only will celebrate its 64th anniversary this weekend, but a complete remodeling and expansion program also.

Gaston & Son, a jewelry shop started here in 1900, has planned a two-day observance which will undoubtedly mark one of the store's greatest milestones.

Mrs. Sally Pope, owner, has completed an extensive renovation program, one which enlarged the old store and also one which enhanced the store's appearance, both inside and out.

★

FEW HERE NOW remember when Gaston & Son joined Tecumseh's main street businesses. It was originally the Peters Jewelry Store.

On Oct. 16, 1900, William Gaston, purchased the jewelry business and opened it for patronage.

He and his son, John, managed the store until 1916, when John died. At this time, the late Ed Heilman, son-in-law of the owner, became associated with the store.

Mr. Heilman, who was well known locally, took over in 1922 on the death of Mr. Gaston.

He was sole owner till 1956, when his daughter, Mrs. Pope, succeeded him and continued to work in the store until about a year ago.

★

HIS WIFE, Mrs. Edna Heilman, well remembers when her father became the owner in 1900 and first opened the doors. She still aids her daughter and remains active in store affairs.

The new store compares with any in southeastern Michigan in exterior appearance and interior appointments.

Thirty-two feet of floor space has been added to the length of the store, plus completely new front and rear entrances, floor, ceiling, lighting, show windows and a new basement.

Merchandising space has been approximately doubled.

Only Wright's Drug Store is older than Gaston's on Chicago Blvd. However, Gaston's has never been moved from its present location, making it the oldest business in Tecumseh at the same site and the oldest jewelry store in Lenawee County.

He's in Contest To Pick Corn

Willis Davenport, 1351 Taylor Rd., was one of the participants in the seventh annual Michigan State Mechanical Corn Picking Contest held Thursday on a farm owned by T. O. Brittain and Sons, US-223 and Sand Creek Hwy.

Melody Smith Marries Paul Klanke

Preceded by four attendants, Melody Rose Smith entered the sanctuary of the Tecumseh Assembly of God Church Saturday evening on the arm of her father to become the bride of Paul Samuel Klanke.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O. Smith, 215 E. Pottawatamie St.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Klanke of rural Adrian.

The Rev. Harold E. Speer performed the ceremony before the altar enhanced with palms and wedding baskets of chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Donald MacPherson was the soloist, accompanied by Dexter Bailey.

★

THE BRIDE chose a floor-length gown of silk organza over taffeta with portrait lines featuring a slim sheath skirt with appliques of Alencon lace and seed pearls.

It was accented at the back with a full sweeping chapel train caught to the waistline with a pert bow.

The scoop neckline was trimmed with lace re-embroidered with seed pearls.

Her elbow-length veil of French illusion was attached to a forward cluster of handsome roses re-embroidered with seed pearls.

She carried a cascade arrangement of red roses and red and white candy-striped carnations.

★

GLORIA KLANKE, sister of the groom, was maid of honor in a floor-length gown of royal blue brocade with empire waistline featuring a back drape and floral accent at the bodice.

She wore a head piece of matching brocade and tulle veiling and carried pink roses and carnations.

Rhonda Murray, Nilaine Swiger and Jeanne Mills were the bridesmaids in gowns identical to that of the maid of honor, except that Miss Murray wore pale pink, Miss Swiger, turquoise and Miss Mills, gold.

Susan Steidel of Falls Church, Va., was the flower girl and David Smith was the ring bearer.

Ralph Klanke was his brother's best man and John and David Klanke, also brothers of the groom, with Ronnie Mills and Paul Speer served as ushers.

★

A RECEPTION was held at the Pythian Hall in Tipton for 250 guests from Adrian, Atlanta, Britton, Dundee, Clinton and Tipton and Falls Church, Va., Marietta, Chillicothe and Greenfield, O., and Gononoque, Ontario, Canada.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed in the medical records department of the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

The groom is a graduate of Onsted High School and is employed by the Thomas Co. in Clinton.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home at 215½ E. Pottawatamie St.

MRS. PAUL KLANKE

Youths Flounder in Sea of Mud

Two 12-year-olds found Sunday that adventure can sometimes be a sticky situation.

Flip Hardesty and Paul Lindstrom hunted frogs on the bottom of Red Mill Pond, which had been temporarily drained.

Only a small finger of the River Raisin meanders across the sea of mud during the repair of the Tecumseh-Clinton Rd. spillway.

The area was oozy and footing unsure, but the boys happily plodded on. About 200 yards from their point of entry — the back yard of Hugh Walter at 1013 Red Mill Dr. — the pair became mired waist deep.

Their calls for help went unheard and the youths struggled to get free.

Flip finally made it, trudging home to tell his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Hardesty, 1006 River Acres Dr.

They notified Paul's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Lindstrom, 1014 Red Mill Dr., that their son was floundering in the mud.

While Mr. Lindstrom and his 18-year-old son, John, manned a rowboat, going downstream towards Paul, the police and firemen were called.

The water was so shallow that when Paul was added to the craft it ran aground. John volunteered to stay behind so that Mr. Lindstrom might get Paul back to shore.

Rowing upstream for nearly an hour, Mr. Lindstrom was able to make only about 50 yards. In the meantime, firemen Ernie Oliver and Wallace MacGeorge started out on foot and an aluminum boat, poled to John.

The two boats then glided downstream, making shore behind the Ray Herrick home at 807 Red Mill Dr.

Paul and Flip had started out at 1:30 p.m. Paul finally made firm land about 6:15 — and he didn't have a single frog.

Schneider Chev.-Buick Enlarging Service Department

Construction of a 6,700 square foot addition to Schneider Chevrolet-Buick agency is expected to start this week, Louis Schneider, dealer, announces.

"Due to an expanding economy and an increase in number of car sales, we simply have to increase our service department to handle our customers' cars," Mr. Schneider explained.

The new addition for service work will measure 70 x 96 feet and will extend from the present building, east towards Tecumseh Finance Co. It will increase the number of stalls from nine to 14, and will also permit the agency to handle the largest trucks and vans.

★

EXTENSIVE REMODELING will take place also in the present building.

The showroom will be enlarged, offices will be re-aligned and the present service department will be used mainly for the parts department.

E & D Construction of Onsted is the general contractor. Completion is scheduled for early spring.

The Schneider agency moved to 1111 W. Chicago Blvd. late in the summer of 1956. It was formerly located in the Pickard Floral and Tecumseh Glass buildings.

In recent years, the agency has made several improvements, including new and used car parking lots.

Investigates 4 Accidents

Three were cited in four traffic accidents investigated by Tecumseh police during the past week.

Duane C. Brooks, 19, Britton, was charged with failure to stop within an assured clear distance after running into the rear of a car driven by Lester L. Goodson, 71, Toledo.

The Goodson auto was making a right turn into the drive of Harvey's Grill at the time.

Raymond S. Thompson, 47, of 505 Herrick Park Dr., was cited for improper backing Sunday at his home. He backed into a passing car driven by Paul Fabiano, 59, Lansing.

Lenore C. Bedore, 48, 618 N. Evans, was charged with running a red light at Maumee and E. Chicago last week.

She collided with Donald L. Schmidt, 21, of 208 W. Cummins. The Schmidt car, hit in the intersection, proceeded east and damaged a stop sign and Sunoco sign.

Shirley Ann Holt, 16, of 1850 Sutton Rd., backed into a parked car Monday on E. Pottawatamie St. The car belonged to Harvey Shields of 110 E. Pottawatamie.

Mrs. Aten Will Celebrate Her 90th Birthday

Mrs. Dora Aten, 308 N. Maiden Lane, will celebrate her 90th birthday anniversary Sunday, Oct. 18, in Herrick Memorial Hospital.

A lifelong resident of Tipton and Tecumseh, Mrs. Aten suffered a broken hip Sept. 3.

She had been active all of her life until her eyesight was impaired last year. She regularly attended Pythian Sisters and Past Chief Club meetings.

Mrs. Aten has one daughter, Mrs. Robert Diaz, 416 W. Logan St., two granddaughters and six great grandchildren.

Publicity Writers Invited to Clinic

The Tecumseh Herald will roll out the red carpet Friday for all publicity chairmen and any others interested in better coverage of the news of their particular organizations.

Besides interesting instruction given by Editor Tom Riordan, coffee and doughnuts will be served.

The hour-long workshop will be held in the Glass Room of the Community Center from 9 until 10 a.m.

Skits pertaining to "copy" problems and the best presentation of articles to the newspaper office will be featured.

Mr. Riordan is spending considerable time and effort to make the session amusing, illustrative and interesting as well as beneficial for all attending.

It's going to be "party-time."

MUSIC

show, "Wildcat."

Morenci's "Serenade To a Sand Dune" featured the percussion section.

Hudson Band combined the old with the new, "The Great Divide" drill routine dating back as far as marching bands themselves in the new Latin-American rhythm of the Cha-Cha-Cha.

CONDUCTED BY Miles Cowdrey, president of the Lenawee County Band Director's Association, the massed band of 600 students was especially delightful in "The Whiffenpoof Song."

"Finest massed band music we have heard," said narrator the Rev. Blair Bashore, whose outstanding work at the microphone has been instrumental in the success of the Festivals over 18 years.

'Family Picture Brochure'

The Rev. Blair Bashore spoke to members of the Women's Society of the First Baptist Church Monday evening concerning a family picture brochure of the entire membership.

Mrs. Orville Bishop, president, opened the meeting with the hymn favorite, "He Leadeth Me," followed by prayer given by Mrs. Floyd Bryan.

Devotions and blessing of the love gift was presented by Mrs. Thomas Gallant, Jr., assisted by Mrs. Thomas Brooks.

Mrs. Gallant sang, "Holy Bible, Book Divine."

Mrs. Brooks reviewed the book, "The Life I Live."

The group united in singing, "In The Garden", followed by prayer by Mrs. Lillian Hoagland.

Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett and committee served refreshments in keeping with the season from an attractive lace-covered table.

Mrs. Priscilla Brown and Mrs. Robert Martin poured beverages and Mrs. Robert Gillespie was the hospitality hostess.

Indian Corn, miniature pheasants, corn candle holders and autumn leaves were appointments used on the table.

Mel Partridge Calls Tecumseh 'the Greatest'

By DOROTHY GRIGG

"Tecumseh has been very kind to me," said Mel Partridge this week.

"It's a wonderful town. I may not be too well acquainted with the townspeople, but I know every area farmer."

It certainly is true that Mr. Partridge speaks the "Language of the farmer." He knows and understands their problems and has a wide acquaintance with the agricultural population of Lenawee County, the western part of Monroe County and the southeastern locality of Washtenaw County.

Mr. Partridge has sold The Partridge Implement Co. to his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Owen Partridge, and her son, Donald, and officially retired.

MEL AND HIS WIFE, Emma, came to Tecumseh from Plymouth on March 20, 1939, to establish an implement business in buildings located in the first block of S. Pearl St., owned by the Elliot estate, south of what is now Dr. Elwartowski's office.

They were there for eight years, when they acquired the property at the corner of Occidental Rd. and W. Chicago Blvd., where the business is presently located. They built there in 1946.

Mr. and Mrs. Partridge bought their home at 206 W. Chicago in 1948 and have lived the entire time in the same house.

Mr. Partridge's first job at age 22 was working for the Plano Co., manufacturers of grain binders and mowing machines.

He was employed by several implement companies and operated a farm in Plymouth before coming to Tecumseh.

★

THE COUPLE are the parents of four sons, Owen, who died in 1962; Russell, who lives in Brentwood, Calif.; Milton (Casey), owner-manager of the Fox Hills Country Club at Plymouth; and Austin, who lives on Occidental Rd., and is employed at Tecumseh Products Co.

The late Owen Partridge and his wife sold their funeral home in Watervliet and came to Tecumseh in 1941 to join his father in the business.

Friday Mel said, "I wish Don and Louise all success and I will help them all I can."

★

WHEN QUERIED about future plans, Mr. Partridge said, "We love Tecumseh and our health is such that I guess that we won't go to Florida this year.

"Anyway I know of no town, and I've traveled quite a little, that has the advantages that Tecumseh, Michigan, has.

"With the industry and fine lot of people, high culture and all, people should appreciate it," he added.

MEL PARTRIDGE LIKES TECUMSEH — Mel Partridge has sold The Partridge Implement Co. to his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Owen Partridge, and her son, Donald. Here Mel is pictured behind the wheel of one of the big tractors which have been so prominent in his 25 years as dealer for the Allis-Chalmers Company. Mel has said that the Tecumseh area has been very good to him and he thinks residents should be appreciative.

OBITUARIES

● MRS. CLYDE DRIVER

Services will be held Friday at 3 p.m. at the McCombs Funeral Home in Ft. Wayne, Ind., for Mrs. Clyde Driver, sister Zelma of C. C. Richards, 6440 Green Rd.

Mrs. Driver died at her home in Ft. Wayne at 11 a.m. Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards and family will attend.

—o—

● RUSSELL R. KEITH

Services will be held Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at the Jenter Funeral Home, Manchester, for Russell Keith, 61, who died Monday en route to Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Keith had been in failing health for the past year.

A former resident of Blissfield, Roscommon, Tecumseh and Lyons, O., he had been living at 20923 Logan Road, Manchester.

Mr. Keith was born Sept. 21, 1903, at Broadland, Ill., the son of Edward and Pettie Garr Keith.

He married Marjorie Petee Nov. 17, 1923, and she died in May, 1951.

He married Rella Kring Aug. 1, 1953.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Homer Walter of Manchester; a son, Paul Keith of Clinton; a stepson, Silas Kring, 221 S. Pearl St.; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Louis Page of Honolulu and Mrs. Harry Beland, 109 S. Maiden Lane; 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Two sisters, Mrs. Adah Sharples of Ottawa Lake and Mrs. Ruth Wotring of Sandusky, and three brothers, William of Metamora, O., Wayne of Britton and Paul of Flint also survive.

A brother, Harvey, preceded him in death.

The Rev. Ralph Kuether will officiate and burial will be in Brookside Cemetery.

Oral Polio Vaccine Given To 1010 Here

More than 1,000 persons were served oral polio vaccine in a "make-up" program in three Tecumseh drugstores Oct. 8 and 9. It brought the total of persons receiving the vaccine in Tecumseh last week to 6,578. The original drive was Oct. 4 in the Tecumseh Acres School and the Community Center.

The program is sponsored by the Lenawee County Pharmacy Association and the Lenawee County Medical Center.

Estimate of doses distributed by local druggists were Hodges Drugstore, 450; Wrights Drugstore, 260, and Lambs Rexall Pharmacy, 300.

A second and final dose will be available Dec. 2.

Hunters Go 'Great Guns' in Wyoming

Local deer and antelope hunters hit the jackpot in Wyoming during the past two weeks.

E. C. "Spec" Simmons and Robert Karle of Tipton, along with Russ and Bill Raymond of Adrian, shot their limit of four mule deer and four buck antelope. "Spec" downed a 10-pointer for the best bag in his group.

On Sept. 27, Tecumsehites Dave Osterhout, Don Maves, Ted Sisson and Hopo Anderson of Clark Lake left for the Wyoming hunting area at Gillette and a week later returned with their limit of four deer and antelope.

Products Credit Union Officers Dinner Guests

The Tecumseh Products Employees Credit Union will be represented by six officers at the International Credit Union Day dinner Saturday, Oct. 17. The affair will be in the Tri-County Sportsmans' Club near Saline.

Attending from the local credit union will be George Bishop, Ira Manwaring, Joseph Dziachan, Ray Frost, Elmer Harper and Cecil Pence.

The speaker will be S. Jerry Cohen of Washington, D. C., chief counsel and staff director of the U. S. Senate Anti-trust and Monopoly Sub-committee.

St. Elizabeth Jottings

● VICTORY

The Cubs stopped Cement City, 4-0, last Thursday.

Early in the second quarter, St. Elizabeth lost the ball on the Cement City 10.

Cement City tried a run, two passes and on last down, the quarterback was chased into the end zone and tackled for a two-point safety.

In the last quarter, St. Elizabeth's team was within the five yard line, but failed to score. Cement City tried a run, but Bradley Brown broke through the line and tackled their quarterback in the end zone, which gave St. Elizabeth's two more points.

By William Earle and Michael Wanzeck.

√

Bradley Brown was awarded the coveted certificate for Patrol Boy of the Month, given to him for his obedience to the faculty and captain of the squad as he executed his duties.

By John McVay

● LOUDER RAHS!

As was evidenced in the last two rallies, pep rally enthusiasm at St. Elizabeth's is on the rise.

The cheerleaders led the school song and cheers while the team demonstrated their various football plays. To all this activity, the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth graders responded with hand-clapping and hearty cheer participation.

With winning games such as the 4-0 victory over Cement City last Thursday, the rallies are bound to get even livelier.

By Susan Stark.

● NOW SMILE!

October 6, the St. Elizabeth students had their pictures taken. The boys wore their Sunday best white shirts and ties and the girls were attired in their uniforms.

While they were waiting to be photographed, they made last minute checks to see if their hair was neat and to make sure their ties were on straight.

Amid all the smiling faces and excitement, all seemed to go well.

● ACHIEVEMENT TESTS

Achievement tests were given last week throughout most of the grades. The tests were timed and showed student ability in such subjects as reading, arithmetic and Engish.

By William Holmes.

● TIDBITS

While teachers and sisters are away at the MEA meeting in Ann Arbor, Thursday and Friday, the students are enjoying their free time.

√

● CLASS MAGAZINE

This year the eighth grade class has begun work on an interesting project — compiling a class magazine.

Thomas Rohrer was elected editor and various chairmen were appointed to direct and select material for the different sections. They will include short stories, sports, poetry, book reviews, editorials and feature stories.

The entire class submitted ideas for the magazine's cover and from these entries one will be chosen.

HITE HARDWARE Tecumseh

UNUSUAL INTERFERENCE — As Tim Collins swept into the end zone for Tecumseh's first touchdown, it appeared to the camera as though he had a covey of coeds for blockers. THS went on to top Milan, 13-7.

THS Fires Up To Stop Milan

In its finest offensive display of the season, Tecumseh scored its second straight Huron League victory here Friday night with a 13-6 win over a big Milan eleven.

The first two periods were a complete reversal for the Indians, who, in winning two of their three games, had trouble moving the pigskin.

Coach Tom Fagan's club controlled the ball and the ball game for most of the four quarters, of which the last two were scoreless.

★

TECUMSEH TOOK the opening kickoff and marched 65 yards for its first tally.

Runs of 22 and 11 by fullback Gregg McEnroe sparked the drive. Quarterback Jeff Osburn put Tecumseh on the scoreboard with a plunge from the one, and then hit Mark Blatchford with a pass for the extra point.

The Visiting Big Reds retaliated six plays later when Dick Collar circled right end, cut back, and raced in from Tecumseh's 27. A place kick for the extra point was wide.

It was then Tecumseh's turn, and the Indians marched 67 yards after the kickoff with fleet Tim Collins rounding left end for eight yards and six points.

The shifty halfback just missed running in for the extra point, being bumped out on the one.

★

MILAN, WHICH had the ball for just four plays in the second quarter, punted after the game's fourth kickoff to Tecumseh's 33.

The Indians seemed headed for their third score when a 15-yard penalty snuffed out the drive. Ron Bolz had to punt, but a Milan back fumbled and Tecumseh recovered on Milan's 37 just before the half.

Don Baird and collins carried to the 25 when time ran out.

★

THE SECOND half was strictly defensive football, as far as the Indians were concerned. Milan once drove to Tecumseh's 17 and again to the 33, but both drives fizzled.

While the Indians have been tough on defense this season and weak on offense, Tecumseh proved it could move the ball in the first two quarters.

The defense was lax in the first half but came back strong in the final two periods and stopped the Milan running game.

The Big Reds relied mainly on passing to move late in the game.

Tecumseh	7	6	0	0

IT'S TD — All the camera could catch was the ball (note arrow) held aloft by Jeff Osburn following his first half score, with Larry Merx (70) arising after helping bust open Milan's defensive line.

Recreation Activities

By DON MOFFATT, Superintendent

"Live all your life" was the general theme of this year's 46th annual National Recreation Congress held recently in Miami Beach, Fla.

I was among more than 3,000 volunteer and professional workers in recreation who were on hand for the only nationwide meeting concerned with all aspects of recreation and leisure.

Major speakers who addressed the Congress included Florida Governor Farris Bryant; Mrs. Eunice K. Shriver, executive vice president of Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr., Foundation; and George P. Donaldson, executive secretary of the Georgia Agricultural Commodity Commission for Peanuts.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT part of the Congress was a day-in-depth session titled "Learning to Live with Leisure" at which five noted speakers explored work, religion, education, government and the behavioral sciences. The panelists included R. G. McCreery, director of Solutions to Employment Problems, of the National Association of Manufacturers; Rev. Warren W. Ost, of the National Council of Churches; Volt Gilmore, first director of the U. S. Travel Bureau, Department of Commerce; Dr. Lorant Forizs, Medical Director, Anclote Manor, Florida; and Dr. Harry Philpott, vice president, University of Florida.

The Congress program covered such diverse subjects as recreation counseling for the homebound, community recreation for the retarded, how older citizens can live all their lives, horticulture in recreation and a cycling and hosteling workshop.

★

IN ONE OF THE most interesting sessions, Dr. Harold Meyer, Consultant of the North Carolina Recreation Commission, advocated a program to help older citizens to "live" all their lives.

He urged all agencies dealing with recreation to work together to help individuals now that the life span has been lengthened.

He specifically urged that public and private recreation forces recognize the senior citizen in all of their planning and that conferences, institutes and workshops be utilized to help expand the knowledge in this important age classification.

★

HE SAID THERE are six principal challenges for the nation to accept about senior citizens:

"1. To change some of existing negative concepts about this period of life.

"2. To have citizens in the middle years prepare for the years of later maturity.

"3. To plan ahead for the future generations so they may be better adjusted to this time of life.

"4. To help esablish a definite rapport between work and recreation throughout the entire life span.

"5. To coordinate the basic areas of life — health, education, work, welfare and religion along with recreation.

"6. To make growing old a natural process and not a disease."

★

SOME CONCLUSIONS reached at the Congress included: Education for use of leisure should begin in the early formative years; a person must learn early to appreciate nature and the joy of creativity; the objective of the recreationist is to help people use their own free time to contribute to the development of their own personality and character; people who work rate high in our society as being worthy—important—useful; people must recognize that recreation has the same qualities—it is the job of the professional recreationist to help people achieve usefulness, importance and worth through recreation.

Mall in Jackson Opens with Three-Day Blast

JACKSON — Big names in show business, school bands, college choruses, local entertainers with a professional touch — 75 acts in all — will turn Jackson into a center of show business as the city celebrates the completion of its daring downtown Mall Oct. 22-24.

Jackson's Chamber of Commerce retail division is picking up the tab on a three-day series of free events designed to attract thousands of people from all over Southern Michigan to see the downtown area's new look.

The celebration, called the Jackson Jubilee, is under the management of a 10-man committee chairmanned by Ty Cross of Consumers Power Co.

Thursday, October 22, will see official Mall dedication ceremonies, followed by a day of concerts, including one by the Michigan State University Glee Club.

Thursday night the main Mall stage attraction will be the television stars who comprise The Gateway Trio from San Francisco.

★

ON FRIDAY, one of the most famous troupes in show business will do three performances from the Mall in the afternoon and evening. Its identity will be revealed later by the committee.

Friday will also see many other acts and events on the two-block long park-like Mall, which has turned Jackson's Michigan Ave. into one of the most talked-about business districts in America.

These include a costumed German band which will do strolling Mall concerts both Thursday and Friday afternoons.

Saturday's morning attractions, aimed at children, include two performances at the Michigan Theatre of Hollywood's "Yogi Bear" show.

Saturday afternoon Mall events include band concerts by high school bands from Cement City, East Jackson, Napoleon and other Jackson County communities.

THAT NIGHT'S Mall headliners are The Marauders, a modern rock and roll trio, who will be on the main Mall stage from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

After they finish, a number of Southern Michigan college groups will participate in a general intercollegiate Hootenany, with Jackson Junior College students as hosts.

Mr. Cross emphasized that every Jubilee attraction is free and will take place on the Mall, on one of three stages being built for the Jubilee.

Each Jubilee day beginning at 8:30 a.m., free coffee and donuts will be served at Jubilee tent headquarters in Jackson's Blackman Park, on the Mall, eridig at 10 a.m. Entertainment continues until midnight.

Two noon variety shows featuring Jackson's Torch Drive performers will be held Thursday and Friday.

Mall area decorations will include special pylons on the light poles along Michigan Ave. and, at night, giant searchlights sweeping the skies above the festive scene.

THEY'LL SING — The Gateway Trio are the headliners in Thursday night's free show at the Jackson Jubilee, Thursday through Saturday, Oct. 22-24, on The Mall in Jackson. The Jubilee, which will start at 8:30 a.m. each day, celebrates the completion of Jackson's downtown Michigan Avenue Mall. In all, 75 different acts will perform on The Mall during the three-day Jubilee period. All Jubilee events are free to the public.

Wives in 'Bus Blitz' Halt at Headquarters

Republican Headquarters in Tecumseh buzzed with activity Friday afternoon.

Wives of many GOP candidates made a brief stop on their 1,200-mile journey through Michigan, to plug their husbands.

Tecumseh was the 31st city they had visited.

Among those introduced were:

► Mrs. Carla Parker, candidate for the new State Board of Education.

► Mrs. Mike Warshawsky, wife of candidate for attorney general. She said her husband was unbiased and unbossed and would interpret the law without fear or favor.

► Mrs. Farrell Roberts, whose husband is running for the Court of Appeals.

► Mrs. James F. O'Neil, whose husband is also running for the new State Board of Education. She explained her husband is the only incumbent seeking re-election for an eight-year term. This will be the only year to elect eight people, then there will be two elected every two years.

► Mrs. Robert Briggs, whose husband also is running for the new State Board of Education.

► Mrs. George Meader and Mrs. William Milliken wire also introduced.

Elly Peterson, who had been with the caravan earlier, had returned to Lansing for a conference with Gov. George Romney over the National Guard land purchase.

IN CONJUNCTION with the "Bus Blitz," area Republicans held a style show.

Clothing viewed was furnished by Cal's Tog Shop and Green's Men and Boys Wear. Hair style was by House of Glamour and scenery by Pickard Floral Shop with furnishings by Des Ermia's.

Models included Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. James Robideau, Mrs. Don Smith, Mrs. Bill Hanna, James Fielder and Robert and Mark Murray.

Mrs. James Fielder was narrator, describing articles of apparel worn by the models.

County Youths Are Planning Adrian Rally

The Teen Life Crusade Rally will be held Saturday, Oct. 17 at 7:30 p.m. in the Adrian College Chapel. The Rev. George E. Failing of Marion, Ind., will be the speaker.

Mr. Failing is a pastor, college professor and speaker at camps and conferences and author and editor of many books and phamplets.

The Brightmoor Jubilee quartet will bring special music and there will be a Bible quiz.

All teenagers from the seventh to the twelfth grade are invited to bring their tickets or get one at the door and register for their high school.

Freckelton Is Assigned to Squadron

MILTON, Fla. — Stephen J. Freckelton, Navy airman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Freckelton, 124 Brown St., is serving with Training Squadron Two, Naval Auxiliary Air Station here.

While attached to the squadron, he will be trained with the Trojan Trainer in precision and acrobatic flying, basic instrument and night flying.

Fall into Hot Water Burns Lorne Ross

Badly burned legs Friday failed to keep Lorne J. Ross in the Emma L. Bixby Hospital.

Mr. Ross of 503 N. Evans St., was injured when he fell into a tank of scalding water in the Adrian Steel Co. plant where he had been employed two days.

He was saved more serious burns when he jumped into a tank of cold water. The accident occurred as he was attempting to free a hoist stuck above the tank.

The injured man insisted on leaving the hospital after treatment and Monday went to the company office where he told his employers he expected to return to work the first of next week.

PTA Members To Put Blacktop On Playground

Don Sunderland, vice president of the Patterson PTA, at the Oct. 1 meeting asked for volunteers to work on the black-topping of the playground basketball court.

Jack Puffer will direct the seal-coating at 9 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 17.

Approval was given by the members for the purchase of a swing set.

The teachers were introduced during the business meeting and room visitation was held. The work of many students was displayed.

Scouts, Leaders To Enjoy Day Of Adventure

New boys and their recruiters will enjoy especially the Day of Adventure of the Boy Scouts of the Lenape District. The program will be at Camp Kanesatake Saturday, Oct. 24.

Other scouts and unit leaders also will meet at 9:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. for games and activities and a sack lunch at noon.

During the morning tenderfoot requirements will be taught. Relays and contests will be conducted in the afternoon featuring a campfire program.

BEEVERS APPOINTED MASON SHOE DEALER

The Mason Shoe Manufacturing Company, Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin announced today the appointment of Kenneth Beevers, 610 West Kilbuck, Tecumseh, as an authorized Mason Shoe Dealer. He will service Mason Shoe customers in the Tecumseh area. Mr. Beever's background and business experience qualified him for this franchise. His phone number is 423-4549.

Party Raises Money for Piano

The Herrick Nursing Home will have its piano thanks to the combined efforts of Auxiliary members and their friends.

Profits from a week of card parties, coffee hours and donations amounted to $570, Mrs. Howard Gentry and Mrs. James Robideau, co-chairmen, announced. Special thanks go to Britton and Manchester for their fine cooperation. Prizes were made possible from donations from various Service Stations in the area.

Prizes and winners are:

"The Great Treasury Raid" by Philip Stern. Every year an unseen $40 billion disappears from the United States Treasury without a word of protest from the American taxpayers.

This is the cost of various tax preferences, usually called "loopholes". Ordinarily the layman considers the tax law as totally beyond his comprehension.

In this book, however, the author has deftly and entertainly made the subject come alive for the non-expert, and certainly provides food for thought.

4-H Girls Begin Sewing Project

Patterns were fitted and cut out when members of the North Franklin Maidens 4-H Group met last Thursday with their leader Mrs. Roger Williams.

This year Mrs. Lawrence Young is the assistant leader who will help with sewing and will be leader of the knitting project.

Cheryl and Patti Aebersold served refreshments.

'Greater Love Hath No Man"

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

This verse from John (15:13) will be the Golden Text for a Bible Lesson on "Doctrine of Atonement" to be read at all Christian Science church services this Sunday.

'65 Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe—with new Sweep-line roof.

If what you see moves you, wait'll you take the wheel

(V8's with—GRRRR!—up to 400 hp)

One look at those longer, wider lines tells you it's the kind of car you just couldn't buy before without getting into the higher price brackets. But one drive will tell you a lot more.

You've got your kind of engine going for you. There's an even half dozen available this year—anything you name from a quieter 6 to a V8 with the authority of 400 hp.

And the road feels like satin because our engineers came up with a new Full Coil suspension system, teamed it with a Wide-Stance design, and made our famous Jet-smooth ride even smoother and more stable.

On top of that, you've got the kind of space and comfort you'd expect to pay a lot more than a Chevrolet price for. And the kind of elegance, too. Like the look of fine walnut on the Impala's new instrument panel. The tailored wall panels under the frameless curved windows. And Body by Fisher craftsmanship.

Color Tour Guides Are Available

LANSING — There's still time to view Michigan's big fall color show in many areas of the state, according to reports reaching the Michigan Tourist Council offices in Lansing.

The peak of color has been reached in the Upper Perfinsula and most sections of the northern tip of Lower Michigan where trees are beginning to shed their leaves.

Color conditions were expected to be at their peak or near peak from the mid-central sections of Michigan southward last weekend and should continue through the following week to 10 days.

Free copies of the Michigan Autumn Color Tour Guide, containing 24 color tours throughout the state are available from the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing 48926.

Race Relations Discussed

"What Would You Do?" was a program on race relations providing the basis for the Oct. 7 meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Clyde Smith led the group in looking "squarely at an issue that confronts us today, in terms of our reactions as Christians."

Emphasizing that this problem will face each of us in the near future, Mrs. Smith concluded with this question, "Over the woman's land of hatred, fear and suspicion, how can we come to our brother of another race with an offering of friendship?"

★

DURING THE business meeting, announcements were made concerning "A Christian Family Living Group" to be held every Wednesday, from 9 to 10 a.m. beginning Oct. 14, for mothers with children at home.

The "Quiet Day" will be held Monday, Oct. 26, from 1 to 2:30 p.m., with Mrs. Truman Rentschler as guest speaker.

The Fall Festival will be held Thursday, Nov. 12, beginning at 10 a.m. with a snack bar open from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and a turkey dinner served family style at 5 p.m.

All of these activities will be held in the church.

Devotions for this meeting were conducted by Mrs. Frank Gray. Greeters were Mrs. George Green, Sr., and Mrs. Fred Nash with Mrs. Jim Murphy and Mrs. Don R. Martin as hostesses.

Irish Hills Are Ideal for Fall Color Tour

The Irish Hills is beckoning visitors to view its medley of colorful trees, green hills and some 50 blue lakes.

US-12 from Saline to Jonesville provides rolling scenery for those who do not wish to leave a main paved highway.

A climb to the top of Irish Hills Observation Towers, ten miles west of Clinton, affords a bird's eye view of hills and lakes spread out for miles.

The five-mile scenic drive through Hidden Lakes Gardens on M-50, eight miles west of Tecumseh, is a must. The Gardens, owned by Michigan State University, also offer marked nature trails for those who like to walk.

★

A BIT OF historical lore and beauty is provided by a stop at old St. Joseph's Shrine, where outdoor Stations of the Cross are built into a lakeside hill.

Walker Tavern, built 1832, still stands at the corner of US-12 and M-50, where it was once a wayside inn for pioneer travelers. Now a museum, it gives a varied bit of interest to the color drive.

Many a weary pioneer on his way to settle the West stopped here. The rooms are all replete with antique furnishings. Rooms used by the famous author, J. Fenimore Cooper and the great orator, Daniel Webster, are seen here, along with a Murder Room where a wayfarer met his end 100 years ago.

A free color tour map of Irish Hills may be had by writing to Irish Hills Tourist Association, Brooklyn, Mich.

News From Boysville

By MARTIN WHITTAKER

Last Sunday Brothers Gerald, Thomas, Peter and Alexander went to the Milan Federal Correctional Institution at the invitation of Father Mark Thompson, chaplain, to sing a Mass in honor of St. Dismas, patron saint of prisoners.

After Mass, the Brothers breakfasted and were conducted on a tour of the prison grounds.

Sunday marked the beginning of the marching season for the Boysville Drum and Bugle Corps. The occasion was the celebration of Columbus Day by the Knights of Columbus in the greater Detroit area.

The Corps led the Knights assembled on Woodward Ave. to St. Aloysius Church for the celebration of Mass at 10:00 a.m. After leading the Knights to the point of origin again, they were given a lunch by the Knights.

√

Boysville has been honored by the three-day visit of Brother Donatus Schmitz, CSC. He is the Provincial of the Midwest Province of the Brothers of Holy Cross. Brother makes an annual visit to all the houses and schools conducted by the Brothers in the Midwest Province.

√

During the past week the students at Boysville have been concerned with the selection of counselors. The boys had at their disposal the entire teaching faculty from which they selected one person in whom they could confide.

A visit to the individual's counselor is compulsory only when scholastic default notices are received, but the boys are encouraged to arrange conferences with their counselors once a month so as to iron out personal or scholastic problems.

The Fighting Knights of Boysville fell prey by a score of 27-6 to the Bulldogs of Summerfield at Petersburg.

As the halftime score of 6-6 indicates, it was a game of nip and tuck all through the first half. The second half, however, found the Bulldogs full of determination as they overwhelmed the Knights for three touchdowns.

The lone Boysville touchdown was scored by Jim Fielder, a senior halfback.

Friday the Knights journey to Whiteford in another league contest against a powerful team.

√

Sunday the Freshman Class, under the direction of Brother Gerald Liston CSC, held a pizza party in the dining hall. Cider, pizza, and doughnuts were served at this second social gathering of the frosh.

A Junior Class outing, which included a tour of the Upjohn Pharmaceutical Company in Kalamazoo and a tour of the Notre Dame campus in South Bend, Indiana, was postponed from last Saturday to Saturday, Oct. 17 so that the Juniors could attend a record hop planned by the Student Council at Boysville.

To the disappointment of all, however, the girls from St. Joseph Academy in Adrian were unable to come because of minor colds and flu. It is hoped that the dance can be rescheduled in the near future.

Tory School News

By KAY BENEDICT

Many things have been happening at Britton High School in the past two weeks.

The PTA Fun Night took in over $1,000 Oct. 3. Every class except the juniors participated as did the Student Council, Annual Staff, FFA and FHA organization.

★

THE JUNIORS had an exciting week. They received their class rings Oct. 5th and all week long had fun showing them off and talking about them. Most of the Juniors chose red, blue or white stones.

Five boys and their advisor are attending the 37th National FFA convention. They left October 12th and are expected to return home on Friday morning, Oct. 18th. Attending are Randy Frazier, Bob Rowe, Barney Kurowicki, Bob Fox, and Dave Prill.

The FFA had an initiation of the 18 "greenhands."

★

THE VARSITY CHEERLEADERS attended the First Annual Lenawee County Cheerleading Clinic on Sept. 26 at Adrian High School. Britton was one of the six groups to attend. The girls learned many new cheers, skits, chants, and other things.

The Cheerleaders Club held a dance after the Boysville game Oct. 2. They took in around $25.

★

THE TORIES lost their last two games to Boysville and Sand Creek.

Britton fell to Boysville 26-0 Oct. 2. The Tories put up a good fight against the Fighting Knights, but couldn't make a touchdown.

The Tories fell again to the Aggies 39-0 last Friday night. The Tories had the ball, but just couldn't seem to hang on to it.

Britton had trouble with Sand Creek intercepting passes. The Tories had the ball on the 1 yard line when the final gun went off.

The Tories next game will be at home against Ida Friday, Oct. 16. They were to play the game away, but since Ida doesn't have any football field the game was changed to Britton. The Tories will then travel to Summerfield for their last away game of the year Oct. 23.

Britton Group Studies Women Of Bible Times

BRITTON — Eleven members and one guest attended the meeting of the Golden Rule Circle of Congregational Christian Church recently at the home of Mrs. Douglas Palmer.

Devotions were led by Miss Thelma Voinglove and Mrs. Howard Rohrs presented a program on "Women of the Bible".

Mrs. Elwood Tucker conducted the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Willard Exelby.

Mrs. Tucker assisted Mrs. Palmer as co-hostess.

The group will meet Nov. 4 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Dickerson.

Class Will Be Held Oct. 21

The Lenawee County Health Department will hold another Foodhandler's Class Oct. 21 in the study hall of the Adrian Junior High School, located on Church St.

There will be only one class at 8 p.m.

All persons in the county, who work in Foodhandling establishments are required to secure a Foodhandler's Card.

To obtain this card, the individual must have a tuberculin skin test and also attend a Foodhandler's Class.

Fun Night Nets $720 for PTA

BRITTON — The second annual PTA Fun Nite held in the Britton-Macon School Oct. 3 netted $720, Mrs. Lee Spohr, PTA president said this week.

As she made her announcement Mrs. Spohr expressed her appreciation for the cooperation of the community and particularly for that of the Rev. Duane McNeil, chairman of the ways and means committee and those who worked with him.

Hymns, Authors Program Topic

BRITTON — Hymns and their authors was the program topic at the meeting of the Sunshine Circle of the Congregational Christian Church last Wednesday night.

Fourteen members met at the home of Mrs. Lavern Weyher who was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Bert Moore.

The program was presented by Mrs. William Raeburn, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. G. O. Hannevik.

Mrs. Raeburn presented five young women from the church who sang the hymns as they were narrated by Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Hannevik.

They were Nancy Pilbeam, Marilyn Heiden, Linda Seagerf, Tammy Tucker and Dennise Ivan.

The next meeting will be Nov. 4 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Leonard Ramage with Mrs. Bud Lorenz as co-hostess.

Gregory Fairbanks Baptized Sept. 27

BRITTON — Gregory Allen Fairbanks, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Fairbanks of Britton, was baptised Sept. 27 at the First Methodist Church by the Rev. Donald Porteous.

Attending the services were the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Fairbanks of Britton and Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson of Tecumseh.

Other relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Maynard and Linda Fairbanks of Britton and Ronald Anderson of Tecumseh.

Following the services, the paternal grandparents entertained at a turkey dinner. Games were played and the rest of the afternoon was spent socially.

Letters Home Interesting

BRITTON — Letters to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt from their daughter Pat Eberhardt of Philadelphia relate how good it seems to see people from home when you are far away. Her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Judd had spent the weekend with her on their way to the World's Fair.

Pat lives on Roosevelt Blvd., where 12 lanes of traffic pass her apartment. She works for Victor Comptometers and says that although salaries are higher on the continent it still costs less to live in Hawaii because everyone dresses so casual there.

★

SHE SAID that she had heard Tony Bennet introduce his new record "Who Can I Turn To?" at the Latin Casino in New Jersey. Saw Elizabeth Taylor when she walked in unexpectedly as a guest of Sammy Davis Jr. when he was appearing in "Golden Boy." With Liz were her two sons age 11 and 9 and her husband's stepfather Philip Burton.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd spent two days at the Fair and visited some 28 pavilions. They visited relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meyers in Brooklyn, N.Y. and friends in Buffalo. They said that the scenic drive on the thruway from N. Y. to Buffalo was very beautiful. Julie Judd stayed with her grandparents in Britton while her parents were away.

Mrs. Verna Meyers flew to New York last week to visit her son and his family Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meyers and attended the Fair.

THE MORNING I PLAYED hooky...

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

This picture will always live in my memory. It was Sunday morning, and I was about eleven years old. I was on my way to Church School when I met Tom Snyder. It didn't take much urging for me to join him in a fishing expedition.

I had always thought it would be fun to play hooky. It came as kind of a shock that it wasn't. I was downright uncomfortable, sitting there with my line dangling in the water. I kept thinking about how nice our Church School teacher had been to me, and about how my parents would be looking for me in Church. And pretty soon I found that inside me I was wriggling.

I think that's the first time I ever realized I "ought" to do anything. I didn't catch a fish that morning, but I did learn a big lesson. I learned that there is very little honest joy in doing something you shouldn't be doing. I learned that we have a certain duty to God and to ourselves, and that we can't be happy when we turn our backs on it.

From then on, my Church School attendance was 100%. Now that I'm older, I try to maintain that same record. Sunday means the Church to my family.

HELLO, MRS. WRIGHT — Governor George Romney greeted Mrs. Donald Wright last Wednesday on his stop in the city. Mrs. Harold Easton, wife of the Tecumseh Mayor, was on hand for the governor's visit, too. His split-second schedule included one-half hour at Tecumseh Products.

Monday Club To View Another 'Todd Original'

The Tecumseh Monday Club will be one of the host clubs Oct. 21 and 22 for the Southeastern District Convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs in Adrian.

Seven members of the local club will present an original skit written by Mrs. Albert Todd entitled, "What To Do About Mother."

Those in the cast will be Mrs. Perry Hayden, Mrs. Lee Purkey, Mrs. Truman Rentschler, Mrs. Clifford Knudson, Mrs. Clarence Brock, Mrs. Roland Mohr and Mrs. Fred Bryan from Britton.

The Tecumseh group is also providing centerpieces and 175 tiny trick-or-treat favors.

★

A COFFEE HOUR Wednesday morning will be hosted by Tecumseh members. Mrs. Brock and Mrs. Mohr are delegates to the convention.

Others attending include Mary McWilliams, Mrs. Earl Wickwire, Mrs. Robert McCoy, Mrs. Robert Bonner, Mrs. E. J. Aebersold, Mrs. H. H. Hammel, Mrs. Ned Baldwin, Mrs. Louis S. Schneider and Mrs. Walter Prill.

Mrs. Prill and Mrs. Knudson are officers of the Lenawee County Federation.

● MRS. COOPER R. RUDOLPH

Services were held in Lyons, O., Oct. 8, for Mrs. Cooper Rudolph, 61, who died Oct. 7 in a Wauseon Hospital after suffering a heart attack.

Mrs. Rudolph was the daughter of Harry and Dora Fox and was born March 1, 1903, in Huron County, O.

She was a member of the Lyons Church of Christ, the Womans Relief Corps and the Women's Christian Fellowship.

Besides her husband, she is survived by one granddaughter, Annette Bracey of Holloway; a step-son, Irwin Rudolph, of Adrian and four step-grandchildren.

Three sisters, Mrs. Florence Holmes and Mrs. Mable Nichols, both of Tecumseh, and Mrs. Glendora Mason of Tipton, and two brothers, Francis Fox of Onsted and Clarence Fox of Britton also survive.

Her only son, Floyd E. Bracey, and three brothers preceded her in death.

Burial was in Oak Grove Cemetery, Mt. Venci.

● PAUL A. GEIGER

Services were held Monday at the Proctor Funeral Home, Clinton, for Paul Geiger, 78, of 9500 Tipton Hwy., who died Friday at 1 p.m. in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor.

He had been in failing health for two years and a patient in the hospital since Sept. 2.

Mr. Geiger had been a farmer in the Clinton area all of his life.

Born June 28, 1886, in Germany, Mr. Geiger came to the United States when he was one year old.

His parents, Christopher and Christine Geiger, settled in Bridgewater Township.

He lived on Service Road for many years and moved to Tipton Highway four years ago.

Mr. Geiger married Lucy Sawyer of Chelsea Feb. 11, 1910, in Adrian.

He was a member of the Evangelical and Reformed Church of Manchester and the Tipton Grange and a former member of the Tipton Knights of Pythias.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Geiger is survived by one son, Kenneth, of Clinton.

Four sisters and two brothers preceded him in death.

The Rev. Ralph Kuether officiated and burial was in the Lenawee Hills Memorial Gardens.

● JOHN B. BOGOVICH

Services were held Monday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church for John Bogovich, 79, who died at 2 p.m. Friday at the home of his daughter on Sharon-Hollow Rd., Route 2, Manchester.

Mr. Bogovich was a resident of Detroit until moving to the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Beck, two weeks ago.

He was born Feb. 2, 1885, in Austria. He was married in 1904 to Mary Zemlos and they moved to the United States in 1913 to Wyoming, coming to Detroit in 1921.

Mr. Bogovich was a gas engineer and was employed by the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. at Melvindale.

He became a citizen of the United States in 1926.

He is survived by two daughters, Sister Mary Mercy of Las Vegas, Nev., and Mrs. Beck, and 11 grandchildren.

Mr. Bogovich was preceded in death by a son, Richard, in 1963.

The Rev. Fr. Collins officiated and burial was in the Brookside Cemetery.

Arrangements were made by the Proctor Funeral Home.

Scout Council To Hold Annual Guest Banquet

Annual banquet of the Wolverine Council for Scouters and their ladies will be held Tuesday, Oct. 20, at the Tecumseh Products Workers Union Hall.

The Tecumseh Grange will serve a roast beef dinner at 6:45 p.m.

Reservations may be made through the unit committee chairman or directly to the Council service center.

Candy Sale for Tubas

The fourth annual Band Boosters candy sale will begin Monday with students selling seven varieties of confections.

Mrs. Byron Goodman and Mrs. Russell Cooper are co-chairmen of the project with proceeds to be used for bass instruments, most especially.

Proceeds two years ago helped bring uniforms. Last year's and this will help with the purchase of fibreglas tubas.

The sale will be conducted for two weeks.

2 Will Chair Panels Friday At '64 Institute

Two sixth grade teachers in the Tecumseh system will chair panels at the Regional MEA Institute Thursday and Friday.

Earl Greene of the Patterson School will conduct the "Testing in Elementary Schools" panel Friday morning in Ann Arbor and Thelma Younglove of the Ridgeway School will present "Problems of the Beginning Teacher" at 1:30 p.m. Friday.

Students will be excused from classes both days of the Institute.

Blueprint For Health . . .

Health is seldom bettered by shopping for bargains in medicines. The reliability of those offering drugs with the bait of "cut price" should be questioned.

The more sensible plan is to use less medicine, but the right medicine. Consult your Doctor before buying drugs — and come to the Wright Pharmacy for assured quality and fair prices.

Is saving that much per acre good enough reason for using our Anhydrous Ammonia this fall? We hope so. Particularly when you know that Anhydrous Ammonia from Dow is the most concentrated form of nitrogen you can buy—82%. You can save as much as $6 to $8 an acre by using a fertilizer program we can recommend.
Apply it to soil now in the fall when you're plowing down summer crop stubble. It won't leach out over the winter. Come spring and it will release needed nitrogen into the soil. Crops will develop stronger roots with more resistance to drought. Have a higher protein content for feeding.
Do right by your wallet and your crops with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia. We have it—all you need.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Air Tours Are Great Idea

Credit the River Raisin Watershed committee with an excellent idea — air tours of the entire area for interested persons.

The birds-eye viewing is slated for Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 with a $5 charge being made to cover expenses.

The Raisin watershed covers 557,720 acres in four counties — Jackson, Washtenew, Hillsdale and Monroe — so big that two different 30-minute air hops are needed to cover it entirely.

When the Raisin reclamation project is completed over a period of many years, a tremendous difference in the famed waterway will be noted.

There'll be a series of water improvements, to help raise dwindling water tables and control flooding, leaving huge areas for recreation developments and lake-front living.

Considerable interest in this effort, biggest of its kind in Michigan, has prompted financial assistance from Washington.

Giving the average citizen an opportunity to view the "big picture" via air tours will greatly expand knowledge of the project.

The Difficult Job

Should a weekly newspaper attempt to cover the state and national political scene?

A Herald reader from Maryland thinks we ought to (see Our Readers Write.) As the letter points out, The Herald is devoted to covering local news.

We have the equivalent of four people working full-time on this. Actually, there are close to 10. Two are full-time. Chipped together, the others add up to another pair.

In addition, publicity chairmen produce copy — some good, some bad — which becomes part of the week-to-week news content in The Herald.

When election time rolls around, no sudden rush of golden hours is granted the staff to pursue the political scene. Weekly papers don't have reporters to cover campaigns, follow candidates, snap their pictures. Our coverage — and that of 90% of all weeklies — must be sketchy at best.

It might be interesting to tell how it happened that we ran that special story on Barry Goldwater's Detroit talk. We didn't dispatch staff member Dorothy Grigg to the meeting, merely told her that Barry was speaking, if she wanted to go and write a story, we'd print it. She attended on her own — being a Goldwater fan — and was not paid for the time. Her story was factual and accurate.

If President Johnson were to hit town and Dorothy or another of our staff wanted to attend, we'd say the same thing. We would also extend the identical "offer" to a reliable townsperson, who might wish to do a gratis political piece for The Herald.

As far as endorsing candidates, it's a risky business unless a paper has considerable information. We come out in print for certain hopefuls — and will continue to do so — when we feel there is sufficient, authentic information to warrant our speaking.

Masses of information comes with every mail, but these stories, almost without exception, have been ground out by candidates or party headquarters and they just are too goody-goody to be worth anything.

We would be delighted if The Herald could run articles every issue on campaign activities of both the Democrats and Republicans (as the letter from Maryland suggests.)

But, as of now, we have neither the personnel, space or cash to do this sort of a job.

Help for Writing Articles

In an effort to assist publicity chairmen in doing stories for publication about their organizations, The Herald is holding a free workshop Friday in the Community Center.

With coffee and donuts to fortify the scribes, subject matter will cover proper preparation of articles, ideas for pictures and the don'ts of reporting.

A few humorous skits should spice the one-hour session, which is slated to end with a question-and-answer session.

Anyone interested is welcome to attend, whether or not they are currently in charge of publicity for a group.

Editorial in Picture

Why do firemen play? This might have been a logical question during the recent waterball tournament, depicted so dramatically in this photo by Herald lensman Jim Wilbar. Actually, what sems to be frivolity is in reality hard training for the smoke eaters. It sharpens their ability to put a stream of water where they want it when it really counts. It builds team spirit, so vital in battling blazes and in rescue work. The games toughen, too, keeping the volunteers in top physical condition.

Aerial Views of Watershed To Be Offered

Reservations for air tours of the River Raisin watershed are being scheduled in an effort to acquaint the public with the problems and development needs of the River.

The flights, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1, are sponsored jointly by the River Raisin Watershed Association and the Soil Conservation Districts of Lenawee and Monroe Counties.

They are expected to attract nearly 300 persons. A charge of $5 per person is being made.

Reservations should be made prior to Oct. 24, through the Adrian Area Chamber of Commerce, 216 N. Main St., according to Harold Easton and Lloyd Ruesink, co-chairmen of the River Raisin Air Tour 1964 committee.

The flights are designed to show the problems of the watershed as related to flooding, impeded drainage, pollution, low flow, sedimentation, poor water quality and inadequate recreational facilities.

The tours will bring out ways an accelerated program of soil and water conservation can correct these conditions.

★

TWO 30-MINUTE flights will be offered:

► The northwestern tour will over-fly the River Raisin from Lake Columbia Dam, near Brooklyn, to the vicinity of Palmyra.

► The second eastern tour will procede downriver from Palmyra to the confluence of the River Raisin and Saline Rivers east of Dundee.

Displays and literature will be available at the Adrian Municipal Airport.

Representatives of the sponsoring organizations will brief passengers 15 minutes prior to their flights which will be at 15-minute intervals between 8:45 a.m. and 4 p.m. Oct. 31 and between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. Nov. 1.

In case of inclement weather, tickets will be honored on identical flights and departure hours on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 7 and Nov. 8.

★

SALIENT FEATURES of the River Raisin will be highlighted with land markings, provided by members of the Future Farmers of America, who will also assist in the handling of traffic.

Aircraft and commercial pilots will be provided by the Michigan Flying Farmers, a group which has been conducting air tours for conservation districts since 1948.

Crawford Completes Army Class

ABERDEEN, Md. — Army Pvt. Danny L. Crawford, whose wife, Betty, lives at 421 May Dr., Adrian, completed a seven-week field artillery repair course at the Army Ordnance Center and School here last Friday.

Crawford was trained to repair light, medium and heavy field artillery weapons, including howitzers and rocket launchers.

The 18-year-old soldier entered the Army last May and completed basic combat training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman D. Crawford, 102 E. Kilbuck St., Tecumseh, he attended Tecumseh High School.

OUR READERS WRITE

TO THE EDITORS:

As the accompanying editorial from the "Air Force Times" indicates, members of the uniformed services cannot actively campaign for those officials they feel should be elected to represent them, so I will not attempt to do that in bringing a matter to your attention, a matter I consider to be of importance to all who read your paper.

Since reading your "LBJ promise them anything" (not the title) editorial some weeks ago, my thoughts have been concerned with the continuing lack of bi-partisanship your paper has shown, particularly during political campaign periods.

And now in your Oct. 1 edition, on pages one and four of the second section, you include two articles regarding recent activities of prominent Republican candidates, Goldwater and Peterson.

In an editorial under the same date you emphasize that most of The Herald articles are local news and indeed they are, but when politics are mentioned, don't you think the readers need BOTH sides of the story, especially now when two major Detroit papers, widely read by Tecumsehites, are not being circulated?

Two weeks ago the Hearst newspaper combine, in an unusual move for them, came out for Johnson with an accompanying explanation, and yet they continue to print news of Goldwater's campaign speeches.

I believe that even in the hotbed of Republicanism that is Tecumseh, that it is and should continue to be in the best interest of your newspaper to print political information reflecting more than one view.

It appears to me that not to do so causes your more astute readers who are politically "on the fence" to believe that your suppression of a major political party's views is sufficient reason to look elsewhere for the information.

When Dorothy Grigg, in her article on Goldwater's Detroit address, apparently forgot to mention that Gov. Romney did not even support Goldwater, she robbed your readers of important information.

Are your political news articles worded so that they reflect only what you think the majority wants to read? I think it's high time The Herald started "heralding" the news, else it should be renamed "The Tecumseh Republican."

As a registered Tecumseh voter, I will be voting by absentee ballot before Nov. 2. In the meantime, it might be interesting if you would print this letter so that we could find out if there are others who object to press partisanship.

I'm not a frustrated Democrat. I'm supposedly a defender of the "Freedom of the Press," therefore, I believe I have a right to question the liberties the press takes.

Growing Pains Hit Schools

By JIM LINCOLN

Although no action was taken, the Tecumseh School Board held a lengthy discussion Monday night on preparing for growth in the school district.

Major concern centers on the elementary grades and probable lack of classrooms for the 1965-66 school year.

Another relative problem is where to build a new grade school, or construct additions to present elementary buildings.

It was also pointed out that an addition to the Junior High might allow for grades seven, eight and nine, and then have grades 10, 11, 12 in the high school.

★

DUE TO THE time that it takes to hold an election, sell bonds and construct a building, about two years elapses.

The board thanked Supt. James McDowell for his report and asked that it continue to be informed of growth changes and possible enrollment increases.

Board president Aden Mead said that it was unlikely that the electorate would approve additional taxes now.

He said when the citizenry saw the need for additional classrooms, the schools then might seek funds for additions to present buildings or construct a new building.

If elementary enrollment increases for the 1965-66 term, members discussed using the basements in the new library and the present administrative building on W. Chicago Blvd., and split or half-day sessions.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Even bankers make mistakes.

Like the time they told a couple of fellows in 1934 that they were crazy to talk about expanding a little automobile parts business.

Loan them money for the venture? Hardly, growled the bankers.

That's when some Just Plain Folks 40 miles away, hearing of the little outfit, said they'd gladly step in where the financiers refused to tread.

Pounding the sidewalks, they went from store to store, somehow they dug up $5,000.

There was an empty factory, which needed a concrete floor. They put one in — themselves. The wives prepared meals to serve as their husbands labored on the project.

It was Oct. 20, 1934, when the tiny company moved in and started to hire.

Now, 30 years later, it has grown into a major manufacturing firm, the largest of its kind in the world. It sells $200 million worth of goods a year.

The community of Just Plain Folks enjoys having a payroll topping $20 million annually from the plant.

The bankers, who scoffed at the idea of an expansion program during the Depression, are long forgotten.

But the daring industrialists, captained by a spunky firebrand named Ray Herrick, are household names in Tecumseh, where the Just Plain Folks lived.

Through the three decades since then, the town has been rewarded a thousand-fold and each of those early lenders was repaid years ago with every cent they gambled.

Hillsdale, the town where the company moved out of, could have been Refrigeration Capitol of the World but for that bankers' "No".

As of now, 24 men from that original work force, including Mr. Herrick, are still on the job at the Products.

They've never lost the enthusiasm of that wonderful day — Oct. 20, 1964.

I don't think they ever will.

Happy birthday, Tecumseh Products.

Industry Hits $15,000

It's full speed-ahead in the 1964 Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive, reports Ken Conway, general chairman.

Residential, commercial and professional segments of the annual campaign begin Friday, with 31 volunteer workers making door-to-door solicitations.

Members of the Tecumseh Jaycees, Kiwanis and Jaycee Auxiliary will canvas the commercial area.

The industrial portion began a week ago and already gifts have reached the $15,000 mark.

A goal of $50,000 has been established, with $34,000 earmarked for a dozen agencies: Family Counseling Service, Irish Hills Girl Scout Council, Tecumseh Scout Organization, City Recreation Program, Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic, American Red Cross, Lenawee Humane Society, Wolverine Council BS, Salvation Army, Michigan United Fund, Catholic Social Service.

Another $1,000 is needed for administration expenses while a like amount will go for purchase of books for the Tecumseh Library.

Balance of donations collected will go towards the development of the Pit recreation area, which eventually will cost approximately $70,000.

GM and School Officials Confer

A conference of Lenawee County educators and Fisher Body officials was held here Wednesday night to discuss vocational training of area students interested in jobs at the new Fisher Body-Tecumseh plant.

Held in the Tecumseh High School cafeteria, the conference got underway with a talk by Charles F. Moran, divisional supervisor of executive development training for Fisher Body Division of General Motors.

Also here from Detroit was Marlin B. Janter, who is in charge of technical training for Fisher Body, including student and apprentice development.

The two men discussed the nature of manufacturing operations and personnel requirements at the new upholstery trim plant, and showed a film depicting how the products made here will be used in the assembly of automobiles at other locations.

IN SUMMING up his remarks, Mr. Moran said, "We emphasize that schools should not be turned into training centers for industry, but rather that students have well-rounded educations as a basis on which to build future skills.

"We want students to be aware of the opportunities which exist, but we do not think it feasible that they be trained for a specific skill in high school only to find it obsolete after they graduate."

Attending the meeting were school superintendents, principals, board of education members and counselors from all areas of Lenawee County.

Coordinator of the conference was Tecumseh Supt. James McDowell.

Wade Not Off Payroll After All

Charles Wade isn't going to be off the public payroll after all.

The long-time Adrian Township supervisor was upset in the Republican primary last month by Roy Griffin.

But he's getting a new county job.

Sixteen of his former associates on the Lenawee County Board of Supervisors voted last week to install Mr. Wade as a member of the three-man county road commission at a salary of $2,000 annually.

Please See Editorial Back Page, Last Section

Being dropped to make room for Mr. Wade is Lyle Calhoun of Palmyra Township, who has served on the commission for three years.

Treasure of One-Time Teacher

By DELAPHENE SHELTON

Alvin Brazee had fun making his collection of rare, old textbooks. And he is finding pleasure in giving them away.

These will be given to the minister of the First Baptist Church in St. Cloud, Fla.

MR. BRAZEE, who graduated from the Tecumseh High School in 1908, moved with his wife, Helen, to Montana where they homesteaded near Chinook.

Illness in the family led them to move back to Tecumseh, where in 1920, Mr. Brazee taught for awhile in the Colvin School, southwest of Tecumseh.

From 1925 to 1949, he taught in the Tecumseh Junior High School. During the fall of 1949 he was the teacher of the third grade in the Brownville School, where he had been a pupil as a youngster.

The school, now the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church parish hall, had been restored by Henry Ford and the McGuffey reader was one of the texts used.

★

MR. BRAZEE had begun his career as a minister preaching in the lonely school houses in Montana.

In 1928 he became the supply minister for the Iron Creek United Church near Manchester. He retired from that position a year ago.

For years he had used the old stories from the school texts in his short sermons for the children of his congregation.

He sometimes is called upon to speak to Tecumseh schoolchildren, as well as such organizations as the Tecumseh Rotary Club, the Business and Professional Women's Club and the Monday Club.

Dedication To Be Friday

Dedication of the first building at the new Lenawee Institute will take place Friday at 2:30 p.m.

The new Institute is on Sutton Rd., east of Occidental Hwy.

Prior to the ceremony there will be tours of the building beginning at 1 p.m.

Guides will be students enrolled in the Special Education Program at the Institute.

Keynote speakers for the program will be Roy Morrison, executive director of Michigan United Cerebral Palsy Association and Dr. John Dawson, President of Adrian College.

The Shrine Club of Lenawee County will also assist in the program.

Immediately following the ceremony refreshments will be served.

All interested people in our county community are welcome to attend the dedication ceremony.

★

THE PLAQUE dedicating the building will read as follows:

"This building is erected in the belief that every child is important and is endowed with human dignity in the eyes of God. May each child who studies here develop to his maximum potential."

Parade Opens Homecoming Festivities

Candidates for the Homecoming Queen and members of her court will ride on a special float in Friday's parade at 2:30 p.m.

The queen will be crowned at half-time in Friday night's game between Tecumseh and Airport. (For details see "Teen Talk.")

Homecoming activities will begin with a pep rally at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Athletic Field with the traditional Homecoming Dance concluding festivities.

Agriculture Census Begins in November

Virginia L. Mitchell of Adrian and Elwyn R. Fatchett of Blissfield have been named crew leaders for the 1964 Census of Agriculture in Lenawee County.

The new crew leaders will supervise a team of census enumerators who will visit all farms in Lenawee County to collect questionnaires November and early December.

Shortly after Nov. 5, census questionnaires will be mailed to all rural boxholders.

The crew leader is a key person in conducting a census of agriculture. He recruits and trains the enumerators, schedules their work, reviews the accuracy of completed forms and conducts interviews.

The census is taken every five years to gather information on the nation's agricultural resources and production.

Such information is vital in making decisions affecting many segments of the economy. Data gathered include the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock inventories, information on farm equipment and improvements and income and some production expenditures.

The information will be published starting in 1965.

Grid Light Drive Starts

Tecumseh Jaycees announce they'll spearhead a drive to buy new lights for the Tecumseh High School football field.

They're asking all interested organizations to send a representative to a meeting in the Community Center, Thursday evening at 7:30, to discuss the project.

A plan has been formulated through which approximately $25,000 would be raised. It includes a complete canvas of every household in the Tecumseh School District.

The Jaycees anticipate running the campaign from Oct. 27 to Nov. 30. Charles Robinson has been named general chairman.

★

ONE JC NOTED, "As many football fans in this area know, the present lights failed once this year and experts on the subject have doubts as to how long they will last.

"It is definite, not too long. Besides they are beyond repair," he added.

Consumers Power Co. has prepared a comprehensive proposal with complete recommendations and all wiring and pole specifications. There was no charge for this service.

In addition, Consumers has provided a quartz lamp, newest type athletic field light, for display purposes.

★

PERSONS WISHING further information about the plan or Thursday's session, may call Mr. Robinson, 423-2246 or Frank Sandolf, 423-3494.

Halloween Party

Costumed kids will attend the annual community Halloween party from 2 to 4 p.m. Sat., Oct. 31 in the Community Center. Twelve $1 prizes will be given winners of the costume competition.

That evening will be official Trick or Treat night, with householders asked to turn on their lights.

Accidental Shot Just Skins Heart

More than four hours of surgery were needed to save the left arm of 30-year-old Jim Merritt following an accidental shooting Sunday.

A .22 calibre shot passed through his upper chest, narrowly missing his heart, but severing an artery.

The mishap took place while Mr. Merritt and his son, Tim, 12, were target shooting at the farm of his father-in-law, LeRoy Heimerdinger, near Manchester.

Tim placed the rifle against a tree with the safety off. It started to slip and the father grabbed for the .22. The action caused the piece to fire.

Taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital, surgery was required to repair and piece together the artery.

When the job was done, life gradually returned to the left arm.

Mr. Merritt resides in Clinton. He and his father, Chet, operates Van-Mers Dept. Store in Tecumseh.

School OKs

F. C. Hanna Agency was awarded the insurance contract as low bidder for the Tecumseh school vehicles.

Norval Bovee, business manager, pointed out that the local agency is providing the same coverages for more vehicles at a lower premium.

Leaf Pick-Up Starts This Week

The city has started its annual pickup of leaves.

City Manager Cal Zorn asks residents to rake their leaves into piles, between the sidewalk and street.

Citizens are asked not to burn them on the streets.

Church Organ Program Draws Capacity Crowd

St. Peter's von Backerath pipe organ was dedicated Sunday night.

As they listened, the spirits of the more than 300 soared with the music of Buxtehude and Bach.

Erich Goldschmidt, professor of organ at Eastern Michigan University was the organist. The university choir under the direction of O. Blaine Ballard sang.

★

THE PROGRAM concluded with three selections from the Bach literature, his choral prelude "All glory be to God on high," variations on "Christ, Who Art the Bright Day," and the "Prelude and Fugue in G Major."

Guests and parishioners were delighted with the new organ, a rare classic type tracker action instrument.

One guest remarked, "Its excellence is apparent."

The accoustics of the building dismayed some. A listener pointed out "The absorption of sound by the audience, the soft wood ceiling and the floor covering leaves none of the resonance needed for perfect reception."

He added, "It is hard to achieve this elusive quality in a small building. Placement of the organ and choir in the rear gallery, however, are most desirable from the standpoint of musical expression and projection."

Behind Page One

The strike-bound Friendly Free Press has announced its support of Lyndon Johnson for President and George Romney for Governor. In an unprecedented step for a strike-closed newspaper, Lee Hills, executive editor and publisher of the politically independent Free Press, released the text of two editorials which he said would be published if the paper were in business. They praised both men and said in essence, "Keep 'em in office."

Meet Ed Jones, 712 Ternes Rd., a serviceman for Lawson Television. He is not Jim Johnson, as was stated in last week's full-page Lawson ad. Unfortunately, we got last-minute identification via telphone, with a crossed-wire somewhere. Seems Mr. Johnson is also a Lawson serviceman.

Incidentally, Jim Lawson said his weekend demonstration went real well, with people amazed at the ease of tuning a Philco color set. (Plug.)

Spring, glorious spring. Well, no, but the forsythia bush at the home of Mrs. Helen Lowry, 9341 Murphy Rd., is a little mixed up and in full bloom. Mrs. L remarked that the pussy willows look alive, too. "Foolish little devils," she continued.

Don't be disturbed, don't be upset. The mail slot at the front of The Tecumseh Herald building is still there but it has been enclosed by a new storm door.

Do you have a 50-star flag or does yours need to be replaced? The American Legion Post members have a complete outfit for sale.

Words of the week are Minnehaha and Waikiki. Can you find them in this week's issue of The Tecumseh Herald?

"Hey, where's my broom?" Mrs. Roger Waltz paid for a broom Monday during the Clinton Jaycee "Help the Blind" sale of household products. The young executive who stopped at her door was in such a rush to continue his sales work that he forgot to leave the merchandise. Chuckling at his error he hurried back to a smiling Mrs. Waltz and they chuckled together.

Jesse Sluyter is bouncing around the south wing of Herrick Memorial Hospital like she owned the place. Having been around such a spell, Jesse figures she has squatter's rights.

Eight auxiliary policemen, under their commander, Steve Illeck, patrolled grounds at Band Festival and helped with traffic. They're helping out at football games, too.

When Mrs. Robert J. Bowers returned to her post at the United Savings Bank following a conference of the Michigan Banker's Association in Kalamazoo, she revealed to co-workers how to "live with the present coin shortage." That was a maor panel discussion topic. Mary didn't tell us how it's done, but one guess might be to ignore parking meters.

Heinz Schwetl of Munich, Germany, learned about American football the hard way. In the States to visit his sister and her husband, the Chuck Goodacres, Heinz got into a touch grid contest. Diving for a pass, he rammed a curb, gashing his chin and earning seven stitches. This was Saturday afternoon, two days before he and the Goodacres were slated to leave for a trip to California. The trio departed on schedule, but Heinz probably isn't going to worry about shaving for a while.

John Hayden was one of the speakers Wednesday for the annual Senior Government Day at Adrian High School.

Tecumseh's dean of businessmen, R. W. Puffer, retired from active business life Saturday — again! He and Mrs. Puffer are on a two-week vacation at their cabin in South Branch.

View Flower Show Slides

By MRS. DONALD MOFFATT

Twenty members of the Little Garden Club viewed colored slides of the recent Flower Show at their monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Donald Smith Tuesday evening.

In addition to seeing the pictures taken by Wilbur Andrews and discussing the judges comments of each entry, reports from each committee chairman were made.

Mrs. Howard Furry, club treasurer, reported that $13.30 had been donated in the miniature fountain at the show. It will go toward a proposed fountain in the City Park next to City Hall. She also reported that after all expenses, the total profit from the show was $78.94.

Club members will help the Hospital Auxiliary plant tulip and daffodil bulbs on the hospital grounds Friday, Oct. 30 at 8:30 a.m.

Plans were discussed for club members to attend the Flower Show at the Museum of Science in Toledo on Nov. 13, 14 and 15.

At the close of the meeting, the hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. Donald Smith and Mrs. Douglas Dunn, served coffee and pecan pie from a buffet decorated in a Halloween motif.

The clubs next meeting will be Nov. 10 at the home of Mrs. Charles Gross, with Mrs. H. W. Schoenlein of Ferndale, Mrs. Gross' mother demonstrating Christmas decorations.

Old-time educators were not adverse to mixing a little moralizing in their stories and they had a high regard for the intelligence quotient of the average scholar.

A grade school child became familiar with the Bible, Shakespeare and Dr. Samuel Johnson. Milton's "Satan, Sin and Death" were part of his literary fare.

The student learned not only how to read it himself, but also to read aloud with the proper inflection and emphasis.

FROM HIS textbooks came the verses for the Friday afternoon programs, where — always in the presence of his schoolmates and sometimes of his parents — he proclaimed, "The Village Blacksmith" and the "Soliloquy" from Hamlet.

Mr. Brazee caressed the old volumes and recalled the classes he'd taught and the childhood of his own children, who had heard the stories from their father's lips.

"Those were happy days," he said as he put the books back on the shelves.

300 Children Will Collect for UNICEF

More than 300 children are expected to collect funds in the UNICEF drive Thursday night, Oct. 29.

Older youngsters will meet in the Presbyterian Church at 5 p.m., then cover the Raisin and Tecumseh Townships.

Younger children will gather at the church at 6 p.m. prepared to cover Tecumseh. Birdsall will be solicited for the first time by youngsters from that town.

All will return to the Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m. for refreshments.

In 1963 the youngsters collected $384.

MRS. CARROLL SPRAGUE is general chairman for the drive. She has been associated with the campaign seven of the eight years she has lived in Tecumseh. Mrs. Richard Feight is in charge of refreshments and Mrs. Robert Murray, publicity.

In charge of securing drivers and persons to accompany the children are:

Mrs. Sprague and Mrs. Andrew Woodward of First Methodist.

Mrs. Richard Whelan, Grace Lutheran.

Mrs. Murray, St. Elizabeth Catholic.

Mrs. Feight, Presbyterian

Mrs. E. H. McConnell, First Baptist

Mrs. Laszlo Gero, Gloria Dei Lutheran

Mrs. Paul Brantingham, Friends

Mrs. Melvin Getz, St. Peter's Episcopal.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBY EARLING

Homecoming '64 is occupying the student body at T.H.S. Floats have been undergoing construction by each class and the various clubs for the past week and a half. The topic on which the themes of this year's activities are based is "Commercial-advertising."

The actual program of activities will begin Thursday, Oct. 22, evening with a pep rally. This will involve games and competition among the classes as well as cheering to urge our Indians to victory.

The floats will be presented for the first time to the public at 2:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 23 in the Homecoming Parade which will begin to form on Maumee St. and continue its route through town on Chicago Blvd.

Kick-off time for the Tecumseh-Airport game is 7:30 p.m.

The Cadet Band will be marching and the Senior Band twirlers will present a new Indian Routine in pace with the festivities. The half-time show will feature the crowning of the Queen.

√

Senior class candidates for queen are Judy McMichael, Sharon Green and Diane Ries. The queen will be selected by a secret ballot in which the entire student body will vote.

Class representatives who will form the court are Karen Brown, 9th grade; Debbi Purkey, 10th grade, and Karen Miller, 11th grade.

√

Following up with the commercial aspects of Homecoming, the Latin Club has developed an original ticket in the form of a wooden coin. Each has Homecoming '64 burned on its face and the initials of each couple will be burned on the back as they enter "Pop's Store".

These were made with the idea of a permanent souvenir in mind. Tickets are on sale in advance during study hall periods for $1.75. Tickets at the door are $2.00.

√

The Quartertones have been engaged to entertain at the dance after the game from 10 to 12 p.m. The theme, "Picky People Pick Pop's General Store", sets the mood of the evening. Decorations by the Future Teachers of America are designed to lend the charm and warmth of the early 1900 commercial era.

The queen will rule from a "rocking chair throne" and couples are invited to mingle around the traditional pot-bellied stove.

A REPORT TO THE PEOPLE By WES VIVIAN

Businessman, Scientist, Active Citizen — Democrat for Congress, supported by people in both parties.

I think it's time to begin saying "Yes". Yes to facing the problems in this district and in the country. Yes to working out solutions to those problems. And Yes to responsible, responsive representation for the Second Congressional District.

I didn't come to this conclusion overnight. For one thing, I have been an active and permanent resident of this district since 1952 — shortly after the present incumbent, George Meader, arrived in Congress. Since 1952 I have watched the way in which we're being represented: as a businessman, as a vice-president of the Conductron Corporation, as a scientist, as a research engineer and as a family man, the father of four children — and what I have seen disturbs me! NO DOUBT you are disturbed, too — by the foot-dragging ultra-conservatism of our present representative. By the Goldwater "Vote-No" philosophy that the incumbent has brought and continues to advocate for the solution to each new problem of our changing times.

There is no reason why we, in the Second Congressional District, should be stuck with a man who votes NO o nevery important piece of legislation presented to the Congress.

I KNOW the choice is clear: "This district can have responsible, progressive representation in Congress, or we can continue to have the do-nothing, vote-No representation provided by the incumbent for the past fourteen years. I call for an end to Meader-Goldwaterism in the Second District.

Vivian for Congress Committee — S. Tuttle, Chairman and Treasurer.

College Career Night Is Friday

The annual Lenawee County College Career Night will be at 7 p.m. Monday in Adrian High School.

The event, open to all county high school juniors and seniors and their parents is sponsored by the Lenawee County Guidance Assn.

Representatives of 30 colleges, universities and nursing schools will speak on the objectives, costs, curriculum, entrance requirements and special characteristics of their schools. Each session will include a question and answer period.

Parents and students will hear three representatives during the evening and Tecumseh residents are asked to use the second session from 7:45 to 8:25 to take part in the school session in which they are most interested. Each session will last 45 minutes.

Career Night for students interested in business and trade schools, technical schools or the armed services will be Dec. 7 in Tecumseh High School.

Aptitude Tests Saturday

Fifty-six Tecumseh High School seniors will take the preliminary scholastic aptitude test Saturday, Oct. 24 at Tecumseh High School. The main purpose of the test is to provide valid, reliable, and inexpensive data for use in helping students to estimate their ability to go various kinds of college work.

When the scores are reported back to the high school, each student has his scores interpreted to him, in an individual conference, by a Tecumseh High School guidance counselor.

High school counselors find PSAT scores useful in helping students who intend to go to college to decide which schools to consider. In addition, counselors may find the test scores useful in encouraging able students who are not planning to enter college.

It cannot be emphasized too strongly, according to THS counselors that PSAT scores, like the scores from any test, offer only one piece of information for use in assessing a student's abilities. Only when the scores are used in conjunction with other information about the student can the most valid judgment of his abilities be made, they say.

1956 Budget Includes Pay Raises

Proposed pay raises for Lenawee County officials would increase the 1965 budget by $65,000. The proposed budget, drawn up by the Lenawee County board of supervisors, is for $1,718,712, more than $100,000 larger than last year's.

A public hearing is scheduled for 10 a.m. Friday, October 23 in the supervisors' room of the Lenawee County Courthouse.

In setting up the budget, supervisors took into account that under a new state law officials will be serving four-year terms and that their salaries cannot be increased during their term of office.

The largest increase will go to the prosecuting attorney whose salary would be raised from $5,500 annually to $8,172. Proposed salaries of supervisors have not been increased.

The salary scale for county employees will be revised in December after a job classification and salary schedule study is completed by the Michigan Municipal League.

Three motorists were cited for accidents by Tecumseh police during the past week.

Rena A. Hubbard, 814 Outer Dr., was charged with failure to yield the right of way Friday, when she collided with Senator H. Brighton, 44, of 1412 Raisin Center Hwy., at the intersection of S. Evans and Patterson.

Violation of the basic speed law was levied against trucker Herman N. Pettit, 36, Hillsdale, after he bumped into the rear of a car driven by Gladys L. Tilton, 24, 5604 Billmyer Hwy.

Barbara Ann Poskey, 17, of 510 S. Occidental, was cited for failure to yield the right of way after making a left turn in front of Mary E. Hoffman, 40, Hudson, at the intersection of W. Chicago and Occidental.

Hilda F. Dolson, 18, of 901 Russell, backed into the path of a car driven by Carlo Mobley, 77, of 510 S. Occidental, in front of her home Tuesday.

No charge was made by the police.

New Members Welcomed

CLINTON — Mrs. John Gilman and Mrs. George Miller were welcomed as new members when the Clinton Women's Club met Wednesday, Oct. 14.

The year book was reviewed and it was noted that the club has 50 active, 11 associate and seven honorary members. Twenty-eight members were present at the meeting.

Mrs. Thomas Pence, the ways and means committee chairman, announced a Halloween benefit card party Saturday, Oct. 24 at 8 p.m. in the Clinton Community Center. Admission will be 75c per person and the public is welcome. There will also be a bake sale at that time.

Tea was served at the close of the meeting from a table depicting the fall season. Accenting the decorations were plates of colorful tea sandwiches and dainty cookies.

Hostesses were Mrs. M. L. Dannells and Mrs. Hazel Barnard.

DIFFERENCES

REPUBLICANS vs DEMOCRATS

Republicans and Democrats want the BEST for all citizens, but they disagree on the directions to be followed to achieve the objective . . .

That's right, political parties in the United States have always worked for an idealistic goal: providing the best of the good life for all citizens of this nation.

However, the Democrat and Republican parties — the two dominant political forces in the nation at the present time — differ sharply on the directions and methods to be followed to achieve the desired objective. Some of the fundamental differences cover:

the role of the individual . . .
Republicans believe the protection of individual liberty and the encouragement of individual enterprise and initiative are essential in providing citizens with maximum benefits from the American way of life.

Democrats contend that government planning and controls are the basic steps to be taken to stimulate economic and social progress.

Republicans believe the free enterprise system is the power plant for individual and national prosperity. Republicans seek to protect the system against unwarranted and discouraging government regulation.

Democrats reason that economic problems have become too complicated and too magnified to be solved solely by the free enterprise system. They contend that government planned pump-priming, indirect and direct wage and price controls are necessary to combat economic setbacks.

Republicans believe that government should be limited to doing for people only those things which they cannot do for themselves. The GOP is convinced that government functions best at the local level where it is most effectively controlled by citizens.

Democrats maintain that growing urban and national needs are making local and state governments obsolete. They say government power must be concentrated in big, centralized government to adequately solve present-day problems.

Republicans are dedicated to fiscal responsibility in government; to seeking ways to eliminate unnecessary and duplicated government services.

Democrats, to carry out grandoise "something for everyone" programs, are forced to seek increases in government spending and to encourage expansion of government bureaucracies.

Historically the Republicans, by work and deed, have championed equal rights for all citizens, regardless of race, color or national origin. In Michigan both parties agree that civil rights is a moral issue that transcends partisan politics, and the parties are pledged to work in bi-partisan cooperation to make equal rights a reality for all.

farm programs . . .
Republicans believe the agricultural section of our economy suffers from unsound government controls—controls which have resulted in excessive bankruptcies and needless profit losses for small farmers. Republicans believe the problem can be corrected through enactment of legislation which permits producers of food and fiber to operate as their own masters, rather than wards of the federal government.

The Democrats from the beginning of the New Deal have tinkered with the farm economy, imposed quotas, set prices, encouraged the production of excessive crop surpluses and in the process, narrowed profits opportunities to big, corporate farms.

Republicans recognize that the free world is engaged in a total ideological, economic and political conflict with Communism. Therefore, Republicans advocate realistic and aggressive programs.

Democrat's indecisive leadership in foreign relations has permitted Communism to achieve a steady string of conquests.

Sheldon Takes Manager's Job

Dean Sheldon, former Tecumsehite now living in Dundee, has been hired as manager of Tecumseh Lumber Company by Howard Truesdale, owner.

The new 29-year-old manager is well known to many in Tecumseh and plans to move here with his wife and four children in the near future.

Mr. Sheldon practically grew up in the lumber business as his father operates the Sheldon Lumber Co. in Dundee. Besides working for the family operation, he gained experience at the Fingerle Lumber Co. in Ann Arbor.

PASS GOES ASTRAY — Patterson and Herrick Park football teams battled Friday on a "gridiron" behind the John Hamilton residence, with Herrick Park winning, 28-23, although the losers said the watch used to time the game didn't agree with one they had and they checked it with the United Savings Bank clock. In this picture a Patterson aerial attempt fails. For the "winners" Mark Hamilton scored twice, with Dan Gunder and Frank Geisenhaver each getting one. For Patterson, two tallies were made by Craig Smith and one by Mike Sites. Don't ask us how the boys arrived at the final.

Clinton Grain Co. Is Sold

CLINTON — The Clinton Grain Co., owned and operated by Milton Johnson for the last 20 years has been sold to Raymond Service and Sons.

Mr. Johnson and his wife live at 201 Franklin St. They have two children, Brad, and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson of Northville.

The new owners are well known in this area, having owned and operated a farming and fertilizer business on Clinton-Macon Rd.

The new owners will continue to operate under the name, Clinton Grain Co.

OBITUARIES

● MERRITT C. ATEN

Services were held in Jackson Oct. 17 for Merritt C. Aten, 67, who died Oct. 14 in Foote Hospital there after suffering a heart attack.

Born June 23, 1897, in Norval, he was the son of John and Sopharonia Aten.

Mr. Aten was an employee of Walker, Michigan Co. for 28 years, scheduled for retirement Nov. 1.

A veteran of World War I, Mr. Aten served as inspector of detectives for the Jackson Police Department. He also worked for the Jackson Citizen Patriot and the Jackson Tribune newspapers.

He is survived by his wife, Alma; one son, Robert D., and four grandchildren, Debra, Robert, Michele and Julie Aten, all of 904 River Acres Dr.

Two sisters and two brothers also survive. One son, Kenneth, a World War II casualty, five sisters and his parents preceded him in death.

The Rev. Robert Jongeward of the First Methodist Church, Jackson, officiated and burial was in Roseland Memorial Gardens.

● EDWARD G. HANDLEY

Services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. at the Niblack Home for Funerals for Edward G. Handley, 10860 Ridge Rd., who died early Wednesday morning at the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

He was admitted Tuesday evening.

Born Dec. 28, 1910, near Paxton, Ind., Mr. Handley was the son of Edward C. and Della Goodwin Handley.

Shortly after his birth the family moved to the Britton area.

In 1934 he was married to Margaret Fisher.

Mr. Handley was a farmer at his residence and worked for the Tecumseh Products Co.

He was a member of the Ridgeway Methodist Church.

He is survived by his mother, five sons, David E., of Ashboro, N. C., Richard A. and Edward C., Jr., of Tecumseh, Robert D. of Saline, Thomas D. of Turner Air Force Base, Ga.; two daughters, Mrs. Gerald Price of Tecumseh and Mrs. Marvin Horton of Clinton and nine grandchildren.

The Rev. R. A. Mitchinson will officiate and interment will be in the Ridgeway Cemetery.

● RONALD JEFFRIES, JR.

Services were held Tuesday in Las Vegas, N. M., for Ronald Jeffries, Jr., two-and-one-half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jeffries, Sr., who died Saturday after a long illness.

The child was the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Crutchfield, former Lenawee County residents.

● MRS. GEORGE WITTRUP

Services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the Proctor Funeral Home for Mrs. George Wittrup, 68, of 109 N. Pearl St., who died at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

She was admitted to the hospital at noon Monday.

Mrs. Wittrup was the regent of the Abi-Evans Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

She was a member of the First Methodist Church, The Pythian Sisters, The Past Chiefs Club and the Monday Club.

Born April 1, 1896, in Minnesota, Mrs. Wittrup was the daughter of George and Florence Fuller Waterfield.

Mr. Wittrup died in February, 1963.

She had been employed part time at Greenwald's Cleaners.

Mrs. Wittrup is survived by a son, Roland Wittrup, of Ventura, Calif., and grandchildren.

The Rev. Donald Porteous will officiate and burial will be in the Lenawee Hills Memorial Park.

Trudy Withrow Honored At Party

CLINTON — Trudy Withrow was honored with a surprise birthday party Friday evening. It was given by her mother, Mrs. Arnold Withrow at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hicks of Adrian.

A doll cake baked by Mrs. Charles Voll was served with ice cream and pop.

The 18 friends played games until 6:30 p.m. when Mrs. Withrow took them skating for the remainder of the evening.

Trudy received many gifts from the group.

Attending the party were Pat and Penny Voll, Nancy and Theresa McDermott, Robert Handy, Tina and Troy Withrow, and Roy and Diane Wisner, all of Clinton; Lynda Withrow, Corkie and Myra Dermeyer, and Candy and Debbie Withrow of Tecumseh; Cindy Withrow and Bobby Daron of Birdsall, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hicks and daughter Valarie of Adrian.

Halloween Fun Night Planned

TIPTON — The Tipton PTA is planning a Halloween Fun Night for parents and students Monday, October 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the school.

Costumes of adults and children will be judged separately with prizes awarded for the most wierd, funniest and most original.

Mrs. Chet Blaska, vice president, said the festivities will be concluded no later than 9 p.m. since the party is being held on a school night.

The planning committee is urging both children and adults to bring white elephants for a sale following the costume parade. Toys and comic books will be welcomed.

McCloud Joins Wilson Agency

John McCloud is a new partner of Harvey Wilson in the Wilson Motor Sales automobile agency.

He joined the Plymouth-Rambler-Jeep agency last week, coming here from Ypsilanti where he lived for the last 13 years. He is a native of Dexter.

Mr. McCloud has 18 years experience in the auto industry, most of which is related to service and engineering. He is a graduate of General Motors Institute, and at one time was assistant service manager for one of GM's large Ann Arbor dealerships.

While in Ypsilanti, he was employed by the Ford Motor Co. in such capacities as service engineer, service training instructor and chassis engineer.

At Wilson Motor Sales, he will be in charge of the parts and service departments.

His wife, Mary, and four children, Nancy 11, Scott 9, Craig 7 and Paul 3, will move to Tecumseh, probably next summer.

School Officials Will Pick 18 for Committee

County school officials will meet Thursday evening at Adrian to elect a portion of an 18-member committee, which will investigate and study present school district lines.

Representing Tecumseh at the meeting will be Supt. James McDowell, Norval Bovee, business manager, and board members Orville Bishop and Dr. Fred Freeman.

School representatives will elect 10, judge of Probate Court Maurice Spear will appoint five, and three from the county board will be appointed.

SCHOOL districts — Tecumseh, Clinton, Adrian, Deerfield, Blissfield, Hudson, Morenci, Onsted, Addison, Britton, Sand Creek and Madison — will each have one vote and elect five to the committee.

The rural school boards, such as Prairie, also will elect five and have equal representation.

Methods of selecting the committee is according to Michigan's new constitution.

Tecumseh officials do not know, at this time, whether the local district lines will be eventually changed or not.

Fund for Piano Is Increased

BRITTON—Mrs. Walter Prill held a belated Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary card party in her home last Thursday afternoon.

Twelve guests were present for two tables of euchre and one of bridge.

High score prizes were won by Mrs. William Higginbotham and Mrs. Prill.

The lone hand prize was won by Mrs. George Brablec.

A $12 donation was presented to the Hospital Auxiliary for the piano fund for the nursing home.

NOTICE Public Hearing

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1964
8:00 P. M.

WHEREAS it is the desire of property owners to install water and sewer mains on Russell Road from the intersection of South Maumee and Russell Road about 450 feet to a building being leased by H. K. Tuttle Company.

WHEREAS the special assessment roll has been established by the City Assessor to be as follow:

NAME	Frontage	Water	Sewer	Total
Otto Beaubien	174.2 Ft.	$2,118.27	$891.90	$3,010.17
Consumers Power 50	"	608.00	256.00	859.00
William Mackey	100 "	1,216.00	512.00	1,728.00

These figures do not include leads to the property lines.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the Clerk shall serve a copy hereof by first class mail upon all interested persons by sending to same, a copy of this special assessment, giving at least ten days' notice of a special meeting of this council to be held on the evening of November 2nd, at 8:00 p.m. at which time objections to this special assessment may be heard.

2. That said residents are hereby notified that the foregoing special assessment pertains only to the installation of said sewer and water mains and does not include the contingent and eventual expense of connection therewith by the different property owners.

NAOMI SALLOWS,
City Clerk.

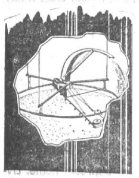
DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING



WINTERIZE SILO UNLOADERS. Before freezing weather may cause a silo unloader breakdown, make sure it's in top condition. Sharpen all the chipper teeth and replace broken ones. Check the V-belts, motor and electrical wiring for breaks, signs of wear or age. Be sure it has adequate overload protection. It's a good idea to install an ammeter on the unloader so you can tell how much load is on the machine when you are at the bottom of the silo.

AUTOMATED LEAD FEEDING SYSTEM developed for dairy cows by Gordon Strite, Belleville, Illinois, meters grain to cows according to the amount of water they drink. Cows capable of high production will drink more and thus produce more than other cows. Drinkers are calibrated to feed-meter with overhead bins.

SAFETY EMBLEM at right was developed by Ohio State University to symbolize and alert drivers to slow moving vehicles. Its colors are reflective red for nighttime identification and fluorescent orange for daytime. It is 14 inches high and is to be used with other safety devices such as flags, lights and reflectors — not to replace them. A proposal is before the American Society of Agricultural Engineers to make it a safety standard.

TEMPERATURE FOR LAYING HENS needs to be controlled between 40 and 80 degrees for them to produce the most eggs for least cost. Below 40 degrees feed consumption increases, and above 80 degrees production and egg size drops, say Iowa researchers. This points out the value of good insulation and ventilation in a laying house.

In Michigan... at a picnic, beer is a natural

When you're relaxing at your favorite outdoor beauty spot with friends or family, and your thirst's whetted by fresh air and exercise—that's the ideal time for a cool, refreshing glass of beer. In fact, you can name your recreation—swimming, hiking, or just watching TV—and chances are nothing in the world fits it quite as well as beer.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Michigan...beer goes with fun, with relaxation

THS Wins 14-2

By JIM LINCOLN

A giant stride towards the Huron League championship was made by the Tecumseh Indians Friday night with a 14-2 victory over previously-unbeaten Grosse Ile.

Coach Tom Fagan's club now tops the league standings with a 3-0 mark.

Tecumseh played the first half against GI as though to rout the Red Devils with a 60-yard drive in the initial quarter and a 66-yard march in the second.

In the first TD drive, one which started after Don Baird intercepted a pass on Tecumseh's 25 and ran it back to the 40, the Indians moved for yardage in big chunks.

Baird's run of 31 yards to GI's four on a reverse featured the drive. Three plays later, quarterback Jeff Osburn pushed in from six inches.

★

IN THE second quarter's score, fullback Gregg McEnroe paced the running game, picking up 33 yards in the 66-yard drive, one romp for 17 yards.

On third down at the GI five, Osburn hit end Mark Blatchford for the score. Halfback Tim Collins added his second extra point.

A pass interception and two GI bobbles stymied the Red Devils in the final two periods. On the first play from scrimmage in the second half, GI took to the air for 42 yards and only the fleet Collins prevented GI from racking up six points.

On the next play, GI fumbled Tecumseh's 29.

Midway in the quarter, Collins stopped another thrust, intercepting a wild GI pass on the goal line and running it back to the 10.

★

THE INDIANS were then held, mainly due to a penalty, and GI blocked a Ron Bolz punt, which went back through the end zone for a safety.

Late in the third quarter, Tecumseh covered another fumble, this time on the Indians' 25, to stop another GI march.

Tecumseh threatened twice in the final period, but was unable to score. A surprise play came on a fourth down at Tecumseh's 45. Bolz faked a punt, skirted left end for eight yards and a first down on GI's 47.

★

WITH McENROE carrying the load, Tecumseh moved to the 25, where two consecutive plays lost nine yards. GI turned the ball back over to the Indians minutes later, when Tecumseh stopped the Red Devils on a fourth down with inches on the 14.

GI held and then took to the air in the final seconds, hitting on five of seven passes to move to Tecumseh's 14 at the final gun.

Like the Milan game, the Indians offense moved in the first half with McEnroe, Collins and Baird taking turns chewing up yardage. In the final two quarters, the Indians were unable to keep a sustained drive intact.

Gregg McEnroe picked up the running load from halfback Tim Collins against Grosse Ile Friday night and turned in his finest game of the season. The stocky fullback, along with quarterback Jeff Osburn, led the Indians to a 14-2 victory.

Dave Mueller Gets 14 Tackles in Irish Victory

Dave Mueller, a graduate of Tecumseh St. Elizabeth was a defensive tiger as his Adrian Catholic Central football team swamped Summerfield, 51-0.

It was the third straight win of the season for the Irish.

Dave made 14 tackles, intercepted two passes and ran one back for a touchdown.

Redskins Win Fourth

CLINTON — Still rolling smoothly, Clinton clipped Hudson, 26-13, for the Redskins fourth straight victory.

Quarterback Dennis Drazic held a hot hand, passing for a pair of scores, one to Roger Mann and the other to Wayne Poore.

Dennis also bucked over for a TD.

In racking up their fourth straight win of the season, the Redskins gained 361 yards.

Meader Guest

TIPTON — Rep. George Meader will be the guest of honor in the home of Mrs. Raymond Platt, at a 1:30 p.m. tea Friday.

All interested persons are invited to attend.

Indians Favored Friday in Homecoming Game

The Indians will be heavily favored to win their fourth straight Huron League victory in the annual homecoming game here Friday night.

Visiting Airport, winless in three league starts, gave the Blissfield Royals a scare last week but are not expected to match Tecumseh.

Coach Tom Fagan's squad is gradually improving and Friday's win over Grosse Ile should give the team enough momentum to carry through for a championship.

If comparative scores are indicative how Tecumseh will fare against Airport, the Indians should romp by three or four touchdowns.

In recent games, the running of Tim Collins, Gregg McEnroe and Don Baird have added punch to the Tecumseh offense.

Quarterback Jeff Osburn has twice utilized the pass to score and against GI, caught the Red Devils flat-footed after staying on the ground for all but the last five yards in a 60-yard drive.

Evans Creek Sewer Work Starts Again

Work on the Evans Creek Sanitary Sewer will resume in December, according to City Manager Cal Zorn.

Delayed for the past two months by failure of the city to secure easements from property owners, the sewer will service the northwest section of the city, which is now not developed.

Selders Excavating, contractor for the job, will install the new Fisher Body Plant sewer before returning to the Evans Creek project.

Mr. Zorn expects the sewer to be completed next spring, after high water from the creek returns to its bed.

Tories Nearly Grab First Grid Win

BRITTON — The Tories almost did it Friday.

After Ida had piled up 19 points, Britton got rolling, but couldn't quite turn the tide for the year's first victory.

Final: Ida 19, Britton 13.

Tory scores came on an aerial from Jim Brown to Walt Korican, good for 15 yards, and a four-yard run by Brown.

Youth Center Great Asset to Lenawee

By DOROTHY GRIGG

Robert Jones, director of the Lenawee County Youth Center, was speaker for the Child Study Club Oct. 12.

Mrs. William Snook was the hostess with 16 attending.

Mrs. Carson House introduced Mr. Jones who gave a comprehensive talk about the Center, which was toured by six members of the club during the afternoon.

He said that young people are referred to the Center through Juvenile Court Judge Maurice Spear.

There are three buildings now in use, a school, a detention unit for boys and an open facility building.

★

THERE ARE three probation officers working through the court and a full-time staff of 13, including a cook, matrons, an admittance officer and one clerical worker.

Capacity of the Center is 16 boys and eight girls. Presently there are 13 boys and seven girls there, but the number fluctuates daily according to Mr. Jones.

He remarked that Lenawee is fortunate to have a Youth Center. Many counties do not have such a facility. Boys have to be placed in a training school or in the public jail.

All girls attend the public school and most boys. Four or five weeks is the longest that they are held in the detention unit.

★

MR. JONES said that he feels that the causes of delinquency or crimes are a need for security and a need for creativity.

He thinks that 60 to 65% of youth found at the Center are victims of cultural problems and a huge variety of psychological problems.

Many furnishings for the Center have been donated by organizations in the county.

The members donated money to the Center and an announcement was made of the Michigan Child Study Association Convention to be held in Grand Rapids Nov. 6 and 7.

★

GINGERBREAD and a delicious topping were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Arthur Schwartz and Mrs. Franklin Schroeder.

Little spook favors were provided by Mrs. Norman Bailey, Mrs. Richard Chatters and Mrs. Charles Clark.

Decorating for Holiday Is Program

The Junior Dorcas Society of Jackson will present Harold C. Cook of Dixon, Ill., noted flower arranger and designer, at a 1 p.m., Oct. 27, program at the Jackson County Bldg., 412 S. Jackson St.

The program, entitled, "Decorating for the Holidays" will be devoted exclusively to holiday ideas from Halloween through New Year's.

Proceeds from the program will be used to further the various civic and charitable programs of the Junior Dorcas Society.

Watershed Association Will Meet

A meeting of the River Raisin Watershed Association has been set for Thursday in Tecumseh Community Center at 8 p.m.

Other items for the agenda include a report from the watershed survey party, a report of ticket sales for the air tour on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1, and a review of educational information, which might be used for briefing passengers on the air tour.

Child Mental Patients Will Receive Books

Child patients of the Ypsilanti State Hospital will benefit because of an address given Oct. 7 before the St. Elizabeth Rosary Altar Society.

After William S. Cook, director of public relations at the Hospital spoke to the members they voted to contribute $200 to pay for books in the children's library at the hospital.

Mr. Cook was introduced by Mrs. Harry Hoffman.

He gave an interesting history of the development of mental hospitals from the time of the pest house built behind stage stops to the present-day modern day institution.

He pointed out that "Eloise", now the Wayne County Hospital near Dearborn, was the first stage stop out of Detroit. Persons afflicted with contagious diseases were taken from Detroit and left at the stop where they were confined to a pest house.

The need for volunteers of all ages was emphasized by Mr. Cook who said some 1300 patients in the Ypsilanti State Hospital have no relatives or friends left and that volunteers are their only contact with the outside world except for hospital employees.

Trained teen-aged youths work with the elderly who are lonely for the affection and interest of young people.

Donations of clothing help patients dress more individually than clothing issued by the hospital permits.

Books, bought from the fund proposed by the Rev. Thomas Collins, will be placed in the library of the children's hospital being completed at the institution.

Tentative plans were made at the meeting for a "day of recollection", Dec. 2, to which the women of Tecumseh and vicinity will be invited.

Mrs. Dziachan and members of her committee served refreshments. They were Mrs. Wayne Zettle, Mrs. Harry Hoffman, Mrs. Harry Weakly, Mrs. Richard Refner and Mrs. Ernest Peters.

Methodists To Receive Members

"I Will Uphold the Church" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Donald Porteous of the First Methodist Church at the 10 a.m. worship service Sunday.

The reception of new members will be held during the service.

The every member visitation will close Victory Sunday during the Morning Worship hour.

The church school will meet at 11:10 a.m. with classes for all ages.

Daughters Will Learn of Indonesia

Mrs. Orville Laidlaw and Mrs. Charles Mensing will be hostesses for the Michigan Society Daughters of Founders and Patriots when the annual meeting is held Tuesday, Oct. 27 in the St. Peters Parish House.

The business meeting will be held at 1: a.m. followed by luncheon served by the Daughters of St. Peters.

Mrs. William Dersnah of Milan will speak on Impressions of Indonesia. She lived there with her husband while he was working on a business project.

Mrs. Laidlaw is a past president of the organization.

Jaycees Convene at Soo

Walt Wonderly and Dr. Walter Elwartowski represented Southern Michigan Jaycees on a coast guard carrier cruise Saturday. The cruise was a feature of the fall state board meeting at Sault Ste. Marie.

Dr. Enrique Sanchez de Lozada, ambassador to the U.S. from Bolivia, was aboard ship on the cruise through the Soo locks. He was the evening keynote speaker and guest of honor.

He flew from Washington, D.C. to deliver a special message concerning South America's present and future role in the world market.

A professor of international law and political science, he has been with the Bolivian diplomatic corps since 1931.

Others from Tecumseh attending the state meeting were Mrs. Elwartowski, Mrs. Wonderly, Mrs. Dwight Helms, Mrs. Earl Nisbett, Roger Butler, Rick Creswell, James Fielder, Thomas Morgan and Marvin Nelson. Mrs. Wonderly and Mrs. Helms were delegates from the Tecumseh Auxiliary.

All were guests on a cruise through the locks Saturday evening.

Site To Be Consecrated

A tract of land purchased by the Friends Church for future development will be consecrated at an after-church service Sunday.

Worshippers will hold an abbreviated service at 10 a.m. in the church followed by Bible study.

At 11:25 the congregation will form a caravan and drive to the site located north of River Acres on Clinton Rd. A sign marking the property will be unveiled.

★

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL bus will pick up children 30 minutes earlier than usual, according to the Rev. Paul J. Brantingham, pastor.

"We encourage parents of bus children to bring their families and share in this service," he said.

The grounds will be used for the present as a recreation site for parishioners.

News From Boysville

By MARTIN WHITTAKER

The Bobcats of Whiteford Friday trounced the Fighting Knights of Boysville by a score of 29-0. The Bobcats opened their scoring barrage with a field goal, which was soon followed by a 63-yard touchdown run by a Bobcat fullback.

Moe Jacobs, Boysville's top scorer last season, gained 100 of the total 254 yards the Knights picked up, showing good signs of recovery from a thigh muscle injury. It has hammered Moe's effectiveness during the first half of the season.

Friday, Oct 23, the Knights take on the impressive Aggies of Sand Creek.

The Junior Knights of Boysville engaged the Summerfield Junior Varsity Wednesday, Oct. 14 and settled for a 6-6 tie. The lone Boysville touchdown was scored by Nick Orlando as he rounded left end and went over for the score. Summerfield was held scoreless until they finally found a breakthrough late in the final quarter.

Saturday some 40 students from Boysville watched Purdue defeat the University of Michigan's football team by a score of 21-20. The spectators from Boysville were varsity and junior varsity football players and their cheerleading squad. The boys were accompanied by Brother Thomas Friel, C.S.C., cheerleader moderator, and by Pat Connoes, head football coach. Tickets for the game were provided by the athletic department of the University of Michigan.

October 16, nurses from the Lenawee County Health Department paid a visit to the Boysville campus and administered tuberculin tests to members of the student body and faculty. The tests were "read" Monday morning.

The Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) was administered to 11 students Tuesday. Boys who participated were John Miernik, Keith Parker, Ray Lemanski, Bill Crowley, Bill Pichette, Eli Radu, Ed Johnson, Moe Jacobs, Dave Levites, Martin Whittaker and Gerry Doris. The tests will assist these students in their preparation for college.

This year, as in the past, the Mission Club at Boysville is sponsoring its annual Christmas card sale. Through this project and the Lenten collection, the club hopes to be able to send one Holy Cross missionary to one of the missions in Africa or Pakistan. The approximate cost of such an undertaking is a little over $1,000. This year, to spur the selling of the Christmas cards, the Mission Club features prizes to the top four salesmen. The prizes are: a weekend home and $20; a weekend home and $10; a weekend home and $5 and a steak dinner and movie in Ann Arbor.

Two dorm sections of Cardinal Mooney Hall united and enjoyed a dorm party. During the course of the party records were played as Sloppy Joes, malts, and soft drinks were served. Admittance was a quarter. The boys owe many thanks to Brothers Jeffrey, James Reese, and Stephen for their time and effort in making their party such a success.

The Sophomore Class, under the direction of its moderator, Brother James Gretsman, C.S.C., plan to sponsor a Hallowe'en Party. Some attractions include a costume contest, games, cider and doughnuts. Prizes for the best and most original costumes will consist of cash awards.

Patients Love Color Tour

By DELAPHENE SHELTON

For some it was their first trip into the sunshine in many weeks.

And though their bodies were tired their smiles were bright as the 18 Herrick Nursing Home patients entered their rooms after a color tour of the Irish Hills Oct. 14.

And six members of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary felt themselves more than repaid for the effort they had put forth Tuesday when they drove their guests through the autumnal beauty of Hidden Lake Gardens and Hayes State Park.

★

AMONG THOSE who particularly appreciated the opportunity was Mrs. Verna Onsted of Geneva, Round Lake, who has been a patient in the nursing home for several months. Mrs. Onsted, who for eight years hunted deer in the Upper Peninsula, said, "It was so nice to get out and see the autumn colors. I was pretty tired when I got back but it was worth it."

"We had a lovely time," said Clarence Reinhart whose farm home is on Nortley Hwy., west of Tipton.

His remarks were echoed by Jack Fleming of Ridgeway, Mrs. Allan Seager of Tecumseh and Mrs. Elizabeth Higgins of Adrian.

Mrs. Alice Young, 95, was the oldest to take the ride and five others of the group have passed their 90th birthday.

★

OTHERS MAKING the trip were Mrs. Verna DeMeritt, Mrs. Ella Finney, Mrs. Mable McCallum, Mrs. Bernice Hardy, Mrs. Delia McIntyre, Mrs. Nina Luckhart, Mrs. Anna Sweet, Mrs. Johanna Gast, Tom Measures, Miss Maude Rainey, Mrs. Eva Blatchford and Mrs. Lottie Babcock.

The drivers were Mrs. William Macbeth, Mrs. Donald Cobb, Mrs. Kenneth Herrick, Mrs. Robert Sage, Mrs. Dale Bowen and Mrs. Winthrop Winfield.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

People in Michigan are proud of their state. Folks outside respect it. Both have confidence in its future.

The renewed confidence in Michigan is a welcome change after a period of despair and loss of confidence in our state.

This reversal in attitude is the most important progress in my administration, because attitude determines action and action determines tangible progress.

Michigan's tangible progress can be noted at great length. Here are a few examples:

► Two years ago, Michigan's unemployment was 4.8% and 140,000 were unemployed. Sept. 15, unemployment was 2.9%. This is far below the national average of 5.2%.

► Two years ago, Michigan had an $85.6 million operating deficit and $20 million in unpaid liquor bills. Today, there are increased general fund appropriations and expenditures for service to people more than ever before in a two-year period.

The final report for the fiscal year that ended June 30, the state has a surplus of $57.1 million.

★

THIS RECORD is the more remarkable when you consider that in eight of the 12 years just before I took office, the state increased taxes and in eight out of the 12 years, it spent more than it took in.

In the past two years, there have been no new or increased state taxes and we have spent less than we took in.

Between 1950 and 1961 Michigan's personal income growth rate was 47th in the country — only three states were lower.

In 1963, personal income increased by 8.2%, a growth rate greater than any other state in the country.

Effective household buying income (gross income less all taxes) was $7,696 per household in Michigan in 1963.

In 1962 it was only $7,285.

Michigan in 1963, according to "Sales Management" magazine, had retail sales totaling $11,013,303,000. This was $664,779,000 more than in 1962.

Michigan is a problem-solving, progress-making state.

Hard Times Dance Listed at Ridgeway

Members of the Ridgeway-Macon PTA are sponsoring a "Hard Times Dance" from 8 to 12 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 24 in Ridgeway School gym.

"The Lamplighters" will provide music for round and square dancing.

Advance tickets may be obtained from any member or teacher.

Mrs. Richard Chatters is the new refreshment committee chairman. Mrs. Terry Ross is the co-chairman. Proceeds will be used to replenish the treasury.

"This is a family affair and the public is welcomed," the chairman stated.

MACON MAXIMS

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore returned home Sunday evening from a weeks trip in Indiana. Mrs. Moore attended the North Central Jurisdictional meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, in North Methodist Church at Indianapolis, from Wednesday through Friday. Mrs. Ray J. Latham, president of the World Federation of Methodist Women of Sydney, Australia, was one of the outstanding speakers. There were several missionaries attending who spoke. The Moore's took a 6olor tour through the southern and western part of the state. The trees were delightful, so was the weather.

The Detroit Fall Conference of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold a meeting in the Metropolitan Methodist Church in Detroit Tuesday, Oct. 27. Anyone wishing a ride may contact Mrs. Ray Williams.

√

The Macon Woman's Club Reciprocity Day will be held Thursday, Oct. 29, with luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

√

Members of the Macon WSCS are invited to join the members from the Ridgeway and Britton Methodist churches Thursday, Oct. 29, for a prayer and self-denial meeting in the Britton church at 7:30 p.m.

√

The UNICEF Halloween Party will be held in the Macon church Saturday, Oct. 31. The children will collect from 6 till 7 p.m., then return to the church for a party. The children will receive cannisters from the church school teachers. Mrs. Gerald Miller, children's secretary of the WSCS, Mrs. Eugene Hill, secretary of social concern and the church school board of education are making the plans.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Collins and sons, and Debbie Cheevers, of Tecumseh, were Sunday evening guests of the former's son, Dean, and wife in Saline.

√

A double bridal shower was given in honor of the approaching marriages of Susy and Patricia Morden. It was held in the church dining room, decorated in red and white. Assorted cakes and ice cream were served. Prizes for the games were won by Mrs. Melvin Travis, Mrs. James Thomas. Mrs. Truman Jordan supervised the games.

√

The Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Corl and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kinsey Corl in Monroe.

√

Is saving that much per acre good enough reason for using our Anhydrous Ammonia this fall? We hope so. Particularly when you know that Anhydrous Ammonia from Dow is the most concentrated form of nitrogen you can buy—82%. You can save as much as $6 to $8 an acre by using a fertilizer program we can recommend.

Apply it to soil now in the fall when you're plowing down summer crop stubble. It won't leach out over the winter. Come spring and it will release needed nitrogen into the soil. Crops will develop stronger roots with more resistance to drought. Have a higher protein content for feeding.

Do right by your wallet and your crops with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia. We have it—all you need.

Fairbanks Film Is Sunday Fare

DEARBORN—One of the late Douglas Fairbanks' great films, "Mr. Robinson Crusoe," is featured at the Henry Ford Museum theater, Sunday, Oct. 25, at 2 and 4 p.m.

This famous film, Fairbanks' second from last picture, is one of the three "talkies" ever made by Fairbanks.

"Mr. Robinson Crusoe" is the second film in the current Famous Early Movies Series featured at the Henry Ford Museum theater.

The series includes a selection of famous films, all of which represent milestones in cinematography and cinema acting. Comedy, tragedy, swashbuckling adventure . . . all come to the screen at Henry Ford Museum every Sunday through April 11.

Lenore West has returned from Hudson after 15 months there. She is staying with Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey on Blood Rd. for the present.

St. Elizabeth JOTTINGS

● RINGGGGGGGG

It was about 1:15 p.m. The students were busy studying when a loud continuous buzz filled the classrooms at St. Elizabeth's. Excitement followed them out of their rooms, through the corridors, and out to their positions on the playground. They had practiced a fire drill as part of Fire Prevention Week activities.

By Charles Fitch

● NEW CONSTRUCTION

While construction is underway for the new kitchen, the grounds of St. Elizabeth's are alive with movement — movement accompanied with the appearance of new faces, huge machinery and noises.

Patrol boys are on extra-special watch while this building is going on.

By Sara Beck

√

● BROTHERS SPEAK

Two Holy Cross Brothers from Boysville last week gave an interesting talk and showed films about campus life and activities of their school which is located six miles north of Tecumseh.

At the close of the talk, the brothers answered the many questions asked by the enthusiastic student body.

By Thomas Rohrer.

● SLIDES SHOWN

Thomas Riordan is planning to show color slides of Europe Thursday at St. Elizabeth's. The slides pertain to his travels in Paris, Rome, Capri, and Egypt, placing special emphasis on the latter with individual slides of the building of the Aswan Dam.

Other fascinating and historical objects such as native costumes, miniature replicas of statues, jewelry and fragments of hieroglyphics will be shown.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books at your public library:

"Lilies of the Field" by William Barrett. Homer Smith was twenty-four. He stood six foot two and his skin was a deep warm black. There was laughter in him. Homer didn't only help the nuns to build their church. He helped them with their English, bought them groceries to alleviate the burden of their one cow and one chicken, provided them with a bathtub and played the guitar for them.

"Corridors of Power" by C. P. Snow is a novel of high politics. The chief figure is a tough, adroit and ruthless English politician who wants to do something valuable with power once he has won it. His effort to take Great Britain out of the nuclear arms race provides the center of the story.

"The Night in Lisbon" by Erich Remarque; a drama of a great and desparate love played out, for the most part, against the background of war-torn Europe.

"Anyone Got A Match?" by Max Shulman. This is a funny novel about the four gravest threats we face — cigarettes, food, TV and love — says the satiric Mr. Shulman.

"Barry Goldwater, Portrait of an Arizonian" by McDowell is a complete and up to date account about the life and political creed of America's foremost conservative Republican.

"Reminiscences" by Douglas MacArthur were written in his own hand, and finished only weeks before his death. These pages show a man whose unique vantage point at the center of the stage enabled him to illuminate major controversies of our time.

Marda Gene Duncan's

THROUGH MY WINDOW

VACATION WANDERINGS — ROADS

This year a fall vacation was the Duncans' pleasure. In June '63 we had visited Colorado's Rockies and were completely captivated — we loved the mountains, the fresh but fragile misty green of the new foliage, the riot of wild flower blossoms along the roadsides and the roaring waterfalls.

Since then we had wondered how Colorado in the fall would be. Well, we found out and in one word, it is tremendous!

The Monday we were to "take off" could not have been better had we special ordered it. Bright sunshine, sparkling blue sky and huge billowy mounds of puffy whipped cream clouds.

Ida came over bright and early to get us started and believe me, it was a bright and early start we got. By nine o'clock I was dressed, braced up and in the car. From the surprised double take that Marilyn did when she drove by, the sight of Marda in the car at such an hour must have been shocking indeed.

By nine-thirty the last bag was stowed away, our seat belts all fastened and the little tan station wagon headed itself westward! We were off!

THERE IS MUCH pro and con discussion about expressways, super highways, toll roads and the Interstate routes and, both sides are probably right. We, however, are completely sold on I-180; it is a fast, easy driving and scenic east-west route. Although not fully completed yet, we thoroughly enjoyed the miles we had on it. Monday afternoon we nosed on to I-80 and with the exception of some brief stretches on older road because of roadwork we had good divided highway until we cut south at Kearney, Neb.

South of Denver we waved goodbye to the main traveled thoroughfare and sought out the Rampart Range Road. A casual mention in a tour book that this was an interesting road, providing excellent views of both mountains and plains proved an understatement. It was a gravel road and we were probably the dustiest travelers in the whole state but the drive was worth every bounce and each speck of dust. Following the ridge of the Rampart Range Mountains and ending in the Garden of the Gods at Colorado Springs, we had about 45 miles of breath-taking looking.

★

ANOTHER GEM of a drive for which we owe thanks to a travel brochure is the Skyline Drive just out of Canyon City. It is a short stretch but unique — at least, we had never been on anything like it before.

How to describe it poses a problem. It was almost as if in the middle of a valley a series of eruptions popped up — small, steep-sided mountains which formed a chain and along the top of this chain, just the width of one car, a road was laid. Very exciting.

It was on this one-way up and down road that we really saw how sturdy old cars can be. There was an unique auto convention in Denver and all across the country we had seen vintage cars. They were fun but I shan't even try to mention names because I am not that kind of a buff.

On the Skyline Drive, however, our antique car watching reached its climax. We had pulled into a turn-out to admire the view when suddenly shrill high-pitched whistles pierced the air. A dozen or so steam-engine cars whistled by. People in them were having a ball — and so were we!

Our next truly outstanding stretch of driving — looking — excitement was the Million Dollar Highway. George Pierrot's travelogues dealing with southwestern Colorado exaggerate this section not one bit. It is spectacular! From Montrose to Durango, Route 550 traverses rugged mountainous country, part of which — the part around Ouray — likes to be called the Switzerland of America.

IN ADDITION to being Rocky Mountain scenery at its very best, this is also a fabuously rich mining section. Some mountains are absoultely pock-marked with old mines. The Million Dollar Highway, by the way, derives its name from the fact that the material used in its construction undoubtedly contains great quantities of gold and silver ore.

Although Colorado in the fall does not have the reds that we are used to here in Michigan, it does have the bright, bright yellow of the aspen.

When the sun strikes a whole mountain-side of aspen it is an incredibly lovely sight and our drive south towards Durango was one such sight after another.

But just as on our trip we ran out of time, here I seem to be running out of space.

NEXT WEEK:
More Roads to take, places to visit.

Do we really need a Medicare Tax ?

Health care is now available for "over 65's" who cannot afford to pay

If you are over 65, facing medical expense and can't pay for it... it's yours for the asking, already provided for by law. The Kerr-Mills Act offers a Health Opportunity Program for the Elderly with the federal and state governments sharing the cost.

In most states this care is far, far greater than that offered by Medicare proposals... and no additional tax is necessary!

If you are elderly, and without funds for needed medical care, ask your doctor about the Health Opportunity Program for the Elderly, or call your local medical society.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBY EARLING

Friday morning Janis Reed, Beth O'Neil, Debbie Black, Debbie Earling, and Debbie Osburn left for Union City, to spend two days with the twirlers there.

The girls met last July at Smith Walbridge Camps, Inc., during twirling camp. In that week there grew between the two corps a strong comradeship that was destined to become a lasting friendship. Letters were exchanged and when the twirlers were united again at U. of M. Band Day, vague plans were conceived to visit each other.

A formal invitation from Union City was received by "Tecumseh" Oct. 7. Parents in both cities heartily agreed to the visit — much to the delight of their daughters. "Union City" escorted the corps to a "fish fry" before they attended Union City's Homecoming game and dance Friday night.

Sleeping arrangements were made so that each girl stayed with her favorite "buddy". Saturday the girls will all participate in Tag Day sponsored by the Band Boosters. Then back to Tecumseh in the late afternoon.

Tecumseh twirlers say, "We are very anxious to go and we believe this trip will be beneficial to both corps. We also hope to have "Union City" spend a weekend with us sometime."

Methodist Women Observe Week of Prayer, Denial

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church will join more than 1,700,000 Methodist women all over America in observing the annual "Call to Prayer and Self-Denial" the week of October 25-31.

Sponsored by the Woman's Division of the Methodist Board of Missions, this observance dates back to 1887.

Monday, Oct. 26, in the Social Room of the church, the local Society will have a Quiet Day service of prayer, meditation and music emphasizing the work of the Home Missions.

A special offering will be taken to further their work, directed this year to rebuilding the Jesse Lee Home for Children in Alaska, destroyed by the earthquake last spring.

Mrs. Truman Rentschler will present the meditation, giving further insight into the many needs for Missions.

The program will be at 1 p.m. followed by a coffee hour ending at 2:30 p.m. A supervised nursery is available for pre-schoolers.

George Meader Busy Politicking

Representative George Meader made a round of visits in Tecumseh Oct. 13. He was the guest of Hugh Walter at Don's Beef Buffet for lunch.

Mrs. Frank Dalton and Mrs. William Moeller were hostesses for afternoon teas.

The congressman was a guest for the Rotary dinner meeting before attending the Band Festival.

Adrian, Tipton and Tecumseh residents attended the congressional committee meeting at the Republican Headquarers following the festival.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Clique's Power May End

What might appear a routine appointment by the Lenawee County board of supervisors could prove to be the beginning of the end for a long-time ruling clique.

Ability of the Big Five to keep a virtual strangle hold on county government is a story as old as the world of politics itself — a hard-rock voting core, which has managed one way or another to entice enough other supervisors to go along and insure the clique having its way.

A similar situation used to exist in the Michigan Senate, where the Old Guard kept saying "no" in a body and almost suffocated the rest of the state under. Thank goodness these Neanderthal senators are all but a memory.

Lenawee County's status is still a case of a few stifling progrss. However, there appears to be a tiny crack in the once indomitable fortress.

Last week's ill-conceived appointment should help to widen it.

The normally placid action of naming a $2,000-per-year county road commissioner took on added significence when the Big Five pushed through the appointment of Charles Wade, one-time Adrian Township supervisor who had been beaten in the primary, and, as one would guess, is old friend of the clique.

"They were bound they were going to keep Wade's feet in the trough," an exasperated supervisor growled.

But there was a double-barrel impact to the choice of Mr. Wade. It meant that Lyle Calhoun of Palmyra Township had to be eased off the three-man commission after being a member for three years.

Mr. Calhoun is called "one of the best men we ever had" by a supervisor, who added that at least a dozen others on the board agree with this thinking. Devoting much of his own time to the job, Mr. Calhoun often rode with scraper and brush mower gangs, making sure he knew all the problems facing the commission in the never-ending task of keeping county roads in good shape.

Now his services are no longer wanted because the Big Five had a friend they wanted to see get the $2,000.

For almost 15 years, this clique has had its way around the court house. Being rurally oriented, these supervisors have made certain that the municipalities within the county get the short end of the stick.

Although the cities and towns have always had representation on the board, there has been the unity or voting power to introduce an equalizer to the Big Five.

In recent years, Tecumseh and Adrian supervisors have started to team up, but obviously their strength hasn't been quite enough. The appointment of Mr. Wade passed, 16-14, and one of the 14 mused, "We thought we had this thing whittled down, but this one proved we didn't."

However, more progress may have been made than realized on the effort to break the iron grip of the Big Five.

For too long, policies of the supervisors have been made in court house corridors and around the drinking fountain between actual sessions of the board.

We hope an end is in sight.

Bigger, Better Stories

Writing a news story seems so simple to the people doing this sort of thing every day.

Suddenly, it becomes evident that not everyone is a master of the technique. Even publicity chairmen of various city organizations aren't hep to the fact that the 4 W's—who, what, when, where—belong in the first paragraph of an article.

So we decided to talk it over with the people assigned by their clubs, churches and societies to get items in The Herald, telling what these various groups are up to.

The session was held Friday morning and everyone, ourselves included, got a pleasant jolt. Said one guest: "I didn't realize at all how we should be putting together our stories or what your problems are."

Our reaction: It's fun explaining how to prepare good copy and apparently publicity chairmen and newspaper alike will now benefit. In fact, we think the whole thing so worthwhile, we'd be willing to do it another time, maybe in the evening, for others interested in getting bigger and better stories in this newspaper.

The Community Center's Glass Room was ideal for last week's meeting and we are delighted to give a plug right here to Don Moffatt, our superintendent of parks and recreation, who had everything in readiness — including putting on the coffee pot.

Treat Guns with Care

A near-tragedy Sunday when Jim Merritt of Clinton was accidentally shot in the shoulder with a target rifle, plus the start of hunting season, prompts a reminder to treat firearms with extra care.

With a desire to knock down a pheasant, the hunter might get over-anxious. He might neglect the basic precepts of hunting safety.

Just remember, when you hunt, or target shoot, please:

► Don't load your gun until you step foot into the field.

► When you are done hunting, get those unused shells out of the chamber and into your pocket.

► Keep the gun's safety on until just before you shoot.

► Never lean your gun against a fence post or tree.

► Never use it to help you over a fence.

► Always remember you can kill a human or dog as well as you can a ringneck.

► Don't permit an untrained youngster to hold or fool around with a loaded gun.

'I Don't Want To Die'

Of the many hundreds who viewed the charred remains of the two death trucks, we wonder if any motorists said, "I'm going to be more careful."

Probably not too many.

In past editorials, we have urged the use of seat belts. We know they wouldn't have made any difference last Wednesday, since no one could possibly have survived the head-on impact of those two trucks crashing together.

However, this fact doesn't lessen our feeling about seat belts, actually, it underlines the fact that motorists of today need everything in the way of safety that they can get.

Seat belts do more than hold a person in place during accidental highway impact. They help make people safety conscious, give them a better mental attitude.

When a guy clamps on his seat belt, he is saying to himself, "I don't want to die on the highway".

Editorial in Picture

Newest fad with the young ones is sidewalk surfing. In California, we're told, the sport has folks agog, with all nature of huge boards equipped with roller skates. Showing their skill are Tecumsehites Tim Lasky, Bruce Jones and Joe Hart. It's a barrel of fun and the kids twist and turn as if they were riding the waves off Waikiki. Lest elders get the idea they can perform as well, a word of warning — sidewalk surfing is like hula-hooping, great for young bodies, tough on oldsters.

CHARLIE MORAN GETS ACROSS POINTS AS HE ENTERTAINS COUNTY EDUCATORS

NO TRADE SCHOOLS

GM Seeks Well-Rounded Youths

Humorous Charlie Moran has a brand new "fan club" in Lenawee County.

Not just because Mr. Moran is quick with a quib, either.

Officially, he is the supervisor of executive development for the Fisher Body Division of General Motors Corp.

Unofficially, he is an idol of educators.

Principals, superintendents and vocational teachers of Lenawee County schools met Mr. Moran last week. Almost to a man—and woman—they expressed a desire to have the GM executive talk to their students.

What Charlie said was exactly what educators tell their charges day after day, usually with only mild impact. They would love to have him be their guest with the same scholars, only this time Mr. Moran doing the talking.

★

MR. MORAN and another top GM personnel representative, Marlin J. Janter, supervisor of technical training for Fisher Body, met with educators last week in Tecumseh to discuss their needs in the way of young men and women, fresh from high school.

Quickly, Mr. Moran put the schoolmen at ease: Fisher Body doesn't want a series of trade schools, feeding them people trained to cut and sew car upholstery and door panels.

Instead, Fisher Body looks for graduates who have general educations, good foundation in English, math and science, possibly some ability to use their hands through drafting and shop courses.

Equally as important, they want the young people trained as good citizens, who have the proper attitude and a desire to be part of the team.

Drop-outs have little interest, said Mr. Moran. They wouldn't be offered skilled jobs, greatly limiting their possible worth to GM.

★

THROUGH MR. JANTER'S office, potential employees are tested for aptitudes and if hired are placed in a company apprenticeship program — on-the-job training.

Outstanding applicants may be recommended to attend General Motors Institute in Flint on the co-op plan, working certain months of the year and attending classes the other months.

Mr. Moran said that GMI now ranks in engineering with such schools as MIT, the University of Michigan and Purdue University.

High school grades and attendance records are carefully checked before a person is hired.

Usually, up to 10 hopefuls are interviewed before one job is filled. Mr. Moran said that right now there are more written applications for jobs than the plant anticipates hiring. This, without Fisher Body asking for a single one.

However, these count for scant attention. It's not who applies first, but rather what an applicant's qualifications are.

Recently, when an Ohio operation of Fisher Body was set to open, with 2,000 new jobs up for grabs, the firm had 25,000 persons from which to choose.

One man said he would accept the plant managership—if he'd be made a General Motors vice-president. He didn't quite make the grade.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Herb Spendlove has been editor of The Jackson Citizen-Patriot for nearly three years.

Right from the start, a thousand and one projects have kept him spinning with one of the newest being among the most important.

Herb has been plugging away with other civic leaders on a development plan for his city's CBD — Central Business District.

It's a beautification plan with a mall as the core.

At last week's grand opening, this scribbler wandered around the mall, asking folks how they liked the setup, which actually is only half complete so far.

★

SOME OF THE comments:

"It's going to be pretty, but I don't think it will help business."

"After all that money ($70,000 spent so far), it ought to be good. Yes, I'll like it."

"Mall? Are you kidding, it's a parking lot." (Entrances at four points have circular drives and parking bays, which eventually will be eliminated.)

"Obviously a compromise." (Mixing parking with greenery.)

"Lovely without the parking."

★

Only time will tell, with the ringing of cash registers being the best barometer.

Editor Spendlove gave me some background on the CBD program and how it grew.

When the mall idea was unveiled, one well-to-do, merchant said here was a great idea, but

Girl, 16 Is Injured Seriously

Four persons were injured in an accident at 9:50 Tuesday night in front of the Astrolite Motel, ½ mile south of Clinton on the Tecumseh-Clinton Rd.

The injured are:

Mrs. Dorothy J. Noragon, 38, of 1105 Tecumseh Rd., Clinton, who was transferred from Herrick Memorial Hospital to St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, with critical head and facial injuries and a fractured leg.

Nancy Rae Marsh, 16, who is in serious condition at Herrick Memorial Hospital where she underwent surgery for internal injuries.

Linda Kay Marsh, 15, who is in satisfactory condition in Herrick Memorial Hospital where she underwent surgery for a lacerated scalp and leg and jaw injuries. The Marsh girls are daughters of Mrs. Noragon and live with her at the Clinton address.

Cortland K. Larned, 40, of 1684 Byrd Rd., Grosse Pointe Woods, who was treated at Herrick Memorial Hospital for a lacerated scalp and possible chest injuries and discharged.

★

THE ACCIDENT, according to report of the Clinton Post, Michigan State Police, occurred when the northbound car driven by Mr. Larned made a left turn into the motel driveway and collided with the automobile driven by Mrs. Noragon, who was returning from Clinton to her home about a half-mile south of the motel. Both cars were demolished.

Sgt. Carl Anderson of the Clinton Post said Wednesday the accident is under investigation.

Mr. Larned is the promoter developing the Indian Hills Subdivision.

CHURCH DEDICATES FIELD — Friends field, owned by the congregation of Friends Church, was dedicated Sunday when members formed a caravan after worship and drove to the site, along Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., just north of River Acres. The name was selected from 65 entries and submitted by Mrs. Martin Halley. More than 80 people contributed $4,400 for development of the land, which covers 38 acres and was purchased for $20,000 from Mrs. Edward Aebersold. When the sign was unveiled during Sunday's ceremony, by Robert McDonald and LeRoy Brugger, a slight spelling error was noted. It is now being corrected. No building plans have been set as yet.

TUESDAY IS THE DAY

Vote Early, Clerk Asks

Voters should get to the polls as soon as possible Tuesday, City Clerk Mrs. Naomi Sallows suggests.

Balloting begins at 7 a.m. and continues to 8 p.m.

"Please try to vote by noon," she states, explaining that this leaves the hours from 5 to 8 p.m. for workers who can't possibly vote earlier.

Don't be afraid to ask questions of voting officials, whether it's about the machine or the election," she states.

"The workers are always happy to assist," the clerk adds.

Plenty of instruction sheets and ballots will be available at each polling place, Mrs. Sallows points out, and voters should consult them before entering the booth.

This will speed individual voting, which by law is limited to three minutes, although only enforced when a big lineup is waiting.

Voter registration in the city has actually dropped since the last presidential election. The figure in 1960 was 3,470 and for Tuesday, 3,297 are eligible.

In '60, there were 2,968 who voted.

★

TOPPING THE RACES this time will be President Lyndon Johnson (D) vs. Senator Barry Goldwater (R) in the presidential race.

The gubernatorial battle between George Romney (R) and Neil Staebler (D) may have more interest in Michigan. For the first time in state history, the lieutenant-governor is running mate of the governor, Bill Milliken with Mr. Romney and Robert Derengoski with Mr. Staebler.

PLEASE SEE POLITICAL EDITORIALS LAST PAGE, 3RD SECTION

Other major races:

Secretary of State — James Hare (D) vs. Allison Green (R)

Attorney General — Frank Kelley (D) vs. Meyer Warshawsky (R)

United States Senator — Philip Hart (D) vs. Elly Peterson (R)

Representative to Congress — Weston Vivian (D) vs. George Meader (R)

State Senator — William Dannemiller (D) vs. Gil Bursley (R)

State Representative — Hugh Flippo (D) vs. Rollo Collin (R)

Voters will also select an eight-member Michigan Board of Education — another first in state history. Two trustees for Michigan State University and two for Wayne State University will be named.

★

ON THE Lenawee County level, which generally goes straight Republican, four of nine GOP candidates are unopposed. Closest margin is expected between Otis Sumner (D) and Richard Germond (R) in the run for sheriff and Joseph Dressel (D) and Merrick E. Dibble (R) who seek the register of deeds job.

Raisin Township May Roadblock Sewer Plan

Tecumseh officials were notified Monday that the Raisin Township Board objects to the construction of the city's eight-inch pressure sewer from GM's Fisher Body Plant to the city limits.

According to Michigan's new constitution and state statutes, township approval must be given before such construction is permitted.

Council had hoped that Selders Excavating would be able to start work about Nov. 5, then finish the project in December.

Unless there are some quick developments, actual construction will not start soon.

★

THE RAISIN TOWNSHIP BOARD at a previous meeting told Tecumseh Council that it felt GM should own the sewer.

Apparently, the board retains this feeling and is now insisting GM be the owner, or the sewer will not be allowed to be constructed along Occidental, Ives and N. Raisin Center Hwy., all in Raisin Township.

Tecumseh already is on record objecting to GM owning the sewer and GM representatives have stated they want no part of it.

City Attorney James Beardsly told both township and city officials that the city should construct and own the sewer, plus maintaining and servicing the line and the lift station to be built at the plant site.

Rally of Girl Scouts Attracts Over 100

Nearly 100 girls attended the activities of the Girl Scout Rally at the recreation field Saturday afternoon.

The girls took turns playing games.

Mrs. William Rohweder's Cadets entertained the Juniors; Mrs. Richard Dustin's Juniors entertained the Brownies; Mrs. Avery Lee and Mrs. John Robinson's troop collected fees.

A friendship circle was formed around the campfire built by Mrs. Jack Curtiss' Cadets and songs were sung as the girls sipped cider and ate doughnuts served by Mrs. Edwin Bunge and Mrs. Carlyle Kehoe and their scouts.

Mrs. Harry Withrow's Brownies were on clean-up.

Fall Girl Scout leadership training will begin Friday, Oct. 30, at the Scout cabin at 9:30

Subsequent sessions will be on November 2, 4 and 9, with an overnight camp-out Nov. 6.

Planes Will Fly Over Watershed

Plans have been completed for the River Raisin Air Tours Saturday and Sunday. The flights are sponsored by the River Raisin Watershed Assn., the Lenawee and Monroe Soil Conservation Districts.

Flights will depart from the Adrian Municipal Airport at 15-minute intervals between 8:45 and 4 p.m. Saturday and between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. Sunday.

Tickets will be available for $5 from Harold Easton, 701 Center Ct., and the Adrian Area Chamber of Commerce office. They may be purchased at the airport the days of the tours.

★

TWO DIFFERENT tours will be offered. One will be to the northwest and will take in the river from Adrian to Brooklyn. This includes the Tecumseh, ponds.

The southeast flight will originate in Adrian and fly over Palmyra, Blissfield, Deerfield, Sumerfield and Dundee before turning back and flying over Tecumseh. Both flights will take 30 minutes.

★

TEN FOUR-SEAT planes have been secured from Jacob's Flying Service of Adrian and the Flying Farmers of Michigan out of Shephard. All the pilots will have a commercial rating or better.

A briefing session for passengers will be held 30 minutes prior to each flight time. Displays and visual aids will be used to point out those areas in the watershed that need particular work. Movies will be shown continuously throughout the two days.

Behind Page One

"Oh, my nylons," gasped Britton journalism teacher Mrs. Gerry Henricks as she snagged her hose on the side of a desk Monday. The next day she discovered a gift-wrapped carton on her desk. It contained a new pair of hose, a present from her students.

Dirt diggers are hopeful souls. Members of the Iris Garden Club were busily planting tulip bulbs Tuesday around the new Lenawee Institute. Gee, now all we need is some rain.

Don delights in delicious dinners. Some Jackson folks found Don Smith a wonderful host Saturday evening when they arrived here, the destination of a mystery trip. The Belles and Beaus, western style dance group, ate at Don's Beef Buffet before going to the Community Center for an evening of promenading.

To take a chip off the wife's shoulder try putting a hat on her head.

"It's like a letter from home," said Mrs. Mary Gooding of Milan, who for 56 years has been a Tecumseh Herald subscriber. "I've taken it ever since I was married," she added. Mrs. Gooding, the former Mary Herbison, a native of Macon, is the widow of the late Chester Gooding.

One of the reasons that Adrian will host the 1965 United States National Soaring championship is that Tecumseh's Andrew (Jim) Smith uses the near-by field as his base of operation. The Soaring Society of America in Santa Monica, Calif., flashed the news last week of Adrian's selection.

A penny for her efforts. Mrs. Robert Hunt uncovered an 1865 Indian head penny recently while removing plaster from the living room wall.

Each week, 50 free copies of The Herald are given to patients at Herrick Memorial Hospital by John Underwood, the Chevrolet-Pontiac dealer in Clinton.

Speaking of the Underwood clan, down the road a piece from John is George Underwood, Jr., Ford-Mercury-Lincoln man, who still is chuckling over a booboo we pulled in a recent ad, which said he had 400 new cars on hand. They must think we haven't sold any '65 models," handsome George mused. The copy should have read "100 used cars."

Spring fever hit so badly Monday afternoon, the king-size loaf was on all over town. Is autumn really coming?

Recent contributions to the Herrick Memorial Hospital Landscaping Fund have been from:

The Franklin Garden Club

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fuller in memory of Arthur Biegel, man to be used for a bird feeder.

Cocktail glasses with a Goldwater theme have a marking near the top labeled "Extremism is no Vice" and one near the bottom labeled "Moderation is no Virtue." . . .

Tecumseh has growing pains, yes sir! Forty newcomers are presently receiving free issues of The Herald for 12 weeks as part of Welcome Wagon gifting.

Is it true that they kicked out Khrushchev because the Reds didn't win the pennant?

Although she got five broken ribs, Mrs. Madaline Tuttle of Adrian, still smiles following a head-on car wreck last week. Mrs. Tuttle, mother of THS teacher Mrs. Barbara Speerstra, lived to tell about the accident primarily because she had been held securely in place by her seat belt. Don't you think you should buckle up when you drive?

Wonder if Dr. Richard Hammel noted that the new Tecumseh Fisher Body plant will have 10 time study men? Maybe the good doctor could do a little moon-lighting on the second shift. After seeing him as the time study man in "Pajama Game" we're convinced he'd be perfect for Fisher Body. Besides he has a watch and chain, not to mention a vest.

When a football official makes a call, he is acting honestly and with the best intent. Sideline fans take note! A more mature approach to "cheering" after penalties would certainly have a better effect on younger spectators.

Sorry, the word this week has to be Minnehaha all over again. The story it was to appear in last issue didn't get into print. See if you can find it.

Alton Snyder is certainly a considerate boss. The A & P manager, on vacation the past week, stuck close to home to hunt. When he did some grocery shopping for his wife, he went to Wegner's Market, passing up his own place because he didn't want his staff to think he was coming back unexpectedly to spy on them.

The Women's Society of the First Baptist Church sent a donation to the Tecumseh Scout Cabin Building, bringing the bank total to $1,561.64.

Bragging or complaining? Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gomez, 114 Muscody, went to school with LBJ. Well, they attended the elementary school in Cotulla, Texas, while the president taught seventh grade there years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Gomez have been in Tecumseh since 1941.

200 Join in Search for Missing Boy, 2

A giant search party sprung into action Tuesday afternoon when a two-year-old boy was reported missing in Indian Hills subdivision.

More than 200 persons combed nearby fields under coordination of Tecumseh police as a plane flew over the area and firemen readied their emergency boat to check a gravel pit.

The event ended happily, when little David Gutowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gutowski, 607 Stacy St., was discovered half a block from home, locked in a trailer.

★

APPARENTLY, the youngster had gotten into the camper, owned by Robert Griffin, 507 Stacy St., and closed the door behind himself.

He was missed about 3 p.m. and neighbors helped Mrs. Gutowski in preliminary searching. Police and firemen were notified as dusk began to arrive shortly before 5.

As searchers fanned out in a huge, overgrown field, south of Russell Rd., Mae Richard, 318 Kilbuck St., saw a movement inside the camper.

She heard the child inside and as people gathered to attempt to open the door, Dale stepped out.

★

JUST THREE years ago this month, the Gutowski family lost a son, Brian, age two, in a drowning accident shortly after they had moved to Tecumseh.

Mr. Gutowski is a teacher at Tecumseh High School.

Area Entries Win Honors

Lack of moisture in many parts of Lenawee County had its effect on entries for the 1964 4-H and FFA Crops Show Saturday.

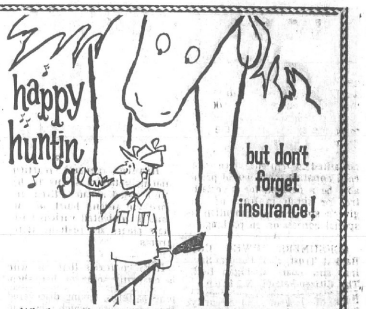
Corn samples dominated the Saturday show, but potatoes, melons, squash and most small grains also appeared.

Bob Snow of the Palmyra Future Leaders 4-H Club won the 1/100 acre corn event with a projected dry yield of over 200 bu./acre.

Vernon Sell of Blissfield, Robert Platt of Tipton and Charles Drexler of Britton took the next three placings.

The 10-ear sample event was won by Robert Platt of the Tipton Jets Club.

David Sayler of Blissfield, Mike Jackson and Rick Jackson of Tipton and Vernon Sell of Blissfield placed next in line.



Whether you're away from home one day or up to 6 months, you can have continuous protection with Trip Accident insurance. Rates are low. For slight additional cost you can have insurance protection for your hunting equipment and other personal belongings.

'State of Union' Isn't Too Funny as Comedy Play

By DELAPHENE SHELTON

It was billed as a comedy.

We sat for almost half of the first act before we could figure out what "State of the Union" was all about.

The production was the season's first for the Tecumseh Players. Hopefully they will improve.

Admirers of the Players remember with enthusiasm the group's amazingly successful musicals and anticipate their production of "The Music Man" in February.

The Players' new quarters in the Odd Fellows Hall are nice, but the strange surroundings may have contributed to the dull show.

Perhaps, also, the audience was already waterlogged, with too much politics — and nothing can kill a performance as fast as lackluster playgoers.

★

THE PLOT revolved around efforts to make a Republican presidential candidate out of a fireball industrialist, who at first seemed reluctant.

Dr. Robert Murray, the politician, improved as the play progressed. The same could be said for the ambitious girl friend played by Mrs. Gene Earling, and Mrs. Howard Gentry, who had the role of the wronged, but still loving wife.

★

THERE WERE bright spots.

Mrs. James Vanzo, who portrayed a southern gal a little too prone to imbibe, almost made the evening worthwhile.

William Frownfelder, a newspaperman turned campaign manager, was terrific as was Guil Rothfuss, the Republican kingmaker. Duane Steele, the southerner set to deliver his section of the nation for the party, provided plenty of laughs in the final act.

Others in the cast were Mrs. Melvin Wegner, William DePuy, Donald Partridge, Harold Weakley, Lou Hardesty, Miles Cowdrey, Mrs. William Frownfelder, Mrs. Guil Rothfuss and Gene Earling.

Mrs. Donald Geiger was director, Mrs. Charles Parker, assistant director.

Fred Pokorny, president of the Players, welcomed the audience.

Performances will be held Thursday and Saturday evenings.

LENAWEE INSTITUTE DEDICATION GUESTS IN FRONT OF NEW SPECIAL EDUCATION BUILDING

3 More Buildings

By DOROTHY GRIGG

"Three more new buildings will be added to the Lenawee Institute with construction to be started in the spring." This was the announcement made by Milton C. Porter, superintendent of Lenawee County Schools, at the dedication of the first new Sutton Rd. building Friday.

About 400 attended the ceremonies when Mr. Porter spoke of the promise for the future made by "a friend of education."

A speech clinic, a small dining hall and an office for administration and teachers are planned.

THE FIRST BUILDING dedicated Friday was given by an anonymous donor, so that horizons might be brighter for Lenawee youth.

Equipment, grass seed and shrubs have also been donated by various groups.

The building, has five classrooms, a shop, multi-purpose room or gym, a homemaking room, health room including a shower, a teacher's room, two storage rooms and two offices.

The fifth class room will be used in the near future as a day care center for severely mentally retarded children.

★

THE BOARD of the Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic voted Monday evening to sponsor and administer the program for children with an IQ of 30 or under.

The program operated by the Department of Mental Health will have one teacher to every six youngsters.

Preceding the dedication program Friday, students of the Institute enthusiastically conducted tours, explaining the use of each room and introducing the teachers.

Students assisted also with the parking of cars for the many visitors, thus using skills they have learned from the program.

★

PUMPKINS grown by the children in their gardens were used in colorful decoration of the new building.

Handicrafts and novelties were bright notes in the well-lighted rooms and were later presented to the guests.

"Hand skills and crafts are especially helpful in assisting students with motor co-ordination," explained Mrs. Alice Wooster, the teacher in the occupational therapy room.

She said that there are about 56 children attending classes there at present.

A young guide explained the caution used when anyone has the power drill or saw in operation as they turn out clever little birds, rabbits and other shapes in the shop.

★

LOOKING OUT the window the guide remarked about the swings given to the institute by the Prairie School and told how the students assembled them.

Lynn E. Marvin, Lenawee County special education co-ordinator, said the new facilities on the campus of the Lenawee Institute will provide for the most outstanding program of its kind in the United States.

"The building is dedicated also to the use of the community," continued Mr. Marvin.

A lip-reading class for senior citizens who are hard of hearing will be organized and also a children's theater group.

★

DURING THE PROGRAM Mr. Marvin invite service clubs and civic groups to use the building for meetings.

James Mitchell, Raisin Township supervisor, spoke about the board's pleasure in having the Center located in Raisin Township. He said the board would make an effort to keep the neighborhood attractive.

The Rev. Blair Bashore gave the invocation and the benediction.

Other speakers were Roy Morrison, executive director of the United Cerebral Palsy Association, and Dr. John Dawson, president of Adrian College.

———o———

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Artz and family and Linda Waters returned home Tuesday after spending five days in northern Michigan.

GM Seeks Well-Rounded Youths

"First we must develop a team, then we can build car bodies," Mr. Moran explained to the educators. He estimated that it will take three years to do this to full capacity in Tecumseh from the time the plant opens about May 1, 1965.

Fifty key supervisor personnel will be brought to Tecumseh as the nucleus for the local team, which will begin with 750 to 800 people. This number is expected gradually to climb until it reaches 1,000, about half being women.

★

MR. MORAN ran down the production staff:

► 180 sewing machine operators, all women. (Men have never been able to make the grade at this job.)

► 180 direct labor — assemblers, chromers and color graders, mostly women.

► 200 indirect labor, mostly men.

► 50 skilled tradesmen — electricians, pipe fiters, millwrights, sewing machine repairmen.

► 4 powerhouse operators.

► 10 power lift rig operators.

► 50 material handlers.

► 20 inspectors.

► 20 foremen, all to be recruited for this plant and trained here

► 10 time study men.

* * *

OTHERS ON THE local team will be:

► 6 technicians and engineers.

► 20 clerical men and women in accounting.

► 20 production and control people.

► 12 plant guards.

► 5 clerical people in industrial relations.

► 3 nurses.

► 1 doctor.

★

HOW DOES GM pay?

Before the current labor negotiations at GM, the average corporation hourly-rated worker earned $2.94, plus 84c in fringe benefits. This includes all GM plants from coast to coast.

Women always are paid the same rate as men on identical jobs, with the same responsibilities and physical requirements.

Equally as important as the pay, the guest stressed, were the excellent working conditions offered in Fisher Body plants—especially cut-and-sew.

Mr. Moran emphasized the point that Fisher Body wants to train its employees, but did suggest schools could provide adult education programs, which might assist older persons to learn new skills, such as data processing.

★

FISHER BODY has five key objectives, Mr. Moran said:

1. A quality product.
2. Utmost in obtainable safety ($60 per employee is spent annually in a never-ending safety program.)
3. Production
4. Attain maximum long-term economy through efficiency.
5. Make maximum use of the time, talent and ability of all its people for the employees' sake.

Fisher Body wants to pay taxes in exchange for services rendered. It wishes to provide good jobs, make a life as well as a living" for its workers and to be a good industrial citizen.

FISHER FACTS

"We came here because of the high-grade people," Charlie Moran of Fisher Body said in Tecumseh last week. Folks here offer the qualities we want."

★

The Fisher plant will offer "many wonderful jobs in a fine, clean plant as attractive as this school building," the executive noted. The session was in the cafeteria of Tecumseh High School.

★

Fisher wants to earn a profit for all concerned — company, employee and stockholder.

For the worker, this is not just the pay envelope, but "profit in satisfaction, security, working conditions, pride in working on something worthwhile," according to Mr. Moran.

★

A total of $18,600 in equipment is invested per GM employee.

★

High school records count for everything on the first job, along with character, attitude, dependability, how he or she got along with teachers and assumed responsibility.

LONG & SHORT

he didn't think business row would go along, especially with that initial outlay of $70,000.

But getting the cash turned out to be the easiest part of the program.

Herb said that retailers were not asked to help out, since with each donation there would probably be a demand for a certain tree or shrub in front of the giver's store, not to mention a special concession on parking.

★

CONSUMERS POWER, City Bank & Trust, First Federal Savings and Loan, Michigan Bell, The Citizen-Patriot, National Bank of Jackson and Security Savings and Loan anted up $62,000.

Stocks worth $7,000 were contributed by Waldo Andrews, owner of Jackson Drop Forge Co., for the mall.

When the businessman, who initially exclaimed what a great plan this seemed, discovered nobody was asking him to help finance the mall, he reversed his field and started a rumble knocking it.

Ah, human nature!

However, general reaction among retailers seems to be "full speed ahead." Even before the second block of the mall is completed, various business places are re-doing store fronts.

Herb confesses that his wife is changing some of her shopping patterns, having discovered the ease with which she can park, practically in front of the stores where she wishes to go.

With wide walks, lots of grass and trees, the whole aspect of those two long blocks of Michigan Ave. in Jackson have taken on a new face and feeling.

Police Check 4 Accidents This Week

Four accidents, one involving a police car and another a hit-skip, were checked by the Tecumseh police during the past week.

Esther Knoblauch, 30, Occidental Rd., was charged with improper backing on S. Pearl St. at W. Chicago Blvd., after inflicting damage on a patrol car driven by Sgt. Eugene Skinner.

She told investigating officers that she did not see the police car behind her when she started to pull into Chicago Blvd., and then backed up.

An auto owned by Michael Pate of Adrian, was damaged slightly Sunday on W. Pottawatamie, next to the American Legion.

The car was hit by an unknown driver.

Dennis E. Linden, 18, of 4600 Blood Rd., was charged with an improper turn last week while pulling into Rusty's Drive-In on W. Chicago Blvd.

His car was hit by Michael T. Wilson, 18, of 203 E. Kilbuck.

No citation was issued in an accident involving Larry D. Petrovish, 17, Holloway Rd., and Cora E. Murphy, 16, of 311 S. Pearl St.

Miss Murphy backed into the Petrovish vehicle on Shawnee St.

FHA Girls at Meeting in Blissfield

Eight members of the Tecumseh Chapter Future Homemakers of America accompanied by their advisor, Mrs. Charles Brown, and their chapter mother, Mrs. Harold Hicks, attended the Region III meeting Oct. 24 at the Blissfield High School.

Linda Hicks and Judy DeMoss were the voting delegates of the group. Sherry Dinius registered the girls.

Others from here attending were Valerie Carney, Penny Hicks, Jackie Filter, Cindy Refner and Dora Girbach.

Some 500 members, advisors and mothers from Lenawee, Monroe, Jackson and Washtenaw Counties met for the all-day session.

New regional officers were elected and a report was given of the National FHA meeting in Chicago this summer.

FISHER FACTS

Going to school is like a job. The teacher is the foreman and the student does what he is told, whether he likes that person or not, Charlie Moran said.

When a student tells Fisher Body personnel he could have done better in Algebra, but he didn't like the teacher, the youth is told, if he is given a job and doesn't like a supervisor, then he won't handle assignments asked by that man. No hire.

STARTLING "SEASCAPE" — This amazing bas relief effect was achieved by engraving the photograph in reverse. The picture was made on a recent peaceful Sunday morning and shows Ford Lake in downtown Milan. The photographer was Delaphene Shelton, a Tecumseh Herald staff member, who lives near Milan and formerly was with the Monroe Evening News.

Shawnee Squares Hosts

The Shawnee Squares western style square dancers were hosts to the Belles and Beaus of Jackson Saturday evening following a mystery ride by the Jackson group.

Don's Beef Buffet proved to be the unknown destination of the 24 couples who boarded the bus in Jackson.

The red carpet was rolled out at the Community Center, courtesy of the National Carpet Co.

Pumpkins, corn shocks and fall leaves were used to decorate the Center appropriately.

Chuck Dillenbeck and Bob Kempf were the callers for the 17 squares of dancers.

Party sandwiches and coffee were served by the local group following the dancing.

Arthur William, president of the Shawnee Squares, presented a red felt scroll of welcome to the visitors. Their president, Willard Cooley, accepted it.

Arthur Holdridge Honored

Mrs. Arthur Holdridge entertained at a dinner honoring her husband's birthday anniversary Oct. 25.

Guests were their children and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Busche, (nee Shirley Holdridge) and family, Ann Arbor; Mr. and Mrs. William Eisamen, Jr., (nee Kay Holdridge) and daughter of Arcadia, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holdridge and family Blissfield; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beevers, (nee Della Holdridge) and daughter, and Jerry and Lonnie at home.

Arthur's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Holdridge of Jackson were also dinner guests.

Another daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Brown, and family of Ridgeway were unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holdridge and daughter of Adrian, Marsha Richard and Mr. and Mrs. K. Lowell Wise and family joined the group in the afternoon when a decorated cake and ice cream were served.

Wilma LaLonde Bridal Shower Guest of Honor

Wilma LaLonde was the guest of honor at a bridal shower given Oct. 25 by her aunts, Mrs. Harvey Heitman, Mrs. James Coogan and Mrs. Thomas Coogan at the latter's home in Dearborn.

A buffet luncheon was served. Games were played and prizes won by the bride-elect and by Mrs. Gordon LaLonde, Mrs. Douglas Marr and Mrs. Neir, mother of the groom-elect.

Others attending from here were Mrs. John McKenzie and Mrs. Donald Van Camp.

Miss LaLonde's marriage to Jerry Neir of Belleville will be an event of Nov. 7 at St. Elizabeth Church.

Jaycees Host Public Dance for Halloween

CLINTON — The annual Jaycee Halloween dance will be held Saturday, Oct. 31, at 8 p.m. in the Clinton High School gymnasium.

Prizes will be awarded to the guests wearing the funniest and best costumes. A door prize will be given.

Free refreshments of coffee, doughnuts and cider will be served after the judging.

Music will be provided by a Jackson band with arrangements made by Mike Williams, chairman of the dance.

Tickets may be purchased for $1 from any Jaycee or at the door.

Mrs. Cobb Appointed

Mrs. Donald Cobb of Tecumseh and Dr. Fred Freeman of Tipton were among the 18 persons named to an education study committee for Lenawee County.

The group will study school reorganization, based on the new state constitution, which allows only 12-grade districts.

Documentary Film Shown to Exchange Club

A film, "Water Bill," Walter Cronkite narrating, was shown at the Exchange Club dinner Monday night.

The film, particularly timely because of the current River Raisin Watershed Project, shows why water supplies are dwindling, what future water needs will be and what is being done nationwide to preserve and replenish those supplies.

The film is available for loan with charge. Information is available by calling 423-2986.

Harry Travis was welcomed as a new member of the club. Richard Camburn, president of the Adrian Exchange Club, was a guest.

Last Monday Russ Garno, Don Brazee, J. D. Cook, Keith Barron and Jim Barton visited the Jackson Club.

Hears Talk on Style Harmony

Harmony was stressed in the lesson, "Dressing by Design," presented by Mrs. John Cameron at the meeting recently of the Tecumseh Inquirers Extension Study Group.

Mrs. Ed Turk was the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Cameron.

The evening was spent in mending and preparing clothing to be given to the Lenawee County Youth Center. There is great need for clothing for both boys and girls, sizes through 18.

Mrs. Wallace Rutherford and Mrs. Turk volunteered to make posters for the Christmas Open House to be held in Adrian Nov. 13 and 14.

Mrs. Roy Beasley and Mrs. Carl Hale volunteered to make cookies and arrangements were made to purchase gifts for Maple Lane Manor.

4-H Members Are Honored

Year pins, certificates and premium money from the Lenawee County Fair were distributed at the annual achievement night of the North Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club Oct. 24.

Special certificates were awarded to those with perfect attendance and honorable mention.

The meeting was held at the home of Mary Ann and James Woodward.

Mary Ann Woodward with 145, won the most points during the year and Cheryl and Carol Davenport with 140 tied for second place.

Miss Woodward gave a talk on "The Importance of a Junior Leader."

Judy Wilson and Bruce Carlton were welcomed as new members. They were accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Wilson.

A meeting will be held Nov. 16 at the home of John and Dan Dewey when plans for the Christmas party will be made.

LIFE
FOR THE FIRST TIME IN ITS HISTORY
SUPPORTS A DEMOCRAT FOR PRESIDENT!

"In less than a year in office Johnson has proved himself a very effective President. He has led the country out of the deep shock of the Kennedy assassination. Congress responded to his leadership with a striking record of constructive legislation, notably the Civil Rights Act and the tax cut. In a few strokes such as his first budget and the rail settlement, Johnson allayed the traditional mistrust of business toward a Democratic administration. He has shown generally good udgment in foreign policy and has begun to find the consensus that will keep the country unified in the fact of its perils and opportunities. We think he deserves his own full term as President. We also applaud his choice of a man of presidential caliber, Hubert Humphrey, as his vice-presidential candidate."

OBITUARIES

● NETTIE MAE BLANCHARD

Services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the Proctor Funeral Home, Tecumseh, for Mrs. Nettie Mae Blanchard, 84, who died at 4:20 p.m. Tuesday at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

She came to Tecumseh in 1950 to make her home with her son, George, 5914 Rogers Hwy.

She had been in ill health for nine months.

Born in Detroit March 8, 1880, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atwood.

She married Walter F. Blanchard Sept. 12, 1901, in Detroit.

Her husband preceded her in death July 7, 1937.

Mrs. Blanchard was a member of the Methodist Church.

Besides her son, Mrs. Blanchard is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Helen Weber, of Detroit, 10 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by two sons and two sisters.

The Rev. Donald Porteous will officiate and burial will be in Michigan Memorial Cemetery in Flat Rock.

● STEVE ANDREW VARGO, Sr.

Services will be held Thursday at 10 a.m. at St. Elizabeth Church for Steve A. Vargo, Sr., 55, who died Oct. 26 at 7:30 p.m. at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

A patient for 11 days, Mr. Vargo had been ill for about a year during which time he was hospitalized several times.

Employed by the Tecumseh Products Co. for the past 24 years, his home is at 2412 Occidental Hwy., Adrian.

Born Oct. 30, 1908 at Eleanor, Pa., he was the son of Mike and Rose Szabo Vargo.

He married Julia Fekete Sept. 3, 1932 in Beauty, Ky.

Mr. Vargo is a member of St. Elizabeth Church.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Steve Andrew Vargo, Jr., Adrian and Louie E. Vargo, Marion, O.; one daughter, Mrs. George Bates, nee Elizabeth Vargo, Lompok, Calif. and five grandchildren.

His parents and a brother, Louie Varga, all of Taylor and a sister, Mrs. Thomas Galagher, nee Anna Vargo, of Holland, O. also survive.

One brother preceded him in death.

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins will officiate and burial will be in the Lenawee Hills Memorial Park.

The rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Wednesday evening at the Proctor Funeral Home, Tecumseh.

● MRS. FRANK KISH

Services were held Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Church for Mrs. Frank Kish, 75, of 408 S. Adrian St. who died at Herrick Memorial Hospital at 9 p.m. Sunday.

She had been in failing health for the past year and a half.

Mary, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Meszaros, she was born March 7, 1889 in Hungary.

She married Frank Kish at Powhatan, W. V. Aug. 21, 1909. He died Sept. 12, 1962.

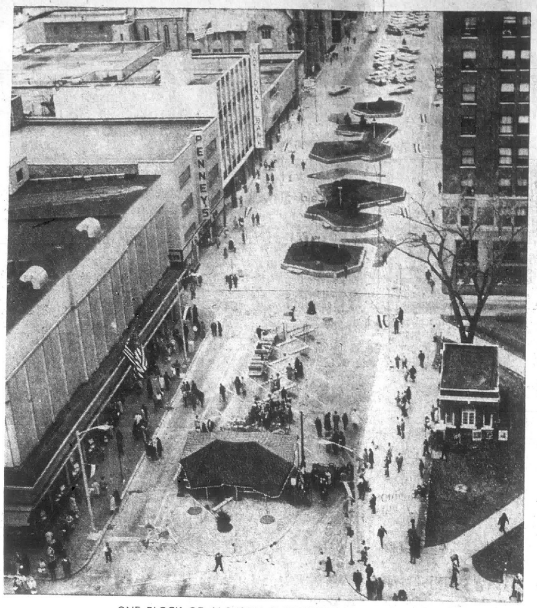
Mrs. Kish as a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

She came to this country early in 1909 and settled in West Virginia, moving to the Britton area in 1930 and to her home in Tecumseh in 1942.

Casper, nee Margaret Sutton Rd. and Mrs. August Maska, nee Mary Kish, of Britton; two brothers, Steve and Joseph Meszaros, and one sister, Mrs. Frank Pozgai, all of Hungary; 13 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins officiated and burial was in the Brookside Cemetery.

The rosary was recited at the Proctor Funeral Home Tuesday evening.



ONE BLOCK OF JACKSON MALL FROM 15 STORIES UP

YOU TOLD US

Dr. Bob Laidlaw and his wife, Della, arrived home Monday afternoon after a three-weeks trip to Japan for the Olympics.

As members of the Amateur Athletic Union of the U. S., sponsoring one of the American athletes, they went aboard a chartered plane.

Della said that it was agreed among the group that Japan just couldn't be beaten for hospitality and facilities.

Staying with a Japanese family, the Laidlaws used the native part of the home, and slept on mats. The other half of the house is typically American, she said.

Enthusiastic about the Olympics, Della said that the opening ceremonies were "indescribable, just breathtaking."

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw stayed in their son's home with the five youngsters while their parents were away, thus making Ayesha, "the busiest grandmama in town."

√

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Driscoll, Mrs. Frank Gray and Mrs. David Crosby visited Pvt. David M. Crosby at Fort Knox, Ky., last weekend.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barron of Kalamazoo were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Barron.

Mrs. John Eddy Saturday evening. Mr. Eddy showed slides of a recent fishing trip in northern Michigan.

√

Mr. and Mrs. David Rainsberger are staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Steffans. Mr. Rainsberger, who is on leave from the Navy, will leave in November for France, where he will be stationed for sea duty. Mrs. Rainsberger plans to stay with her parents until December when she will join her husband.

Switchboard Operators at Reception

A reception given Tuesday night by the General Telephone Co. was attended by 99 switchboard operators.

The affair was held in the American Legion Club Rooms here with Miss Ella Turner, communications service advisor; Kenneth Conway, Tecumseh District manager and Richard Henemyer, Adrian District manager, as hosts. Gene Eaton was master of ceremonies and Judd Perkins, director of public relations, guest speaker.

Youth Hurt as Air Gun Discharges

Mark Service, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Service of 7020 Clinton-Macon Rd., was treated at Herrick Memorial Hospital Tuesday night for injuries suffered when he accidentally shot himself with an air gun.

The boy was shooting sparrows about 6 p.m. in the barn at his home and was attempting to adjust the safety catch when the gun went off. A pellet pierced his right temple. He was discharged from the hospital after treatment by a local physician.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

As the campaign for the United States Senate draws to a close, I would like to reiterate what I believe to be the basic issues between my opponent and me.

I believe that progress in America can come only through individual initiative and personal self-reliance. My opponent believes progress comes from government spending and government paternalism.

I believe in increasing the freedom of the individual. My opponent believes in increasing the power of government.

I believe that the legitimate functions of government should be entrusted to the level of government closest to the people. My opponent prefers to centralize those functions in Washington.

I believe that apportionment of our state should give heavy weight to the boundaries of our political subdivisions and the integrity of local government. My opponent is an integral part of the group of union leaders and Democratic party bosses who forced the Austin-Kleiner gerrymander plan on Michigan.

I believe a Senator must represent and vote for all the interests of his state. My opponent represents and votes for the interests of COPE (Big Labor) and the ultra-liberal Americans for Democratic Action.

I believe that working college students should be allowed to deduct their tuition and fee expenses from their gross income for tax purpose. My opponent, under great pressure from the White House, cast the single vote that killed that proposal in the Senate last February.

I do not believe Michigan's wheat farmers should be penalized to the advantage of those in the west. My opponent voted for the administration farm bill two years ago which did exactly that.

I believe in consulting with the people of Michigan before advocating legislation that would seriously affect their interests. My opponent pushed the National Park Service's Sleeping Bear Dunes bill, a bill than ran roughshod over individual property rights, before he had ever visited the area.

During this campaign I have tried to meet my opponent on these issues where we differ. Four times in a row when my opponent was scheduled to meet me in a program appearance, he failed to appear. On three of those occasions he did not even have the courtesy to notify the sponsors of the meeting that he would fail to show.

Very sincerely yours,
Mrs. Elly Peterson
Republican candidate
United States Senate.

TO THE EDITORS:

Thursday, Oct. 29, the young people of the community will collect pennies for UNICEF. Taking part will be children of the Lutheran, Presbyterian, Methodist, Friends, Baptist, St. Elizabeth Catholic and Episcopal Churches.

Would you bring this important day to the attention of the teachers and school authorities?

They could perhaps focus attention on the United Nations and remind the school children that over 30% of the people of the world go to bed hungry.

The money collected by the UNICEF drive goes not only to help feed these people but to provide health care and medicines.

Thirty per cent of the funds collected are used for educational purposes, teaching the children the basic tenets of good health and nutrition.

In the future they will know why we are sending them this milk to drink!

Sincerely,
Virginia Murray

I just read "Long and Short." It is a masterpiece and an object lesson.

Wrestlers Return for Tecumseh Show

Professional wrestling returns to Tecumseh Saturday, Nov. 7 at the high school gym.

The all-star mat card, sponsored by the G.I. Forum, Adrian Chapter, features eight top stars.

There will be a women's bout, the Blonde Bombshell, Mary Jane Mull, taking on Mona Baker.

These girls have amazing skill, agility and power.

Ricki "The Crusher" Cortez, rugged Mexican badman, will meet European champ Bob Nandor in another feature match.

★

LOUIE KLEIN, master of 1,001 holds, will see action against Bernie Dunn in a heavyweight encounter.

Two of the world-famous Mighty Midgets — Billy the Kid and Sonny Boy Cassidy — will also meet in a "sure-to-be-hilarious" duel of wits and skill.

As a special feature, there will be a Mixed Six Man Australian Tag-Team bout — midgets and heavyweights in the ring at the same time.

Wrong Address Embarassing to Occupant

An incorrect address, given by a man fined for disorderly conduct, has caused embarassment to the real occupants.

Gary L. Bowers told police he lived at 115 N. Pearl St., which actually is Dixon's Photo Studios.

He gave the same address when sentenced by Justice Ernie Oliver and fined $50 on Oct. 17.

Reginald Dixon has asked police to check out the error.

In the meantime, he hopes friends will quit asking him if he has a "roomer".

One Time Ice Man Is Dead

Robert Collins passed away Monday morning in Detroit.

He operated an ice route in Tecumseh for many years during the 1920's and 30's, leaving here to make his home in Ypsilanti in 1942.

Due to his blindness and ill health, he and Mrs. Collins left there a few years to live with their daughter in Detroit.

Services were held in Ypsilanti Wednesday.

Will Hear Laymen

Laymen's Sunday will be observed at the First Methodist Church during the 10 a.m. worship hour.

Maynard Lucas, lay leader with Merlyn Downing, will be in charge of the morning service.

Speakers and their subjects will be:

William E. Steele, "Able to Stand in the Home."

Harry Shaffer, "Able to Stand in the Congregation," and James Hood, "Able to Stand in the Market."

All 11:10 Church School for all ages.

VACATION WANDERINGS — ROADS, II

Well, let's see — last week we ran out of space just as we were nearing the southern end of Colorado's fabulous Million Dollar Hwy. The road is blasted out and hangs on the side of rugged mountains; every curve affords a breath-taking view.

Coming into a high valley, the M.D. Hwy. had one more bit of excitement for us. Sheep! Two huge flocks. Apparently they were down from summer's mountain pastures and getting ready to spend the winter in the lower altitude.

One flock was in a field and never have we seen such a bunch of sheep. The other, not quite so large, was being driven down the road — unlike the mind's picture of a sheepherder, this man was handling his charges from, of all things, a pick-up truck. Unromantic but still exciting to see.

★

AFTER A MUCH too brief few days' stay in Corte, we headed the station-wagon onto the Navajo Trail, route 160, and started east. There still was much good looking ahead of us though. Cortez is in the southwest corner of the state and so we had the whole width of colorful Colorado to enjoy.

Patches of golden aspen trees continued to delight us and along the roadsides, pink, blue, yellow and white wildflowers bloomed. Actually, this was an unexpected bonus; in the springtime we knew about the riot of flowers but who planned on seeing the same thing in September? Wild asters, blue gentian, wild zinnia, yellow snakeweed and the coarse yellow rabbit brush were some of the fall flowering beauties we identified. There were many others we only marvelled over.

★

THE NAVAJO TRAIL runs through a wide variety of country. It whisks travelers from barren desert regions to high wild mountains; it crosses the Continental Divide at Wolf Creek Pass, elevation 10,860 feet above sea level. Film had been running through our cameras at record speeds but here it ground to an abrupt halt.

Rain and fog make for no picture taking and oh, what a shame! This was a beautiful stretch, at least with proper lighting it would have been. The aspen trees were at their peak and large stands of gigantic Colorado blue spruce were absolutely magnificent.

Suddenly we came into a long, heavily-farmed valley. Irrigation was everywhere; Red McClure potatoes are one of the main crops. Indians are used in the harvesting and the little town of Dei Norte on a Saturday afternoon was quite a sight. Our last range of mountains was the Sangre De Cristo, not as high as many, not quite 10,000 feet at the pass, they were nevertheless beautiful mountains and we loved them.

★

IN EASTERN COLORADO the change from mountains to flat plains is dramatically sharp. You are going up and down, around and around one moment and in just a few short miles the road is straight and wide open. From Walsenburg to La Junta is 74 miles of nothing really — no towns and few, maybe two or three at most, cross roads. Quite an experience driving such an empty stretch.

But here the trip home started in earnest. Through Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and finally Michigan. Even though we were travelling after the regular tourist season had ended, we were amazed at how many people were on the road. America is truly on the move and finally people are coming to realize that fall is a marvelous, marvelous time to vacation!

Youths Have Progressive Turkey Feast

TIPTON — A progressive turkey dinner was served to 10 members of the Youth Fellowship and the Rev. Rustin Sattzday night. Mike Wilkin was host for the first course of juice and crackers. The main course and salad were served by Rosalie Spycher and Karen Davenport. Dessert was served at the home of Debbie and Wendy Vollmer.

The teachers and officers of the Sunday School were invited to a staff meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 22 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Platt.

Mrs. Grover Swarts, Mrs. Raymond Platt and Mrs. Merrick Dibble attended the fall workshop in Manchester of the Women's Fellowship of the United Church.

Junior Choir will practice Wednesday at 4 p.m. and the Senior Choir at 7:30 p.m.

The church fair will be held Nov. 4. A turkey supper will be served at 5:30 p.m.

Glenn Slick Enters Tech

HOUGHTON — R. Glenn Slick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Slick, of Ridgeway, is among 967 new students at Michigan Tech for the 1964-65 academic year.

There are now 3,789 students registered on the Houghton and Sault Ste. Marie campuses, with an all-time high of 3,063 enrolled at Houghton.

GM To Pay $112,000

Council took final action October 19 for construction of the eight-inch pressure sewer line from GM's Fisher Body Plant to the city.

Selders Excavating was low bidder for digging and laying the pipe at $23,285.

Union Construction of Manchester was awarded the contract for building the lift station at $27,300.

City Manager Cal Zorn said work on the line will probably start within a week and could be finished by Dec. 1. The lift station to be at the plant, will take a little longer.

★

ANOTHER conceivable delay could arise through placing the casings under the New York Central spurs at Russell Rd. and S. Evans, and under the DT&I at Occidental Rd., next to the plant site.

Estimated total cost for the project is $104,000.

GM told Council that it will offer $112,000 for the lift station and sewer, which will be constructed north from the plant along Occidental, east across Ives Rd., north on N. Center Raisin Hwy., and then east along Russell Rd. to a connection at S. Maumee St.

★

COUPLED WITH Council's action last week was approval of an agreement by the city with the State Health Dept.

Officials, through the agreement, must submit plans and specifications for expansion of the present sewage disposal plant by May 1, 1965, and agree to start construction no later than July 1, 1965.

Completion deadline is July 1, 1966.

Such plans with the health department were necessary for Tecumseh to accept sewage from the new GM plant.

Sewage treatment facilities here are now operating at near capacity.

LIKE MISPLACED LETTER — Progress on construction of Tecumseh's new post office building, across from city hall, has rolled along slowly due to many factors. It's sort of like the letter that fell behind a filing cabinet and is yet to be delivered. Postal workers hope to be in the ultra-modern new quarters by 1965, but they're not placing any wagers on this. Over at the old post office, owner Howard Truesdale has started hard-topping driveways for his new tenant, a laundry and dry cleaning establishment.

Three Discuss Famed Cities of Europe

"European Report" will be the theme of a three-week illustrated lecture series to be presented on the Adrian College campus early in November.

Dr. Douglas MacNaughton, professor of religion at the college, and two students, Beryl Weedman and Delores Stark are making these presentations.

The three will discuss Paris, Berlin, Vienna and Salzburg, Thursday, Nov. 5, at 8 p.m.

Prague, Budapest, Belgrade, Sofia and Bucharest will be featured on Wednesday, Nov. 11, at 8:15 p.m.

The third program in the series will be held on Thursday, Nov. 19, at 8 p.m. and will feature the Soviet Union.

All three programs will be conducted in Room 207 of Peelle Hall of Science.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

Ours is a free and open society. The choice of our political leaders is made by the people, casting their ballots freely and with no dictation as to whom they must vote for.

We pride ourselves on this facet of our democracy: that we listen to the candidates, that we weigh the various issues and the sides taken on these issues and then cast our votes for the candidates of our choice.

One of the features of election-year politics is that, along with the speechmaking by the candidates, the campaign hoopla, etc., there is a plea to every qualified citizen to vote. The plea to get out and vote always accompanies an election campaign. This should not have to be.

★

WE SHOULD not have to browbeat citizens to vote. We should not have to plead, cajole or possibly even remind citizens that they should vote. But we do it anyway.

The war against poverty is much in the news these days but we might well concentrate equal attention on a war against apathy. Americans are notoriously apathetic when it comes to voting.

Americans stay away from the polls in droves when one would expect just the opposite in the world's oldest democracy.

Ours is still a government of public opinion. Our votes are a way of expressing our opinion. Even though the results may not turn out to our personal satisfaction, at least we voted and we exercised an important citizenship right.

★

I WOULD ALSO like to stress the importance of each person's individual vote. The only "lost" vote or the vote not counted is the vote "that could have been:" namely, the vote of a person who stayed at home or who failed to register on time.

Vote November 3.

As one of Michigan's leading newspapers put it: "If this country is worth fighting for, it's worth voting for."

There are many who would envy you this privilege.

More Books Contributed

(Editor's note — Mrs. Harold Wilson, 1010 Red Mill Dr., has announced the addition of two books for what she calls the "Freedom Library." They have been placed with earlier voltmes in the Tecumseh Library where they are available to the general reader. Mrs. Wilson is hopeful persons interested in books pertaining to Americanism, socialism and communism contribute to a fund for their purchase.

The American Story by Garet Garrett.

"First the roundness of the earth had to be imagined."

"Then the New World was discovered by a man who was sure it was not there. He died without knowing what he had discovered."

Thus begins the story of America, from its beginning to gianthood, from gianthood to world empire. It is the improbable story of how a fragment of the human race — a people with nothing in their hands to begin with — conquered a continental wilderness in frantic haste and rose to the top of the world in five generations.

For more than 100 years the Americans were ruled by two passions: one was to be let alone by the world, and one was to be free. Yet their crusading spirit led them into two World Wars.

This is probably, at once, the most inspiring and the most sobering book in our Freedom Library.

The Bill of Rights by Judge Learned Hand.

In these far-from-conventional opinions on the rights of the citizen, Judge Hand draws upon the experience of a long and distinguished career at the bar and on the bench. He writes here on the theory of the federal judiciary in an American committed to majority rule.

Judge Hand limits the permissible scope of judicial review more strictly than has recently been the custom. Consistently Judge Hand would restrict the part played by the courts in governing us, saying, "For myself, it would be most irksome to be ruled by a bevy of plutonic guardians even if I knew how to choose them, which I assuredly do not."

This is a closely reasoned assessment of a current pressure on an important freedom. It demands immediate and thoughtful attention.

Gloria Dei Youths Study Reformation

Among 320 youngsters in the Trinity Lutheran Church of Ann Arbor Sunday, Oct. 18, were 27 from the Gloria Dei Ev. Lutheran Church of Tecumseh. They had assembled for the Luther League district rally.

They were accompanied by their sponsors Mr. and Mrs. Edward Solarski, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rentschler, Mrs. Ronald Boyers and Mrs. Ted Ouderkirk. Theme of the program was "The Reformation."

Jeffrey Scott, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wright was baptized Sunday.

At the Cross of Glory Lutheran Church of Detroit there will be a two-day convention of the LCW, beginning Tuesday. The Gloria Dei Lutheran Church will be represented by Mrs. James Tonneberger, Mrs. Laszlo Gero, Mrs. Fred Weseloh, Mrs. Stanley Rentschler and Mrs. Walter Morden.

Sunday, Oct. 25, the worship service was an observance of the anniversary of the dedication day of the new church. During the service the newly elected officers of the Luther League were installed. They are Ken Wright, president; Jackie Rentschler, vice president; Steve Holler, secretary, and Linda Hollar, treasurer.

Sgt. Browne Participates in Assault

FORT JACKSON, S.C.—Army Sgt. John T. Browne, son of Mrs. Ruth D. Delker, 332 N. Union St., and other members of the 11th Air Assault Division are scheduled to participate in Exercise Air Assault II.

The month-long field training maneuver began last week and will be conducted in the tri-state area of Georgia, North and South Carolina, until Nov. 12.

The division level exercise area will cover 4.5 million acres of privately-owned land.

The purpose of the field problem is to determine whether advances in light aircraft capabilities and new technology can be employed to improve battlefield mobility and combat effectiveness of U. S. ground forces.

Sgt. Browne, a gunner in the division, will undergo extensive training in tactical and support problems during the field exercise.

He is regularly assigned to Battery C, 5th Battalion of the division's 38th Artillery at Fort Benning, Ga.

The 23-year-old soldier entered the Army in April 1960.

He is a 1959 graduate of Tecumseh High School and was employed by P. E. Collier & Son, Toledo before entering the Army.

Ray W. Herrick and four others were recipients of honorary alumni awards from Michigan State University Friday evening. MSU President John A. Hannah presented the citations at an alumni club officials banquet held in Kellogg Center. A native of Muskegon, Mr. Herrick is director of the Mich. Associated and General Telephone, as well as being chairman of the board for Tecumseh Products Co.

Mrs. Bonner Attends OES Grand Chapter

Mrs. Robert Bonner returned Friday from Grand Rapids where she attended the 98th session of Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, of Michigan.

She received from the worthy grand matron in behalf of Tecumseh Chapter No. 51, "The Golden Rule Certificate of Recognition."

This certificate, together with a miniature golden ruler, was presented to 25 chapters for outstanding accomplishments in the promotion of attendance and visitation as sponsored by the public relations committee.

Mrs. Bonner was appointed chairman of the Villa committee of the Grand Chapter by the worthy grand matron, Mrs. Shirley Jones.

Study Group Plans Events for November

Mrs. David Ousterhout was the hostess for a masquerade party of the Tri-Town Extension Study Group Oct. 19. Fourteen members and one guest, Mrs. William Steele, were present.

The group completed plans for two events. The holiday open house will be held Nov. 13 and 14 at the First Methodist Church, Adrian.

A scavenger hunt and Halloween party was held Oct. 24 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Colson for husbands and wives.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Sisson with the lesson on "Family Strength."

Party Honors Child's Birthday

BRITTON — Kim Bruce was honored last week on her sixth birthday at a party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bruce in their home on Palmer Hwy.

Kim received many nice gifts from the 12 little guests.

After several games were played, Mrs. Bruce served birthday cake and ice cream.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Seamark of Ypsilanti visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wiedemayer, over the weekend.

Mrs. William Gibson and Mrs. Melvin Travis spent Wednesday, Oct. 21, in Adrian First Methodist Church, attending the Convention of the Southern District of Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs.

The world's leading acoustical experts made the test.
The U. S. Auto Club certified the results: at 20 mph...at 40 mph...at 60 mph...

The 1965 Ford rides quieter than a Rolls-Royce!

Prior to the introduction of the 1965 Fords, the country's leading automotive writers drove the new models at Ford's top secret Dearborn test track. The first things most of these experts remarked about were the extraordinary quietness and smoothness of the Ford ride. An automotive writer, in Mechanix Illustrated, put it this way, ". . . the first thing that impressed me about the new Galaxie was the quietness. If there is a quieter car made in this country—then I haven't driven it."

Quiet Means Quality

Quiet is a traditional measure of quality in a car. Ford engineers had designed the '65 Ford to the finest luxury car standards.

New Rolls-Royce Silver Cloud III during series of tests.

The experts instantly recognized the dramatic results. Ford chose to make a documented test against the world's finest luxury car—a brand-new Rolls-Royce. Could a Ford match the legendary silence of the car long considered by many to be the best car in the world? If it could, this would be evidence that no one, however skeptical, could shrug off.

Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc., world's leading acoustic consultants to government and industry, agreed to make the test. The tests were supervised by the authoritative United States Auto Club. All cars were tuned to factory specifications.

The Result

The Fords proved to be slightly quieter at all moving speeds.

Of course, no claim is made that a 1965 Ford is a Rolls-Royce. The differences are many, including the nearly $17,000 price of the Rolls-Royce. But Ford does have a quieter ride. That astonishing fact has now been documented and certified by a team of the most reputable judges in the United States today. The official report reads, in part: "At all moving speeds, on both courses, the Fords were quieter than the Rolls-Royces . . . the differences were sufficient to show up clearly both in listening and in the calibrated measurements."

The Difference

The sound level difference, to be sure, is small—but it is there. At 60 miles an hour, Ford was actually 2.8 decibels quieter than Rolls-Royce. At 40, Ford was 5.5 decibels quieter. At 20, Ford was 4.9 decibels quieter. (Decibels are the universally recognized units for measuring the volume of sound.) However small these advantages over Rolls-Royce may be, they are significant evidence of quality—important to anyone buying a car in Ford's class.

Take A Test Drive

A key—and a warm welcome—await you at your Ford Dealer's. The key, incidentally, fits in the lock no matter which side is up—symbolic of the hundreds of advances you'll find in any Ford you road-test. Come in and see for yourself. You'll be pleasantly surprised.

SOUND LEVEL (All readings in decibels)

MPH	FORD	ROLLS-ROYCE	FORD QUIETER BY
20 mph	67.4	72.3	4.9
40 mph	75.9	81.4	5.5
60 mph	82.6	85.4	2.8

TEST CONDITIONS: Dry, level, moderately smooth concrete divided highway; light, quartering wind. All cars operated at steady 20, 40 and 60 mph with all windows and vents closed. Noise level readings taken at car level in right-hand front passenger seat. TEST EQUIPMENT: Bruel & Kjaer precision octave band analyzer, recording through direct observation and through Nagra precision tape recorder. Data expressed in Perceived Noise decibels. Note: Decibels are the universally recognized units for measuring the volume of sound. TEST CONDUCTED on September 24, 1964, by Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc., of Cambridge, Mass., the world's largest acoustic consulting firm. TEST CERTIFIED by the United States Auto Club. CARS TESTED: Two brand-new Rolls-Royce Silver Cloud III sedans, V-8 with automatic transmission, list price in New York $16,655 each. Three 1965 Fords, each with 289-cubic-inch V-8 engine and Cruise-O-Matic transmission: Galaxie 500 LTD, Galaxie 500/XL and Galaxie 500 4-Door Sedan.

President — Mrs. Richard Sharpe

Vice-president — George Lancaster

Secretary—Mrs. Mary Hull

Treasurer—Mrs. Charles Faust

Board members: Wayne Hulett, Mrs. Janet Welch, Mrs. Harold Girback, Ray Williams.

Neighbors of America had donated $25 to the club.

The annual dues of $10 are due now.

Baptists To Select Property

CLINTON — The Clinton Baptist Church made plans at their recent monthly business meeting to locate property in or near Clinton for the purpose of building a new church.

They held their monthly social and potluck dinner Saturday at the Clinton Community Center with 35 attending.

The dinner table was decorated in autumn colors and was centered with a birthday cake of the same colors for Mrs. James Trull of Adrian,

Valicia Antrobus Weds Tom Newbauer

Valicia Vae Antrobus became the bride of Thomas Isaac Newbauer Sept. 26 at the First Methodist Church, Union City, Ind.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Antrobus, of Union City, former Tecumseh residents.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Newbauer of Greenville, O.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of Chantilly lace and bouquet taffeta featuring a bell skirt with a side apron effect sweeping into a chapel train.

She wore a demi-hat of an organza rose surrounded by Chantilly lace leaves edged with seed pearls. It wes enhanced by a double tiered elbow length bouffant veil of French silk illusion.

She carried a white orchid on a white Bible with white lilies-of-the-valley knotted in streamers.

Michelle Dumyer was maid of honor and Steve Newbauer was his cousin's best man.

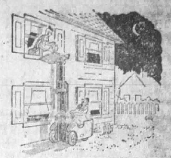
Bruce Antrobus, brother of the bride, and Paul Grim seated the guests.

A reception was held in the church parlor with twin sisters of the groom serving the cake.

The groom is employed at the Union City Body Company and the bride is a student at Muncie Business College.

Infant Baptised at Methodist Church

Kathryn, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Faulhaber, was baptised Sunday in the Methodist Church. Mr. and Mrs. James Heimerdinger are godparents. Mr. and Mrs. Faulhaber entertained the godparents and other relatives at dinner following the service.



"The boss of our shipping department lent it to me for the occasion."

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hoover and son, Ronnie, of Brooklyn, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoover over the weekend.

'Let's Keep Pace' Monday Club Topic

Ken Conway and James McDowell were the speakers at the Tecumseh Monday Club Oct. 19 when "Let's Keep Pace With Science and Space" was the program topic.

Mr. Conway told of the evolution of the telephone from it's beginning to the most modern view-a phone of which a few have been installed in New York City.

He said that the General Telephone Co. is currently installing 250,000 telephones each month.

Mr. McDowell distributed examples of the new math system to emphasize his remarks.

Forty members and guests were served individual pumpkin pies topped with whipped cream from a lace-covered table centered with fall flowers.

Mrs. Floyd Bryan was the hostess chairman with Mrs. Earl Wickwire and Mrs. Charles Stevenson presiding at the service.

Corn Exhibit Wins

TIPTON—Robert Platt placed first with his 10-ear corn exhibit at the Lenawee County 4-H and FFA Fall Crop Show. Mike Jackson placed third and Rick Jackson, fourth.

Robert placed fourth in his 1/100th acre exhibit.

Other members of Tipton Jets 4-H exhibiting their crops were Greg Hardy, Bruce Smith, Larry Ries, Gary Ries and Ron Bolz.

Crop leader is Wayne Jackson. Norman Ries, Wayne Jackson and Roger Gentz are on the crops planning committee for next year.

Sale a Success

Unit 44, Manitou Beach World War II Mothers sold all their poinsettias Friday. The funds are used to assist veterans.

The group hosted a party at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Ann Arbor Tuesday night.

Seeking 1,613

Bell Telephone's Telstar serves as theme for the Lenawee County Farm Bureau "Roll Call" campaign, headed by Lewis Huesink of Adrian. The campaign goal for Lenawee County is 1,613 Farm Bureau family memberships enrolled for the 1964-65 year. Under the leadership of Mr. Reusink, membership workers will be aiming toward this goal and the honorary title of "Tell-Stars" for their starring role in telling the Farm Bureau story. He reports that the communication satellite theme was selected because, like Farm Bureau, "it represents the heights to which a voluntary, private-enterprise effort can soar when people freely cooperate."

Mother-To-Be Guest of Honor

CLINTON — A baby shower honoring Mrs. Jerry Bowman was given Tuesday, Oct. 13 by Mrs. Thoman Klomp in her home.

Fifteen friends and relatives presented Mrs. Bowman with many gifts.

The refreshment table was centered with a large stork and a round cake with baby faces on the top. Ice cream, coffee and punch were served with the cake.

Games were played and the prizes were won by Mrs. Mel Traves, Mrs. Harry Spencer, Mrs. Mike Williams and Ina Bowman.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Bond Bowman, mother-in-law of the honored guest, Mrs. David Keating and Mrs. Glenn Johnson all of Detroit, and Mrs. Steve Rogula of Dearborn.

News From Boysville

By MARTIN WHITTAKER

The Boysville Drum and Bugle Corps, under the direction of Brother Philip Armstrong, C.S.C., went to Kalamazoo Oct. 24 where it marched in the United Nations Day Parade. The parade celebrated also the homecoming festivities of Western Michigan University's football team. After the parade and lunch, the Corps watched the Western Michigan-University of Toledo football game.

√

An atmosphere of lightheartedness and gaiety hangs over the campus as the glad tidings of the forthcoming vacation are announced. The boys will depart for their second weekend at home at 3 p.m., Nov. 6. Check-in will be Sunday, Nov. 8, at 8 p.m.

√

The Aggies of Sand Creek suffered defeat at the hands of a determined Boysville football team last Friday night at Sand Creek. During the game the Fighting Knights boasted a reliable defense, especially in the second half. Boysville's touchdowns were scored in the first half — two on runs by Moe Jacobs and one on a long pass from quarterback Norris McFarland to end Pascal Brown.

The win at Sand Creek was Boysville's second league win in five league games.

Sunday afternoon, Nov. 1, the Boysville Knights will be host to the Ida Bluestreaks in a rare home game on the Boysville campus. The contest is slated to start at 2:00.

√

The Junior Knights of Boysville routed the Tecumseh Junior Varsity football team by a score of 13-0 Oct. 21 on the Boysville gridiron. Touchdowns for Boysville were scored by Bob Schwanki and Nick Orlando.

√

The intramural football program at Boysville has drawn to a close for another season. Brother Aloysius Glombowski, C.S.C., director of intramurals, announced that the Eagles, captained by Rick Cowan, took the title in the major league. Cowan's team basted an 8-0 recrd.

Oct. 25, was highlighted by the annual Faculty-All Star game. Surprisingly enough, the game ended in a 0-0 standoff. Throughout the game the All Stars were hampered by poor blocking, as the Faculty line overwhelmed the offense in the backfield time after time. Unfortunately for the Faculty, they could not get their offense into scoring position.

√

October 21, 35 students from Boysville were entertained by the Tecumseh Players at the Oddfellows Hall in Tecumseh. The occasion was the presentation of "State of the Union," performed by the theatrical group at their new home. The boys wish to extend their thanks for the gracious invitation extended to them.

√

Last Saturday, some 35 students from Boysville saw Michigan defeat Minnesota at Ann Arbor. Most of the boys who attended were members of the Boysville varsity and junior varsity teams.

Girl Arrives

BRITTON — Jamie Sue Smith was born at 7:24 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 22 in Herrick Memorial Hospital in Tecumseh to Mr. and Mrs. Gale Smith. Jamie weighed seven pounds, five ounces. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Spohr, all of Britton.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBY EARLING

THS students are talking politics. Each government class has its own project. In an effort to inform the student body of certain political views visits to the social studies classes and announcements over the Public Address System are used.

The second hour is sponsoring the Socialist Worker, the Socialist, Laborer, and Prohibition Parties merely to fill out a token ballot. The fourth hour is representing the Republican Party and the sixth hour is campaigning for Democratic Party.

A registration program has been set up so that each student may register to vote in his study hall with his library card. Members of the Honors study halls will cast absentee ballots since they are not a part of regular study halls. Students who do not have a study hall in their schedule will cast their ballots in a ward either at noon or after school, depending on the ward in which they "live."

In this way accurate statistics may be determined by an hour or a ward. Voters are urged to decide their ballot by voting in favor of the candidates represented by the class who best presented their positions. Members of the faculty will judge the classes on these points.

This election is conducted entirely by the students and is based on a strict policy of absolutely no "mud-slinging."

This year's magazine sales were the best the school has seen. With $6,709 needed to make their goal and set a record for the highest magazine sales in Tecumseh, the energetic and industrious Juniors, zoomed to an outstanding total of $8,596.86 in 11 days of work.

Five of the six teams reached their team goal of $1,200 to qualify for 16 prizes to be drawn by the team members. High salesman for the entire campaign was Sherry Dinius with $320.52. Second and third high salesmen were John Goodmen with $293 and Linda Gilbert with $185.74.

The Class of '66 wishes to thank the people of Tecumseh and Lenawee County who helped us achieve our goal in the annual Magazine Sales at THS.

√

There will be a Latin Club meeting Thursday, Oct. 29 at 7 p.m. Mrs. Leslie Calhoun will be the guest speaker. All told and prospective members are urged to attend. Important announcements will be made concerning the Banquet.

√

The Science Club held a meeting Oct. 14. Several new committees were formed and Rick Skinner was elected co-chairman for the Science Fair. The club is also planning to sponsor a dance in December.

√

Principal Neville Hart and Student Council president, Tim Dickinson have expressed their sincere thanks to the student body and advisors for the great amount of cooperation and hard work put forth to make Homecoming 1964 a tremendous success. The ratings of the floats were: first, Class of '65; second, Class of '66; third, Class of '67; fourth, Class of '68.

The results of the spirit ratings were: first, Class of '68; second, Class of '65; third, Class of '67; fourth, Class of '66.

√

The Teen Club has elected a committee to make alterations in the upper-most rooms of the Community Center. The club will also help collect money for the United Fund Drive.

The service clubs of Tecumseh are sponsoring a Halloween Dance at the Teen Club Friday, Oct. 30, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. There will be a "live" band and refreshments.

Mrs. Russell Carey is a patient at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, after suffering a fall at her home Oct. 15, about 6:30 p.m. Her right leg is broken above the knee. This is the same one that was injured in a fall in her home some months ago. She was transferred from Herrick Memorial Hospital to Ann Arbor. The room number is 3010.

DAVE HOISTS HIS BALLOON TO CHECK WIND CURRENTS

Balloon Lifts Boy's Hope

"I hope to fly some day," said David Natterstadt as he told about his plans for using a huge weather balloon which he purchased from a company in New York City.

Receiving atmospheric conditions from the balloon through a radio transmitter is the dream that excites the Tecumseh High School senior who will be 18 in November.

He said the balloon will inflate to a maximum of 30 feet in diameter and could ascend to as high as 30,000 feet depending on the amount of helium that he puts in it.

★

THE GOVERNMENT surplus balloon made of neoprene latex weighs about four pounds empty and cost $2.

"A rubber one would have been about $250," said the lad who has always been interested in areo-dynamics.

"This one is tougher and more durable than rubber, too," he commented.

Stored now, the balloon will be filled with helium from the Jackson Welding Supply Co. in Adrian when David gets around to use it in the spring.

★

FOR EXPERIMENTATION this fall, he has used both a compressor and a vacuum cleaner to fill the balloon with air and said that the vacuum was much the fastest.

David is the son of Clarence Natterstadt of Occidental Rd., and the late Mrs. Natterstadt.

He plans to go into the Air Force after graduation from high school.

PATTERSON SCHOOL PATTER

By SHERRIE LEE HART

October's bright blue weather finds Patterson students hitting the books, with new math confusing not only the students, but parents and teachers, too.

In case you didn't know, 234 plus 310 isn't 544 any more. It's 1044 base five. But learning this new method is lots of fun.

● SIXTH GRADE

Earl Green's sixth grade homeroom is planning three parties and has organized into three committees.

Chairmen are Mary Jo Nykodym, David Hall, and Mike Seitz. Each committee will have an opportunity to plan one of the parties with the first to be for Halloween, Friday afternoon.

Sixth grade social studies classes have started their notebooks. The first country studied was Greece. Next will be Italy.

● FIFTH GRADE

Parents became fifth graders again in Mrs. Keith Swain's room. Wednesday and Thursday, parents of the students were invited to attend their child's class in mathematics. The purpose was to learn how to use base 5.

Since so many parents are willing to learn about the program in mathematics, Mrs. Swain thought it might be helpful if the parents visited whenever new materials are introduced.

Three cheers for Mrs. Russell Raymond's fifth grade. With a lot of help from their parents they won the PTA attendance award.

Class officers were elected last week:

President — Gail Kennedy
Vice-president — Greg Brown
Secretary — Rick Bunch

Plans for their Halloween party were made with Mrs. Raymond in secret.

The class is expecting big things of their VIP's. The room's all ready with spooky decorations. On the front board in spooky letters are the words, "Be Good Goblins."

Mrs. Raymond, are you trying to brain-wash the group?

● FIRST GRADE

There are 30 children in Mrs. Doris Heckert's first grade, all enjoying their new reading series.

They also like the new math book and have been doing a great deal of arranging in sets or groups, so that they can recognize the number in a set quickly.

The room is decorated with jack-o-lanterns, owls, scarecrows and they plan to make a crayon wash picture by coloring a picture free-hand and then washing over it with black water paint.

Mrs. R. C. Osburn's first grade group enoyed reading "Big Red Book" about Tom, Betty and Susan and are learning to write number words and some short sentences.

On the blackboard a large cardboard witch watches over activities, while she stirs her kettle of words.

√

That's all from Patterson this week, but before closing here's loads of thanks to Thomas Gillam and all the teachers for their help. Thanks to The Herald for this opportunity to report on school progress and activities.

Camp Session for Girl Scouts to Be 6 Weeks

The Irish Hills Girl Scouts Council has decided that the season of Camp O' The Hills on Wampler's Lake will be extended from four to six weeks next summer.

A waiting list this year prompted the action.

A special Brownie unit will be set up at camp for a one-week period. All other Scouts attend for two-week periods.

A Council-wide sale of official Girl Scout Calendars will be held Nov. 16 to Dec. 1.

Among those recently named to the by-laws committee were Mrs. Stanley Kruse and Mrs. Truman Rentschler of Tecumseh.

● SPANISH

Fifth grades have begun using conversational Spanish, playing bingo in the foreign tongue. If they need a new card or more markers or even want to yell, "Bingo", they must speak in Spanish.

The children agree that this is a pleasant way to learn a language.

By Deborah Zimmerman

√

● COLLECTIONS

Even the third graders are getting into the act of collecting things. They are busy picking leaves, which they find around home and school.

Their enthusiasm does not stop there, however. Some more eager students have even collected seeds, berries, and bark, not only from trees, but bushes, too.

By Michael Jacobs.

√

● GOLD, ZINC, COPPER

Eighth graders are involved in studying the elements, bringing in samples of gold, zinc, copper and lead.

They are being displayed in the classroom.

By Ann Beardsley and Anthony Davila

√

● MODERN MATH

Parents of St. Elizabeth's students came to school Oct. 14 to learn the fundamentals of modern math, which their children now study.

Instructor for the evening was Sister Catherina, O.P., who is a professor of mathematics at Siena Heights College.

By William Holmes.

√

● SCRAPS AND MORE SCRAPS

What's this rumor about scraps covering the desks of the fourth graders.

Well, it's true. Little pieces of cloth, paper, ribbon, yarn, and even buttons are being put to creative use.

The fourth graders are busy making puppets.

By Mary Young.

● ART PROJECTS

Sixth grade students made art projects, which pertained to their geography studies of the British Isles. It was a chance to show their artistic and creative ability as they chose from a wide variety of ideas.

Some of the finished projects were map picture puzzles, homemade doll costumes representing the dresses of the British, Scottish, and Irish people, informational booklets on products of the British Isles.

For an added attraction, one student prepared to do the dance of the Scottish people.

● POLITICAL DEBATE

Tensions mount as the eighth grade's mock election draws closer.

In keeping with campaign activities, two junior politicians debated — Thomas Rohrer, representing the Republican forces, and William Whiting, representing the Democratic.

By Carol Riordan and William Whiting

√

● LANTERNS

St. Eliabeth's has been keeping a fast pace. While learning vowel sounds and word pronunciations, the first graders still found time to make Halloween lanterns.

The second graders are busy with reading and writing, but they still found time to collect interesting specimens for science.

Fourth graders, working hard on modern math, for fun are making puppets.

TOUCHDOWN PASS — Halfback Don Baird snagged three passes from Jeff Osburn against Airport Friday night, one for 16 yards and Tecumseh's second score.

TOP GAINER — Speedy halfback Tim Collins, workhorse of Indian ball carriers, gained 92 yards against the Jets Friday night, averaging over five yards a carry and one touchdown. Collins is Tecumseh's scorer in a fine 5-1 season so far.

LOOKS GOOD — This erial from quarterback Jeff Osburn to Tim Collins looks good but just failed to connect. Fullback Gregg McEnroe, who scampered 33 yards for a third quarter score watches as Collins attempts to take in the pass.

Indians Win Fifth

But Airport Almost Pulls Huron League Upset

By JIM LINCOLN

A far-better than expected Airport 11 battled the Tecumseh Indians here Friday night before yielding, 20-12.

What had been expected as a sure victory in the Indians homecoming game proved completely different as the Jets rallied for two touchdowns in the final quarter to cut Tecumseh's three-touchdown lead.

The Indians dominated the first half, although held scoreless the first quarter. Tecumseh romped in the second period for two scores, as the Indians completely controlled the ball.

Coach Tom Fagan's team rolled up 11 first downs in the first half and gained 190 yards rushing, while the Jets were getting just four first downs — all in the second quarter — and just 16 yards rushing.

Tecumseh's first TD came at the 7:33 mark in the second quarter when Tim Collins broke through left tackle for six yards, capping a 60-yard drive which started when Collins intercepted an Airport pass.

The Indians' second tally also came after an interception, this time by Gregg McEnroe on Airport's 40.

Two pass completions by quarterback Jeff Osburn sparked the drive, the last for the TD to Don Baird from the 16.

McEnroe scored Tecumseh's final touchdown, breaking loose around right end for 3 yards in the third quarter.

THE SECOND half was decidedly different as Airport capitalized on a couple of Indian errors and boomed back into the ball game.

Penalties, fumbles and a partially blocked punt gave the Jets the breaks and incentive to get on the scoreboard after trailing 20-0 with nearly half the final quarter gone.

Taking to the air, Airport's Bob Johnson moved his club 60 yards for its first tally. Less than three minutes later, after two Tecumseh penalties and two Indian fumbles, the Jets broke through to send a Ron Bolz punt out of bounds on the Tecumseh 11.

Three plays later, Johnston passed nine yards to Denny Beaudrie for the final TD.

★

THE JETS never got the ball again, as Tecumseh took a short kickoff and ran out the clock with two first downs, reaching Airport's 21 as the gun sounded.

A questionable clipping call late in the third period stopped one Tecumseh drive. Tim Collins had driven to the Airport one, only to have the pigskin moved back to the 20.

If the Indians had scored here, the game undoubtedly would have turned into a rout.

Poole Gets Three TDs

CLINTON — In quest of their sixth straight win of the year, Clinton's Redskins entertain Grass Lake Friday.

Against an inspired Brooklyn crew last week, Coach Phil Barens' Redskins had a real battle before coming on strong to win, 23-13.

Brooklyn shot into a 13-0 first-half lead before the Redskins could get rolling.

A blocked punt set the stage for the initial CHS score, a 35-yard pass from Dennis Drazic to Wayne Poole.

Then Poole added two more tallies on short plunges and Roger Proctor booted a 24-yard field goal.

Defensively, the Redskins looked impressive, with the trio of Tom Karapas, Terry Brooks and Roger Mann leading the way.

Royals Turn to Tigers When THS Comes to Town

An easy, smooth road to the Huron League championship has vanished for the Tecumseh Indians.

After thumping Grosse Ile two weeks ago, Airport and Blissfield appeared easy pickings, the only obstacles remaining to be cleared for another Tecumseh trophy.

The Jets were not easy, and the Blissfield Royals look even tougher this Friday night at Blissfield.

After a slow start, the Royals are beginning to jell. They shellacked a good Milan team, 33-12, and have been impressive in winning their last two games.

Blissfield, good or bad, has consistently given Tecumseh teams a scrap.

A victory or a tie for Coach Tom Fagan's club would win the title, a loss would end the league season with a first place tie between Tecumseh and Grosse Ile, providing GI beats Milan.

CHS Adds Cross Country to Its Sports Program

CLINTON — This year Clinton High School will compete in a new sports event — cross country.

It is run on a two-mile measured course with seven men competing in each meet. This year eight boys have joined the Clinton squad.

Since this is Clinton's first year they will compete against only a few schools, but it is hoped by next year the team will be ready for interscholastic competition.

Richard Content, head track coach, said John Hoyt and Wayne Johnson have proved to be very good runners. Both can place in the state finals if they choose to compete, Mr. Content said.

Others on the cross country team are: Jim Schuler, George Lancaster, Dennis Bowman, George Nagel, Tom Cey and Bill Hause.

Tories Fall

BRITTON — Summerfield tallied in every quarter as the Britton Tories fell, 26-0.

Britton, still searching for its first win of the year, faces Whiteford this week on the tory gridiron.

The Tories close with Deerfield the following week here.

Pythian Sisters Will Celebrate

TIPTON—The Pythian Sisters order is observing its centennial this year and the Minnehaha Temple is planning to celebrate the occasion with a dinner and costume party Oct. 30 in the K of P Hall.

All Pythians and Pythian Sisters and their families are invited.

Mrs. Wayne McKnight, chairman of the kitchen, said meat and potatoes for the potluck supper will be furnished and guests are to bring rolls and a dish to pass in addition to table service.

★

MRS. LYLE BAILY is chairman of the program and games and Mrs. Charles Driffill of the dining room.

Committee members and hopeful guests will come in centennial or Halloween costume.

At a meeting last week Mrs. Clifford Hardy, representative to Grand Temple gave a report of that meeting in Lansing.

★

MRS. FRANK KEENEY and Mrs. Don Muckenstrum were named as a committee to serve at the UNICEF party.

The Temple voted to serve a dinner in November for the Business and Professional Woman's Club. It was announced that Mrs. Helen Downey of Ann Arbor, district deputy, will make her official visit Dec. 9.

Stauffer Plant Progress Rapid

R. W. Chandler of Stauffer Chemical Company said Friday there is complete construction under way on Sutton Rd. both in the technical center and the plant proper.

"Things are progressing just fine; we have no real problems and construction is on schedule," continued Mr. Chandler. "I wish this weather could hold off for a while but construction will continue all winter regardless of the weather.

"We have a number of contractors, sub-contractors and of course, Stauffer is it's own contractor headed by Ralph Dyar, of Stauffer New York Engineering and Construction Department, and me.

"The cooperation of the people of Tecumseh has been tremendous."

SENIORS DID A TERRIFIC JOB WITH THEIR HOMECOMING FLOAT ON "SPIRIT", EVEN HANDED OUT SAMPLES

Recreation Activities

By DON MOFFATT, Superintendent

● SENIOR CITIZENS

Sixty area senior citizens met at the Community Center last Thursday to enjoy their potluck luncheon get-together. Each one attending furnished their favorite dish, which provided a mouth-watering assortment of food.

Dinner music was provided by Music Inc., of Adrian, with Mrs. William Feight playing several favorite selections on the electric organ.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Feight demonstrated how simple it is to play this small organ, and to prove her point, she assisted some of the group with a basic lesson.

The television corner in the Community Center was also a very popular one since the final World Series game was in progress. It was interesting to note how many St. Louis fans we had in our group.

A short business meeting was held and a committee of all men volunteered to help plan the Halloween Party get-together Thursday, Oct. 29, from 2 to 4 p.m. The committee members are: Orville Laidlaw, Worthy Sell, E. H. McConnell, Herbert Willmott and Floyd Bryan. They will meet this week to finalize the plans for the party.

Card games were played to round-out the day's activities.

The Halloween Party Thursday, Oct. 29, should be a lot of fun. We hope many will come dressed in some sort of costume but it is not necessary. By all means bring along your camera if possible.

● GHOSTS, GOBLINS

On Saturday, Oct. 31, the annual community Halloween activities will be started at the Community Center at 2 p.m., with the costume contest and party for all community little ghosts and goblins. The Jaycee Auxiliary will assist with the party treats and judge the costume contest.

Halloween dance parties have been planned for the community junior and senior students, under the direction of the Junior High Student Council and the Tecumseh Teen Club.

Cider and donuts will be served and prizes will be awarded at both dances.

The senior high dance will be Friday night following the football game, at the Community Center. Saturday night seventh and eighth grades will dance at the Junior High School to record dance.

Attends Session

Mrs. Paul McKenna and Mrs. Edwin Wight attended the Michigan Speech and Hearing Association Conference at Boyne Mountain Friday and Saturday.

Methodist Minister Takes Part in National TV Show

The Rev. Donald C. Porteous, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Tecumseh, was in Dallas, Tex., last week to take part in the taping of a television show to be aired throughout the nation.

The Rev. Porteous was selected because of his part in the conversion of Dr. Ford Philpot, a Methodist minister and evangelist who is editing the television series to be known as "The Story".

When the Rev. Porteous was a pastor in a Newtown, O., church while a seminary student, Mr. and Mrs. Philpot were members of his congregation.

Mr. Philpot lost his job, his home, his self-respect and his friends because of his increased alcoholic tendencies.

Under the Rev. Porteous' guidance the man was converted and decided to become a minister.

He graduated from Asbury College and Seminary in 1950.

In a recent evangelistic campaign in Fort Wayne, Ind., the average daily attendance was 12,000 persons.

FHA Girls Attend Meet

CLINTON—The Future Homemakers of Clinton High School attended the third regional meeting of the Future Homemakers of America, Saturday in the Blissfield High School.

Approximately 500 girls from Lenawee, Monroe, Jackson, and Washtenaw counties met for this all-day meeting.

The theme was "A Look Into Your Future". Mrs. Fielder of Eastern Michigan University was the keynote speaker.

Mrs. Graper, Assistant FHA state advisor; Sue Washburn, FHA state president, Saline; and Karen Clark, state vice-president of recreation, Blissfield, represented the state office.

Mrs. Guy Hoover and Mrs. Harlan Davis accompanied the girls from Clinton.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. Robert LeBaron, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Waters, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Waltz attended the Grand Ole Opry at Cobo Hall Arena, in Detroit Oct. 18.

Newest System of Making Costume Jewelry Explained

Russ Kemp, president of the Mid-West Federation of Mineralogy, will be the speaker for the State Line Gem and Mineral Society meeting Sunday, Nov. 1, at the Community Center.

The session will be from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mr. Kemp and his wife of near Chicago will demonstrate a new method of making solderless jewelry, which she has invented.

The wire lace system is much easier, especially for women.

Richard Matych, president of the local group, has issued an invitation to those interested in any phase of gems and minerals.

★

IT HAS BEEN evidenced in previous meetings that many Tecumseh area people are smitten by the jewelry-making bug.

Members of the American Federation of Mineralogy ,of which the local group is a part, are saving General Mills coupons to establish a $50,000 scholarship for boys and girls who are interested in geology.

They are hoping to build the fund until interest from it may be used for the scholarship.

Members would welcome coupons from Herald readers.

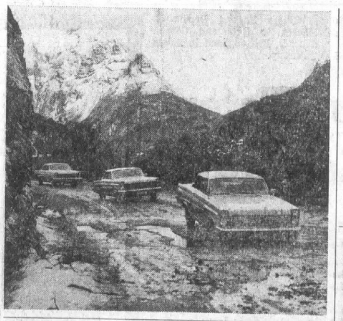
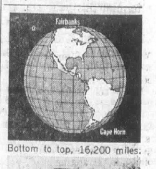
'65 Comet completes 16,200-mile durability run from Cape Horn to Fairbanks, Alaska, in 40 days



Livelier Comet proves once again why it's the World's Durability Champion. Uses showroom models in day-and-night grind from the bottom to the top of the world.

FAIRBANKS, Oct. 22 — Three Mercury Comets today finished a run no car has ever attempted in so short a time—the rugged 16,200-mile grind from Cape Horn to Fairbanks.

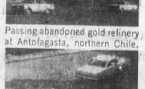
En route, day and night, the cars had no major repairs, just routine maintenance. That's ample proof that 1965 Comets are powerful and tough, not just lively and beautiful.



Bottom to top, 16,200 miles.

In South America, Spring was near. Thaws flooded the roads.

Passing abandoned gold refinery at Antofagasta, northern Chile.



Good city roads were relief for drivers after rugged stretches.

Shades of Daytona! Comet is famous for durability. Last year, specially equipped Comets ran 100,000 miles at Daytona in 40 days.

Regular production-model Comets used, just like showroom Comets. Want to see the car that made it from Cape Horn to Fairbanks? Visit your Mercury dealer's. Check a 1965 Comet Caliente, with smooth Multi-Drive Merc-O-Matic. The only difference: the run cars had an extra gas tank, because service stations are frequently so far apart in South America.

Comets are ready for immediate delivery. No waiting, if you order yours now.

Is saving that much per acre good enough reason for using our Anhydrous Ammonia this fall? We hope so. Particularly when you know that Anhydrous Ammonia from Dow is the most concentrated form of nitrogen you can buy—82%. You can save as much as $6 to $8 an acre by using a fertilizer program we can recommend.

Apply it to soil now in the fall when you're plowing down summer crop stubble. It won't leach out over the winter. Come spring and it will release needed nitrogen into the soil. Crops will develop stronger roots with more resistance to drought. Have a higher protein content for feeding.

Do right by your wallet and your crops with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia. We have it—all you need.

TORY SCHOOL NEWS

By KAY BENEDICT

The students had a vacation Thursday and Friday, October 15 and 16, because of Teachers' Institute. Even though it was a shorter week, there were many things going on in the school.

The B. E. C. Club elected its new officers Tuesday, Oct. 13 after school in the Commercial Room.

They are:
President — Dianne Ivan
Vice President — Linda Clement
Sec.-Treas. — Mary Anne Komon

★

THE CLUB DECIDED to start B. E. C. Bowling Wednesday, Oct. 21, after school at Tecumseh Airport. They talked also about a field trip.

The Student Council discussed the various things that are coming up at the school — dances, assemblies and a book fair. They agreed that the seniors can have a dance Oct. 30.

The end of the first six weeks marking period was Wednesday, Oct. 14 at Britton.

THE TORIES LOST to Ida, 19-13, last Friday at Britton.

The Tories played their best game of the year Friday against Ida.

Ida scored all three of its touchdowns in the first half of the game. Britton's quarterback, Jack Brown, scored our first touchdown in the second quarter. Britton held Ida from scoring in the second half. Fullback Walt Korican scored our second touchdown by catching a pass from quarterback Jack Brown in the fourth quarter and Barry Branham kicked the extra point.

The Tories' next game will be Friday, Oct. 24, at Summerfield.

★

TRYOUTS for the senior play, "The Groom Said No" were held Oct. 20. The announcement of the cast was made the following day over the public address system. Directors are Gay Lovett and Earl Masson.

The cast is Ginger Frazier, Sharen Mann, Mary Anne Komon, Walt Korican, Bob Fox, Mary Lou Hall, Jim Miller, Kay Benedict, Becky Bigelow, Karen Harriott and Bill Kahle.

The play will be given Nov. 19-20 in the Britton High School gym.

★

EVEN THOUGH the week before last was a short school week there were still a lot of things happening.

The BEC Club elected its new officers Oct. 13.

They are:
President—Dianne Ivan
Vice-president—Linda Clement
Secretary-treasurer — Mary Anne Komon

★

THE STUDENT COUNCIL at a meeting Oct. 13 in the Social Science room discussed the various things coming up at school. Some of the topics were dances, assemblies and book fair. They decided that the senior class may have a dance Friday, Oct. 30.

★

THIRTY-FOUR SENIORS and their advisor, William Hetrick, from Britton High School attended the Senior Government Day at Adrian High School.

There was a session for all the students in the morning and in the afternoon there were 30 groups from which the students might choose.

★

THE TORIES will host Whiteford High School Friday, Oct. 30. A dance, sponsored by the senior class, will be held after the game.

The Future Homemakers of America attended the regional meeting at Blissfield, Oct. 24.

Report cards were handed out to all Britton students Oct. 21.

The BEC Club bowled at Tecumseh Airport Bowl, Oct. 21. Twenty-one students bowled.

MACON MAXIMS

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

MACON — The story of the old Lake Ridge House or Harmon Hotel was part of the interesting program given Tuesday, Oct. 20 when the Macon Community Club met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hendershot near Brooklyn.

Mrs. Dewey Sturtevant, who showed dance tickets for a party held there in 1886, told of the lively affairs held in the old 20-room hotel which used to stand near the former John Tuefel home at North Ridge Highway and Macon Rd.

Miss Edith Ingersoll of Tecumseh, who for 26 years was a librarian, told of her girlhood dreams of working in "a building filled with books." and of the many experiences she had had.

Melvin Travis spoke of the presidents and Miss Bertha LaPoint of Tecumseh shared some interesting experiences as a teacher.

The program followed a dinner and brief business meeting. Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore was named to act as secretary to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. Ralph Halladay.

The November meeting will be at the Hamilton F. Moore home.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins of Timber Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heilman, Miss Ingersoll and Miss Bertha LaPointe of Tecumseh and Mrs. Marie Lowery and daughter Lynne of Ann Arbor.

Martin Luther Subject of Film

BRITTON — "Martin Luther", a full length feature film, will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 1, in the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, four miles northeast of Britton on Ridge Hwy.

The film tells the story of Martin Luther from the time of his acceptance as a monk into the Augustinian order through his banishment and condemnation by Emperor Charles V.

The public is invited to attend the service.

Mrs. Moore Is Hostess to Extension Club

BRITTON — The L and M Extension Club held its October study meeting at the home of Mrs. Bert Moore, where a noon luncheon was served by the hostess and Mrs. Chester Brown.

Thirteen members entered into the discussion of lessons on "Dressing by Design" led by Mrs. Orris Tubbs and "Family Living" led by Mrs. Martin Ivan.

The group voted a contribution to the Community Fund and also to continue sponsorship of the 4th grade Camp Fire Girls.

Announcement was made by the president, Mrs. Gerald Benedict, of the Silver Tea at Maple Lane Manor Monday, Nov. 2 and publicity plans for the "Holiday Open House," to be held Nov. 13 and 14 in the Methodist Church in Adrian.

The next meeting will be Nov. 20 at the home of Mrs. Tony Ivan.

BRITTON SCHOOL MENU

Nov. 2-6

Monday — Milk, barbecued beef on bun, buttered peas, carrot sticks and pineapple rice.

Tuesday — Pork and noodles, milk, cabbage salad, bread and butter, cheese sticks and fruit cup.

Wednesday — Chile and crackers or choice soup, relishes, bread and butter and peach slices.

Thursday — Goulash, milk, gelatin fruit and vegetable salad, biscuits and butter and cookie.

Friday — Fish sticks, milk, buttered potatoes, relishes, bread and butter and apple sauce.

Tea Is Enjoyable

BRITTON—The annual Mother and Daughter Tea held at the Britton-Macon School Oct. 20 was attended by 250.

The tea is given by the Blue Birds, Camp Fire girls and the Horizon Club, for their mothers, leaders and sponsors.

The honored guests were presented with corsages made by the girls.

Mrs. Martin Ivan introduced the leaders each of whom introduced her group.

The eighth grade Junior High Camp Fire girls entertained with a pantomine skit to a Beatle record.

In the skit were Janet Miller, Kathy Auten, Karen Henning, Joanne Henning and Dennise Ivan.

Ridgeway Dance Profits $22.82

A dance sponsored by the Ridgeway-Macon Area PTA Saturday in the Ridgeway School gym drew students, their families and the public. Profits totalled $22.82.

Winners of the twist contest were Steve Osborn, Tom Osborn, Lorraine Ruhl and Cheryl Mull.

Eighty tickets were sold at the door, and more than 80 children were present.

Refreshments of cider, coffee, doughnuts, popcorn, fudge, sandwiches and spook favors were served.

The PTA has 97 members.

Duets Class Meets

BRITTON — The Duets Class met Wednesday, Oct. 21, for a potluck supper in the Fellowship Center of the Congregational Christian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Tucker were hosts and served the 11 members and three guests.

A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Paul Rowlands.

The group voted to continue to sponsor the ninth grade Camp Fire Girls and pay the dues for two sponsors and one leader.

A special guest will speak at the November meeting and members are asked to bring guests.

Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks led the devotions and read from a book by Bud Collyer, "Thou Shall Not Fear".

Mrs. Sevey Honored

CLINTON — Mrs. Harris Sevey, who for three years has maintained a 55-pound weight loss, was honored Thursday night at a TOPS regional meeting in Jackson.

A member of the Clinton chapter of TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly), Mrs. Sevey, who now weighs 150 pounds, achieved her goal of a 55-pound loss in 1961. She has now received a KOPS (Keep Off Pounds Sensibly) rating.

Mrs. Sevey was one of eight Clinton women to attend the dinner meeting and "graduation" in Jackson. Others were Mrs. Wilbur Koons, president of the Clinton chapter Mrs. Dan Jannuzzi, Mrs. Lawrence Tirb, Mrs. Everett Manchester, Mrs. R. C. Stauffer, Mrs. Georgia Pratt and Mrs. Rosamond Jenkins.

The group met Tuesday night with the Irish Hills TOPS Club at Cambridge Junction.

Church Women To Mark World Community Day

World Community Day will be observed Saturday, November 6, in the Methodist Church under the sponsorship of the United Church Women of this area.

The subect for the service is "Nations in Community — A Channel to Peace". Members of the participating churches will take part in the presentation of the program.

The meeting will be held from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. with tea being served at the close of the service. A nursery will be provided.

Foundation Solicitation Succeeding

BRITTON — Thirty-five volunteer solicitors for the Britton-Macon Community Fund Foundation met last week with the Foundation Board and turned in a total of $860.

Board members believe that with the money not yet turned in and with the outstanding pledges the goal of $1,700 will be met.

LOCAL BUSINESS

Newspaper advertising men may appear to make excessively strong claims about the impact of advertising on the economy of a community.

Actual case histories, however, sometimes make the claims appear to be understated.

For instance, the entire rebuilding of a Texas city may be traced to newspaper advertising.

Recently, when an Air Force Base closed in Harlingen, Texas, 6,000 people left the area. Bad weather ruined the citrus and truck farms. The outlook for the city was bleak.

But the city still had something to sell — a good climate for retirement and a lot of empty houses.

Newspaper ads run in 22 publications provided the answer. Advertisments which cost only $5,000 brought 3,000 inquiries to the chamber of commerce.

After two years of newspaper advertising the vacated homes have been filled with permanent residents. And the city has recovered nearly all of the population lost by the phase-out of the Air-base.

This, of course, is a dramatic, obvious account of the effect of newspaper advertising.

But less dramatically, in communities throughout the country, strong retail advertising of progressive merchants is keeping thousands of communities alive in the face of growing encroachment from metropolitan centers.

SUPPORT
President
Lyndon B. Johnson and Senator
Hubert H. Humphrey

We need a Democratic team in Michigan which will work with the President and Vice President to bring to Michigan our full share of the nation's all-time peak prosperity.

Elect Neil Staebler Governor

He Can Do More For Michigan

His respect for the opinions of others, his high regard for the Democratic process and his belief in "cooperative leadership," plus his close relationship with Congress and the White House, combine to qualify him admirably to be an outstanding Governor of Michigan.

Re-Elect U. S. Senator Philip A. Hart

His vision, leadership and integrity have made him one of the most respected U. S. Senators in the nation. His devotion to the cause of "Truth in Packaging" has earned for him the title "The American Consumers' Best Friend."

Elect Wes Vivian as Congressman

(Second District)

Mr. Vivian says: I think it's time to begin saying "YES." YES to facing the problems in this district and in the country. YES to working out solutions to those problems. And YES to responsible, responsive representation for the Second Congressional District.

Elect these Legislative and Lenawee County Candidates

State Senator, 18th District — William F. Dannemiller
State Representative, 40th District — Hugh Flippo
State Representative, 51st District — Brian Lavan
State Representative, 49th District — Robert W. Cook
Lenawee County Sheriff — Otis L. Sumner

Esther Haft Marries David Langham

Esther Marie Haft and David John Langham spoke their wedding vows Oct 24 in a ceremony performed in Clinton's United Church of Christ.

The Rev. Paul McKenna performed the rites.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haft, 3717 Clinton-Macon Rd., and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Langham, 706 Outer Dr.

Mrs. John Fox presented nuptial music on the organ, accompanying soloists Linda Corwin and David Fox.

Seven - branched candelabra with lighted tapers flanked the kneeler and a fan-shaped vase filled with white gladioli and pompons enhanced the altar.

Palm foliage outlined cathedral candles and stephanotis along the chancel rail.

★

THE BRIDE entered the aisle on the arm of her father in a floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace fashioned with fitted bodice, sabrina neckline and long, tapered sleeves.

The back of the bouffant skirt featured a panel of lace and tulle ruffles which cascaded from the waist into a chapel train.

Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion was secured to a crown of pearls and sequins.

She carried an arrangement of white petite carnations while Snow Song supreme roses accented with clusters of white grapes.

★

MRS. CHARLES STEFFENS, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor in a street-length dress of cranberry red chiffon velvet with scoop neckline, long fitted sleeves and a softly-pleated bell skirt.

She wore a matching Dior bow in her hair and carried peppermint stick carnations with red satin leaves and clusters of white pearl grapes in a white wicker basket.

Joan Langham, sister of the groom, served as bridesmaid, attired identically to Mrs. Steffens.

Seaman Apprentice Larry Harper, home from his base in San Diego, was the best man.

The 200 guests were seated by Charles Steffens, brother-in-law of the bride, and Richard Johnson, friend of the groom.

Tom Simmons served as groomsman.

★

A FOUR-TIERED cake flanked by silver candelabra centered the bride's table for the reception in the church basement.

The table was skirted with nylon net over taffeta, accented with garlands of stephanotis and red satin ribbon.

Those assisting were Cherryl Faust of Manchester; Ruthann Haft of Clinton; Susan Haft of Ypsilanti; June Kurowicki of Ann Arbor; Susan Whitney of Tecumseh and Judy Ruttkofsky of Onsted.

Other guests attended from Holland, Lansing, Detroit, Milan, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Willis, Manchester and Tecumseh.

★

THE BRIDE is a graduate of Clinton High School and her husband is a graduate of Tecumseh High School.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the home of the groom's parents Thursday evening.

The couple will make their home at Rudd's Trailer Park, Route 1, Tipton.

MRS. DAVID LANGHAM

MRS. LARRY HUMMEL

Nancy Nortley, Larry Hummel Exchange Vows

Nancy Ann Nortley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Nortley, 230 Ann Arbor Rd., Manchester, became the bride of Larry R. Hummel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hummel of Britton, Oct. 24 in the Norvell Baptist Church.

The Rev. Stanley McKenzie of Lansing performed the candlelight double ring service.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta with scalloped Sabrina neckline trimmed with pearls and sequins. Her veil of English illusion was attached to a crown of pearls and sequins.

She carried a white Bible topped with orchids and white pompons.

Ruth Townsend of Ypsilanti was maid of honor in a floor-length gown of pink with matching headpiece. She carried a cascade of pink roses.

Dean Conrad of Ann Arbor served as best man and the guests were seated by Edward Faust of Britton and Gary Naugle.

A reception was held at the Norvell Town Hall.

The couple will make their home in Milan.

40 Migrants Return Home

Some 40 migrant workers left for the deep South last week with pleasant memories of the kindness shown them by members of several local parishes.

The Negro families had been working for two months in the potato fields of growers near Clinton and Manchester.

Providing hot suppers for them each Monday night for the past seven weeks were members of the various churches. The meals were particularly appreciated since the migrants left the fields at 8 p.m. A worship service followed the supper.

★

CLOTHING was made available at a nominal fee under the direction of the Lenawee County Migrant Assn.

Recreation was provided on two nights and refreshments were served in the camps on three occasions.

Gifts of clothing made it possible for two small girls to attend the Clinton schools. Hymnals were given to several migrants.

Churches participating were the First Methodist, Presbyterian, St. Peter's Episcopal and Gloria Dei Lutheran of Tecumseh; First Methodist of Macon and First Methodist of the Britton-Ridgeway parish.

Many individuals furnished food and clothing including members of the First Baptist and Friends Churches of Tecumseh.

★

OTHER SERVICES for the migrants in which the churches participated included a lunch program held for three weeks in the day care center in Ridgeway and suppers held at the Britton church.

The First Baptist Church served a camp on Townline Rd. for three weeks and Mrs. Robert Ries of the Presbyterian Church, assisted by Mrs. Charles Bishop of the Ridgeway-Britton parish, for six weeks taught sewing at a Spanish-American camp near Britton.

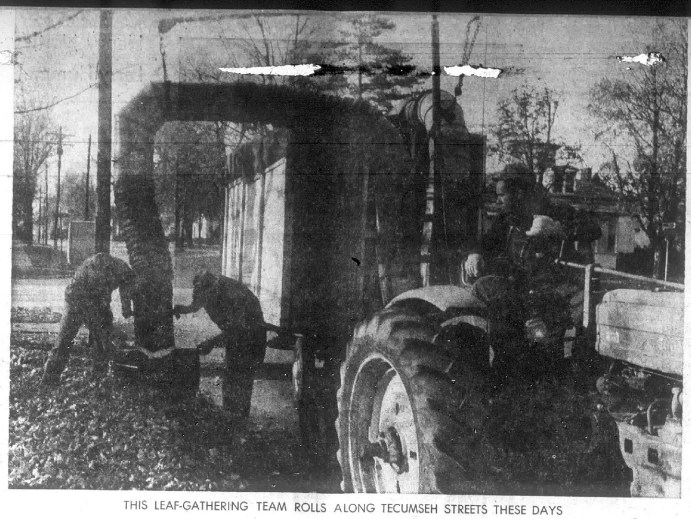
Hey, Mr. Kilmer

PAGING JOYCE KILMER

Nature makes the beavers build mud huts,
Squirrels, quite independently, store nuts,
Pussycats, in habits are quite neat,
Lions, on their own find meat to eat,
Fish find other fish to gobble up,
Bear cubs don't need me to hold the cup,
Oceans, without aid, make dazzling waves,
Salty winds, alone can carve out caves,
Birds, unhelped, build nests among the eaves,
Why, on earth, can't trees sweep their own leaves?

Lyla Blake Ward, in The Wall Street Journal

RUBE GOLDBERG RIG — Wes Haeussler (left) came up with an idea which helps speed collection of leaves by city crews. There's a 55-gallon drum, sliced open and attached to a giant hose that ends in a wagon. A reverse-cycle blower sucks up the leaves and blasts them into the carrier, which is pulled by a conventional tractor. Assisting Mr. Haeussler is Joe O'Neil while David Williams handles the tractor.



THIS LEAF-GATHERING TEAM ROLLS ALONG TECUMSEH STREETS THESE DAYS

Methodists Enjoy

Spooks, skeletons, and scarecrows turned the social room of the Methodist Church into a haunted place Saturday evening for an old fashioned Halloween party.

In keeping with the "getting to know you better" theme the event was held for members of the church and friends.

Approximately 20 couples qualified for attendance by meeting the requirement that the combined ages of each couple be less than 100.

The Rev. and Mrs. Donald Porteous, attired in costume, provided hilarious entertainment.

Cider, doughnuts, coffee and candy were served by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Younglove and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hildebrand.

Mrs. Harry Stanifer was in charge of publicity for the party. Another meeting of the group will be held Jan. 16.

Meader Hailed by Halleck

Representative Charles A. Halleck (R. Ind.), Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, veteran of many a political battle, recently had this to say about our Representative GEORGE MEADER:

"GEORGE MEADER is one of the most diligent members of Congress, especially in the matter of representing the people of his District . . . He is a man not afraid to stand up and be counted when the going is rough . . . ."

Republican Congressional Committee, Joe Hooper, Chairman

Pol. Adv.

This vital public service message is reprinted in part from the Pompano Beach, Flori da SUN-SENTINEL, July 24, 1964

MR. PRESIDENT, JUST WHERE ARE WE HEADED?

Dear Mr. President:

I have a question, Mr. President, that takes more of a man than I to answer.

Mr. President, I have a son, an avid reader of history and current events and in his pursuits to learn about this great country of ours he has become confused.

He has been brought up in the tradition of God first, country second and family third; he has been taught the stars and stripes is a symbol of freedom; that the Fourth of July is to be celebrated, not tolerated; that just because goose bumps jump out all over his body when the National Anthen is played is no indication he's a "square" or "some kind of a nut"; that we are a strong, free nation, a nation where the majority not a minority rules; that we are a republic of free enterprise where a man or woman, regardless of race, color or creed, can rise as high as the heavens if he has the ambition and if he is willing to make the necessary sacrifices; he has been taught that freedom and equality are earned, not legislated or handed out on a silver platter.

HE HAS BEEN TOLD of the hundreds of thousands of young Americans who have given their lives on bloody battlefields across the globe so that he might enjoy his freedom and that someday, when it is needed, he, too, must be ready to answer the call of his country.

The heritage of Americanism runs deep in this boy, Mr. President.

He takes pride in recalling the winter at Valley Forge; the courage of patriots at the Battle of New Orleans; the charge of Teddy Roosevelt up San Juan Hill; the storming of the trenches in France! the heroic defenders of Bastogne; the raising of the flag at Iwo Jima; and the gallant stand at Pusan in Korea.

By modern standards, I guess this son of mine and myself would be labeled extremists — he loves his country and his flag. And next to God, there's no man like Uncle Sam.

But now, Mr. President, the boy can no longer accept this fantasy called patriotism. The more he reads, researches and studies, the more confused he becomes.

★ ★ ★

THE QUESTION THAT HAS HIM STYMIED, Mr. President, is, "What does the United States of America stand for now and where is it headed?"

I cannot answer that question in all fairness to the boy, Mr. President.

Am I to tell him we have become a country, where minority groups make the decisions at the expense of the majority?

Am I to tell him we have become a nation forced to accept the dictates of mob violence?

Am I to tell him that chains have bound the free enterprise system and that a man can no longer operate his property, his business as he thinks best without government intervention?

Am I to tell him "protector of our enemies" is rapidly replacing "land of the free, home of the brave," as our national slogan?

★ ★ ★

RECALLING PAST ADMINISTRATIONS' deeds at the Republican National Convention sent the boys scurrying to his books to attempt to find for himself questions and charges made for and against the past 25 years of Republican and Democrat administrations.

History shows, Mr. President, that during the years of Franklin Roosevelt, Harry Truman and Dwight Eisenhower, this country won the wars but completely capitulated at the peace tables.

Then along came John F. Kennedy, a dynamic young man who was going to get this country moving again, make it strong, the last bastion of democracy. His words were strong, Mr. President, but he, like his predecessors, carried a weak stick.

JACK HORD, Sun Sentinel Managing Editor

(A young American boy watching a national political convention for the first time in his life asked his father questions concerning the operations and history of this country. The concern of this young boy for his country led his father, Jack Hord, managing editor of The Sun-Sentinel, to write this thought-provoking story in letter form to the President of the United States.)

Are you going to follow their examples, Mr. President? I can't speak for you and my son wants to know.

We are a strong and mighty nation, our representatives in Congress tell us. We are unmatched in weapons, our executive branch shouts. We are a God-fearing nation, honored by laws and traditions of our ancestors, the historians write.

Then, if this is true, Mr. President, explain to my son why we gave away eastern Europe to the Communists at the Yalta conference under Mr. Roosevelt; explain to him why we fought a half-way war in Korea under Mr. Truman; why we coddled the Red Chinese, allowing them to violate all agreements while we stood helplessly claiming "foul" and yet did nothing while young American men were slaughtered, dying not knowing what they were fighting for or why they were fighting.

★ ★ ★

Atempt to reason with this boy, Mr. President, how the State Department allowed Communists to gain high positions in the foreign diplomacy field. It's in the history books, Mr. President, but it doesn't explain why.

Tell this young American why, Mr. President, that after the Federal Bureau of Investigation had pinpointed men of high rank in our government who were Communists or had Communist affiliations, that nothing was done to remove these cancers imbedded in the working mechanism of a free country.

★ ★ ★

AND EXPLAIN TO THIS BOY that when these conspirators were arrested they were eventually freed by decisions handed down by the U. S. Supreme Court.

This is another confusing issue, Mr. President, the Supreme Court.

Since this country was founded, the historians relate, the high court has influenced the branches of the government with decisions that aided, not hindered independence and respect for human rights and liberties.

But the sands of time have shifted. And with the shift the Constitution of this country has become merely a scrap of paper, used to twist and squeee from ink dried long ago, interpretations that are not to be found in those finely-written words.

And since 1954 when Earl Warren was appointed chief justice of this hallowed court, the record indicates a trend towards anti-God, pro-Communist favoritism as a result of the courts' decisions.

Mr. Warren, particularly has supported the Communist cause in nearly all cases appealed to the majestic court. Yet, this country has no recourse to correct what seemingly appears to be a deficiency in our form of representative government.

★ ★ ★

BUT THINGS WERE GOING TO BE better when Mr. Kennedy became president, my son had read. But did they, Mr. President? We continued to help our sworn enemies who promised to bury us. We sold them wheat and strategic materials, built power plants behind the Iron Curtain, sold them jet fighters.

Why, Mr. President, in the past 20 years, you couldn't tell a Democratic president from a Republican president.

And Mr. Kennedy, as likeable as he was, made enemies by making possible more freedom for the minorities and less freedom for the majority. He alienated business, the backbone of this free enterprise form of government.

And please explain to this boy, Mr. President, that at a time when our country needed more courage and less profile, we allowed the Berlin Wall to be built; that we permitted 1,400 young Cuban patriots to go ashore at the Bay of Pigs, one eye on the enemy and one eye scanning the skies for promised air support that never came?

And tell this young patriot why our State Department financed the Castro revolution in Cuba when as early as 1948 U. S. officials knew he was a Communist when he led the Red-inspired revolt in Bogota, Colombia.

★ ★ ★

THESE ARE THINGS I CAN"T EXPLAIN to my son, Mr. President. I trust that you may have the answers.

History records the progress we have made in science, medicine, engineering and the professional arts, but it seems that in government we have switched from the basic concepts this country was founded upon.

And frankly, Mr. President, I think that at this moment, the majority of 190 million Americans would rather "fight than switch" to Communism.

My son wants to know what he can do for his country, Mr. President. There was a time when I could tell him but now I cannot.

★ ★ ★

THE ONLY ADVICE I CAN GIVE HIM is simple and to the point:

"Pray, my son. Pray that in some way, some manner, some miracle, our nation can be restored to what it once was — a nation of strong, free, independent, self-sustaining people that cannot and will not perish from this earth."

Sincerely,
Jack Hord

This editorial has been reprinted in the public interest . . . in the belief that the questions pose d by Mr. Jack Hord are those which Americans should expe ct both Presidential candidates to answer before November 3.

VOICE of THE HERALD

One Editor Favors Barry . . .

Election of Barry Goldwater next Tuesday to the presidency of the United States is unlikely, so unlikely that it would be rated the biggest political upset in our country's history.

This conservative candidate has found it difficult to gain sufficient support — even from some of his Republican colleagues. The late Robert A. Taft, who never quite won his party's nomination, had conservative views which proved fatal in his nomination campaign in 1952.

However, it is this writer's view that the country could certainly afford a president who appreciates the rights and freedoms of the individual, one who recognizes the rights of state and local government, and a president who would stem the flow of handouts from Federal government.

If the present flow of socialistic legislation is not stopped, the United States will soon become a socialistic state, where the Federal government will provide for our entire welfare.

The individual, along with business and farming — which is part socialized now and governed by Federal regulations — will lose the freedoms and rights on which the United States was founded.

A switch to Goldwater next Tuesday could place us on the roadway of principles which we are gradually losing.

He deserves a chance and an opportunity to lead this nation.

. . . One Favors Neither

Invitations to dinner sometimes are supplemented humorously with "if you don't mind taking potluck."

Well, the voter this year, in the choice for a president, is having "to take potluck."

It's a tragedy that 1964 will go down in history as the campaign of small minds, much mud-slinging and mediocre candidates.

Take your choice, they're both second-stringers.

Let's hope this never happens again.

Go with George

Not too often is a state so blessed with such a well-qualified and dedicated governor as Michigan is with George Romney.

In less than two years, he has taken Michigan from the role of a debt-ridden state, losing industry because of anti-business attitudes in government, to a leader in the nation.

His reign has seen 100,000 new jobs blossom in Michigan, a multi-million-dollar debt turned into a $50 million surplus.

But most important, George Romney has given our state a bright, new image. New industry has flooded in, much as a direct result of Michigan's changed attitude in Lansing.

We don't have to look far to see this happen. Just regard the Tecumseh Fisher Body and Stauffer Chemical plants, which will soon mean 1,700 new area jobs.

Naturally, we think George Romney should be re-elected Tuesday.

In fact, it's vital that we support him to offset metropolitan Detroit balloting, where too many citizens will follow the dictates of the CIO and go straight Democratic.

We also hope that voters will see fit to click machine handles over the following:

- ► Allison Green for Secretary of State
- ► Meyer Warshawsky for attorney general
- ► Elly Peterson for United States Senator
- ► George Meader for Representative to Congress
- ► Gilbert Bursley for State Senator
- ► Rollo Conlin for State Representative
- ► John Pingel and Paul Bagwell for Michigan State University Trustees.

Mall Idea Has Merit

For many years, downtown business districts all over the nation have gradually been falling into decay.

Gingerbread buildings that were erected in 1900, traffic and parking facilities designed for a horse-and-buggy pace suddenly are outdated.

Shiny shopping centers, with oodles of free parking in front of modern, brightly-lighted stores make many downtown sections as gay and enchanting as Ma Kettle next to Miss America.

Some towns sit still and gradually die.

A few places have decided to do something about the blight that currently endangers the very existence of downtown business sections.

Latest to join the fight is Jackson, which unveiled the first stage of its new downtown mall last week.

The Herald took a close look at what makes this thing tick. All is not perfect, but it made fascinating investigating and prompts a lone question—could Tecumseh possibly bring itself to this type of action?

★

OUR TWO-YEAR-OLD Master Plan has it down on paper, a comprehensive, 20-year program to beautify Tecumseh downtown, increase its value and tackle a traffic problem, which grows more acute daily.

But, first, let's look at what Jackson is up to.

So far, $70,000 has been spent to seal off two blocks of Michigan Ave. in the heart of the downtown section. The boom of traffic is now gone forever and in place of trucks and cars, there are trees and shrubs. An oasis of curved walks and benches greets the downtown shopper now.

Other stages in future months will broaden the scope of Jackson's Mall with the climax to come when an Urban Redevelopment program, already approved by Washington, is completed at the eastern edge of the shopping section. The downtown Jackson will have the atmosphere of a college campus.

One objection by merchants — loss of parking on Michigan Ave. — was turned into quite an asset. Planners altered the initial arrangement so that there are parking bays at the ends of each block, giving curved drives for passenger loading and unloading and in the center angle parking stalls.

Now, instead of 27 on-street parking places along the two blocks of Michigan, there are 82. Eventually as more off-street parking behind the main downtown business blocks is developed, the bays will be replaced with greenery.

One of the biggest puzzlers that had to be solved was how to re-arrange the flow of traffic. New perimeter state routing of 127 and I-94 has helped. These eliminate all through traffic from Michigan Ave. The two streets north and south of the mall were converted into one-way arteries.

Jackson's Mall has already brought about a secondary effect. Businessmen are hustling about, refacing store fronts and remodeling. Some are tearing down their buildings and erecting new ones.

Actually, this store modernization program will be the most important offshoot. In the long run, attractive, well-stocked stores, with parking nearby, are the magnets which attract shoppers.

We think a study of the Jackson Mall by Tecumseh Civic leaders might be of great value to this community.

They Don't Vote in Town of Over 4,000

(Editor's Note — The return address was 4000 Cooper St., Jackson, Mich. It was from a man who signed his name "Pete 87776 Simer." The covering letter identified him as a convict at Jackson State Prison, serving 12 years for forgery.

By 87776

It was November 27, 1963. Half of my town's 4,700 population jammed the theater. The newsreel showed the assassination of the President of the United States. Many of my townspeople applauded the scene.

No. My town is in Mid-America. Most of its inhabitants are chronic misfits. The name of my town is Southern Michigan Prison.

"He shoulda never been elected," remarked the middle-aged burglar next to me. I knew him well. He was serving his fifth term here.

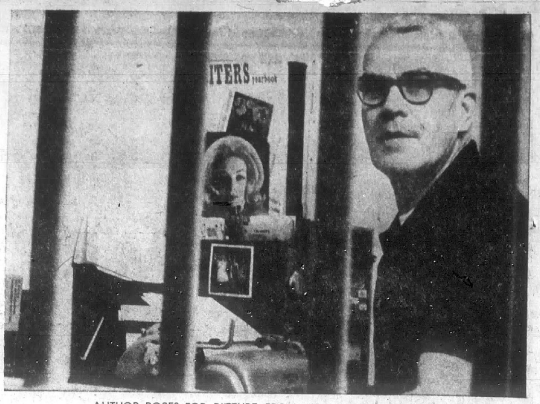
"I take it you voted for Nixon," I said.

"You kiddin'? I never voted in my life. I got sense enough to know no matter who's elected, the best John Q. Public's gonna get is the worst of it. The hell with votin'!"

That's seditious philosophy, isn't it? "The hell with votin'!" means down with democracy, your country, your government and, therefore, every home (where government really begins) in the land.

★

YET, I'VE VOICED such sedition myself. Only it came out something like this: "Couldn't make it to the polls; had other things to do on election day." The reflection lured me into deep concern and held me down with this hard and heavy fact: I was stripped of my voting privileges for many elections to come. What I felt left no room for self-esteem.



AUTHOR POSES FOR PICTURE FROM HIS JACKSON "OFFICE"

As the feature movie ran, I wondered how my fellow inmates felt about not being able to vote. Later, I questioned nearly 300 of them. Almost 90% indicated that they couldn't care less. EIGHTY INDIVIDUALS admitted that they'd never voted. (Could the deeds that landed us here be germane to such disregard for democracy?) Consider these responses to the question: Did you vote regularly when you were free?

Pickpocket (age 50, serving 2-5 years): "I always went to the polls, but not to vote. With everybody in such a hurry to get their voting done and over with, I had easy pickin's."

Habitual drunk (doing 1-2 for non-support): "They'd let us off work in time to make it to the polls, all right. But I'd stop at a buddy's house to talk the election over. There'd be a bottle or two around. And somehow, before we considered all the issues and candidates and decided who would get our vote, it was either too late or I was too drunk to care anymore."

Gambling syndicate underling (age 33, serving 5-10): "The organization always saw to it that I voted; even told me who to vote for."

Vote fraud fall-guy (age 72, serving 1½-2): "Election days was gravy days for me. I always voted. Got five bucks a ballot. Sometimes I made fifty-five, sixty dollars."

AS FOR ME — well, it's occasionally difficult to face the mirror of patriotism and like what you see. I'd often sold my vote as irrevocably as the vote fraud fall-guy had.

My sell-out inducement was a hunting or fishing trip, a lady friend who liked attention, pressing business of assorted kinds. Indeed, I've leaped on every lame and selfish excuse in the American voter's book.

But someday I'll have a chance to prove my determination never again to waste an opportunity to vote. Till then . . .

What about you?

Like many other sheer blessings in America's full-fashioned freedom, the privilege of voting is never completely appreciated until it is lost, I know.

Therefore, I agree with the immigrant who said, "Americans don't adequately appreciate their system of government because they don't understand what it ain't."

However, our Star Spangled Banner waves best when every thread is intact. Similarly, the government it represents needs every vote.

But nobody votes in my town. Nobody may.

What could be worse, patriotically?.

Only your town, where everybody may vote . . . and you don't.

Massachusetts Ballot Breeds Confusion

Anyone who voted or tried to vote in the September 1st primary got a small taste of the confusion, long delays and general snafu that will take place in this state if the so-called Massachusetts ballot plan is adopted.

It was Republican Governor Romney, who pushed the Massachusetts plan through the legislature, who said the radical change in the ballot would be as easy as voting in the primary.

Voting in the September 1st primary was anything but easy. Many voters never reached the polling booths having given up in disgust after hours of voting. Others found that they did not have time to cast a full ballot because of the maze that confronted them when they looked at the ballot.

The confusion in the primary stemmed mostly from the high number of offices — ranging from 40 to 50, and the fact that individual votes had to be cast for each office.

These same factors would be present in a final election held under the so-called Massachusetts ballot plan, except that the scrambling of offices and candidates and the larger vote turnout would create chaos far beyond what happened in the primary.

About three times as many voters will turn out in the final election as usually vote in the primary. This means that persons who had to wait two hours to vote in the primary would be required to stand in line for six hours for the final.

Strict enforcement of the rule limiting each voter to three minutes in the polling place would force many to give up voting on most of the offices. Thus the choice would be between waiting long hours to vote or casting only a partial ballot.

Persons wishing to vote for candidates of one party would have to hunt all over the ballot to find them. With upward of 50 offices to be filled in some areas it would be impossible to vote a complete ballot within the three minute limit. The drop-off of voters for offices at the end of the ballot would be tremendously high.

Since most of the jam-ups at the primary took place in the late afternoon and evening hours it would be workers and their families who would be penalized. The rich would be able to cast their ballots during the slack periods.

Let's hope that the Michigan electorate learned a lesson about the Massachusetts ballot in the primary. The best way to avoid such confusion in a final election is to vote "No" on Proposition 1 (Massachusetts ballot) on November 3.

WHAT'S GOING ON? — A youthful citizen wondered what the jammed fire hall was all about Tuesday and couldn't resist a tip-toed look. What he saw were some of the 2,771 Tecumseh residents who voted Tuesday, keeping polling places busy from 7 a.m. until 8 p.m.

Gov. Romney Propelled into National Spotlight

By TOM RIORDAN

There seems little doubt now that George Romney will be propelled into leadership of the Republican Party nationally. His 300,000-vote margin over Neil Staebler — while bucking a tremendous tidal wave for President Johnson — makes the Michigan governor a marked man from coast to coast.

How soon Barry Goldwater's team will vacate places of power in the GOP is the question. Odds are when they go, Gov. Romney and other moderate forces will fill the vacuum.

Republicans took their lumps all the way up and down the line Tuesday, due to vast areas of cross-over voting. For a modern-era first — since the initial run of Franklin Roosevelt — Tecumseh voters went for a Democratic presidential candidate, 1,674 to 1,061.

Gov. Romney had solid support here, topping Mr. Staebler, 1,891 to 786, as he did in much of out-state voting booths.

Complete tabulations of all voting here and in the Townships of Tecumseh, Raisin, Franklin, Macon, Clinton and Ridgeway are on page 3.

Raisin Making Sewer Decision

An important decision, which will affect the construction of a new sewer to Tecumseh's Fisher Body plant, will probably be made Thursday by the Raisin Township Board.

Tecumseh officials met with the Raisin board Monday evening at Holloway and were told that a decision might be reached this week.

Raisin Township must approve the proposed construction, which goes through the township, along Occidental Rd., Ives Rd. and N. Raisin Center Hwy.

If the township board approves construction, Selders Excavating is expected to start trenching and laying pipe almost immediately.

GM wants the eight-inch pressure line to be in operation by Feb. 1. Also included in the project is a new lift station at the plant site.

Michigan's new constitution requires that townships give approval for such construction.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Getting a football team ready from week to week is a big job, but have you ever considered the task of preparing the band shows?

The gridiron heros get most of their plays before the opening game, add a few through the year, but run the season with basically the same pattern.

For bands, it's a new undertaking for every home game.

At Tecumseh High, director Don Johnson and his assistant, Miles Cowdrey, start planning their action the week before, make ditto copies of each formation and present sets to all bandsmen.

On Monday, work begins with the first run-through, emphasis being placed on the blocking — not the football variety, but the placement of each musician for the various numbers and how he is to get there.

Through the rest of the week, the program begins to take shape. Come Friday evening, the band snaps sharply onto the gridiron at the command, "Band Take the Field", and swings into its show.

All told, more than five hours go into marching and music practice for the 10-minute half-time show.

★

THIS FRIDAY, during intermission, as the Tecumseh and Riverside football players lick their wounds and prepare for the final two quarters, spectators will be treated to another standout musical treat by the THS band.

"Everything Is Coming Up Roses" will be the opening number as 109 bandsmen form a giant stage, which will feature a rising curtain.

Then it's into "Television Themes".

For "Gun Smoke" the band becomes a giant boot, changing to an anchor for "Hennessey" and then the familiar block band to do "Perry Mason".

Some football fans admit to enjoying the band shows as much as the games, which is, of course, a sign of creeping old age.

'Leave Boxes Alone' Says Postmaster

Reports of recent vandalism to rural mail boxes this week prompted Postmaster Jack Metcalf to warn that such malicious damage is a federal offense.

"Before a prankster attacks a rural mail box it might be well for him to consider that his activities could net him a $1,000 fine or three years' imprisonment," Mr. Metcalf said.

The postmaster also pointed out that stealing or abstracting mail from any receptacle is also a federal offense and could net a $2,000 fine or five years' imprisonment.

Mr. Metcalf notifies the Lenawee County Sheriff's Department and U. S. Postal inspectors when he receives complaints of vandalism and theft from patrons. Alleged offenders are turned over to the U. S. District Attorney for criminal prosecution.

Students 'Re-Elect' Johnson

The Tecumseh High School students Monday "re-elected" President Johnson and Governor Romney.

Votes for the two candidates were almost identical. Johnson beat out Goldwater, 332 to 127; Romney drew 333 votes, Staebler, 114.

Congressman George Meader and State Representative Rollo G. Conlin were the only other Republicans winning national and state offices.

But one Democrat, Dressel, won a county office in the mock election.

Results were:

Secretary of State — Hare, 312; Green, 150

Attorney General — Kelley, 279; Warshawsky, 174

Representative — Meader, 272; Vivian, 185

State Senator — Archer, 257; Nichols, 190

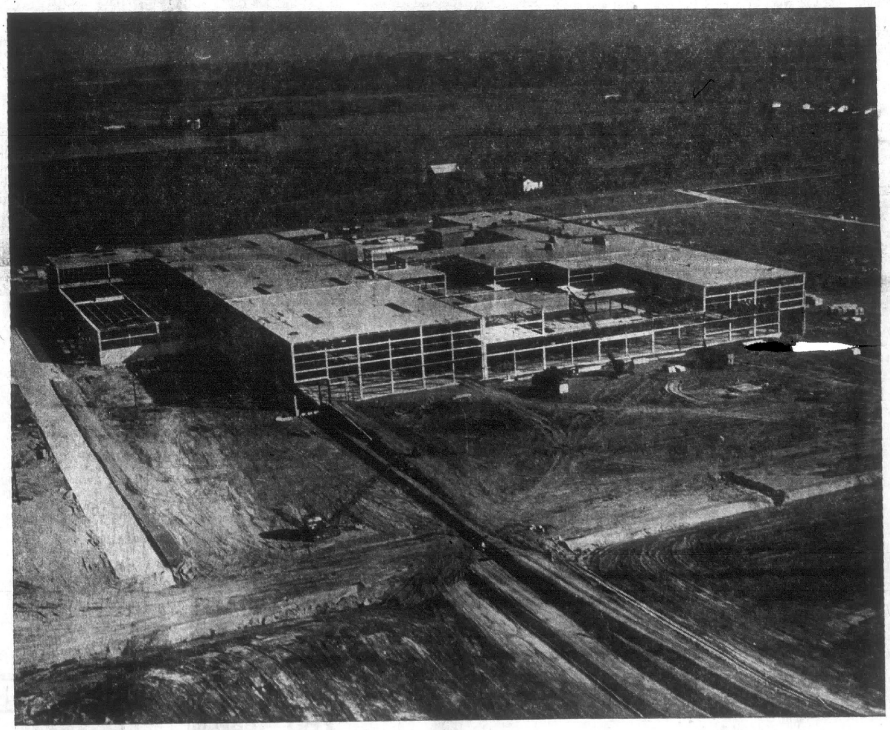
Representative — Conlin, 220; Flippo, 218

The election was student-conducted.

Jaycees Help Phone Returns

Fourteen Tecumseh Jaycees helped in area polling places by calling in official returns to Detroit election headquarters following Tuesday's vote.

They served in Tecumseh and the township, as well as Cambridge, Franklin, Raisin, Ridgeway and Woodstock Townships.



Herald Aerial Photo Shows Entire Fisher Body Layout

Even from 800 feet up, the Fisher Body plant on Occidental Hwy. is an impressive sight. This picture was taken during the Raisin River Watershed air tour Saturday. The 290,000-square-feet upholstery trim plant, fast reaching completion and slated to start operation next spring, got nearly as much attention from air tourists as the river. The black-topped parking area at far right is about 200 yards from the plant. Recently, a GM official was asked if rumors were true that an addition was already in the planning stage. He grinned and said he had no knowledge of such a move, adding, "But we can't figure out how come the parking lot is so far from the building". The farm directly across from the city's newest industry, belongs to Carl Gruber.

Charlie Knapp Purchases Underwood Dodge Sales

Charles Knapp, general manager of Underwood Dodge in Adrian for the past three years, has purchased the agency from George Underwood, Jr.

Mr. Knapp, a resident of Tecumseh, lives at 610 Sutton St., with his wife, Betty, and their son, Bill.

The only Lenawee County Dodge dealership, it will now be known as Charlie Knapp Motor Co., Inc.

Mr. Underwood, who owns the Ford-Mercury-Lincoln franchise in Clinton, said that he would continue to operate a used car lot in Adrian. A manager for this will be named shortly.

Prior to joining the Underwood Dodge agency, Mr. Knapp was associated with new car dealerships in the Detroit area for 12 years.

Budd Co. Division in Clinton

CLINTON — The Budd Co. of Detroit started operations here this week, having leased 32,000-square-feet of the old Clinton Engines Corp. plant.

Charles A. Straight of Birmingham has been named manager of this wheel products plant.

At the start, nine are being employed by Budd. The firm so far has issued no information regarding anticipated employment. A detailed announcement of the new Clinton setup is expected next week.

Drive Reaches $43,800

The Industrial division of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation has collected $42,000, Chairman Tim Neill, has announced. Goal of the division was $25,000.

Mr. Neill anticipates another $1,500 will be contributed by employees of firms, which have not yet reported collections by mid-week.

The drive has been extended to Nov. 13 to permit completion of the campaign which totaled $43,800 at press time. The 1965 goal is $50,000.

★

DON MOFFATT, chairman, expressed regret at the comparatively small collection in the municipal division.

"City employee contributions average but $4.73 per giver", he said, "and 25 of the 42 city workers failed to pledge at all." Federal employees contributed $78.

Mr. Moffatt expects collections at Herrick Memorial Hospital will add a considerable sum to the $210 his division has reported.

★

THE PROFESSIONAL division, under Norval Bovee, has collected $800. Mr. Bovee said he expects his division will equal last year's $1,200.

Commercial division chairman Dwight Helms reported Wednesday his division canvassers had completed only 10% of their calls. Cash given totals $570, he said. Pledges have not been counted.

Only one-third of the 30 residential areas have reported their contributions, Mrs. Paul Kraft, chairman, reported.

She expects the solicitation will be completed by Nov. 13.

She pointed out that members of the Teen Club are assisting in the canvassing this year.

"While every effort is being made to contact each resident," Mrs. Kraft said, "it is recognized that circumstances sometimes make it impossible. Anyone not contacted by Nov. 13, and who wishes to contribute, may leave his donation at the telephone office."

Three Motorists Receive Tickets

Three motorists involved in accidents during the past week, were cited by Tecumseh police. Two were ticketed for failing to yield the right of way and one for driving while under the influence of liquor.

Helen M. Heirigs, 40, 911 Russell Rd., was charged with drunk driving after she lost control of her car on N. Evans St., north of Red Mill Dr., and crashed into a parked car owned by James H. Chapman, 37, Clinton.

Carol J. Caliguiri, 16, 511 N. Evans St., was cited for failing to yield after her car hit the side of a vehicle driven by Leon Earl Strahle, 41, 311 Russell Rd.

William J. Kasno, 45, 1503 E. Monroe Rd., received a similar citation after an accident with a car driven by Sharon K. Dicks, 16, 4460 Macon Rd., at the intersection of Pottawatamie and S. Evans St.

The Products folk aren't too happy about the way they have to get their morning coffee these days. Spoon some powder into the cup, draw some hot water from the tap and drink. The cafeteria crew is still on strike.

"We see no legitimate reason for this strike to continue," wrote Lee Hills,, Friendly Free Press publisher to employees on Oct. 27 after explaining recent concessions offered by management. We don't see either!

Mel Baugh, 5435 Billmyer Rd., has a bad leg this fall and can't get out for his usual pheasant hunting tramps through the fields — but he still nailed-a Ring Neck anyway. Mel limped into the bush and waited. There was a bird about 80 yards away and Mel got him, with a .22 topped by a telescopic sight.

Newest addition to the Tecumseh police force, Fred Judson, wants to thank three of his fellow officers, Don Rodehaver, Allen Jones and Bob Purkey, for their thoughtfulness in delivering a "doll house" to his driveway about 2 a.m. Halloween night. His daughters were quite amused about the whole thing.

There were a few laughs at performances of "State of the Union" (see editorial on last page of second section) and not all of them were in the script. Congressman George Meader, in the middle of a hard-going campaign, decided this a perfect time to catch up on his sleep, dozed off for most of the performance. Hal Weakley, a bellboy in the show, delivered a meal to the hotel room set, deftly removed one of those plate warmers, slipping a finger in the hole as he did. When he went to remove the gimmick it was stuck tight. Hal struggled vainly, as a rain of laughter swept the playhouse, finally exiting on cue — with the warmer still encasing his digit.

Kroger ran a turkey special last week (told about it in the regular Herald ad) and ran out of birds Saturday. One shopper moaned that she was to have company for a turkey dinner. Kroger check-out gal, Mrs. Lester Ruhl, heard the lady [illegible]tely said that she had one set aside for herself and would be glad to let the customer take it home instead. The Ruhls probably ended up having potluck, but Kroger has a booster who will long tell the story of Mrs. Ruhl's kindness.

A total of 450 tickets were sold for "State of the Union" during its six-performance run in the 140-seat Tecumseh Players' Little Theatre, which is located in the Tecumseh Odd Fellows Hall.

Coaching, with plenty of game knowledge and inspiring psychology, is probably 75% of the story. Northwestern was a terror last year and Notre Dame a dud. This season, old Wildcat coach Ara Parseghian now runs the Irish. The 'Cats have faltered and faded, Notre Dame is riding the crest of an unbeaten year — with Ara providing the winning formula.

Now the Mayor can really spread it. Halloween pranksters left a manure spreader in front of his home Oct. 31. They also left a buggy for Dick and Margie Eggleston to ride around in.

Beth Satterthwaite thought she had bumped into a friend and asked, "Where is your mother these days." The quick response, "She's in her home room, where she ought to be." Beth scurried away, too embarassed to ask the gal who she really was. Anyone care to volunteer?

Overheard Tuesday in Precinct 2:

Merlyn: "You vote first so I can cancel yours."

Myrna: "You don't have to be a sorehead because I won't vote the way you want me to."

Ideal couple, notes Bernie Riordan, a husband who snores married to a wife who is deaf. (His household offers the first half of the formula.)

"What do you think we are, a cut-rate store?" exclaimed Mike Green as he pulled a new pair of Levi's from the shelf after receiving a complaint from his customer to replace a defective set. "Now, get lost!" grinned Mike, and his customer did, smiling happily. It proves the point, as advertised, that "Green's stands behind th merchandise we sell."

A bore is somone who talks about himself just when you want to talk about yourself.

Judges at the Senior Citizens Halloween party gave an extra award to the squeeky-voiced clown, who turned out to be Don Moffatt, recreation direetor. The prize was a framed dime with the notation, "In case of emergency, break glass".

Jessie Sluyter received a strange visitor in her hospital room last week. A swinging, swaying harem girl, complete with filmy skirt and veil, sashayed in coyly maneuvering large pink balloons. John Hamilton's knobby knees gave him away.

Boysville entertained Ida Sunday in the Fighting Knights' first home battle in five seasons. Without lights, the Macon school has always had to perform on their opponents' fields, since the River Raisin League wants games held Friday nights. Ida's field is currently torn up and so this Sunday match was arranged with an excellent turn-out of fans. Brother Romaine, the Boysville athletic director, may try to set up more afternoon contests. We think it's a great idea.

Youths Enjoy Music

Mrs. Kenneth Westerman of Ann Arbor was the guest speaker at the Music Makers meeting Sunday. She brought with her two students, Betsy Baitinger and Mrs. David Rogers.

Betsy sang three selections from Walt Disney's "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" and Mrs. Rogers sang one song by Mozart and two other selections.

Jamie McWilliams accompanied by Linda Oberlin, led the opening hymn of the month.

Cathy Beevers gave the treasurer's report. Linda Gilbert presented a study of Scandinavian music before the program.

David Bush played a flute solo accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Elwood Bush.

Jamie Danforth, accompanied by Mrs. Westerman, sang "The Little French Clock".

Debbie Miller, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Brantingham, sang "The Lord's Prayer".

REFRESHMENTS were served by Jeanette Mannino and David and Danny Bush.

A Christmas program will be presented at the next meeting, Dec. 13, at the Presbyterian Church.

Counselors Mrs. Orrie Gilbert and Mrs. James E. Danforth invite interested music lovers to come to this program which will be highlighted by a play entitled "Christmas Portraits".

Talk Given by Miss Daniels

Ruth Daniels of Onsted, a former missionary, spoke to 65 members of the Tecumseh Friends Missionary Society Oct. 29.

Attired in Indian sari, Miss Daniels told of her long experience as a missionary to India. She showed a collection of interesting articles including a number of beautiful saris, woven articles and lace table cloths.

Trailer Burns

A house trailer parked on the Albert Glisson property on Rogers Highway was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. The Tecumseh Volunteer Fire Department fought the blaze.

Dances Are Held Twice Monthly

Dances are being held twice each month for married couples at Ann Arbor's YW-YMCA in the Parker Room.

The second and fourth Fridays each month are dance nights, beginning with Nov. 13 and 27 at 8:30 p.m.

Light refreshments are served during intermission.

Dance lessons by Betty Graf are available one hour before each dance.

More information may be obtained from Lorena Liston, Saline, 429-9-7353, evenings.

Census of Farms Questionnaires Now in Mail

Questionnaires for the 1964 Census of Agriculture are now being mailed out to farmers and ranchers of Lenawee County.

This will allow the farmers a period of time in which to consult their 1964 farm business records in order to answer questions on the form accurately before enumerators begin collection of questionnaires.

[illegible] scheduled to start Monday.

Banks To Close

Financial institutions in Tecumseh and throughout the state will be closed Wednesday, Nov. 11, in observance of Veterans' Day, a legal holiday.

LCW Changes Meeting Hour

A change in meeting time has been made by members of the LCW of the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church. They will meet at 7:30 p.m. rather than 8 in the future.

The Christmas project will highlight the meeting Monday, Nov. 9 in the Church Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. Walter Morden will take orders for new hymnals at the meeting.

Each member will bring three or more new pencils.

Tipton Grange Plans Potluck

TIPTON — The Tipton range will have a potluck supper at 7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 6. Members are to bring a dish to pass, buttered rolls and dessert. The supper committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Grover Swarts. The program will be presented by Girl Scout Troop No. 156, which is sponsored by Tipton Grange.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick Flying to Coast

CLINTON — Mrs. Rena Fitzpatrick, realtor of Clinton, will fly to Los Angeles, Calif. Sunday as a delegate to the National Convention of Realtors.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick will represent the Lenawee Board of Realtors of which she is a past president having served in that capacity in 1963 and 1964.

PTA Makes Plans

RIDGEWAY — Lynn E. Marvin, director of special education, will present the program when the Ridgeway-Macon PTA meets at 8 p.m., Nov. 18, in the gymnasium. The fourth grade will furnish the refreshments.

Mungers To Mark 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Munger, 2170 W. Munger Rd., will be feted at an open house in the Tipton Community Church from 2 to 5 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 8.

The event, hosted by their children, will celebrate the 25th wedding anniversary of the couple who were married Nov. 10, 1939.

The Rev. William Grove performed the ceremony in Curtice, [illegible].

Mr. Munger has farmed the same land where they reside since their marriage and his wife has taught area schools for 14 years.

They have two children, Jerry Munger of Tipton and Mrs. Michael Green of 9625 Clinton-Tecumseh Rd., and two grandsons, Michael Green and Michael Munger.

MR. AND MRS. LESTER MUNGER

Centennial Marked

TIPTON — The centennial of the founding of the Knights was observed Friday evening in the K of P Hall here.

A potluck supper was served to 65 persons at tables decorated with lamps, candles and Halloween favors.

During the program which followed the grand officers and members of other lodges and temples were introduced.

GROUP SINGING was led by Mrs. Charles Driffill, accompanied by Mrs. Albert Gilhouse.

The program included a piano solo by Wendy Vollmer, an accordion solo by Allen Gilhouse, vocal solo by Diane Spycher accompanied by Deanne Baker. Dorothy Baker gave a history of the founding in 1864 of the Knights of Pythias.

A grand march followed with Mrs. Roy Willnow, Mrs. Marguerite Luce, Frank Turlukowski and son Paul and Crissy McKnight receiving prizes for best costumes.

CARDS WERE PLAYED with high prizes going to Miss Lucille Boudrie and Richard Vollmer and low prizes to Mrs. Walter Pfeister and Ben Boudrie.

Those attending from away were past grand chief, Mrs. Clare Wanty and Mrs. Eva Clark, Milan; vice chancellor, Cecil Manning and Mrs. Manning and district deputy Clare Roe and Mrs. Roe, Dundee; and grand manager, Mrs. Bernice Goodyear, her mother, daughter and son, St. Louis; district deputy and grand press correspondent, Mrs. Helen Downey, Ann Arbor; Ben Boudrie and daughter Lucille, Monroe.

Other guests were from Dundee, Adrian and Tipton.

Bride Elect Is Honored

TIPTON — Patricia Anderson was guest of honor at a bridal shower Oct. 28 given by Mrs. Lyle Whelan.

Twenty-three guests enjoyed a social evening with prizes won by Mrs. Lamont Simmons, Mrs. Jack Lundahl, Mrs. Fay Luce, Mrs. Merrick Dibble and Mrs. G. A. Calvin.

Ice cream, cake, punch and coffee were served from a decorated buffet table with Mrs. Jack Lundahl and Mrs. Harold Anderson pouring from the silver tea service.

Out-of-town guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. G. A. Calvin, and Mrs. Richard Calvin of Adrian; Mrs. Jack Lundahl of Sand Lake; Mrs. Richard Blue of Britton, and Mrs. Gerald Fox and daughter Barbara of Tecumseh.

Miss Anderson will become the bride of Stephen Covell of Clinton Saturday in the Tipton Community Church.

Extension Club Is Organized

TIPTON — A group of women met at the home of Mrs. Larry Reichenbaugh October 29 to organize an extension club. Two members of the Lenawee Extension Service were present to explain the purpose and the benefits of the club.

Refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Jerry Munger and Mrs. William Every.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 19, at 7:45 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Richard Platt. There will be an election of officers and a name chosen. Membership is open to any interested woman.

Churchwomen Sponsor World Community Day

The United Council of Churchwomen of Lenawee County are sponsoring World Community Day Friday.

The Methodist Church will be hosts for the meeting from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. with tea served at the close of the service.

"Nations in Community — A Channel to Peace" is the subject of the program women throughout the county.

Episcopal, Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian Churches are participating.

Two outstanding projects of the group this year have been baby layettes and school kits.

Tickets on Sale

The advance sale of tickets for the senior play, "The Groom Said No!" will take place Thursday, Nov. 5, in Britton. These tickets may be purchased from any senior during this door-to-door campaign. They will cost $1.00 for adults and 50c for students.

The play will be given Nov. 19 and 20 in the school gym.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITTAKER

The Ida Bluestreaks proved their football superiority as they outclassed the Fighting Knights of Boysville Sunday by a score of 28-13. The Knights lost their fifth game of the season, against two wins, as they battled Ida in a rare home game.

Ida started its scoring barrage early in the first half, and by the middle of the game had three touchdowns. Boysville retaliated with two touchdowns, one on a long run by halfback Moe Jacobs, and the other on a one-yard plunge by quarterback Norris McFarland in the fourth quarter. But no sooner had the Knights' hopes risen than Ida returned the kickoff for a touchdown and a fifteen-point lead.

The Boysville boys were honored by the presence of about 30 girls from St. Joseph Academy in Adrian.

√

Last Friday an eighth period pep rally prepared the students for the Ida game. During the course of the assembly several new cheers were introduced and demonstrated by the cheerleaders, and comments and predictions about the coming games were made by the senior team members. A short hootenanny closed the program.

√

On October 29, resprogen shots were administered to the student body to safeguard against influenza and colds during the coming winter. The shots were administered by Dr. Barlow and Dr. Waldron, who are staff members at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor.

√

The Sophomore Class, under the direction of Brother James Greteman, C.S.C., sponsored a Halloween party Saturday. Besides the traditional costume contest, the party featured a variety of games and booths which reflected the creative ingenuity and painstaking planning of the sophomores. The festivities were concluded with the presentation of Sidney Poitier's Academy Award winning role in "Lilies of the Field."

√

Boysville has a new addition to its kitchen staff. She is Miss Mary Lou Brenke of Riga. Miss Brenke is a graduate of Blissfield High School.

√

An electric dishwasher was recently donated to Boysville by Richard Reese of Chicago. Brother James Reese, C.S.C., brother of the donor and a faculty member at Boysville, went to Chicago to pick up the machine. This donation will eliminate much of the work in the pantry in cleaning the Brothers' china and silverware.

√

The Junior Knights of Boysville fell prey to the Freshman team of Tecumseh by a score of 13-0. Thus the Indians avenged a previous defeat by Boysville.

The score at halftime stood at 7-0 in favor of Tecumseh. The only highlight for Boysville in the first half had been a 35-yard pass and run from Mike Gaudreau to Nick Orlando. A spirited Knight team took the field in the second half, but the Boysville offense had possession of the ball only twice. Tecumseh consumed the time in the second half with short gains, enough to give them consecutive first downs almost continuously.

BOYSVILLE KNIGHT ROLLS — Moe Jacobs, standout Boysville halfback, is stopped by the camera, but not by Ida tacklers as he rolled 60 yards on this play for the Knights' initial touchdown in a Sunday afternoon game, attended by a near capacity crowd on the Boysville campus.

Sunday School Teachers Meet Here Saturday

A church teachers institute for all churches in the Lenawee-Monroe Association will be held Saturday, Nov. 7, from 2 to 9 p.m. in the First Baptist Church.

The afternoon session will deal with the children of the church and the evening program with adult and youth work.

Dinner for all teachers will be served at 6:15 p.m. in the Youth House.

The Tecumseh church also hosted the Baptist District Junior High jamboree last Saturday.

The women of the church served dinner to 104 young people from Temperance, Jackson, Ypsilanti, Monroe, Adrian, Tecumseh and Rollin.

Mrs. Floyd Barrett supervised the kitchen work and Mrs. Thomas Brooks, the dining room.

School Plans Open House

Tecumseh Junior High School will hold an open house Wednesday, Nov. 11, to mark American Education Week. The Senior High School open house, which usually follows a night later, will be postponed until the completion of the new high school building early in December, Neville Hart, THS principal, said.

Wednesday night's program, which begins at 7:30, is planned to allow the parents to follow the schedule of their children through a typical school day with seven-minute class periods arranged for each subject.

Following the final period refreshments will be served in the girls' gymnasium.

An opportunity will be made to permit parents to arrange conferences with their children's instructors.

BRITTON BRIEFS

Mrs. Bernard Clement and Mrs. Zada Clement flew Saturday from Metropolitan International Airport to Eustis, Fla. Mrs. Zada Clement will spend the winter in Eustis, but Mrs. Bernard Clement will return later this week.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mastie entertained about 45 teen-agers in honor of their son Dennis' 16th birthday. The party took place at the Mastie home after Friday night's game.

√

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Brablec were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Predmore of Chicago.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow and family were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hendershot of Allen Park.

√

Mrs. Gertrude Valla and family of Lincoln Park were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Tiede.

DAR Members To Study Hymns

"Heritage of American Hymns" will be the program topic for the meeting of the Abigail Chapter, DAR Friday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Richard Carter is the program leader for the meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Purnell Osburn.

Mrs. Cecile Smith and Mrs. Joseph Russell will be the co-hostesses.

Students To Report Britton News Items

Beginning this week the Britton news will be handled by members of the journalism class of Britton High School under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Gerald Henricks.

Assisting the reporters for the present will be the former Britton editor, Mrs. Paul Rowlands, who plans to retire.

Readers with news for the Britton page should call Karen Harriott at 451-3168.

"Don't forget we want to print stories about engagements, weddings, births, club meetings, parties, visits and guests," Miss Harriott said.

Tory School News

The senior government class held a mock presidential election Wednesday, Oct. 28. Mr. William Hetrick announced the results of the election over the loud speaker. The results were:

President — Johnson 104; Goldwater 33.

Governor — Romney 93; Staebler 46.

U. S. Senator — Hart 110; Peterson 26.

U. S. Representative — Meader 75; Vivian 63. —

★

THE TORIES PLAYED their best game of the year against Whiteford Friday, but lost by a score of 37-18. Both Whiteford and Britton made two touchdowns in the first half, but Britton failed to make the extra points.

Walt Korican scored both of the touchdowns. He made an 87-yard run and a 21-yard run. The Whiteford Bobcats led by only two points at the half by a score of 14-12.

Britton held Whiteford back some, but they still scored three touchdowns and a field goal. Britton scored its last touchdown by a 3-yard pass from Jack Brown to Barry Branham. The Tories failed to make the extra point.

★

THE SENIORS held a Halloween dance after the game. They made a profit of $23.90. Cider and cookies were served.

★

WILLIAM L. SAXTON, superintendent of the Britton-Macon Area Schools, has announced the honor roll for the first six weeks.

Turkey Shoot Monday Night

The second annual Turkey Shoot sponsored by the Tecumseh Rifle and Pistol Club, will be Monday. Firing is to start at 7:30 p.m. on the club range in the basement of the Tecumseh Community Center.

This year's winners will be selected using the Kickers Handicap system which is designed to give all competitors an equal chance to take home a turkey.

Under this system a competitor selects before firing whatever number of handicap points he wants. These points are added to his fired score. If the fired score and the handicap points make a total of more than a possible score, the competitor is penalized two points for each point over a possible score.

The public is invited to attend either as spectators or competitors. For those who have a revolver or pistol and aren't interested in the competition, there will be open shooting later in the evening.

"Refreshments will be served and there should be fun for all," said Robert Cheers, president.

"Interested people should take this opportunity to become acquainted with the club facilities and members," he continued.

Scholarship Pamphlets Available

Mrs. Yale Kerby is chairman for scholarships for the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Kerby said Tuesday, "Not only for American Education Week, Nov. 8 to 14, but for all other weeks to come, we want our story of scholarships to be known."

"Our pamphlets, "Need a Lift", will help students to realize the help they can get through scholarships and by talking with their counselors at school," continued Mrs. Kerby.

Copies are available from John Pobuda at the high school or at the Public Library.

For further information, students may call Mrs. Kerby, 423-4105.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBY EARLING

Certainly no one can argue that Tecumseh's spirit hasn't helped the Indians claim the Huron League Crown. Four busloads of students were transported to the Tecumseh-Blissfield game at Blissfield last Friday night. By special invitation the Senior Band also attended filling three more buses. With the parents who loaned their firm support by attending, it was impossible for everyone to claim a seat in the bleachers. People stood three-deep along the sidelines.

Let's keep up this bubbling enthusiasm and let our big team know we're behind them all the way!

The Blissfield High Band played host to Tecumseh's Senior Band Friday night. The Senior Band was invited to play short pre-game and half-time shows and to join Blissfield in saluting the flag with our National Anthem. Following the game cider and doughnuts were served in the band room.

√

Mid-term exams crept up Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday to take many people by surprise and leave them a little depressed. These tests and grads are important, especially to those students who plan to further their education. With just a little more effort and genuine interest that depression can be turned into a feeling of satisfaction. It isn't too soon to get on the stick and be prepared for the semester exams.

Report cards will be given out Nov. 11.

√

Three hundred teen-agers attended the Halloween Dance sponsored by the city Friday night after the game until 1 p.m. Larry Ries and Terry Sisty won radios which were given as door prizes.

OBITUARIES

Robert Garth Collins

Services were held in Ypsilanti Oct. 28 for Robert Collins, former Tecumseh man, who died Oct. 26 at the home of his daughter in Detroit.

He was born in Deerfield Jan. 19, 1890, the son of Ophelia and John Collins.

While attending Cleary College in Ypsilanti, he met Bessie Green and they were married June 4, 1916.

The family lived in Tecumseh while Mr. Collins operated an ice route.

In 1942 Mr. Collins lost his eyesight and several years ago he and his wife went to Detroit to make their home with their daughter.

He is survived by his wife, three sons, Guy, Clayton, and Charles; three daughters, Mrs. Roberta Smith, Mrs. Shirley Smith and Mrs. Pauline Gunter, 13 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

One brother, Fred, one sister, Gertrude Mooreland of Hobbs, N. M.; one uncle, Fremont Nelson of Amisburg, Ont., and several nieces and nephews also survive.

THEY SAW WATERSHED — Robert Leathers, 21 2 E. Shawnee St., helps daughter, Beth, 6, from plane in which they saw Raisin Watershed, along with Annette, 8, who follows. Their pilot was Bob Nutter of Bryan, O., who works for an aircraft firm there. In addition to the Raisin, the family viewed the new Fisher Body and Stauffer plants and their home town from 1,500 ft.

Open House at Ridgeway

RIDGEWAY — The Ridgeway School will hold an open house Monday, Nov. 9 in observance of National Education Week.

All classrooms will be open from 4:15 to 5:30 p.m. during which period refreshments will be served.

Parking Abuse Protest Lodged

Free parking abuse in the city's downtown off-street lots came under criticism Monday night when several Councilmen pointed out that merchants and their clerks were using the space intended for patrons.

Since the merchants raised money to pay off some of the parking meter bonds in advance, Council had authorized free parking in certain areas of the lots.

Council authorized Attorney James Beardsley to prepare an ordinance to regulate the free parking zones.

Water, Sewer Service Denied

A request to extend sewer and water mains on Russell Rd., about 450 feet east from S. Maumee St., was rejected by Council at a public hearing Monday night.

H. W. Tuttle Co. had sought the services for a building being leased there.

Otto and Evelyn Beaubien, property owners on Russell, petitioned Council to deny the services on the grounds that costs would be out of proportion with the value of their property.

Council Extends Lease Contract

At Monday night's meeting Council extended the lease contract for police cars with Wilson Motor Sales from July, 1966, to November, 1966.

Dates were extended to coincide generally with the annual, new automotive model changes.

Hillbillies Help Collect

BRITTON — The Beverly Hillbillies, portrayed by Mark, Cindy, Tammee, Vicki, and Debbie Maschino, along with more than 100 other children, collected $92.35 for UNICEF Halloween night.

After the collection, a parade was formed and the children were led downtown and back to the school gym by the band. Costumes were then judged.

The Maschino children won first prize in the funny costumes class with Cindy Ivan coming in second. The prettiest costumes were worn by Martha Tubbs and Linda Lorenz while Roger Furgason and Ricky Saxton wore the ugliest costumes.

In the most detailed costume class Marilyn Heiden, Barbara Mastie, Linda Segeart, and Becky Maschino were the winners.

The most original costumes were worn by Rita Vershum, Rhonda Cheever, and Kenneth Wielfaert.

Jaycee Auxiliary Members Will Give Old Magazines to Girls Training School

Members of the Jaycees Auxiliary will tour the Girls Training School in Adrian Thursday, Nov. 5.

Mrs. James Rundell said they will bring old magazines with them for the girls, meeting at 1:30 p.m. in the parking lot of Helm's Furniture.

★

WITCHES AND pumpkins greeted 15 members when they arrived at the home of Mrs. Walter Elwartowski in costume recently.

The attire varied from a Roaring Twenties outfit to a girl in a size 52 bathing suit.

Mrs. Thomas Morgan was welcomed as a new member, Mrs. Fred Judson was a guest.

Christmas gift auction will be held Nov. 18 at the city hall. Chairman Mrs. Don Moffatt has asked members to bring handmade articles such as candles and aprons, baked goods, stuffed animals, holiday decorations, crocheted and knitted items. Proceeds will be placed in the Measle Jar, a fund used for the installation dinner at the end of the year.

Plans were made for a babysitting clinic with the chairman of the Christmas party for all Jaycee members children.

★

UNDER THE direction of Mrs. Roger Butler, members are presently assisting with the Tecumseh Community Fund Drive.

Mrs. Earl Nisbett presented colored slides of her family's summer trip to the western states and Canada.

Pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee were served by co-hostesses, Mrs. Gerald Miller and Mrs. Fred Johnson.

Child Evangelism Session Planned

Mrs. D. E. Wisner, a member of the National Child Evangelism Fellowship staff, will be guest speaker at a workshop sponsored by the Lenawee County and the Hillsdale County Child Evangelism Fellowship.

The meeting will be held at the Open Door Bible Church in Hudson, Tuesday.

Mrs. Wisner will assist the local Sunday School teachers and home Good News Clubs with ideas on better lesson presentation.

Mrs. Wisner will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stark, directors of the Michigan Child Evangelism Fellowship.

Workshop sessions will be conducted from 10 a.m. to noon, 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

The meetings are open to the public.

Norman Feller, 313 W. Logan St., is president of the Fellowship.

FINISH WITH VICTORY — St. Elizabeth School's football team finished its season with a 7-0 victory over Camden-Frontier last Thursday on a 30-yard touchdown dash by Donald Dziachan. The squad included, front row, from left, Mike Cote, Joe Bagby, Doug Haeussler, Richard Rohrer, John McVay and David Laidlaw. Middle row, Bradley Brown, David O'Neill, Larry Cote, Don Dziachan, Paul Burns, Jr., Tom Neill and Dick Lime. Back, David Moros, John Busch, James Parros, Bill Whiting, Paul Lindstrom, Don McVay, Carl Brosmer and Mike Wanzeck. Injured and unable to play in the final game was Tom Rohrer. The Cubs won two and lost three under Coaches Gordon Gutowski, Jim Greene and Jim Biscupski.

Recreation Activities

By DON MOFFATT, Superintendent

Halloween activities, planned during this past week, offered many enjoyable hours for both young and old.

The Community Center was a busy place Thursday, Friday and Saturday, serving as the mecca for most of these activities.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Thursday afternoon 60 senior citizens held their Halloween party at the Center.

Nearly one-quarter of the group came dressed in their Halloween costumes and took part in a contest. All in attendance were given a funny mask to wear during the judging.

Those wearing costumes did such an outstanding job, it was difficult for the judges, Mrs. Carlton Cook, Mrs. Calvin Zorn and Mrs. Harold Easton, to select winners. They agreed that the first-place prize should go to Mrs. Orville Laidlaw, who dressed as a sack of potatoes and won $3.

Second place — Mrs. Robert Gilespie, dressed as "Raggedy-Ann Doll" got $2.

The remaining contestants all tied for third place and received prizes of $1 each.

A special visitor, dressed in costume, stopped in to say hello and join the fun. This exotic female turned out to be Councilman John Hamilton.

Following refreshments of cider, coffee, donuts and cookies, the group's party activities of Halloween table games and cards ended the day.

Next get-together at the Center will be Thursday, Nov. 12, from 2 to 4 p.m.

SENIOR HIGH HALLOWEEN DANCE

Following the football game Friday night, senior high teens enjoyed dancing in the Hallowe'en-decorated main room of the Center.

The 350 in attendance were treated to cider and donuts, served in the glass room.

HALLOWEEN COSTUME CONTEST

About 250 children, dressed in their costumes, came to the Center for the annual Halloween Costume Contest.

The contestants were divided into three groups, pre-schoolers, kindergarten through the second grade and third grade and up.

Judging was handled by representatives of the Jaycee Auxiliary, who had a real hard job selecting these winners.

Pre-schoolers
Dressiest — Connie Retan
Spookiest — Stephen Sisson
Most Original — Jill and Leisa Hibbard
Funniest — Steve Escott

Kindergarten through Second Graders
Dressiest — Kathy Creswell
Spookiest — Eric Baldwin
Most Original — Larrie Henkel
Funniest — Penny Escott

Third Graders and Up
Dressiest—LuAnn Scarbrough
Spookiest — LuAnn Bihlmeyer
Most Original — Laura Baldwin
Funniest — Jenny Ousterhout

After judging, contestants were treated to cider and donuts, served by the Jaycee Auxiliary, plus an extra treat of Halloween candy.

JUNIOR HIGH HALLOWEEN DANCE

The Junior High School was the scene for the area junior high students' party Saturday night, where over 400 enjoyed cider and donuts during their annual party record dance.

Prizes were won by Kathy Nash, Tom Jones, Marcia Gilbert, Gary Fairbanks, Cindy Durkee and Karen Davenport.

$91.18 Given for UNICEF

TIPTON — The UNICEF drive Thursday was sponsored by the Sunday School, Tipton Grange and the Pythian Sisters. Over $91.18 was collected by the 55 children and their drivers.

Mrs. Jack Allen would like to thank the following drivers and helpers: Mrs. Frank Turlukowski, Mrs. Warren Allen, Mrs. William Kukral, Mrs. William Bales, Mrs. Richard Van Sickle, Mrs. James Gooding, Mrs. Willis Davenport, Mrs. Ray Buell, Mrs. Wesley Whelan, Mrs. Raymond Outman, Mrs. Norman Reis, Mrs. Marvin Bacon, Mrs. Laurance Church, Mrs. Wallace Wilkin, Mrs. Donald Muckensturm, Mrs. Richard Platt, Mrs. Latham Dewey, Mrs. Frank Keeney and Brenda Allen.

Cider and doughnuts were served at the church after the drive.

Auxiliary Seeks Help With Bulbs

Members of the Hospital Auxiliary are hoping volunteers will assist them at 9 a.m. Thursday when they meet at the Herrick Memorial Hospital to plant bulbs.

Last week Mrs. Howard Furry, Mrs. William Adams, Mrs. Orrie Gilbert, Mrs. Carlton Cook and Mrs. Bill Clauson got 100 daffodils into the soft ground.

The area is watered ahead of time to prepare the soil.

Mrs. Cook said that the work is easy but there are a number of yellow daffodil and red tulip bulbs still to be planted.

FFA Members Buy Pigs in Detroit

BRITTON — The FFA boys and their advisor, Paul Marks, went recently to the Detroit stockyards where they purchased 40 pigs. The animals were bought at a cost of $12.40 each with money earned from the tractor field day.

While the youths were at the yard they toured the slaughter house.

They will take turns caring for the pigs during their agriculture classes.

ORDER OF HEARING — Final Account

STATE OF MICHIGAN,

County of Lenawee, ss.

Probate Court for Said County.

At a session of the probate court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the probate office, in the city of Adrian, on the 2nd day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four.

Present, Hon. Maurice Spear, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of BRONISLAW A. KUROWICKI (aka Bronislaw Kurowicki and Barney A. Kurowicki), deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of Chester Kurowicki, administrator upon the estate of said deceased, alleging that the funeral expenses and debts of said deceased, and the expenses of administration thus far incurred, have been fully paid, and praying that his final administration account may be allowed and for such other order and decree as to this court shall seem proper.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 30th day of November next, at nine-thirty in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition.

It is ordered, That a copy of this order be published in The Tecumseh Herald, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three consecutive weeks, previous to said day of hearing, and notice thereof given as required by law.

MAURICE SPEAR,
Judge of Probate.

Superb Play of Tecumseh Linemen Sparks Win Streak

By TOM RIORDAN

Superior line play has been a giant factor in the string of six wins piled up by Tecumseh High School so far this fall.

First person to confirm this statement is Indian Coach Tom Fagan.

Against Blissfield, THS defensive and offensive forward walls played superbly. Blocking was probably the most outstanding of the year.

Coach Fagan, in viewing the game film, was ecstatic over footage showing Indian runners grabbing large hunks of Royal real estate.

In each case, tremendous blocks at the line of scrimmage, followed with crisp knock-downs in the Blissfield secondary, gave the ball carriers oodles of room in which to maneuver.

★

COACH [illegible] happily over the success this year of the wedge play in which Quarterback Jeff Osburn takes the pass from Center Dan Vollmer, who snaps upward as he lunges forward. Indians' offensive guards, Jerry Hale and Ron Forsyth, instead of charging ahead, wedge sideways under Dan's arms to form a V-shaped phalanx.

Jeff, in Dan's shadow, consistently has been able to pick up vital two and three-yard chunks all year — thanks to the charge of this Fearsome Trio.

Guards Hale and Forsyth also play key roles in the fullback trap play, which features the rugged ball carrying of Fullback Greg McEnroe. Either Jerry or Ron slips behind Vollmer to cut down a free-charging lineman from the center's opposite side.

Coach Fagan credits speedy tackles Larry Merx and Jim Oberlin, with successes of up-field running, Larry's and Jim's fabulous down-field blocks have done the trick.

Instead of guards pulling to lead the end sweeps, the THS mentor employs his tackles, both of whom are fast starters and agile on their cleats.

The THS-Blissfield film clearly shows on one play Oberlin knocking down two Royal defenders.

★

THE SCRAMBLE block, or crab, is a specialty with offensive ends Mark Blatchford and Steve Derby, who both have it perfected. It's tricky. Mark and Steve go down on all fours as they hit defensive tackles, or corner man, then "scrambling" sideways, never losing contact.

On defense, Steve moves back to a corner man position, while Ron Bolz joins Mark at end.

In the highly-complicated Oklahoma defense used by THS — and nearly every current high school, college and professional team — the ends have "90% responsibility for plays off-tackle and 10% for those around end," according to the coach.

THS cornermen Derby and Kirk Lucas, who is one of the finest tacklers on the squad, must "key" their first split-second defensive move on the action of the offensive end, playing on their side, and the "flow of the backs."

If the end blocks inward and backs move around him, it means an end run and the corner man shoots forward.

If the end runs into the secondary, heading across field, and his backfield moves the same way, it probably will be a wide sweep in the opposite direction and he fades back to become a safety man.

This is called rotation and one of the most difficult skills to learn. The two corner men and the two safeties — Jeff Osburn and Tim Collins — must react with Steve and Kirk, going up to meet the run or side-peddling should the flow of backs go to the opposite side.

It takes a boy about one season to learn this defense," the coach reports, but what a thing of beauty it is for him to observe when his defensive backs move as a highly - coordinated unit.

★

LARRY MERX goes both ways and when the opponent has the ball, Tom Elliott comes in to join him at the other tackle post. The coach is delighted with Tom, who didn't play last year and has come along fast all season, playing his best game against Blissfield.

Tackles on defense are told to crash over the outside shoulder of the man opposite them with major responsibility to the inside.

They're instructed to Fire out, defeat their opponent. It's' one-on-one, war — protect your own territory, locate the ball, then pursue it!"

Key man of the defense, the coach believes is a 225-lb. Tiger named Jeff Noe, who plays middle guard — dead ahead on the other team's center. His first contact is with the pivot man and then he moves laterally with the action.

Jeff's gridiron world consists of a strip of scrimmage line 12 feet wide, from guard to guard. If he consistently jams up the middle, it allows line-backers Don Baird and McEnroe — called the best in the Huron League by their coach — to roam behind him, getting to the thrust of the foe at top speed.

Digging in on either side of Jeff are guards Hale and Forsythe, who strike forward when the ball is snapped, clutching ankles and legs as they burst ahead.

In gridiron days of yore coaches used to tell their guards, Get your noses in the dirt and burrow through grabbing everything in sight. Don't worry about the score, we'll tell you what it is when the game is over."

It isn't that way nowadays, although the guards do considerable plowing with their face guards.

★

DEFENSIVE FOOTBALL is an 11-man operation with the greatest attribute of the players being pursuit".

"You won't see any of our guys standing around during a play," the mentor says proudly.

He can report this with real authority, after spending at least six hours each Sunday with his assistant, Fig Newton, running and re-running film of the previous Friday night's contest.

The pair chart the performance of their lads on each play, both on offense and defense. What pleases them most is to see an Indian make that second and third effort.

This sort of play is what makes a champion.

Blissfield Falls, 26-0, in Key Huron League Contest

By JIM LINCOLN

1964 Huron League Champions: Tecumseh Indians!

An optimistic feeling before the season came true Friday night when Tecumseh whipped the Blissfield Royals in a surprising fashion, 26-0.

The victory finished the league season for the Indians — who won the title with a 5-0 mark — and leaves only Riverside and Adrian to play here in the final two games.

★

INTERCEPTIONS, recovered fumbles and a fired-up team were major factors overwhelming Blissfield in what was Tecumseh's finest performance of the year.

The Indians tallied in the initial stanza — Tim Collins on a nine-yard romp — and twice in the second quarter to lead at the half, 20-0.

In the wild second period, Collins took a handoff from quarterback Jeff Osburn on Tecumseh's 42, scooted around left end, behind excellent blocking, and then outraced the Royals' secondary for paydirt.

With just a minute remaining, Collins again circled his left end — with more great blocks — from the Blissfield 29 for his final touchdown of the evening.

★

KIRK LUCAS killed any Blissfield hopes of getting back into the game when he scored on a four-yard run with just four seconds left in the third quarter.

The Indian reserves played the final quarter, and not only checked the Blissfield attack, but once moved to the Royals' 38 before relinquishing the pigskin.

Collins, speedy halfback, turned in the offensive game of his prep career. The 160-pound senior showed fans the speed that made him the league's 100-yard dash champion last spring.

Two of the game's longest runs did not end in the scoring column.

★

IN THE FIRST quarter, halfback Don Baird picked off a Blissfield pass on Tecumseh's 35 and then ran it back 53 yards before being dragged down on the Indians' 12.

Gregg McEnroe continued the thievery in the second quarter when he stepped in front of a Blissfield receiver on Tecumseh's two, side-stepped a couple of would-be tacklers on about the 10, and then moved down the sidelines to the Royals' 43 where he was finally hemmed in. The interception covered 55 yards.

Another Baird interception set up Tecumseh's final score in the third quarter, with the 190-pounder grabbing the ball near midfield and returning it to Blissfield's 32.

BLISSFIELD FOUND the Tecumseh line almost impossible to move against and took to the air early in the game. After throwing two passes in the opening quarter, the Royals cut loose with 15 in the second period for 17 passes in the first half.

Only four of the 17 were completed, and only two of nine in the final two periods.

Riverside 11 To Be Rugged

A big and tough Riverside eleven will challenge the Tecumseh Indians here Friday night in the first encounter with the Dearborn school.

Scouting reports show the Indians could have a battle on their hands trying to contain the visitors, who concentrate on running between tackles.

Top Riverside back is Gary Baumdraher, wearing No. 64, a converted all-league tackle. The youngster, 6'2", tips the scales at about 220.

The Indians, who have been outweighed numerous times this season, will have the advantage of speed, something Riverside reportedly lacks.

The Bulldogs boast a 5-2 mark with two narrow losses to Garden City and North Farmington. The latter tripped Riverside, 7-6, and Garden City upended the visitors by one touchdown.

Redskins Face MHS for Crown

CLINTON—It looks as though the old grads will be treated to quite a show Friday evening at Clinton High's annual homecoming festivities.

Topping the bill will be a blood-and-thunder gridiron contest between traditional rivals, Manchester and Clinton, with the Lakeland C League crown at stake.

Both crews have been rolling along undefeated, each having one tie.

The Redskins kept on the victory trail last week by disposing of Grass Lake, 31-12.

Wayne Poole continued his scoring surge, getting three touchdowns, two on long scampers of 60 and 45 yards. He snagged a 20-yard aerial from Dennis Dratic for the other marker.

Bill Jedele, John Basinger and Terry Grinnell were other Redskin standouts.

This Friday's half-time festivities will feature crowning of the Homecoming queen, with the traditional dance following the contest.

Well-Known Wrestlers Scheduled

Eight well-known professional wrestlers, including two women, will be features in the high school gym at 8:30 p.m. Saturday. The show is sponsored by the American G. I. Forum, Adrian Chapter.

The Blonde Bombshell, Mary Jane Mull, will meet Mona Baker.

Ricki "The Crusher" Cortez will meet the European champ Bob Nandor in a feature match.

Two of the Mighty Midgets, Billy the Kid and Sonny Boy Cassidy, will meet.

There will be a special bout of a mixed six-man Australian tag team—midgets and heavyweights in the ring at the same time.

Fails To Place

Steve Dalton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dalton, unsuccessfully competed Saturday in the district punt, pass and kick competition in East Lansing.

Steve had been the zone winner in the contest sponsored by Tecumseh Motors.

Eric Wilkins Is Standout in Irish Win

ADRIAN — Catholic Central's tenth grade fullback Eric Wilkins, a Tecumseh St. Elizabeth graduate, sparkled as the Irish humbled Sand Creek, 33-7, Friday night.

He went 80 yards with the opening kickoff fo ra TD then scored another on a 48-yard gallop. Eric gained 103 yards in eight carries, an average of 12.8 yards per try.

Wilkins and his mates face Whiteford this week in the showdown battle of the River Raisin League season.

MACON MAXIMS

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

Macon Official Church Board will meet Tuesday, Nov. 10, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Clair Camburn and Mrs. Charles Gorton, Sr., will entertain the Macon Women's Club with a 12:30 luncheon Thursday, Nov. 12. Mrs. Joseph Sheward will assist them. Mrs. Floyd Barrett will have the program and Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg, the devotions.

A rose was placed on the church altar Sunday in honor of Lori Michelle Miller, new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller.

Missionary Marion Shaw from Korea will speak in the Saline Methodist Church Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Then on Friday at 1 p.m. in the Springville Methodist Church.

The Junior Youth Fellowship held a Harvest Moon hayride on Halloween. They returned to the home of Pamela Haines for refreshments.

Mrs. Ray Williams, Mrs. Ronald Corl, Mrs. Edward Zick and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore attended the Detroit Conference meeting of the WSCS last Tuesday.

James Thomas underwent surgery in Herrick Memorial Hospital last week.

Milton Naugle, Jr., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Naugle. He returned to Michigan State College Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Collins and sons, Tim and Jim, and Debbie Cheevers of Tecumseh were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Collins in Saline.

Mrs. Ray Williams, president, read the purpose of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, when she opened the meeting Tuesday evening. An invitation from the Springville Society to hear Marion Shaw Friday was read.

The group decided to have the study class on Spanish Americans after the first of the year. Mrs. Guy Zelluff reported on the Methodist Federation of Women. She told of the World Day of Prayer. November 15 a family night will be sponsored by the Youth of the church. Mary Williams will tell of her trip on the bus caravan with other Methodists youth last July. Plans are being made for a supper that the group are planning on serving at the Union Hall in February.

Mrs. Truman Jordan took the roll call of the circles present. The Joy Circle had the most present. Mrs. Elton Osborn is taking subscriptions to the "Together Magazine". When taking it through the church it is only $2.52. Mrs. Carl Hawkins reported on the migrant workers, who have returned to their home. The "Shoulder To the Wheel Bags" are to be handed in at the November meeting.

Mrs. Dean Moore and Mrs. Charles Gorton, Jr., gave an interesting program on "The Young American Mother, Who Is She?" They presented articles from the Methodist Woman and the Reader's Digest. Discussion followed. Mrs. Carl Hawkins had the devotions and the music. Mrs. Gorton was the accompanist. Pumpkin pie, whipped cream and coffee was served in the dining room.

Mrs. William Gibson, Mrs. Leland Rohn, Mrs. Clare Gillespie, Mrs. Melvin Travis, Mrs. Clair Camburn, Mrs. Dil Burleson, Sr., Mrs. Lilburn Burleson, Mrs. Arthur Hill, Mrs. Garland Osburn and Mrs. Jennie Youngclove attended the Woman's Club Reciprocity Day at the Saline Township Hall last Tuesday.

Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore was a Friday supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family. A decorated birthday cake centered the table, honoring Mrs. Hamilton Moore.

Seventy boys and girls collected for UNICEF Halloween, in the Macon vicinity. Then they returned to the Methodist Church, where games were played. Cider, doughnuts and candy were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carpenter of Wanatah, Ont., spent the weekend with her cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore entertained Wednesday evening in honor of their son, Rodney, on his third birthday anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gove and son of Tecumseh and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore were guests. A birthday cake and ice cream were served.

Donald Stilts is a patient in the Osteopathic Hospital near Ypsilanti.

'Right Thinking Most Helpful,' Women Decide

"Forget your troubles and think on the bright side" was the conclusion reached by members of the Progress Extension Club Oct. 27 when roll call was taken at the home of Mrs. Melvin Purple.

One member said "When we think on the lighter side the burning feeling of worry isn't so bad. It helps, especially when one's children are hospitalized, she added.

It takes more energy to frown than it does to smile," one member pointed out.

Plans were completed for the Christmas Open House at the Adrian Methodist Church Nov. 13 and 14.

Each member will contribute a hand-made article for display.

Arrangements were made to purchase gifts for Maple Lane Manor patients and to furnish refreshments for the open house.

Mrs. Merton Boss presented the lesson on "Weight Control." Cider, doughnuts, coffee and sherbet were served by Mrs. Kennard Wise and the hostess to eight members present.

Auto Burns

The Tecumseh Fire Department was called October 28 to extinguish a blaze in an automobile owned by James Snyder of 114 S. Main St., Blissfield. Location of the fire was M-50, near Rogers Hwy.

Extension Group Makes Plans for Holiday Exhibit

Eleven members and one guest, Mrs. Phyllis Coult, attended the Raisin Center Extension Study Group meeting Oct. 26 in the home of Mrs. Dan Muzillo.

Mrs. Ruford Anderson was cohostess.

Mrs. John Young conducted the business meeting when the group made plans for an exhibit for the holiday open house.

The project lesson, "Dressing By Design," was given by Mrs. Henry Frederick, followed by a group discussion of proper accessories and good taste in jewelry.

The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. James Young, served refreshments.

Mrs. Henry Frederick, 826 North Street, Adrian, will entertain the group this month.

WSCS Fall Festival Nov. 12

A Fall Festival, sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, will be held Thursday, Nov. 12, in the church.

The affair, the first of its kind to be held by the Methodists in the past 10 years, includes a bazaar, snack bar and turkey dinner.

The bazaar, which opens at 10 a.m., will feature many booths. A needlecraft shop will display handicraft novelties, aprons, fancy pillows, stuffed toys, and knitted items.

Decorated candles, dried flower arrangements, Christmas display pieces will be featured in the Flower Shop.

A country store will offer such things as apples and squash, jams, gourds and cookies.

The candy booth will sell sweets of all kinds—fudge, candy apples, pop corn balls, candy cotton, and homemade candies. There will be a fish pond also.

Of special interest to students and businessmen and women will be the cafeteria-style snack bar, open from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Sandwiches, baked beans, nut breads, potato chips, salad, dessert, soft drinks and coffee will be available in the social room which may be reached through the east entrance.

Beginning at 5 p.m., a family style turkey dinner will be served. Tickets for the meal are available at Gambles from Mrs. Don R. Martin and at Sluyter's Electric from Mrs. Duane Steele. They will cost $1.50 and 75c.

Do we really need a Medicare Tax ?

Health care is now available for "over 65's" who cannot afford to pay

If you are over 65, facing medical expense and can't pay for it... it's yours for the asking, already provided for by law. The Kerr-Mills Act offers a Health Opportunity Program for the Elderly with the federal and state governments sharing the cost.

In most states this care is far, far greater than that offered by Medicare proposals... and no additional tax is necessary!

If you are elderly, and without funds for needed medical care, ask your doctor about the Health Opportunity Program for the Elderly, or call your local medical society.

THE REV. CHARLES L. MANKER

Methodists Make Plans for Visitation

The Rev. Charles L. Manker will be the guest speaker at the First Methodist Church at 10 a.m. Sunday.

The Rev. Manker, pastor of the Chapel Hill Methodist Church at Kalamazoo, will direct a program of evangelism Sunday morning and instruct visitors how to conduct visitation evangelism calls during the afternoon and evening.

There will be a communion service at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday after which further calls will be made.

This "outreach" program is being conducted in the Detroit and Michigan Conferences of the Methodist Church. The Rev. Donald Porteous preached and worked in the Chapel Hill church this week.

The Rev. Manker is serving a parish formed April 15, 1962.

He received a bachelor of theology degree from Owosso College, a bachelor of arts degree from Asbury College, a master of arts degree in philosophy from the University of Michigan and a bachelor of divinity degree from Drew University.

Class Enjoys Costume Party

A Halloween party was held by the Power Class of the Tecumseh Friends Church Oct. 31.

Twenty "ghosts" met in the basement of the church. Class members came costumed as ghosts and a contest was held to see which ghost could stay unidentified for the longest period of time.

Mrs. Clark Pearson was the winner.

Team games were played in a setting of corn shocks, pumpkins, paper witches and ghouls.

The devotional portion of the evening was led by Mrs. Leland Fogelsong, who had chosen passages from the Bible mentioning bones for the basis of her remarks.

Refreshments of homemade doughnuts, fudge, popcorn, cider, and candied apples were served by the hosts for the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Fogelsong and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker.

TECUMSEH SCHOOL MENU

Monday — Chili and crackers, carrot sticks, bread and peanut butter, cheese square, apple and milk.

Tuesday — Ham and scalloped potatoes, buttered vegetables, brown bread and butter, fruit Jello and milk.

Wednesday — Beef goulash, sauer kraut or green beans, and butter, fruit cocktail, cake and milk.

Thursday — Baked beans, cheese salad or peanut butter sandwich, apple salad and milk.

Friday — Fish stick in bun, potatoes au gratin, celery sticks, peach cobbler and milk.

UNICEF Collection $609.40

"Thursday's successful collection of Halloween coins for UNICEF will have far-reaching results in many parts of the world," Mrs. Carroll Sprague, chairman of the local program, said this week.

"The $609.40 collected was by far the largest amount ever collected by children of the community and will be used to help sick and hungry children in many parts of the world," she said.

★

MRS. SPRAGUE expressed thanks to the 300 or so children participating, the 50 drivers; Mrs. Fred Feight, who with the assistance of Anne Carson served refreshments in the Presbyterian Church after the collection, and others who helped tag the children, handed out canisters and packaged the money. The latter were Mrs. Eddie Kirkland, Mrs. E. H. McConnell, Mrs. Carl Kerns, Vera Gilbert, Mrs. Andrew Woodward and Mrs. Lazlo Gero.

Mrs. Sprague directed the drivers and distributed 2,000 UNICEF bookmarkers to the schools.

★

CHILDREN from the First Methodist, Presbyterian, First Baptist, Grace Lutheran, Gloria Dei Lutheran, Friends, St. Peter's Episcopal and St. Elizabeth Catholic churches participated.

Band Boosters Name Officers

New officers of the Band Boosters of the Tecumseh High School are:

President — Lloyd Stites
Vice President — Mrs. Gene Earling
Treasurer — Mrs. Russell Cooper
Secretary — Mrs. Gordon Goldsberry

A meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 19 in the high school cafeteria for all parents of band members.

Reports will be given of the completed candy sale.

Materialism

The materialistic view of man contrasted with the perfectibility of man in Christ will be the theme at Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject is "Adam and Fallen Man."

PATTERSON SCHOOL PATTER

By SHERRIE LEE HART

Everything back to normal at Patterson. All the spooks and spirits have been put away for another year.

Before going into any teachers' reports, I would like to call attention to an error made in last week's report. In Mrs. Raymond's fifth grade class, Nancy Dustin is president, not Gail Kennedy. Gail was a candidate.

● SECOND GRADE

One sunny day the children in Mrs. Ray Puffer's room invited Mrs. A. L. VanWinkle's class to go with them to visit the fire station and the Raisin Valley Cider Mill. They saw cider being made and afterward the owner, Mr. Tanner, treated all 62 children and their teachers to cider and doughnuts.

● THIRD GRADE

In Mrs. Lasky's third grade room they have been studying fractional parts that make a whole. Their teacher has used the overhead projector and they have had a lot of fun learning their new math.

They are studying rocks for Science and are making collections of common Michigan rocks. Their teacher gave each of them six rocks that are a little hard for them to find in Tecumseh.

In reading class they are going to read Indian Stories the next several weeks.

Baptists Mark Day of Prayer

The annual Baptist Women's Day of Prayer was observed Monday by 25 members of the Women's Society of the First Baptist Church and six women from the North Rome Baptist Church. They met in the First Baptist Youth House.

Mrs. George Burkhard, program chairman, introduced those taking part.

Mrs. Harry Travis presented the history of the Baptist Women's Day of Prayer. Ellen Snedecor led in prayer and read the scripture.

Mrs. Eddie Kirkland received the offering and blessed it.

Mrs. James Danforth accompanied the group singing. Mrs. Thomas Brooks served coffee and rolls.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

FED CATTLE PRICES will hold up for the rest of 1964 and into 1965. October-December Choice steer prices seem likely to average $34 to $35, with year-end prices closer to $34. Some price strength is expected in late November but the odds don't favor holding finished cattle—higher prices won't offset cost of adding weight to heavies. Where a grade can be added it might pay. Profits on Good and low Choice steers costing less than 24c look good for next month.

CLOSED HOUSES FOR HOGS are worth the expense in most cases. Pigs in a completely enclosed barn were fed out with a feed saving of $1.85 per head over pigs fed in an open shed, university tests show, and in eight days less time. Test was run during the final 70-pound growth period of the hogs. Efficiencies obtained in labor and feed will at least offset the additional investment required.

HEATING TAPE, where it's necessary to have water pipes exposed to open air, is a simple way to avoid winter freeze-up. Wrap heating tape or cable in a spiral around the pipe and plug it into an electrical outlet. It can also be used to thaw pipes already frozen and is safer than using a blow torch. If it isn't available at your hardware store write to Cox & Co., 215 Park Ave., South, New York, N. Y.

WINTERIZE MACHINERY. Storing in a shed can increase the useful life of machinery by 10%. If floor is damp, place equipment on wooden blocks. Fertilizer hoppers should be thoroughly washed out and oil applied to the inside surface. Coat the land-polished surfaces of plows with a rust preventative.

VACATION WANDERINGS — PLACES

Last week we promised to be brief in our discussion of places we enjoyed on this year's trip and truly, if our vacation articles are not going to run until next spring, I must stop rambling.

Colorado is such a fabulous state, though, there is so much to see and do, that the job will be a difficult one.

On a Saturday morning, our first day in Colorado Springs, we awoke to find rain — cold, wet, drizzly rain with dark, gloomy clouds hiding the mountains. All right, instead of taking to the high roads, we decided to visit the Air Force Academy.

A better choice could not have been made. Just north of the city, the school is nestled at the foot of the Rampart Range Mountains and covers more than 17,000 acres. It is a tremendously impressive place, we were thrilled beyond words.

Instead of going into great detail — if ever anyone is near, a tour through the Academy should be a must. Especially the chapel. It is magnificent.

SUNDAY WAS A perfect day, sunshine, blue sky and typical Colorado white clouds. We learned, however, that yesterday's rain was snow in the mountains and the road to Pike's Peak was clogged by three to four feet of the white stuff.

Another change of plans which turned out well and we spent the day going to Cripple Creek, a picturesque old mining town just full of atmosphere.

Victor, another old mining town and the birthplace of Lowell Thomas. Finally we returned to home base via the Garden of the Gods.

A good picture-taking day climaxed by almost perfect late afternoon lighting in this natural park where huge outcroppings of red rock tease one's imagination. It's like seeing faces in the clouds, the rocks are all sorts of heads, castles, ships, etc.

THE RAIN CLOUDS were due back Monday afternoon so we took advantage of the morning sun by driving past the luxurious Broadmoor Hotel, through the large Cheyenne Mountain Zoo and up to the imposing Shrine of the Sun.

Standing at an elevation of 8,000 feet, this memorial to Will Rogers deserves much more time than we had.

Continuing on to the top of Cheyenne Mountain the road is one hairpin curve after another — but such fun.

The weather forecast was right and our trip south to Canyon City was made in the rain. Even though it was dark and dreary, we decided to drive out to the Royal Gorge. Our curiosity was aroused, we wanted to see what it was. How lucky we went — on the way in, three deer ran across the road.

★

NEXT MORNING, by bright warm sunlight, we saw the Royal Gorge at its best. A remarkable product of weather erosion and the grinding action of the Arkansas River, the sheer-sided gorge plunges some places to a depth of 1,200 feet.

One of the highest suspension bridges in the world spans the gorge and what a view it affords. Mom walked the bridge and took some spectacular pictures. Dad and I drove. I was all set to be pushed across, but the plank flooring looked a mite bumpy.

In fact, it was all too reminiscent of the cobblestone streets at Williamsburg, Va., over which we bounced many years ago. An easy-riding car is much more comfortable.

★

SEVERAL DAYS later we were awed by another canyon, the Black Canyon of the Gunnison River. Geologically speaking, this is more amazing than the Royal Gorge because the Gunnison has chiseled through some of the earth's oldest rocks.

The canyon is some 2,800 feet deep, 1,300 feet across at its narrowest point. Some of the cliffs are dark, almost black.

But look, try as I did to be brief, we must still continue our recital of vacation places next week.

Historymobile Can Be Seen at Adrian Thursday

A Muesum - on - Wheels, the Michigan Historical Commission's new Historymobile, will be in Adrian for a brief visit Thursday, at 228 N. Broad St., from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The Historymobile, valued at over $50,000, has been developed by various businesses and industries and 14 of the State's finest museums.

Nineteen chronologically-arranged displays illustrate the colorful story of Michigan's development from prehistoric times to the present.

Products Shares in Program

The Tecumseh Products Co. plant has produced $33,632 worth of goods to be sold to firms in Turkey and the Congo.

Announcement of the sales was made by the Agency for International Development.

The $30,784 sale to Turkey was made possible through a $70 million U. S. development loan enabling Turkey to purchase selected commodities and equipment needed for its industrial and agricultural development.

The Congo purchases were made under similar commodity import provisions of the U. S. economic development program in the Congo.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Was Our Reviewer Too Honest?

Salty Harry Truman mouthed a gem when he told touchy politicians, who had been criticized, "If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen."

Harry's words apply nicely to just about every endeavor in life, including amateur theatre groups and their productions.

In last week's Herald our reviewer reported that the season's Tecumseh Players' opener, "State of the Union" was a sleep-inducer. She praised several cast members, but the over-all effort was flat and she so reported.

☆

HOT REBUFFS from some Players were anticipated and they came — with the grace of an air hammer tearing up a concrete sidewalk.

But what caught us unprepared were the comments from other members of the group, like, "That reviewer certainly knew what she was talking about," and "She didn't mention some of the lousy acting."

The critics of our critic claimd a review should not be critical, which leaves us gasping.

"But we're only amateurs," one gal purred after she had turned the knife in a most professional manner, then added, "We don't get paid."

Yes, dear lady, but you charge $1.50 a seat for your patrons. We realize this money is used mainly to pay the director, rent the hall, advertise, buy props and materials. But, by selling tickets, you drop your amateur standing.

The Players compete with television shows, the Strand, drive-in theatres in Adrain and any other entertainment which happens to be going on the same evenings as a Players' performance.

Patrons know this and crowds depend on how good the Players' product stacks up to other current choices of entertainment. Some attend out of "duty" — but only a few. People go to Players' shows because they're pretty sure to be made to laugh or cry, feel good or sad.

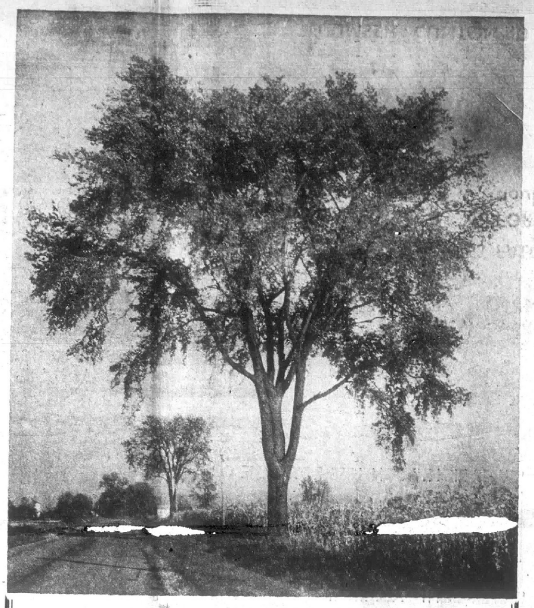
Check "Pajama Game" turnouts for the truth of this hypothesis.

It would be a dull life, indeed, if every show by the ... ly got a "well done" from the community newspaper, whether it was good, bad or terrible.

The Players should realize — and probably more than half of them do — that their stage productions should be treated with objectivity and honesty in the public press.

Let us conclude by saying that it will be ever thus in The Herald.

Those who might wish to blanch at that last sentence, kindly refer to the 11-word statement by the Man from Missouri.



EDITORIAL in PICTURE

IT'S THE VANISHING AMERICAN ELM. Tree lovers should take long looks at such beautiful trees as the one shown in the photograph above. The American elm is falling victim to the Japanese beetle and in not many years may quite possibly be as rare as the chestnut tree which was killed by the blight. This fine specimen is growing on the farm of Ransom Squires of 10833 Lenawee County Line Rd., Milan.

LOCAL BUSINESS

One of the necessary costs in retailing is the payment of rent.

The cost of rent of course depends upon the location of a store. When traffic passing a store is high, then the rent is high.

Newspaper advertising is, in a real sense, a type of rent and should be considered as an investment in the same light. The merchant who utilizes advertising extensively is paying for a high rate of traffic just as the merchant pays for attention he receives from a good location.

In many cases the cost of traffic is less through advertising than it would be through a good physical location. And it can be more effective, too.

Modern shopping conditions are making advertising more important as a replacement for high rent locations. Many people prefer to shop at places easily accessible by automobile and with free and convenient parking space.

Stores, restaurants, and service establishments often find that their businesses are more attractive when they move from high rent locations.

However, the new low rent locations are never an answer alone. The business which operates in a non-central location finds that investments which were made previously in rent must be transferred to advertising.

In fact, the farther any business is from the center of traffic the greater his advertising costs should become.

Consumers are not likely to search out an isolated location unless they are frequently reminded of the address and of the advantages of using the location.

● MRS. CLYDE BARBER

Services were held Monday at St. Peter's Episcopal Church for Mrs. Clyde Barber, 82, who died Friday at 8 p.m. at Herrick Memorial Hospital where she was admitted Wednesday.

She had been in ill health for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Barber was born Dec. 12, 1881, in Tecumseh, Elona, the daughter of Berford and Alice Smith Anderson.

Dec. 18, 1906, she married Clyde Barber in Tecumseh, who preceded her in death Aug. 3, 1949.

Mrs. Barber lived in Tecumseh all of her life, except for five years in Detroit.

She is survived by two sons, Gibbs, 310 N. Union St., and Berford of Saginaw; nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Barber also was preceded in death by a daughter, Mrs. Alice Hanna of St. Joseph in 1951.

She was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal Church and a life member of the Order of the Eastern Star.

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne officiated and burial was in the Brookside Cemetery.

● MRS. RALPH HARDY

Services were held Tuesday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Mrs. Ralph Hardy, 75, of Manitou Beach, who died Friday evening at the Tuttle Nursing Home, Hudson.

She had been a patient there for three months.

Mrs. Hardy was born April 15, 1889, in Raisin Township, the daughter of David and Caroline Smith Boyd.

Feb. 22, 1911, she married Mr. Hardy, who preceded her in death May 30, 1964.

She was a resident of the Tipton area for many years and had lived at Manitou Beach since 1959.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Walter Sneary, nee Delores Hardy, of Jerome, and Mrs. John Wisner, nee Dorothy Hardy, of Tipton; two sons, Ralph of Manitou Beach and Boyd of Jerome; 17 grandchildren and 33 great-grandchildren.

Three brothers, Lawrence Boyd, 7543 N. Adrian Hwy., Melvin Boyd, of Oak Park, and Garland Boyd of Livonia also survive.

She was also preceded in death by a daughter, Mrs. Ernest Groeb, nee Donelda Hardy, in 1952, three children in infancy, two brothers and a sister.

Mrs. Hardy was a member of the Tipton Community Church, a past member of the Tipton Grange and the Pythian Sisters.

The Rev. O. E. Priest officiated and burial was in the Tipton Cemetery.

268 See Watershed

A total of 268 got a new view of the River Raisin.

Boarding small aircraft at Adrian Airport Saturday and Sunday, the tourists had a bird's eye look at the ancient Raisin as it meanders through Jackson, Lenawee and Monroe Counties at $5 a person.

Riding in two's and three's, with volunteer pilots, they viewed erosion control on certain farms, small fish ponds, pine plantings, wildlife areas, contour farm lands and grass waterways.

These were the good itams.

★

BUT THERE were some sad sights, like weed-filled shallow ponds, stagnant sections of river, water discolored by industrial wastes, ugly dumps, areas which flood each spring.

Pointed out by pilots were places where large areas of water will one day be impounded, including two immediately south of Tecumseh. One is north of Comfort Rd., which will eventually reach all the way to M-50 and another is along Raisin Center Hwy., south of Russell Rd.

Soil test borings were started this week at half a dozen places in these general areas as the initial step in the impounded program.

★

FAR-SIGHTED watershed promotors can see in their mind's eye a huge lake south of Tecumseh, bordered by parks and cottages, fishing boats dotting the surface, swimmers happily splashing near sandy beaches.

With surveys and costs being assembled, the total estimated cost of reclaiming the 678,720-acre Raisin watershed will be compiled about Jan. 1, giving residents an idea of how much various communities will be asked to furnish for the program, to supplement the Federal grants, which will cover about 80% of total outlay.

Herald Will Appear Twice Weekly

The Herald will now publish two issues each week.

Beginning Monday, an early-week edition will be delivered to all subscribers and placed on newsstands that morning.

The twice-weekly arrangement will continue through December on an experimental basis. If readers and advertisers approve the plan, it will become permanent.

Monday's paper, running up to eight pages, will be a complete issue with late news and pictures, features, editorials, as well as advertising.

The first one is scheduled to contain a page of Tecumseh-Adrian game football pictures and the start of a series on Raisin Township by Clara Waldron, Tecumseh historian. One editorial will probe the down-trodden Republican party and another is to discuss the new Michigan automobile license plates. The Long and Short column is going to tell about a kookie folk song dubbed "Andorra."

Plans call for work on the Monday paper to begin each Friday and continue all day Saturday. Additional editorial and mechanical personnel will join The Herald staff to help handle much of the early-week issue duties.

Mrs. Gordon Comfort, a veteran newspaper woman, will act as issue editor during the trial period.

No advance in pre-paid circulation rates, $4 in Lenawee County and $5 elsewhere, will be made during the trial period. A 10c per copy newsstand fee will be charged for both Monday and Thursday editions.

Classified advertising will automatically appear in two consecutive issues with a rate of $1.25 or $2.50 for three weeks. Display advertisers will earn a 25% discount if they run identical ads in two straight editions.

Going bi-weekly has long been considered by Herald management. Continued growth of Tecumsehland with vast new areas of story and picture material have dictated the move.

Circulation of The Herald, now in its 115th year, has advanced to a modern-era high of 3,650, with a regular readership of more than 12,000.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Of all things, who should arrive in town this week but our old pal, Bootin' Pussy.

"You heard we were going twice a week and wanted to give us a hand," was our opener.

"Not quite, son," and there was that old twinkle in his eyes. "Maybe you didn't know, but my Indians are about to face the Moment of Truth."

"Oh, you're more interested in some silly football game than the Wheels of Progress."

"That's right, kid, and you'd probably be better off if you did likewise."

Bootin' was his old spunky self.

Shaking a few cinders from his tail, obviously of the New York Central roadbed variety, he continued, "Been doing a little calculating and I note that my old buddy, Tom Fagan, is in hopes of marking up his 20th victory as Tecumseh coach.

"That's against only seven losses, in case you don't have your records in too good an order, which I imagine you don't.

"Ole Tom and Fig Newton are swell guys. I always think of that story about Tom's little girl after he took the Tecumseh job three years ago.

"The Sunday after he told the family of the coming switch from Clinton to THS, the Fagans were in church and one of the little girls looked up at the altar and whispered, 'Goodbye God, we won't be seeing you anymore, we're moving to Tecumseh'."

Bootin' showed that silly lopsided grin and the backstop gang, now gathered around, burst into laughter.

It was time for me to butt in with that obvious question, "How are you picking Friday's game?"

"Not so fast, young fellow, and I do love your new bib overalls, got them from Osborne's, didn't you, don't come at me so quick.

There was a pause, then Bootin' continued, "Football is like the Game of Life, you know, a team gets out of it what the players put in. From all I've heard, my Indians have been puttin more than their share of effort into their gridiron efforts.

"Want my prediction? OK, Tecumseh by 10. Excuse me now, I've got to see Tom and Fig."

Third Grader Killed Sunday

Eight-year-old Ricardo R. Sanchez, a third grader at St. Elizabeth School, was struck and killed Sunday afternoon about 2:25 by a car on Adrian St.

Driven by Francis John Opel, 18, of 909 Murray Dr., the auto hit the youth, carried him nearly 50 feet as it skidded to a stop, then hurled the boy another 30 feet, reported the police.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Margarito Sanchez, 609 S. Pearl St., Ricardo had been with his brother and several other neighborhood chums when the tragedy occured.

Heading for Tecumseh Acres School driveway to sidewalk surf, several of the group crossed Adrian St. as Ricardo waited, then he dashed over as the Opel car approached.

The driver told police he saw the youngsters cross, but didn't decrease his speed and said he wasn't aware how fast he was going because the speedometer in the car wasn't working.

Police measured the alleged skid marks, which ran 99 fet. Speed limit through the school zone is 25 mph.

Police are still investigating the accident.

★

FUNERAL SERVICES were held Wednesday in St. Elizabeth Catholic Church with the Rev. Thomas J. Collins officiating.

Burial was in Tecumseh Brookside Cemetery. Rosary was recited in the Proctor Funeral Home Tuesday night.

In addition to his parents, Ricardo is survived by four brothers, Margarito Jr., Ismael, Hector and Roy; a sister, Alamar; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Isidoro Sanchez; and two uncles, Jose Sanchez and Candelario Sanchez.

Symphony To Appear in Adrian

The Michigan Youth Symphony, known throughout the state for its excellency, will present a concert at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 22, in Dawson Auditorium on the Adrian College Campus.

The 150 musicians will be directed by Prof. Orien Dalley of Ann Arbor, a member of the staff of the School of Music of the University of Michigan and of the UM Extension Service. During the summer months, Prof. Dalley is an orchestra director at the national Music School at Interlochen.

The Adrian concert will be sponsored by the Adrian Band Boosters with proceeds allocated for youth scholarships in this area.

Tickets are available in Tecumseh from Mrs. James Danforth and from Lloyd Stites. Adult tickets will cost 75 cents, students, 35 cents.

Students who sell two adult tickets will be given a free admission ticket. There will be a special price consideration for groups of students, bands, choirs, etc.

Chiefs To Meet

TIPTON—The Past Chiefs will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 18, at the home of Mrs. John Cook, with Mrs. Frank Keeney assisting at 7:30 p.m.

Hunters Warned of Storage Laws

The Michigan Department of Agriculture this week warned deer hunters they must comply with strict storage regulations. The season opens Sunday.

Conservationists estimate that between 515,000 and 520,000 hunters will harvest between 124,000 and 130,000 deer.

Under the law dressed and cut up deer may be stored in commercial cold storage plants with other food supplies provided the skins and hides are not included.

Forbidden is the storage of hides and skins except in separate storage rooms that have no open passages leading into locker rooms, chill rooms, aging rooms, or sharp freeze rooms.

Lenawee Institute To Get 50 Trees

The planting of 50 trees at the Lenawee Institute is the year's main project for the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club.

Fred Nash, lieutenant governor of Division 7 for 1965, returned home Saturday after attending a two-day conference for Michigan's present lieutenant governors and governors-elect at Eaton Rapids.

Mr. Nash has announced that the conference for Division 7, 16 clubs in Monroe and Lenawee Counties, will be held Thursday, Nov. 19, at the IOOF Hall on Green Hwy.

★

NEARLY 100 KIWANIANS are expected to attend the event which will begin at 3 p.m. and continue through dinner time.

Mr. Nash has appointed district chairman for 1965. They are:

Agriculture and conservation — Dr. George Burkhard

Boys and girls work — Kenneth Briggs

Circle K — William Curry

Hearing aid — Carl Lamb

Interclub and fellowship—Guy McAran

International relations — Clint Ford, Jr.

Kiwanis International will celebrate its golden anniversary in 1965 with many observances scheduled during the year. Over 261,000 members in 5160 clubs in the United States and 11 other countries will participate.

Gridiron Fans To Get Musical Double Header

Spectators at the Adrian-Tecumseh football game Friday will be treated to a musical double-feature during intermission.

Adrian's band will do a seven-minute Western Melodrama under direction of Robert Whitacre.

Tecumseh musicians then take over with a presentation of Pop Numbers, featuring the percussion section.

NEW PASS-CATCHING STAR? — Should Adrian be alert for an Indian trick, like a guard-over play, with talented Jerry Hale (64) eligible to catch passes, as he seems to be doing in this shot of the Riverside game? Actually, Jerry has just snatched up the pigskin, following Greg McEnroe's touchdown, and is doing an impromptu victory jig. Riverside game details on page 4.

Indians Face Adrian in Traditional Clash

A fast-improving Tecumseh eleven will wrap up the season here Friday night against arch rival Adrian.

For the first time in several years, THS is given a chance of beating the Maples.

Seventeen seniors on the Indians' squad have never tasted an Adrian victory. The last Tecumseh win was in 1950 by a 6-0 score, although the two schools battled to a tie the following year.

Both teams are comparable in size with a slight edge to the visitors. In overall team speed, the Indians will be a bit faster, particularly in the backfield.

In the last two games against Blissfield and Dearborn Riverside, Tecumseh has shown definite signs of improvement, with the blocking looking especially good.

The Indians, who had trouble moving the pigskin early in the season, have now shown the ability to sustain long drives.

Whether Tecumseh's defense and offense will stand up against the visitors are questionable, Adrian has played far tougher competition, accounting for its 2-6 record for the season.

The Maples have the potential to win, a fact pointed out when Adrian nearly upset Lansing Everett, a top-ranked Class A power.

★

EACH YEAR, the Adrian squad is reportedly riddled with injuries, but only in rare cases do the Maples show up without their top stars. It's reported again this time that Adrian is hurting.

Injuries have seldom hampered the Maples in the past and they're not likely to this Friday night. Adrian has always been tough — almost a jinx — to fine Tecumseh teams in the past.

However, if the Indians play ball equal to performances against Blissfield and part of the Riverside game, Tecumseh should boost it's '64 record to 8-1 — and its first victory over Adrian in five years.

Game time is 7:30, and fans are urged to come early if they want a seat.

Maples Plagued in 1964 by Injuries and Mistakes

By CARL SCHIERHORN
Special to The Herald

The Adrian Maples — plagued by mistakes and injuries throughout the year — have proved to be a big disappointment.

With a 2-5-1 mark, Adrian has defeated Jackson and Battle Creek Lakeview and tied Bedford.

The Maples have scored only 72 points in eight contests while allowing opponents to score 147.

The Maples opened against Monroe, dropping a squeaker to the Trojans, 25-19.

Bedford invaded Adrian, and battled the Maples to a 0-0 standoff.

Hillsdale, a highly - rated class B school, tripped up the Maples, 14 to 0, with all-state halfback Frank Waters scoring all of the winner's points.

The Maples then picked up their first win of the season by edging Jackson, 13-6.

Adrian won its initial South Central Conference game the next week, beating Battle Creek Lakeview, 12-7.

★

ADRIAN PLAYED its finest game against Lansing Everett, the fifth-ranked team in class A.

Adrian outrushed and outpassed the Vikings, but gave the game away on penalties, two intercepted passes, and a pair of fumbles. Everett escaped with a narrow 20-14 victory.

Jackson Parkside caught the Maples flat and pounded the Maples, 27-7.

Last week top-ranked East Lansing mauled the Maples, 48-7, sending Adrian down to its worst

City Defies Township, Starts Sewer

By JIM LINCOLN

Defying a Raisin Township Board decision — and possible court injunction — Tecumseh's Council on Monday night ordered work to begin on the sanitary sewer to GM's Fisher Body Plant on Occidental Rd.

Last Friday, the city was notified that the township rejected Tecumseh's plea for approval of the sewer, which will be constructed entirely in Raisin Township, except for the connection at the intersection of Russell Rd. and S. Evans St.

According to Michigan's Constitution, township approval is needed for such construction. (See editorial on back page of second section)

James Beardsley, city attorney, told councilmen that an injunction is likely, but if one came, it would stop construction until a court decision was reached.

If the injunction is made, a delay of only two or three days is anticipated.

Mr. Beardsley gave city officials numerous reasons for being confident of winning a favorable court decision.

City Manager Cal Zorn, along with the attorney, recommended construction even without the Raisin Township Board authorization.

GM has requested that the eight-inch sewer be operable by Feb. 1. Construction of the main is expected to take six to eight weeks, and work on a lift station at the plant, slightly longer.

★

COOPERATION between the city and the township board started deteriorating several years ago over the number of fire runs into the township by the local department.

The two local governmental bodies agreed earlier this year, however, to participate jointly in the GM sewer.

Since this agreement, the township board has insisted that the corporation own the sewer, despite GM representatives saying they wanted no part of ownership.

$80,301 Checks Mailed

Checks totaling $80,301.75 were mailed Tuesday to United Savings Bank of Tecumseh Christmas Club members.

This was the highest total in the bank's history.

More than 900 persons had Christmas Club accounts during the past year for 1964 Yule spending.

The bank's 1965 Club opens this weekend.

Anderson Plans Plant on Staib Rd.

The Anderson Fertilizer Co. of Riga will begin construction next week near Tecumseh of a $100,000, 15,000 square foot fertilizer warehouse.

Workmen last week began grading the 1½-acre site purchased from Merle Mellott, on Staib Rd., immediately west of old M-52. It is expected, F. C. Anderson, Jr., vice president and sales manager said, that the building will be ready for use by Jan. 1. It is designed to store 3,000 tons of bulk fertilizer and bagged goods.

The warehouse will employ four or five full-time persons, Mr. Anderson said, including a manager, warehouseman and two field representatives. During the spring or rush season others will be hired, he said.

The Anderson Co. has a main plant at Riga and plants in Dundee and Morenci.

Two Cited After Minor Accidents

Two minor auto accidents during the past week resulted in citations for two drivers.

Friday, John Steiner, 54, rural Berkey, was charged with failing to yield the right of way after pulling out of the VFW driveway into the side of a car driven by Robert Hoekstra, 39, 306 E. Pottawatamie.

Charles L. Fretwell, 21, of 311 E. Shawnee, was cited Saturday for improper backing on E. Pottawatamie, near Wyandotte St.

He backed into a car driven by Lawrence Cole, 52, Addison.

Brooklyn PTA Schedules 'Sing'

BROOKLYN — A "hootenany" will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 14, in the Brooklyn High School gym.

It is sponsored by the Brooklyn PTA for the benefit of Girl Scout Troop 227.

The "hootenany" will consist of local talent and professional entertainers from the University of Michigan.

The public is invited.

Behind Page One

Writes Mrs. Gordon Comfort, "The Department of Agriculture will be surprised to learn that the Japanese Beetle is responsible for the Dutch Elm disease. Do you suppose it's an international conspiracy" (See last week's Editorial in Picture.)

After traveling 20,000 miles to see the Olympic Games, Dr. Bob Laidlaw returned home to enjoy a thrill which likely surpassed all the international sports spectaculars. Bob was hunting with his 13-year-old son, David, when the eighth-grader nailed his first pheasant. To round out the story, we should add that the local dentist got the first crack at the bird and missed, but Dave came through.

Seriously now, if you have some gems for this column, please whisper them to one of us.

Told to The Herald this week: "You're improving down there when a Republican newspaper can quote a good Democrat". She referred to our editorial last week, which featured those Harry Truman [illegible] of wisdom "If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen".

Mrs. Seaman Martin, 5503 Macon Rd., is another resident who thinks Mother Nature has her schedule confused. Mrs. Martin has a forsythia bush aglow with flowers for the second time this year.

The great oak tree was once a little nut that held its ground.

Two Tecumseh business places will begin expansion projects shortly. Full details in a couple of weeks.

Meadowridge Dairy's Ken Blumerich is going to miss deer hunting for the first time in 22 years — unless he can get some wonderful guy to run his wholesale route for a week.

On the bulletin in front of the Methodist church, "Church is fragile, handle with prayer."

Recent contributions to the hospital landscaping fund are in memory of Mrs. Pearl Brown from her family, L. E. Brown, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. James Murray, Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Dolan and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brown, Jr., to be used for a magnolia tree.

In memory of Mrs. Clyde Barber from Mrs. Karl Schneider, Sr., and Dr. and Mrs. R. G. B. Marsh.

A donation from Mrs. Bessie Robinson, Route 4.

Well-known for his glib story-telling talent, Don Wolfe of The Blade in Toledo, now uses the one about a priest who loved the Notre Dame football team and found the Saturday afternoon task of hearing confessions a real burden during the grid season. One day, with the Irish having a big battle, he was desperate for some information. After a teen-ager had received his absolution, the priest asked him to find out how Notre Dame was doing and report back. A while passed, then the boy's voice came through the dark screen, ". . . my last confession was 35 minutes ago, I haven't done anything and neither has Notre Dame."

Spring has sprung or so it would seem. Mrs. Herman Schanz of Macon brought a violet to The Herald office this week. She found it on her lawn and said if the pretty weather continues, there will certainly be many more of the confused little flowers in bloom.

MRS. DONALD E. ABLES

Janet Cutler, Michael Robison Wedding Vows Were Spoken

Janet Lee Cutler became the bride of Michael Jay Robison Oct. 31 in a double-ring ceremony in the North Blissfield Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Daniel Matthes performed the ceremony before guests seated by Robert Koffron, Ron Lemerand, George Heeman and Tom Barton.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cutler, 5611 Holloway Rd. and Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Robison, 515 W. Kilbuck St.

Fred C. Dickinson was the soloist, accompanied by Dr. James Spencer at the organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her parents, wore a floor length gown of white taffeta with chapel train.

The lace bodice featured a scalloped neckline and long tapered sleeves ending in points over her hands.

Her three-tiered silk illusion veil was secured to a taffeta cabbage rose trimmed with pearls and sequins.

She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums centered with an orchid enhanced with velvet streamers.

Janet Mackey, maid of honor, wore a floor-length gown of peacock blue fashioned with scooped neckline and elbow length sleeves

A bow was attached to the V back neckline with streamers extending to the floor.

She carried a snowball arrangement of white and blue chrysanthemums with velvet streamers.

Mrs. James Newman, Mrs. Harold Broderick, and Sue Klappich, and Jan Felton, junior bridesmaid, were attired as the maid of honor.

Kathleen Broderick was the flower girl in a floor length gown of white, fashioned as those of the bridesmaids. Jeff Robison served as best man.

Larry Robison was the ring bearer.

A reception was held at the Eagles Hall in Adrian with 300 persons attending.

Following a trip through northern Michigan, the couple will reside in Tecumseh.

Both young persons are graduates of Tecumseh High School. The bride is employed at The Tecumseh Products Co. and her husband is employed at Ford Motor Co. in Rawsonville.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at Don's Beef Buffet.

MRS. MICHAEL J. ROBISON

Patricia, Meredith Morden Wed in Double Ceremony

Patricia Gene and Meredith Ann Morden, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Morden, 7227 Clinton-Macon Rd., were married Friday evening in a double wedding ceremony in the Macon Methodist Church.

Patricia Gene became the bride of Donald Eugene Ables, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ranzy Ables of Adrian, and Meredith became the bride of Herbert Lee Short, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Merritt Hamilton of Petersburg.

The Rev. Ronald Corl performed the double ceremony. Mrs. Thomas Judge was the soloist accompanied by Mrs. Carl Thomas.

The brides were given in marriage by their parents. Mr. Morden escorted Meredith down the white carpeted aisle while Patricia approached the altar on the arm of her brother, Max.

Snowball white chrysanthemums in pyramid design stood on each side of the prie-dieu. Cathedral candelabra outlined the chancel entrance and white pompons marked the family pews.

★

MRS. MORDEN made her daughters gowns. Meredith wore a candlelight satin dress fashioned [illegible] long tapered sleeves, rounded neckline and appliques of jeweled Chantilly lace. The same lace banded the bottom of the bell skirt with detachable train.

An ivory crown studded with pearls held her veil of English silk illusion in place. She carried Eucharist lilies centering a cascade arrangement of Pinocchio pompons enhanced with saalal foliage.

Patricia wore a full floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta styled with long sleeves and rounded neckline trimmed with Alencon lace. The same lace marked the waistline and was used in the trim of two panels over the chapel train.

A crystal crown held in place her veil of English silk illusion. She carried a crescent arrangement of white Fuji chrysanthemums outlining a cluster of Eucharist lilies.

★

MRS. ELLIE PIPKINS served as matron of honor for Patricia and Mrs. Norman Myers for Meredith.

Mrs. Robert Feldcamp and Marilyn Morden served as their sisters bridesmaids with Mrs. Brute LeFevre and Anita Gillen.

They were attired alike in floor length gowns of raspberry satin with slim skirts and Empire bodices, long fitted sleeves and rounded necklines.

Pill-box hats of raspberry satin held tiny face veils in place. The attendants carried solid ball arrangements of white chrysanthemums held by pink velvet ribbon handles. Corsages of pink champagne roses formed a crescent line over the chrysanthemums.

Dale Thompson served as best man for Mr. Short and Ellie Pipkins performed the same service for Mr. Ables.

Those seating the 300 guests were Max Morden, brother of the brides, Larry Chase, Clarence Eyler, Mike Gillen and Robert Feldcamp.

★

A RECEPTION was held at the Products Workers Union Hall where the brides table was skirted with white taffeta and nylon net accented with raspberry satin ribbons. Clusters of stephanotis were used. Crystal chalice containers holding raspberry candles and garlanded with foliage were used on the guest tables.

The tiered cake was encircled with a garland of Baker fern and white pompons with raspberry bows.

Mrs. Dale Thompson, sister of Mr. Short cut the brides cake. Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Graham Morden, Mrs. Daniel Weimer, Kathy and Sandra Burkhardt and Mary Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Morden were hosts for the rehearsal dinner.

★

AFTER THEIR WEDDING trips the newly-married couples will make their homes at 8976 Clinton-Macon Rd.

The sisters are graduates of Tecumseh High School. The new Mrs. Short is employed at Universal Die Casting Corp. in Saline as is her husband.

Mr. Short is a graduate of Summerfield High School, [illegible] by the Ford Motor Co. in Rawsonville.

MRS. HERBERT L. SHORT

Anderson - Covell Vows Exchanged

TIPTON—Patricia Lee Anderson Saturday night became the bride of Stephen Edward Covell. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 p.m. in the Tipton Community Church, Tipton, by the Rev. Phillip Rustin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Anderson, 9871 Tipton Hwy., Tipton, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Golda Updike and the late Clayton Covell. Mrs. Updike lives at 310 W. Michigan Ave., Clinton.

Vases of white snapdragons and chyysanthemums and candelabra and palms flanked the altar, and the walls of the sanctuary were lighted by hanging candelabra. White satin bows marked the family pews.

Dean Cook sang "Because" and "Always" accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Harold Every.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white peau de soie. The fitted bodice had a scoop neckline and the long, tapered sleeves ended in points at the hands. The draed bell skirt featured a back panel of lace and tulle ruffles. A large bow topped the open apron effect at the waist in back.

The bride's headdress was a handmade peau de soie leaf crown with seed pearls and lace-edged illusion.

Her crescent bouquet was of white roses and lime Fuji mums accented with smilax.

★

MISS CONNIE ANDERSON, sister of the bride, and her maid of honor, wore a gown of peach bodice, three-fourth length peau de soie. It had a fitted sleeves, scooped neckline and a modified street-length bell skirt. Her headdress was a small leaf caplet and veil.

A wicker ring, centered with a lime Fuji mum, white snowdrift, orange roses and bittersweet formed her bouquet.

Mrs. Richard Graham of Onsted and Mrs. Max Handy of Tecumseh were the bridesmaids. Their costumes and flowers were similar to those of the maid of honor.

William Covell of Clinton, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Richard Graham of Onsted and Max Handy of Tecumseh.

★

A RECEPTION was held for the 200 guests in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.

The bride's table was covered by an heirloom Irish linen cloth belonging to her parents. The four-tiered wedding cake was encircled by smilax and mums in the wedding colors and was flanked by candles.

Mrs. William Covell, sister-in-law of the groom, poured the coffee. Mrs. Robert Surkey and Mrs. George Rorke, sisters of the groom, served the cakes.

Mrs. Updike entertained the wedding party at dinner Friday night in the Driftwood Inn at Clinton.

★

MRS. COVELL is a 1962 graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed in the office of the Adrian Grain Co. at Adrian. Mr. Covell, a 1962 graduate of Clinton High School, is employed at the Rawsonville Plant of the Ford Motor Co.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Northern Michigan the bride was wearing a beige mohair suit with matching accessories and a rose corsage from her wedding bouquet.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Covell will live at 9991 Tipton Hwy., Tipton.

Liturgy Change Explained

Seventy members of St. Elizabeth Rosary Altar Society were led to a better understanding and appreciation of the changes now being affected in the liturgy of the Catholic Church.

Nov. 4, the Rev. Fr. Patrick Jackson, assistant at St. Thomas Catholic Church, Ann Arbor, explained the changes, and reasons for them, at the Society meeting.

★

THE MASS, Fr. Jackson explained, is the gathering of the family of God to give honor and worship to Him.

"So, to make the sacrifice more meaningful and perfect, with more of a family feeling, we join in with the priest in English now rather than in Latin," continued Fr. Jackson.

During the meeting the Society members decided that in lieu of the usual $1 gift exchange at the Christmas party, the money would be used to purchase planters for the patients at Ypsilanti State Hospital.

★

AT THE DECEMBER meeting members will decorate the planters and a white elephant gift exchange will be held.

A Day of Recollection will be held Dec. 3 from 4 until 9 p.m. with mass at 8 p.m.

Refreshments were served to members and guests, Mrs. Thomas Fagan and Mrs. Wilkins, by chairman Mrs. Allan Barrett and Mrs. Burt Folk, Mrs. Joseph Tressler, Mrs. Melvin Baugh and Mrs. Donald Young.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBIE EARLING

Everyone is looking forward to the Tecumseh-Adrian game this Friday. After last Friday's game high hopes and great expectations will accompany the football fans to the game with our chief rival.

The cheerleaders should be extended most hearty congratulations for their commendable efforts and successful pep assemblies. We've all enjoyed their skits and spirit-provoking cheers and join them enthusiastically in assuring the Apaches. "We're with you teams, so fight!"

Students who wish their activities reported in the Teen Talk column should have their material to me no later than 3 p.m. Friday. For further information they should see me or call me at 423-3952.

Tecumseh High School students are recuperating after Midterm exams. Report cards were given out Wednesday.

This marking period the Music Department has decided, in co-operation with band and chorus members, to report only credit and comments for participation and attendance.

The music directors believe they have no way of arriving at a fair grade for each individual except testing each student individually in class during which time the rest of the class would be unable to continue rehearsal rooms. After-school sessions would pose more problems than their worth.

When confronted with this suggestion the majority of music students agreed they would be more satisfied with credit, because in such a large class where the teacher sometimes had trouble remembering each person's name it seems impossible for the instructor to rate musical abilities accurately.

Almost each one had received a grade at one time or another which he believed didn't measure up to his efforts.

Others argued that this manner of marking report cards would take away some incentive. The final clincher for the "trial" was: "Music is an elective. Everyone in the bands or chorus should have elected music because of selective interest and willingness to learn and participate in its activities. This new method of marking should not have any effect on the caliber of effort and skill put forth by the groups. There is still the competition for chairs in band, and solos, etc."

Whether or not the credit methods will be accepted as a permanent policy will be decided by the results of the trial and reactions from parents.

The Latin Club met Thursday, Oct. 29. After the business meeting the guest speaker, Mrs. Leslie Calhoun, was introduced by Jeff Long. She inspired the club with her interesting talk. She is able to speak many languages and explained to the members that Latin is the base of all the Romance languages. She described classic Latin and why it is called the language of the learned and the intellectual.

Her article "Is Language the Answer?" was mentioned in her speech and she showed how one who knows many languages is able to get closer to foreigners.

Refreshments were served and the meeting was adjourned.

90th Birthday Is Celebrated by Mrs. Bumpus

Mrs. Alice Kreidler Bumpus was guest of honor Nov. 8 when Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Weyher and daughters, Sandra and Debra, entertained in observance of Mrs. Bumpus' 90th birthday.

Mrs. Bumpus makes her home with her son, Fred Spencer, at 9761 Britton Hwy.

Mrs. Bumpus was born Nov. 8, 1874 in Bethlehem, Pa. and moved to Macon when she was almost four years old. Macon was called Pennington's Corners at that time.

Mrs. Bumpus, who has an excellent memory of her early years at Macon, Clinton and Tecumseh is in fair health but her eyesight is failing.

Among the guests were her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Tobias of Lansing; her niece, Mrs. Barbara Kyser and daughter Carol of Brooklyn; grandchildren and great grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bigelow, Diane, David and Denise of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Palmer and Brenda, Mrs. Terry Faust, Teresa and Pamela of Britton and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wertenberger, Larry, Lannie, Bruce and Gary Lee of Dundee.

MAPLES

defeat since [illegible].

ADRIAN HAS depended mostly on a running game this season with backs Don Esterline, Mike Linenkugel, Rick Coscarelli, Roger Brock and quarterback Tom Allen providing the punch.

However, Esterline and Linenkugel, their top running backs, are injured and are not expected to play against Tecumseh.

Quarterbacks Allen, Jim Dunbar and Bob Gritzmaker have completed 45 out of 99 passes this year for 452 yards. Opponents picked off nine Adrian aerials.

The Maple defense has been tough on passing allowing only 25 completions in 79 attempts, but has given up 1,600 yards on the ground.

East Lansing tore Adrian's line apart for 344 yards rushing.

*

TOP PERFORMERS for the Maples this season include Co-Captains Tom DeSpain (linebacker-guard), end Mickey Knight, quarterbacks Allen (backs Esterline, Linenkugel, Coscarelli, Brock, and punter-halfback Larry Kussmaul, who has kicked for a 40.6 yard average.

Although Tecumseh has to be favored in this traditional rivalry, Adrian has the material to win.

If the Maples can avoid errors that have cost them dearly all season, they could well upset the Indians.

Methodist Youth To Take Gifts to Chelsea Home

The Senior and Junior Methodist Youth Fellowships are asking the members of the congregation to bring their commercially canned goods, jellies, jams and squash to the church the next two Sundays.

This collection of foodstuff will be taken to the Chelsea Methodist Home along with their original display, to compete with other Lenawee County Methodist Youth Sunday, Nov. 22.

The Youth are selling "Shares of Happiness" and the money secured from this project will be taken with them as a part of their contribution to the Home.

GLORIA TEEGARDEN

The couple plans to be married March 20.

Girls Competing for Girl Scout National Roundup

Carolyn Purple, Dawn Kruse [illegible] are among 22 Senior Girl Scouts of the Irish Hills Council trying out for the National Roundup to be held in Coeur d'Alene, Ida. in July of 1965.

The girls spent Oct. 30 and 31 at Camp O' The Hills on Wamplers Lake for the try-outs. Following three more weekends of training, seven of the 22 girls will be chosen to go to Idaho.

The remaining girls who complete the training will attend another camping event during the summer.

Sara and Jane Devall of Jackson, formerly of Tecumseh, and Terry Whiteman of Clinton are also among those in training.

Mrs. Donald Creger is on the try-out committee. Mrs. John Cameron is on finance for the Roundup preparation.

Another training session will be held Nov. 14 at Camp O' The Hills.

Officers Named

Ivan Hunt of Onsted was elected president of the Lenawee County Farm Bureau Thursday evening in Madison. Don Lutton of Britton was named vice-president of the organization.

TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

Indian Rally Trims Riverside, 19 to 12

One of the most exciting football games played here in many-a-year was won by the Tecumseh Indians Friday night over Riverside, 19-12.

Fans — and coaches, too — will long remember the fourth quarter "fluke" which almost gave the visitors a 12-7 win.

This odd play resulted when a Tecumseh fumble took a basketball bounce into the hands of a Riverside lineman at the Riverside eight — followed with a 92-yard TD gallop.

Tecumseh took the game's opening kickoff and 10 plays later, the Indians were on the scoreboard. Halfback Tim Collins tallied from the three and then ran for the extra point.

The second period was all Tecumseh, except for the last few minutes. The Indians lost another apparent touchdown on a fumble after driving 57 yards from their 16 to Riverside's 27.

The visitors then marched to Tecumseh's one, where the Indians held and took over as the first-half gun sounded.

★

JON KAUFFMAN put Riverside back into the game at the 4:43 mark of the third quarter when he climaxed a 79-yard march from Tecumseh's four.

Neither team did much then until Tecumseh marched from its 45 to Riverside's 11, where Don Baird, reaching for a handoff from Jeff Osburn, dropped the ball on the eight.

The unpredictable pigskin took one bounce and into the arms of guard Jay Cale and the 150-pounder took off for a Riverside score. For the second straight time, an attempted run for the extra point failed.

The Indians took the next kickoff and moved to Riverside's 19, where they gave up the ball on downs.

In three plays, Riverside moved nine and one-half yards. Faced with a fourth down and less than a yard, the Bulldogs gambled and lost, actually losing a yard — and the ball to Tecumseh.

★

SIX PLAYS later with just 1:06 showing on the clock, McEnroe took the ball in from the one. Halfback Baird chewed up most of the yardage in the winning drive, running for 12 and seven yards in two attempts.

Tecumseh's final TD resulted with the Indians' fine defensive back, Kirk [illegible] accepting on Riverside's 42 and racing in [illegible] six-pointer.

With only 20 seconds left, Riverside tried three desperate passes and a run — good for 20 yards — as the game ended.

Although the Indians did not perform quite as well as they did against Blissfield the previous week, they again played good ball, possibly well enough to handle the Adrian Maples here Friday night.

★

ALTHOUGH THE Indians won on the running of Baird, Collins and McEnroe, plus three out of four passes by quarterback Jeff Osburn, and the interception by Lucas, hustling linemen again turned in top performances, especially tackle Jim Oberlin.

Twice in Tecumseh's first quarter TD drive, Oberlin threw key blocks to spring a runner.

Counselors Name James Hoffman

James Hoffman was elected to represent the Lenawee County Counselors Thursday evening at a meeting in the home economics room of the Tecumseh High School.

Mr. Hoffman will attend the Michigan Personnel and Guidance Association meeting.

A report was given on college night held at Adrian High School and attended by more than 700 junior and senior high school students and parents.

Further plans were made for the technical and trade school night to be held Dec. 7 at Tecumseh High School.

There were 13 counselors from Addison, Adrian, Blissfield, Hudson, Madison and Tecumseh. Refreshments were served by the Tecumseh group.

Another meeting will be held Dec. 7 in Addison.

Scholarships Are Available at Cranbrook

Scholarships up to $1,500 for the academic year 1965-66 are being offered by Cranbrook School, a college preparatory, boarding and day school for boys.

Applicants must be eligible for the 9th, 10th or 11th grades by September, 1965. Inquiries should be addressed to Howard Wert, Director of Scholarships, Cranbrook School, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, 48013. Applications must be received by March 1.

Candidates must have an above average academic record, good school citizenship, leadership qualities and a proven financial need.

'Nurses Week' Is Proclaimed

"Accent on the nurse practitioner" will be the theme of Michigan Nurse Week to be observed Nov. 15 through Nov. 21 throughout the state.

In a proclamation Gov. George Romney said, "Nurses in our community and throughout the state are accenting your health needs every day in every way to give us and our loved ones better patient care . . . Join Michigan's nurses in their quest for the best."

Recreation Activities

By DON MOFFATT, Superintendent

SENIOR CITIZENS

More fun coming up for all area senior citizens this Thursday, Nov. 12, 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. in the Community Center. Make your plans now to attend and invite along a friend or two.

The committee, Herbert Willmott, Mrs. Arthur Dinse, and Gertrude Van Vleet, promise a real fun-having afternoon at this get-together. They have cooked up a few surprises along with the usual cards and table games that most all seem to enjoy.

They even promise that the short business meeting will be fun for all, and that an addition of hot tea will be served along with the usual refreshments.

These get-togethers are free, fun, and full of fellowship, for all our area senior citizens. And too, if anyone needs transportation, please call the City Hall, and leave name, address, and phone number. We'll arrange to have some one pick you up and return you home after the get-together.

ART CLASS

Charcoal drawings and oil paintings have been the lessons taught so far in this newly acquired recreation art class.

Last Thursday night the class of 20 area residents met for their art lesson at the Community Center for the first time under Parks and Recreation sponsorship.

The four previous weeks, they had met in different homes. The remaining five weeks of lessons will be held in the Glass Room at the center, under the professional direction of Howell Poucher, newly-acquired art instructor for the Parks and Recreation Dept.

Mr. Poucher has been instructing this group since it began classes back in October, and plans to continue.

Plans are now in progress for expanding this program after the first of the year. It is hoped to offer a beginners session again as well as continuing with this group in more advanced phases of painting.

We invite anyone interested in this type of art to visit any Thursday evening during the next five weeks to see what can be accomplished and to learn more about this relaxing activity.

Annual Pictures 'Unusual'

BRITTON — "The pictures being taken are unusual and the annual will be remembered in the years to come," says Mary Anne Komon, business manager of the "Brittonian."

"This annual will be the biggest (16 more pages) and best yet. I think the whole staff is more enthused, too," was the comment of Editor-in-Chief Mary Lou Hall.

The 1965 Brittonian" is on sale inow at Britton High. It can be purchased from any member of the yearbook staff for only $3.50 before Christmas vacation, $4 between Christmas and Valentine's Day, and $4.50 between Valentine's Day and May 1.

The staff has a new advisor this year too, Mrs. Gerald Henricks.

FFA Buys 40 Porkers

BRITTON—The Future Farmers Chapter of Britton-Macon Area School is caring for 40 pigs purchased at the stockyards in Detroit.

Paul Marks, advisor, accompanied the group on Oct. 28 when they toured the slaughter house and stockyards.

The pigs, at a cost of $12.50 each, were purchased with money earned from Tractor Field Day.

Report Given on Clothing Sent to Korean Needy

By SUE EDDINGER

BRITTON — The Golden Rule Circle had its monthly meeting with Mrs. Sam Vreeland as the hostess and Mrs. Ned Brown as co-hostess on Nov. 4.

Nine members and three guests answered roll call with a Thanksgiving prayer.

A report was made by Mrs. Mildred Wiggens on boxes of clothing sent to Korea.

Mrs. Mae Willis had charge of the program, using the Thanksgiving season as her subject.

President Mrs. Harley Hummel was presented with a gift.

The December meeting will be held at the Fellowship Center.

Artists Key Club Seeks Members

BRITTON — The Artist Key Club is still accepting applications for membership.

Lessons are given in beginning, intermediate and advanced classes taught by Russell Steinke in Tecumseh.

Obituaries

● SETH L. HAND

Services will be held Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Seth L. Hand, 86, who died Monday at 3:10 p.m., at Bixby Hospital where he had been a patient for the last week.

He had been in failing health for three years.

A resident of Tecumseh since 1923, Mr. Hand had lived in nursing homes for the last two and one-half years.

He was born July 1, 1878, at Hart, the son of William and Amytus Knowles Hand. Dec. 6, 1899, he married Addie Case.

Mr. Hand operated a dairy in Tecumseh from 1923 to 1937 and later was employed at the Tecumseh Products Co.

He is survived by two sons, Percy, 503 W. Cummins and Kenneth, two daughters, Mrs. Allan Ambacher, nee Martha Hand of Tampa, Fla., and Mrs. Charles Mensing, 509 N. Maiden Lane, 10 grandchildren and a number of great-grandchildren.

Two sisters, Mrs. Grace White of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Arvah Frank of Onsted also survive.

He was preceded in death by his wife, two children in infancy and a daughter, Mrs. Frank Meade, nee Marion Hand, in 1956.

Mr. Hand was a past member of the Onsted Grange and Odd Fellows.

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne will officiate and burial will be in the Cambridge Junction Cemetery.

● HOMER C. BANKS

Services were held Wednesday at the Niblack Home For Funerals for Homer C. Banks, 49, of Detroit, who died Friday at Receiving Hospital after he had been stricken at work.

He was born Sept. 5, 1915, in Alabama, the son of Paul and Minnie Lott Banks.

He moved to the Britton area in 1950, where he lived until 1958 when he moved to Detroit.

He is survived by his wife, Loraine; two sons, C. Curtis of Britton, and Terry at home; two daughters, Mrs. Glen Kjos, nee Barbara Banks, of Fresno, Calif., and Mrs. Louis Ramey, nee Brenda Banks, of Long Beach, Calif., and three grandchildren.

Also surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Thomas Mills, Mrs. Floyd Vest and Mrs. Ervin Brown, all of Decatur, Ala.; a brother, William of Detroit and his mother.

The Rev. Wade Robert officiated and burial was in the Ridgeway Cemetery.

Roberts Mark Anniversary

The Rev. and Mrs. Wade Roberts of Britton are to be honored at an open house on their 25th wedding anniversary.

The event, arranged by members of the Ridgeway Church of the Nazarene of which he is pastor, will be held Saturday, Nov. 14, from 6:30 to 9 p.m. in the Britton School Cafeteria.

Friends and relatives have been invited by the committee making arrangements.

Wade Roberts and Violet Casey were married Nov. 15, 1939 in Belfry, Ky.

They have two children, Thomas Robert and Mrs. Ronald Hathaway, both of rural Tecumseh, and one grandson, Brian Keith Roberts.

Bras, Girdles Are Stolen from Store

Cal's Tog Shop was broken into Friday night—or early Saturday morning—with about $25 in change and some bras and girdles stolen.

Russell Cheever, local contractor who is remodeling the old Brandt 5c & 10c store for a new Cal's Tog Shop, discovered the break-in about 7 a.m.

A glass pane was knocked out in the back door allowing the robber, or robbers to unlock the door.

The burglary was the second in downtown Tecumseh in recent weeks. The D&C store was entered previously.

Dr. Reed Speaks to Women's Group

The Alpha Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society met Thursday, Nov. 5 at Onsted Community Schools for a pot-luck dinner.

The highlight of the evening was a talk by Dr. Marshall Reed, retired Methodist bishop, whose topic was "Trends in Religion in Foreign Lands." A business meeting followed.

Hostesses were Thelma Little, Mildred Gentz, Helen Richardson and Alza Dunn.

Mrs. Aura Condit Will Be Honored by Open House

Mrs. Aura M. Condit will be the guest of honor at an open house Sunday, Nov. 15, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer House, 5701 Macon Hwy.

The event will mark the 86th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Condit which occurs on that day.

Friends and relatives are invited to greet Mrs. Condit and extend greetings from 3 to 5 p.m.

Other children of Mrs. Condit are Mrs. Orman Haas of Ann Arbor, William Condit of Britton and Eldon of Ann Arbor. Another daughter, Elanor, died in 1930.

There are 12 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren in the family.

Mrs. Condit formerly lived near Billington corners. She likes to sew and makes many aprons.

OPEN HOUSE PLANNED — The Rev. and Mrs. Wade W. Roberts will observe their silver wedding anniversary with an open house between 6:30 and 9 p.m. Saturday in the Britton-Macon High School cafeteria. The event is being planned by members of the congregation of the Ridgeway Nazarene Church. The couple has two children, Mrs. Ronald Hathaway and Tom, both of Tecumseh, and one grandson, Brian Roberts.

'Groom Said No'

By KAY BENEDICT

BRITTON — The senior play "The Groom Said No" will be presented under the direction of Gary Lovett Thursday and Friday, Nov. 19 and 20 at 7:30 p.m. in the Britton-Macon School gymnasium.

Leading roles in the three-act comedy will be played by Ginger Frazier and Walt Korican.

Ginger will portray Mrs. Inez Cameron, the mother of three who rule her household. Will Cameron, her husband, will be played by Bob Fox, easy-going with keen sense of humor.

Walt takes the part of Steve Cameron, returning from the Marines. Brave in battle, he is pretty much at loss to know how to handle his family.

Steve is informed by the girl he left behind, played by Becky Bigelow, that they will be married in exactly 11 days.

Steve has two sisters, handled by Mary Anne Komon and Sharon Mann, sides with Steve after she learns of his present heart-throb, Lt. Shirley Anderson, played by Karen Harriott.

Mrs. Sorenson, the lady next door who minds everybody's business but her own, is played by Linda Clement.

Other "characters" in the cast include Jim Miller, Kay Benedict and Bill Kahle.

Tickets are available from any member of the senior class or may be purchased at the door for both performances.

Santos Flores Dies in Auto on Nov. 5

By KAREN HARRIOTT

BRITTON — Santos Flores, 19, 10715 Smith Rd., a 1964 graduate of Britton High School, was killed early Thursday morning, Nov. 5 in an automobile accident, 1¼ miles north of Ridgeway on Ridge Rd.

Santos, an employee of the Buhr Machine and Tool Co., Ann Arbor, was the son of Mrs. Befra Diaz Flores and the late Armulfo Flores. He was born Dec. 11, 1944. He is survived by his mother, three sisters, Mary, Ellen and Mrs. Robert (Estela) Snare, at home; and five brothers, Armando and Rudy at home; Armulfo and Raul of Tecumseh and Richard of Ft. Bragg, N.C.

The rosary was recited Friday night in the Niblack Home for Funerals at Britton.

Services were Saturday in St. Elizabeth Catholic Church in Tecumseh with the Rev. Thomas Collins officiating. Burial was in Lenawee Hills Memorial Park at Tecumseh.

Bearers were Ruben Castorena, Tony Garcia, Robert Davila, David Hernandez, Ray Garcia and Paul Gomez.

Britton Police Chief Frank Becker said the accident was believed to have happened around 2:30 a.m. Santos, driving north, is thought to have fallen asleep and the car gradually went off the east side of Ridge Highway. The car knocked over a guard post, slammed into a tree stump, and then slid down an embankment into the bottom of a 15-foot ditch.

Because of the position of the car in the ditch, it was not seen by passing motorists until 9:28 a.m. Chief Becker and Lenawee County sheriff deputies were called.

FFA Hosts Other Pupils to MSU Tilt

BRITTON — Future Farmers of Briton saw one of the biggest upsets of the season in college football Saturday — Michigan State 21, Purdue 7.

At half-time, the score was tied 7 to 7, but MSU pulled ahead with touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters.

The FFA invited the Future Homemakers, Cheerleaders, Varsity Club and football players to be their guests. Advisors were Mr. and Mrs. Marks and Mr. Lovett.

Two buses carried approximately 70 students to East Lansing, leaving Britton at 9 a.m. and returning at 6:30 p.m.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITTAKER

The Boysville Fighting Knights dropped the concluding game of the 1964 season to Adrian Catholic Central by a score of 46-13.

Adrian opened its scoring barrage early in the first quarter on a successful draw play, followed by an extra point. Boysville retaliated as Norris McFarland sent halfback Moe Jacobs over for a touchdown from four yards out. During the remainder of the half, however, Adrian C.C. dominated the grid turf. They walked off the field at halftime leading by a score of 27-6.

Again in the second half Adrian dominated, scoring three more touchdowns. At one point during the half Boysville's fans were temporarily worried as Moe Jacobs, star halfback, swept the right end and was knocked out of bounds, careening headlong into the cement guard wall which momentarily stunned him. Moe took the field shortly afterward and scored the second-Knight touchdown.

The season's league record for the Knights was two wins and five losses, and the overall record was two wins and six losses.

The Junior Knights of Boysville wound up their season with a victory over the Junior Varsity of Ida High School, 28-0. Nick Orlando, a small but deceptive halfback, found openings in the Ida defense for three touchdowns. Allen Rockwell went over for the fourth touchdown.

Boysville's Junior Varsity closed off the season with a respectable record of three wins, two losses, and one tie.

Last Sunday the students of Boysville returned from their second weekend vacation. After checking in by 8 p.m., the boys went to the gym where they viewed Walt Disney's movie, "Savage Sam."

The next vacation period for the boys will be the Thanksgiving weekend. They will leave Wednesday, Nov. 25, and will return Nov. 29.

Assisting Brother Robert Fillmore in the Boysville infirmary recently has been Brother Gerald Liston. Brother Robert, as librarian, has had to devote more time to the library work. Brother Gerald took over as full-time assistant last week.

Several new boys began school at Boysville last Monday. They are filling the vacancies which were created since the September enrollment dates. Some of the new boys come from such "far out" places as Sault Ste. Marie, Escanaba, Mackinac Island, Alpena and Saginaw. Other boys were enrolled from Detroit and Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cornell spent a recent weekend with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Patterson, in Mentor, O.

In Michigan... after bowling, beer is a natural

After you've bowled a game or two, or when you're winding up the evening at the neighborhood bowling center, it's good to relax with friends and compare scores. What better way to add to the sport and the sociableness than with a refreshing glass of beer? However you take your fun—skiing, skating, or at your ease in the game room—beer always makes a welcome addition to the party.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Michigan...beer goes with fun, with relaxation

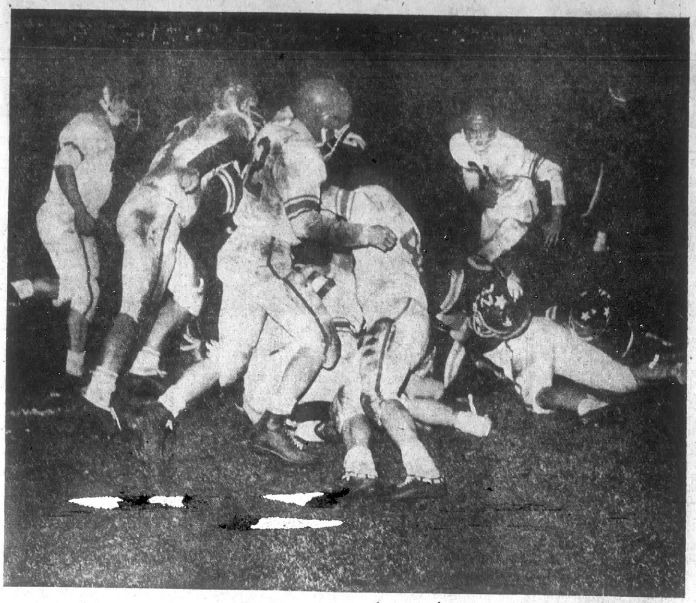
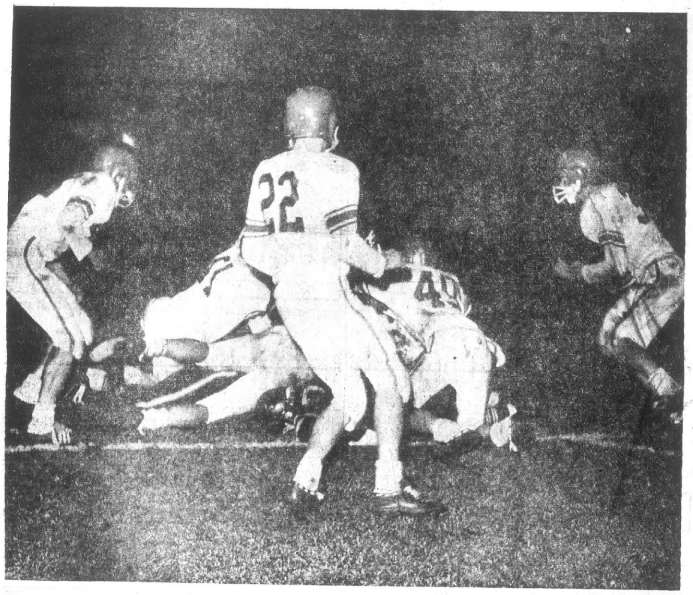
BEAT ADRIAN

About this time once a year, an uppermost thought in everyone's mind here is BEAT ADRIAN. You have the support of the entire community in wishing you the best of luck.



GOES OVER — McEnroe plunges well into the end zone here to give the Indians a 13-12 lead with just 1:06 left on the clock. Forty-six seconds later, defensive back, Kirk Lucas, raced 42 yards with an intercepted pass for a 19-12 Tecumseh win.



GETTING CLOSE — Fullback Gregg McEnroe picked up only one yard against Riverside here in the fourth quarter — but it was a big yard. A Riverside penalty then added another yard to put Tecumseh on the visitors' one. And then . . . . .

GO — GO — GO TECUMSEH INDIANS

Let's make that 1964 record read 8-1. The Maples won't be easy, but the Indians are tops. A well-played game should cinch a victory for Tecumseh

Redskin 11 Captures Loop Championship

IT WAS CLOSE — Redskin Tackle Jim Englehart peers intently at the action on the field as Clinton clashed with Manchester.

By TOM RIORDAN

CLINTON — Roger Proctor will long be remembered around here as the Lad with the Golden Toe.

A perfect place kick by Roger proved the difference as the Redskins topped Manchester, 13-12, in a thrill-packed homecoming game Friday.

The win gave Clinton its first Lakeland C League championship and an undefeated season with seven victories and one tie.

Before a capacity crowd, which even sprawled into one end zone during part of the action, the giant Dutchmen threw a real scare into the 'Skins.

Roger's winning kick came after the initial score, a fantastic 50-yard pass from quarterback Dennis Drazic to Terry Brooks — who wasn't even supposed to be part of the pass pattern.

Terry's assignment on the play was as a blocker, but when his defensive man didn't appear Terry moved downfield and was nearly 10 yards beyond the Manchester secondary when the high archer spun towards him. He grabbed the ball and ambled into the end zone.

Proctor split the uprights and the Skins were in the van.

★

THE DUTCHMEN roared back, eventually reaching the Redskins' four-yard line. The Clinton defensive unit turned into a solid concrete wall as the guests battered it three times and tried to pass over it once, but failed to cover the 12 feet.

An intercepted Clinton pass in the fourth period led to Manchester's first touchdown, with a Bob Riggs to Jim Sloat toss good for nine yards and the score.

The try for point failed.

Then things really became confused. Clinton had the ball at midfield with fourth-and-one. What was to have been a quarterback sneak became an incomplete pass play and the Dutchmen took over.

Riggs unlimbered his throwing arm, hitting Sloat for a 36-yard TD scamper. Again the extra-point attempt failed, but still the visitors led 12-7, as the final stanza was four minutes old.

★

BUT WHAT'S a homecoming if you don't win, mused the Redskins, even as they found themselves with their backs to their own goal line moments later — the only thing between them and another Manchester score being determination.

The opportunity came a moment later when Riggs tried another aerial.

No Dutchman got his hands on the pigskin. Instead, Clinton defensive cornerman Wayne Poole flashed across his zone, snagged the ball and sprinted almost 80 yards into the end zone.

The Golden Toe kicked the extra point, but Clinton was offside. He did it again. Once more, there was a penalty against the 'Skins.

For the third time, the Toe's shot was good — except there was a third straight Clinton infraction.

With the ball now 18 yards from the goal line and 28 from the posts, Coach Phil Bareis sent in a pass play — which failed.

Just the same the Toe had a great night, 4-for-4, even if only one counted.

Dede Meyers Named Queen of Homecoming

CLINTON — Dede Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Meyers, was selected by the student body as 1964 Clinton High School Homecoming Queen.

She and her court reigned at the post-game dance with a theme of Harvest Moon.

Queen Dede was crowned by Gay Couture, vice-president of the Student Council.

There was an afternoon parade through the business district, the band, led by Bradley Bihlmeyer, headed the line of march and featured various floats.

"Daisy Petal Pikin," first-place winner was done by the Junior, "Fly away with a Victory" was the tenth grade.

Second place went to the freshman entry, "Stump Um" and third place went to the Art Club.

The senior float, "Tale of Two Teams," was outstanding.

STAR SCAMPERS — Wayne Poole has a variety of ways to confuse the opposition — like wearing 44 on his jersey and 30 on his helmet. This isn't nearly as effective as his straight arm or swinging hips. An 80-yard sprint by Wayne gave the Redskins their second touchdown Friday.

PATTERSON SCHOOL PATTER

By SHERRIE LEE HART

Everyone at Patterson is making the most of this warm November weather. It's hard to believe that winter is nearly here.

Thanksgiving decorations are popping up here and there and those tests we've been taking are a sure sign that fall is on its way out, regardless of what the thermometer says!

4TH GRADE

Mrs. Edgar Buttolph's room is studying about Hawaii and Alaska. They are making scenes of both states. Mrs. Oleg Michajlenko's room is coming in and is going to vote on the nicest one. There is to be a prize for a boy and a girl.

In science fourth graders are studying about the planets and the revolution of the planets.

√

5TH GRADE

In Mrs. Russell Raymond's room the boys and girls have been doing booklets of the 50 states. At present they are studying the 13 colonies, making maps for each state and the reporting the time of admission to the Union and other important information.

That's all for this time — or as the walky-talky fans put it, "H2, over and out!"

A national award for quality truck service was recently presented to Tecumseh Equipment Co. by International Harvester Company's Motor Truck Division and accepted by owner Al Merz. The firm was cited for its "outstanding truck service facilities, modern equipment, trained servicemen and sound management practices". This was the sixth time Tecumseh Equipment was so recognized. Only a small number of International Truck dealers from the entire United States have qualified for this award.

Patients, Families Entertained at Tea

Patients at Herrick Nursing Home and their relatives, 125 in all, were guests of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Saturday afternoon for tea served in the living and dining rooms of the Home.

Mrs. Robert Sage was in charge of the table and Mrs. Orrie Gilbert, the entertainment.

Mrs. William Macbeth was the invitation chairman contacting the relatives.

★

MISS SINKEY sang "Bless This House"; Jamie McWilliams "Stranger On the Shore"; and his sister, Kitty, "He" and "Irish Lullabye".

Jamie Danforth sang "In The Garden of Tomorrow", and Marjorie Parrett, "Give Me, I'm Tirer, I'm Poor".

Accompanists were Mrs. Ben McWilliams and Dexter Bailey.

Mrs. LaVern Mull, supervisor of nurses, presided at the tea table. Mrs. Sage and Mrs. Gilbert served punch.

Others assisting with the event were Mrs. Jens Touborg, Mrs. John Quigley and Mrs. Ted Rundell.

The committee is hoping that the tea may become a monthly event.

★

THE AUXILIARY is planning a special program once a week for the patients and is seeking assistance from anyone willing to give time and talent.

The programs are about one-half hour in length. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Buehler have shown colored slides of their summer trip. The Artist Key Club is planning a live art demonstration with personal sketches Nov. 23.

A square dance group, the Junior Shawnee Squares, has offered to give a program for the pleasure of the patients Nov. 14.

★

MRS. CLARK PEARSON recently presented chalk sketches. She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Macbeth.

Debbie Earling, accompanied by Paul Anderson, gave a vocal program Oct. 18.

A tentative date, Nov. 21, has been set when the Bodine family of Dundee will entertain the patients. Also plans have been made for Mr. and Mrs. Tourborg to show pictures of Africa.

Quintet in Toledo

The New York Brass Quintet, the world's most outstanding ensemble of two trumpets, French horn, trombone and tuba, are returning to the Toledo Museum of Art by popular demand to present the opening concert of the 1964-65 Great Gallery Series at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 12.

The quintet is composed of five virtuosos, Robert Nagel, trumpet; Robert Heinrich, trumpet; Paul Ingraham, French horn; John Swallow, trombone and Harvey Phillips, tuba.

WHO DISCOVERED AMERICA? — We thought it was Columbus in 1492 but information that Wilfred Waldron and his wife, Lulu, came across in their summer travels leads us to do some wondering. This large stone tablet, a reproduction of one found in southwestern Minnesota on the main route west of Mankato and Owatonna reads "We are a party of 33 Norske and seven Swedes. Left 10 men to guard our ships. We returned here to find 10 of our party all bloody and dead. Ave Maria. Date 1362 (probably)".

Monday Club To Observe Anniversary

Mrs. Truman Rentschler extends a special invitation to former members of the Monday Club to attend the 70th anniversary celebration of the group Nov. 16 at the Methodist Church.

Officers will be on the reception committee with Mrs. E. J. Aebersold presenting the program, "Do You Remember?"

The event entitled "For Members Only" will present much of interest to the group.

Mrs. Veva Connor is hostess chairman.

Fifty members and guests attended the Nov. 2 meeting of the Tecumseh Monday Club in the Methodist Church parlors. Special guests were officers of the Lenawee County Federation.

Mrs. Wilfred Waldron presented a program on, "Influence of Famous Families on Their Countries." The ones she chose were, Bach, Rothchilds, Medici, Queen Victoria and Dupont Nemours.

Mrs. Waldron was presented by Mrs. Bryce Miller.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett and her committee, with Mrs. Floyd Bryan and Mrs. E. H. McConnell presiding at the tea table.

VACATION WANDERINGS — PLACES II

Continuing with a few of the most impressive, most interesting and most colorful places we enjoyed on this year's trip west brings us to Cortez. This town, located in the southwest corner of Colorado, is ideally situated as a home base.

We were pleasantly surprised at the number of side trips one could take and the wide variety of things to be seen. As usual, our time did not stretch enough. We had to leave much undone.

One reason there was not time for several of the side trips we had planned on taking was Mesa Verde National Park. We spent two afternoons here without exhausting the sight-seeing and picture-taking possibilities.

According to the tour-book, this is "one of the major archaeological preserves" in the country. From about AD 1 to AD 1300, Indians lived in this area and it is the ruins of their civilization which draw people to Mesa Verde.

Probably for reasons of protection, families grouped together and lived in the huge caves in the sheer cliffs and thus the name Cliff-dwellers.

As a great fan of The National Geographic, many articles about these ancient people and pictures of their living quarters have crossed my reading table. To be at the scene where all this happened was thrilling indeed. An experience through reading is marvelous, but nothing can quite equal first hand "seeing and doing".

★

FROM THE PARK entrance, 20 miles of interesting roads winds up the side of the mesa, then angles across its flat top back to the canyons where some of the best and largest cliff-dwellings are found.

It is amazing to see how advanced and sophisticated this Indian culture was — the Cliff Palace, for example, contained more than 200 rooms. A few of the houses in this large village are a full four-stories high. Other ruins are equally remarkable.

We were particularly pleased at how much could be seen from the car. The Ruins Road, about 12 miles long, has turn-outs and viewing areas from which I had excellent "looking".

Archaeologists are working at a new site which will perhaps be even larger and more important than anything now open to the public — in a few years this could be reason for another trip to Mesa Verde, who knows?

★

WE FOUND the access road exciting for two reasons. First, it was exceptionally scenic and provided many picture-taking opportunities. Second, both afternoons we saw deer along the road and for us, this is a real thrill. Big handsome does — Wow!

A little to the south and west of Cortez lies that unique spot, The Four Corners, where four states meet—Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona and Utah. To reach this point one drives across the Ute Indian Reservation, an interesting land to see, but my how could one make a living on it? Desert country with flattop mesas dotting the horizon.

The last stop on our agenda, before crossing the most easterly point in the state and hitting the high plains, was the Great Sand Dunes National Monument. Along the western slopes of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains drifting sand has piled up; 34,980 acres are covered and some of the dunes are 600 feet high. Even to a lover of Lake Michigan sand dunes, these were a thrill.

I think it is the contrast of coming from flat desert and finding the huge piles of sand hugging the foot of such a rugged range of mountains.

But after driving more than 4,200 miles, being in 11 states, seeing many, many things and taking enough pictures to fill numerous long cold winter evenings, we came to the best and nicest place of all, the gray and white house at the west end of Logan St., Home!

The Old Shell Game

By DELAPHENE SHELTON

Mrs. E. H. McConnell is a victim of the old shell game.

She is one of the thousands who find pleasure each winter in wading the warm waters along the Gulf of Mexico and choosing from the myriad of beautiful shells washed up on the beaches.

In her home at 5651 Rogers Hwy., Mrs. McConnell has a display of some 600 shells she has collected during the last five years.

She and her husband winter in Englewood, Fla., about 40 miles from Sanibel Island, known as one of the best "shelling" areas in the world.

OFTEN IN THE WINTER Mr. and Mrs. McConnell and her sister, Mrs. Harriet Ford of Orchard Lake, pack their lunch, his fishing gear and their simple shelling equipment. They head for Sanibel, 40 miles distant, or one of the many other beaches along the Gulf.

"We try to get to the beach at dawn," Mrs. McConnell said, "hoping always to have first pick of the shells washed up during the night. No matter how early we arrive there always are fresh footprints. Some apparently do their shelling by moonlight!"

While husband Ted fishes, the women "shell."

Wearing sneakers for protection against the sharp shells and shell fragments, they wade in the shallows, where they find those specimens in which creatures are still living.

These are least apt to be damaged in the surf and usually are not stained.

★

PAILS GROWING heavier as the women trudge — sometimes for miles — they pick up, discard and exclaim over a particularly beautiful or rare specimen.

"Shellers fall into one of four groups," Mrs. McConnell said. "The conchologist knows 'everything' about shells. The selective hobbyist is particular what he saves. The commercial collector chooses those for which he can find a market. The casual collector, who can't tell one shell from another, carries them home by the hundreds."

At the end of the day the McConnells return home and while Ted cleans fish, the women sort through their treasures, keeping only those which are perfect.

The rest they toss on their own beach where they are soon picked up by less-discriminating collectors.

★

MRS. McCONNELL and Mrs. Ford boil the shells to kill the animal, which is then dug out.

If they are very dirty, the shells are dipped in an acid solution. Otherwise a scrubbing with a bleaching solution does the trick.

Sometimes polishing with oil brings out the hidden beauty and color.

Among the interesting specimens in Mrs. McConnell's collection is the dyemurex. From this creature comes the fluid, which when boiled, makes a dye with which the Romans used to color their togas. From such a dye came the term "born to the royal purple."

★

OTHER ITEMS which always attract attention when her collection is displayed are fossilized shark teeth.

"A good many people have trouble believing they are authentic fossils," Mrs. McConnell said, "and probably from 10,000 to 20,000 years old."

The McConnells will leave for Englewood after Christmas and Mrs. McConnell is already thinking about her hobby.

"My biggest problem is — 'What am I going to do with more shells?'."

MRS. E. H. McCONNELL USES SHELLS TO MAKE A WALL PLAQUE.

Electric Heating IS BIG SUCCESS IN MUSKEGON'S FIRST ALL-ELECTRIC APARTMENTS

Mr. RICHARD GREENWALD, developer of the new ALL-ELECTRIC Mona Shores Apartments in Muskegon, Michigan

...IS IMPRESSED WITH ELECTRIC HEATING

Mr. Greenwald says: "The folks at Mona Shores tell me there's nothing like total-electric living for comfort, convenience and cleanliness. They're delighted with the efficiency of their all-electric kitchen. They're impressed with the quiet operation, even warmth, and unique flexibility of room-by-room temperature control of Electric Heating. Even the maintenance man at Mona Shores Apartments is finding his work easier and more pleasant because of less cleaning, no furnace-tending or fuel ordering. When I consider all the cost factors, including upkeep and depreciation, the advantages of total-electric living featuring Electric Heat, is worth far more than it costs."

Now's the time to install ELECTRIC HEATING... Enjoy next winter more!

Few Leaders Attend Class

Poor attendance led to cancellation of the Oct. 30 fall adult Girl Scout leadership program. The meeting was held in the Scout Cabin.

Mrs. Elvin Duvall, a member of the board of directors and chairman of the training committee of the Lenawee Hills Girl Scout Council, declined to give the lesson to the 10 leaders and assistant leaders present. Later sessions will likely be scheduled for Jackson, it was pointed out.

Mrs. William Rohweder's Troop 318 carved a Jack-o-lantern for each patient in the Herrick nursing home. They looked gay perched on the window sill of each room.

Goodwill Industries Planning Expansion

Goodwill Industries of the former Stearns Manufacturing Company plant here is another step toward expanding the economy of the more unfortunate and deprived," Claude W. Whitehead, executive director of the Industries, said.

The negotiations have been under way for several weeks and the purchase is expected to be executed as soon as clear title can be assured. The talks include the Beecher Street plant, offices and parking lot and the Tabor Street building and land.

Dr. Donald E. Bodley, president of the Goodwill Industries Board of Directors, said the Stearns facility would permit more than 100 per cent increase in operating space as well as permitting a major improvement in vocational rehabilitation program for the physically and mentally handicapped.

Goodwill Industries now employ 75 handicapped persons meeting a monthly payroll of well over $10,000. The new facilities would allow a sizeable increase in employment of clients with al ltypes of disabilities and will increase the effectiveness of the rehabilitation program in all areas.

The purchase of the building and its renovation will be accomplished without a general fund raising campaign, a Goodwill spoksman said.

Baptists Are Hosts To District Youths

Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Norton of Lansing were guests at the Annual District Junior High Jamboree Oct. 31 in the First Baptist Church. Dr. Norton is the director of the state Baptist Christian Education program.

A banquet for 104 children and sponsors was served at noon by the women of the church. Janice Groth of Monroe, gave the invocation.

Discussions for the various age groups were held in the morning. Topics were:

Seventh grade — "How to Plan a Party"

Eighth grade — "Boy-Girl Relationships"

Ninth grade — "Race Relationships"

Harold Sole of Ypsilanti was chairman of the event.

Members of the Tecumseh Fellowship served cider and doughnuts at the close of the afternoon program for guests from Temperance, Monroe, Adrian, Rollin, Jackson, Ypsilanti and Flat Rock.

★

THE REV. JOHN BABIEN of Monroe was the speaker following the banquet. Tracie Brooks, accompanied by Mrs. John Westgate, sang "The Lord's Prayer".

The Rev. Lowell Young conducted games during the afternoon.

The Rev. Blair Bashore was in charge of the worship service.

VOICE of THE HERALD

'Impossible' Decision

An "impossible" decision — probably unprecedented in the United States — was made by the Raisin Township Board last Thursday night.

This decision, prohibiting the City of Tecumseh from building a sewer from GM's Fisher Body Plant to the city limits, should raise the dander of area citizens — including all but a handful of Raisin Township residents.

Two factors behind this decision are obvious: fear of annexation of township property to the city, and resentment in recent years between Tecumseh and Raisin Township officials.

Another factor, relative to taxation of the sewer, is fictitious. If Raisin wants what other townships pay, GM to own the sewer for the taxes to be derived, why did a township official belittle the amount of taxes the township would receive from the 390,000 square-foot plant?

There's hardly a comparison in value between the sewer and the multi-million dollar plant.

In spite of Raisin's decision, the Council seems justified to start construction, although we do not condone breaking the law. Michigan's constitution requires township approval.

Court injunction papers undoubtedly will be served, and the construction stopped until a court decision is rendered — within a few days, we would hope.

The attitude expressed by Raisin officials is detrimental to the entire area — including their township.

Fear of annexation of township property to the city is perhaps justified. However, annexation will come only when township citizens want it and not before. The citizens must petition to join Tecumseh. Tecumseh will not petition the citizens.

☆

RAISIN OFFICIALS CLEARLY exemplified this annexation fear recently, when they told a prospective subdivider that if he seeks annexation to Tecumseh — and is turned down — not to come back to the Raisin Township Board, as it will turn down his plat.

This makes us wonder what property owners along Occidental Rd., Sutton Rd., and other areas in the township, are thinking. Many of them have, or will have, opportunities, to sell their land for commercial, industrial and subdivisions, at a far greater price per acre than selling solely for agricultural purposes.

If the Raisin board persists, these property owners will lose thousands of dollars when developers settle in more friendly surroundings — townships such as Ridgeway, Tecumseh, Franklin or Adrian.

Resentment of Tecumseh started when Council asked the township to pay for fire protection at a rate no more or less than what other townships pay.

Raisin officials have accused the city of making needless fire runs into the township, costing the township money for each run.

☆

IS THE CITY expected to make these runs free? Is the city — or anyone — capable of determining over the telephone what's a serious fire, or one of minor consequence?

The Township of Raisin should demand fire protection from the city and expect to pay a fair price. Officials should not take Tecumseh to task over fire runs, as they've done again only recently.

These attitudes of the Raisin Township Board are known not only in Tecumseh, but in adjoining townships and communities.

Although they're unreasonable now, it's not too late for a change and a chance to join others who are working for the betterment of the entire area.

Raisin Township Board has a responsibility which it is neglecting. Let's hope its members will soon realize the important role that a township must assume and accept this obligation in a more cooperative and unselfish manner.

THE GERALD JANOUSEKS

Janouseks To Speak

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Janousek of Liberia, West Africa, former Tecumseh residents, will take part in the Sunday services of the Tecumseh Methodist Church.

Mr. Janousek, will preach a missionary message during the 10 a.m. worship service. He will be assisted by the Rev. Donald C. Porteous.

Mrs. Janousek will show pictures at 6 p.m. in the sanctuary of the church. The Rev. Porteous is inviting the public to attend. Following the evening service there will be an informal period of fellowship.

A potluck supper in the church social room will be held at 5 p.m. Because of limited space, only members of the congregation are invited.

★

MR. AND MRS. JANOUSEK and daughters, Deborah and Susan, are members of the local church. Before being commissioned as Methodist missionaries, Mrs. Janousek was the registered nurse in charge at the office of Dr. R. E. Dustin and Mr. Janousek was a teacher in the Tecumseh Junior High Shool.

For the past three years the family has been actively engaged in the life of the Liberian, African people.

Mrs. Janousek was the school nurse and taught classes during the past year. She did clinic work in the interior of the country with some of the tribal people — going there once a month as her heavy schedule in Monrovia permitted.

Mr. Janousek was the president (principal) of the College of West Africa, which is a secondary school of the Methodist Church. Both daughters attended.

Son Is Born

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fretwell, 1018 Fountain St., Ann Arbor, are parents of a son, Christopher Lane, born Oct. 27 in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. The child weighed eight pounds, three ounces. Mr. Fretwell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Fretwell, 311 E. Shawnee St., Tecumseh.

Christmas Workshop Is Planned

A workshop on Christmas crafts is being offered for Girl Scout leaders, co-leaders, and committee women Monday, Nov. 16, at the First Methodist Church, Adrian.

Demonstrations will be conducted by Gerry Metz, instructor, from 9:30 a.m. until noon and those attending will "try their hand" at the work from 1 to 3:30 p.m.

Those desiring a ride are invited to call 423-4658 or 423-4628.

The monthly leaders' meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 19. Those attending will bring two handicraft ideas for exchange.

Mrs. Richard Dustin has Girl Scout calendars at her home for pik-up this week.

Farm Census Enumerators Are Appointed

Mrs. Jay M. Fisher and Mrs. Glen VanVleet have been named as enumerators for the 1964 Census of Agriculture.

The women, two of a force of 23,000 throughout the nation employed temporarily by the U. S. Bureau of Census, will help farmers answer the questions on a form to be mailed to all farm patrons on rural routes.

The census seeks to gather data which will include the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock inventory, information on farm equipment and improvements, farm products sold and on some production expenditures. Information also will be collected on use of fertilizers, insecticides and herbicides.

Arts and Craft Display Open

Arts and Crafts of the Old Northwest Territory are featured in an exciting special display at the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn through Nov. 29.

Comprising some 800 decorative arts objects from the six-state area making up the Old Northwest Territory — Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota — the special exhibit is the first ever to focus on a cross section of the Arts and Crafts of this important area.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

Michigan voters, by their decisions Nov. 3, demonstrated massive support for Michigan's unparalleled record of progress under Republican leadership.

I would like to thank all those who have entrusted us with the responsibility of leadership once again.

We have adopted a new constitution; we have established fiscal integrity and have greatly stimulated our economic growth. We have a solid basis for achieving full civil rights for all citizens.

We have encouraged and expanded citizen participation in their state and local governments, private enterprise, and individual responsibility and voluntary co-operation, in the neighborhood, the community and the state.

★

WE HAVE made record strides in partially overcoming deficiencies in education, mental health, youth and many other human needs and established a solid foundation for meeting these needs more adequately in the future.

Michigan is in a position to continue its great progress. This may not be an easy road.

It will require continued dedication to public interest government.

The census seeks to gather It will require public officials of both parties who will put the public interest ahead of any special interests, including partisan interests, where the public interest is paramount.

★

IN A TELEGRAM I sent to my opponent, Congressman Neil Staebler, I included the following: "All of us elected on Tuesday, Democrats and Republicans, are now charged with a public responsibility of serving the people of this state as public officials.

"May I urge you and your party associates to recognize this primary responsibility on the part of those Democrats elected to state office on Tuesday that is not shared by others.

"I assure you and your fellow Democrats and all the people of Michigan that I will strive to the best of my ability to discharge my responsibility as a governor of all the people of the state and will encourage Republicans elected as public officials on Tuesday to accept their primary obligation as public officials.

"We must all recognize that Michigan will benefit only when public officials approach their public responsibilities. The basis of their obligation is the total public and not to one party or the other."

★

IF WE ARE to maintain a record of progress it will require continued encouragement of voluntary cooperation and individual responsibility, as well as governmental concern, leadership and action.

The voters have told us once again that they want their state government to be free of petty partisanship and bikering. I will do all in my power to see that this mandate is carried out.

Our only commitment is to serve all of the people of Michigan.

Heat Spoils Soil Test

Farmers had better think twice before drying their soil samples in an oven prior to testing them for fertilizer requirements.

Norman Bless, County Extension Agent, Agriculture, says research shows that drying temperatures of 200 degrees and above can cause extreme increases in "extractable" phosphorus.

Results: tests may reveal an adequate supply of phosphorus when the soil is actually deficient in the element. The same high temperature causes an increase in soil acidity. But a new test for lime requirements prevents error in soil test results.

★

DR. JOHN SHICKLUNA, Michigan State University Soil testing Supervisor says that more than 20,000 tons of Michigan topsoil are shipped to the University and out-state soil test laboratories each year for analysis.

The test results provide farmers with a guide from which they can make accurate fertilizer applications.

Each sample goes through a prolonged series of tests.

Farmers who want to use the soil testing program are advised to take samples now before the ground becomes frozen and samples become difficult to get.

OES Life Member Is Memorialized

The charter of the Tecumseh Chapter No. 51, OES, was draped Thursday evening in memory of Mrs. Clyde Barber, a life member who died Oct. 30.

Mrs. Henry Kempf, worthy matron, read an appropriate poem.

The new corps of officers took charge of the meeting which was attended by 40 members and guests.

Mrs. Robert Warner was installed as Martha since she was unable to be present for the regular installation ceremonies.

★

MRS. ROBERT BONNER, chairman of the Villa Committee of the Grand Chapter of Michigan and historian of the Lenawee-Monroe County Association, was welcomed.

Invitations were read from Addison for a card party and bazaar Dec. 5, and from Ypsilanti Chapter for a dinner and reception the same day. The latter will honor Carrol C. Curtis, worthy grand patron and Lucille Curtis, grand soloist of the Grand Chapter of Michigan and will be held in Ann Arbor.

The Matron's alumni meeting at Dundee will be held Nov. 12.

The worthy matron named her committees for the year. "My Obligation" was presented by the officers and members.

Mrs. Kempf announced that the school of instruction for Tecumseh and Clinton has been changed from Nov. 14 to Dec. 15, at Clinton.

★

THE OFFICERS who served with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bonner will have a party at the Pythian Hall, with a 6:30 dinner Nov. 13.

The next meeting will be Dec. 3. The November committee will hold a public barbecue Nov. 20 with serving at 5 p.m.

Refreshments were served in the dining room by Mr. and Mrs. George Rinehart, Mrs. Lester Porter, Mrs. George Green and Mrs. James Quigley.

Fired-up Indians Burn Maple Leaves

By JIM LINCOLN

One point, two points or 12 points, the margin of victory over Adrian means little — as long as the Tecumseh Indians win their game over the rival Maples.

Friday night before a crowd of over 3,000 fans, Coach Tom Fagan's Indians clipped the county seaters by two touchdowns — 19-7 — and did it convincingly.

Only a brief lapse in the Tecumseh secondary allowed Adrian to get on the scoreboard. This mattered little as the fired-up Indians quickly retaliated.

Tecumseh's margin of victory could have been greater except for a couple of in-opportune penalties. It was apparent in the first quarter that the Indians were vastly superior when they marched 80 yards for their first TD.

With Tim Collins, Don Baird and Greg McEnroe alternating in taking handoffs from quarterback Jeff Osburn, Tecumseh chewed up yardage in hunks.

McEnroe capped the drive when he circled Tecumseh's right end from the 14, and then slipped through the Adrian secondary. The stocky fullback's plunge for the extra point was just short.

Early in the second quarter, an apparent Tecumseh drive was stymied on a 15-yard holding penalty.

The Maples tried to even the count before the half by taking to the air and reached Tecumseh's 21 — their deepest penetration except for a lone tally in the fourth quarter.

The visitors played their best ball in the third period, but didn't even come close to scoring.

Tecumseh drove 72 yards at the offset of the final quarter with Baird scoring on a counter play around the Indians left end. McEnroe added the extra point.

After end Ron Bolz kicked the ball through the end zone following the score, Adrian shocked the Tecumseh team when Bob Gritzmaker hit end Mike Bull behind the Indians secondary.

The play covered 80 yards and put the Maples back in the game —briefly.

★

WITH SIX minutes remaining, Tecumseh took the kickoff and iced the game despite a 15-yard penalty which set the Indians back to their 26.

After playing conservative ball in the first half, the Indians gambled. Three plays picked up 25 yards to Adrian's 49, inches short of a first down. Osburn then wedged for the first on the Maple's 48.

Collins ripped off 19 yards to Adrian's 29, McEnroe plunged for three, and then Collins broke loose for 21 yards to the five.

Three plays later, Osburn pushed in for the TD with 14 seconds in the game.

★

OFFENSIVELY, the entire Tecumseh backfield sparkled.

Collins, top Tecumseh scorer, failed to tally, but who can overlook those fine runs, five that gained better than 10 yards. Tim closed his prep career with a total of 123 yards rushing in 16 carries.

Halfback Baird enjoyed his finest night. The 190-pound senior consistently scrapped for extra yardage, dragging Adrian tacklers along with him. Six of his 67 yards resulted in Tecumseh's winning touchdown.

Quarterback Osburn set up many of the runs on fine faking, completed one of two passes, three times pushed for vital yardage, once for a TD. The senior may be the most difficult man to replace for Coach Fagan next year.

Adrian discovered early in the game how slippery McEnroe can be when several Maples had shots at him, only to find him sliding away for a 14-yard scoring jaunt. He was the workhorse of the Indians' backfield, carrying 18 times for 76 yards.

★

WHILE FANS could easily pick out the Tecumseh stars in the backfield, with the offensive and defensive lines it's difficult — but both were tremendous.

The line play actually determined the outcome of the game, as shown in the statistics.

Adrian gained just 19 yards rushing in the first quarter — 15 on one play — and only netted two yards in the second period. Out of 10 rushing plays from scrimmage in the first half, Tecumseh linemen threw Adrian runners four times for losses.

The Maples fared better in the third quarter, rushing for over 60 yards. Not a single yard was gained rushing in the fourth period for Adrian, which had the ball for only one play in the final 12 minutes — and that the 80-yard pass-run play.

The visitors claimed injuries in their backfield prior to the game, but injuries or not, no Adrian back would have had a chance against Tecumseh's line Friday night.

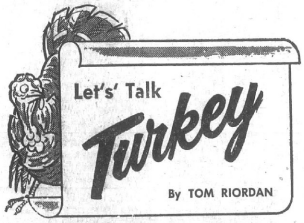
WALKING AWAY — High-stepping Don Baird didn't get away with this attempted leap over Adrian quarterback Jim Dunbar, but the scrapping halfback rolled up 67 yards and a touchdown in Tecumseh's victory over Adrian Friday. A full page of pictures covering the Tecumseh-Adrian clash will be found on page 8. These pictures show the Herald's new, two-light system of sports photography. The additional flash, which is fired by a "magic eye", adds sparkle and depth to the photos.



HAVE YOU EVER heard that folk song "Andorra?"

It tells the story of a tiny principality of the same name, located high in the Pyrenees Mountains, between Spain and France.

All told, the place covers about as much ground as four Michigan counties.

The song was prompted by an Associated Press or United Press International wire story, which appeared in a New York newspaper and outlined the annual budget of Andorra.

A gal who pens ballads saw the yarn and was fascinated by one item — $4.90 for national defense. A paragraph explained that the money was for blank cartridges to be fired by an honor guard at major state ceremonials.

In her song, the lyracist tells about Andorra and dwells on that "four dollars and ninety cents," then wonders why

Fund Drive Ends

Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation is wrapping up its 1965 campaign today, with division chairmen handing in their final reports to Kenneth Conway, general chairman.

The reports will be compiled at today's meeting and the results announced in Thursday's Herald.

Lagging solicitations caused the fund drive to be extended through last week. At last report Nov. 5 some $43,800 of the $50,000 goal had been reached.

TECUMSEH has a history of hearty donations to the charitable and service organizations which benefit from the annual drive. One concrete example of this is the Tecumseh Public Library, built with funds left over after the charity budgets have been met over the last four years.

Jury Convicts Reckless Driver

A six-member jury found Karl A. A. Schmidt, 8698 Mills-Macon Hwy., guilty of reckless driving in a justice court trial Thursday.

The defendant was fined $25 plus $4.30 court costs by Justice Ernie Oliver. He was represented by Clyne W. Durst of Adrian.

Future Farmers Raise Main Course for Dinner

Chickens were raised and dressed by the Future Farmers Assn. for the 23rd annual banquet held Nov. 10 in the high school cafeteria.

About 121 parents, sons, teachers and implement dealers attended the dinner, served by sisters and friends of the members from tables decorated with appropriate fall arrangements.

Paul Burns, advisor, assisted the boys with the chickens.

John Boyce spoke on the corn project; John Spreeman, on the pig chain; David Lips, on the sheep chain, and Doug Haines on the broiler project.

Slides were shown by Mr. Burns of the FFA projects, including the harvesting of soy beans and corn.

President Glen Bow spoke on the Japanese beetle.

Corsages were presented to the officers of the Mothers Club and to the chairmen of the kitchen and dining room, Mrs. William Kukral and Mrs. Wilbur Boyce.

Cinderella Raisin Township Rising From Ashes

By CLARA WALDRON

If the dreams of the promoters come true, that six-mile square of land known as Raisin Township is to be lifted from the ashes of a depressed agriculture to the sophisticated heights of rural suburbia.

It came as a shock a few years ago to hear a banking-minded friend refer to Raisin as "sharecropper" land. Yet an unbiased second look showed that the term was, in part at least, justified.

Wide areas of untilled or neglected fields, ugly scars of huge gravel pits, an especially unsavory dump area and occasional dilapidated remains of once prosperous farm buildings; all this was far from the smiling, green countryside of earlier recollection.

★

RAISIN has not always been like this. Incredible as it now seems, the census of 1870 listed it as the richest, most productive township in the state of Michigan and rated it high in wheat production in the nation.

The area had been one of the first to be settled in the county of Lenawee for it was largely "oak openings," with a light soil, easily cleared, broken-up and tilled. This ease of cultivation, however, has been its undoing. Its rich but shallow top soil had produced lavishly for perhaps 50 years, notably wheat, a "cash crop" that enriched the farmer while it impoverished the soil. This had been especially true under the spur of Civil War prices when wheat went as high as $2.50 a bushel, in contrast to 70c before and after.

ONE MAN, William Lovett, found Raisin land so desirable that in 1830 he bought 1,005 acres along what is now Green Hwy. That he reaped a comfortable fortune is still evident in the two houses he built for his sons, one now owned by Dr. Robert Murray and one by Mrs. Edward Sayler. Other large land owners were Dr. William Holloway, whose name still is associated with the area; Horace Holdridge and James and Robert Boyd on Rogers Hwy. and Zacharias Cook in the western part of the township.

Spacious old farm houses, reminiscent of the "age of gracious living," attest that there were others who were equally prosperous. Where good farming practices have been followed, the land has prospered also. Many, however, once the first easy profits had been realized, found it too difficult to rebuild the impoverished land and neglect followed.

Now that same sand and gravel soil, with its excellent drainage is proving ideal for building sites and Raisin promises to produce again, this time a bountiful harvest of jobs, profits and homes.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series of articles on Raisin Township. They are written by Miss Clara Waldron, who is well known both for her historical writing and for her interest in the Raisin area. She was born in the township, and lived in several homes there before settling in Tecumseh. Future articles will cover such points of interest as political turmoil and educational facilities.)

Ruperts Take Ownership of Bakery

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rupert Jr. of 8640 Clinton-Macon Rd. assumed ownership of the bakery at 141 W. Michigan Ave. last week.

For the last eight years the bakery has been owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Rex Campbell.

A sandwich and coffee shop has been operated along with the bakery retail business in the last year.

Mr. Rupert has worked in the bakery field and in the food department at Boysville in Macon for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and family have announced no plans for the future. Mr. Campbell has been assisting Mr. Rupert at the bakery this last week.

Ruth Covell Rites Tuesday

Mrs. Clement Covell, 502 Adrian St., died Saturday in Herrick Memorial Hospital.

She was born May 15, 1901.

Mrs. Covell is survived by seven daughters and four sons.

Services will be Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home with the Rev. Blair Bashore officiating.

Burial will be in Brookside.

Lucky Day Goes By

Dennis McDonnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McDonnell of 811 Murray Dr., will never know if Friday the 13th is his lucky day. Dennis was 13 that day, but due to a strep infection the past week was not able to be out and about to test his luck.

Hunter Bags County Deer

Ray Gushard of Black Highway, Adrian, was a happy man Monday morning.

Within 15 minutes after the deer hunting season opened in Lenawee County he had bagged an 8-point buck on the farm of Charles Irelan of Herrick Center Highway.

It was Mr. Gushard's first deer.

Tree Limb Snaps, So Does Arm

Mark Osburn, an eighth grade student at the Junior High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Osburn, 231 Park St., suffered a broken left arm Nov. 8.

Playing in a neighbor's yard, Mark was climbing a Willow tree when a limb broke, letting him tumble to the ground.

He received treatment at Herrick Memorial Hospital and is presently back in school.

Behind Page One

Harold Green presented us with this set of "Rules to Employees," but didn't say if they're for his clothing store:

1. Store must be open from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.
2. Store must be swept, counters and base shelves dusted, lamps trimmed, filled and chimneys cleaned, a pail of water, also a bucket of coal brought in before breakfast, and attend to customers who will call.
3. Store must not be open on the Sabbath Day unless necessary and then only for a few minutes.
4. The employee who is in the habit of smoking Spanish cigars, being shaved at the barber shop, going to dances and other places of amusement will surely give his employer reason to be suspicious of his honesty and integrity.
5. Each employee must not pay less than $5 per year to the church and must attend Sunday School regularly.
6. Men employees are given one evening a week for courting and two if they go to prayer meeting.
7. After 14 hours of work in the store, the leisure time should be spent [illegible] in reading.

Signed: The Management.

Hugh Walter reports that 85% of Tecumseh eligible voters used their franchise at the recent election, which is a wonderful percentage (based on some earlier elections.) Now, the effort will be to get more people registered.

Letters to Santa should start arriving. We'll print 'em all, then forward to the North Pole. Kids are welcome to send along a picture of themselves. If suitable for engraving, we'll run the photos with the letters.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Osburn were contributors to the hospital landscaping fund for a magnolia tree in memory of her mother, the late Mrs. Pearl Brown. Their names did not appear in last week's issue of The Herald with the rest of the family.

ALL OF AMERICA'S FIGHTING MEN ARE REMEMBERED IN THIS FAMED STATUTE

SMORGASBORD

(Editor's note — This week marks the start of another regular column in The Herald. The writer is a veteran newspaperwoman, recently joining The Herald staff after being with The Monroe Evening News the past five years.)

By DELAPHENE SHELTON

It was Veterans Day and Tecumseh's Chicago Blvd. was bright with flags in memory of the brave men and women who had given their lives for their country.

As I walked along the street on an errand I remembered several instances in which the flag had been especially meaningful to me.

My husband and I have a 13-year-old son who refuses to believe he will never be a Marine. He cannot accept the fact that his deafness will prevent him ever becoming a "leatherneck."

Last Memorial Day as we raised a new American flag on a new pole above an older son's home in Phoenix, Ariz. this lad stood with such a rapt, expression as he guided us through the Boy Scout ritual of raising the colors that he made the experience one none of us will ever forget.

★

THE FLAG was one of eight which we had purchased through our Congressman — eight flags which had flown over the national Capitol Building immediately after the period of mourning for President Kennedy had ended last year.

We had been among the thousands who passed the grave of the late president soon after his burial in Arlington National Cemetery. We had seen the display of scores of thousands of flags — all of them at half-mast or draped with black — throughout the city of Washington.

We visited Fort McHenry in Baltimore, Md. that day. We had looked at the wind-flung flag, flying there at half-mast and thought of an earlier flag which had inspired Francis Scott Key 150 years ago to write The Star Spangled Banner as he was held prisoner aboard a British warship there.

★

OTHER THOUGHTS crowded in as I walked those two blocks of Tecumseh's business district on Veterans Day.

I recalled the lump that used to choke my throat as I watched the flag raised during that period of 12 years when we had three sons and a foster son playing on Milan High School teams.

So soon they were to exchange gridiron togs for service uniforms.

Two served in the Korean conflict. A third was discharged because of a physical disability. The fourth, after more than two years of intensive training a fortnight ago, completed the first of a series of cruises aboard the nuclear submarine, the John C. Calhoun.

We had watched Sept. 15 as the vessel was commissioned. On the deck of this great ship the 288 officers and men who make up the two crews, stood at attention.

The band played the National Anthem, the flag was raised and in that solemn moment we dedicated our loved ones to the service of their country.

'Music of Faiths' Is Club's Theme

"Music of the Faiths" was the theme when 16 members of the Tecumseh Music Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Orrie Gilbert. Dinner was served before the meeting.

Mrs. Arthur Schwartz, president of the club, was a special honored guest. She and her family will soon be leaving to make their home in Cleveland. The group presented her with a musical charm, and a rhinestone treble clef pin as expressions of gratitude for her service to the Club.

Members answered the roll call with the title of their favorite hymn, and joined in singing the official, "Federation Hymn."

Mrs. Fred Oberlin, who was in charge of the program, presented a trio composed of Mrs. James Danforth, Mrs. Lee Prettyman, and Mrs. Harold Green. They sang two numbers, "My God and I", and "Take Time To Be Holy".

Linda Gilbert played "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Saviour" on the piano. Mrs. Paul Brantingham accompanied Mrs. Ray Sommers as she sang "The Breaking of the Bread".

Twelve young persons representing the youth choir from the Adrian Church of Christ presented hymn selections which included: "On Zion's Glorious Summit," "How Shall the Young Secure Their Hearts?", "Again the Lord of Light and Life," and "Now the Day is Over."

Mrs. Richard Halsey, a member of the Tecumseh Music Club, is also a member of the youth choir, directed by J. Morgan.

Mrs. Owen Merrill was assistant hostess for the evening.

WSCS Hears Minority Group

Ten Spanish-American youth and adults presented the program Nov. 4 for the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Carroll Sprague presented an introductory talk concerning the history and heritage of these people in the United States. She introduced Anita Vadalez from the Spanish-American Baptist Church in Adrian.

Miss Vadalez summarized living conditions and problems of her people before presenting the rest of the group.

Several of the guests answered questions on discrimination, housing, jobs, holidays and personal reactions.

The Spanish-American guests included Mrs. Manuel Vallejo, Mrs. Juanita Soto, Pauline Vallejo, Sally Reyes, Betty Reyes, Gloria Lorres, Nelda Lorres, Marjorie Reyes, Ralph Vallejo and Miss Vadalez.

Devotions were given by Mrs. William M. Steele, Jr. Miss Bertha LaPointe acted as greeter.

The refreshments following the business meeting, were served by Mrs. Blanche Halberstadt and Mrs. Merlin Shultz.

Miss Universe Pageant Seeks Beautiful Girls

The search for "Miss Michigan-Universe" is underway according to an announcement from the "Miss Michigan Beauty Pageants" headquarters in Belleville.

Qualifications, the headquarters spokesman said, include that contestants must be between the ages of 18 and 28, never have been married and a resident of the state for six months. Judging is based on beauty of face and figure, poise, charm and personality.

Inquiries may be directed to "Michigan-Miss Universe", Pageant Enterprises, 42050 Expressway, Belleville.

St. Elizabeth Jottings

● TOM TOMS

Sister Mary Constance has the fourth grade busy. Last Wednesday the children made tom toms in their homes to use in singing class.

They cut old rubber for the head of the drum and used a coffee can for the rim. They painted and beaded the rim. When the drums were finished the children sang and danced like little Indians.

By Vicki Biscupski

● FOOTBALL SEASON

The St. Elizabeth Cubs finished their football season with two wins and three losses.

The record was:
Onsted 6, Cubs 0
Cubs 4, Cement City 0
Napoleon 18, Cubs 7
Addison 6, Cubs 0
Cubs 7, Camden Frontier 0

The football team would like to express its gratitude to the coaches, Gordon Gutowski, Jim Greene and Jim Biscupski, for teaching us all of the fine points of football and to Wes Haeussler for scheduling our games.

● CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

St. Elizabeth School has started arranging the talent for their Christmas program. [illegible] years' program also includes a few selections from the Choral classes.

By Mary Young

● "A LITTLE GIFT"

Fr. Thomas J. Collins received 13 lovely Italian paintings. When the eighth grade boys finish framing these pictures they will hang between the classrooms.

By Thomas Rohrer and Sara Beck

● PLAYLET

Fourth graders presented a playlet Oct. 30 called "All Saints Fantasy." Each student wrote a short story about the saint's name which they received at Baptism. Each wore a costume to portray their saint.

St. Michael introduced each saint, who told the class what they did to fulfill God's plan.

Our Lady, St. Bernadette, St. Joseph, Louis IX, St. Joan of Arc, and many more partook of the program. Pop and candy were furnished as a surprise treat by three kind mothers.

No goblins, witches, or spooks were allowed at this holy party!

By Carol Riordan

● MIDGET MOLECULES

Eighth grade science students are currently making a study of elements and molecules and learning how the atom plays a significant part in their structure.

Each student was assigned to look up and prepare specific points about certain elements, such as their atomic weight, atomic number and properties.

They put them on a large sheet representing a Periodic Table.

By William Whiting

● BASKETBALL'S BACK

Basketball aspirants reported this week for practice. The team will be made up of seventh and eighth grade boys.

Jim Biscuskski is the head basketball coach.

By William Holmes

● HISTORY

Eighth graders had a history project last Monday, consisting of anything to do with the westward movement. Some made log cabins, which showed the simple homes of the pioneers.

Others showed the dangers of a keel boat by constructing a keelboat. A few built miniature covered wagons which illustrated the little room families had for their belongings.

There were two first prizes, one went to Carol Riordan and the other to Linda Young.

YOU TOLD US

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

"Thanksmas" may sound strange to some but to the Van Valkenburg children and their parents, it has become a traditional holiday.

Annually for the past 12 years, Mrs. Herbert Munger has made special preparations for the party combining Thanksgiving and Christmas just before she and her late husband started for St. Petersburg for the winter months.

Thursday evening, her home on N. Adrian Hwy. was radiant when sons Raynor, next door, and Roger of Adrian, and their families arrived for the festive event.

The dining room featured a turkey dinner with all the "dressing" and the living room was gay with Christmas adornments.

Four generations were represented in the 15 Vans attending. Gary, son of Roger and owner of the Hill Top Skating Rink, and his wife with their two tykes, Terry and Tammie, make up the third and fourth generations.

The happy time carefully arranged by Mrs. Munger is appreciated by her family. She will leave Monday for Florida accompanied by Mrs. E. T. Armstrong of Adrian.

Mrs. E. T. Armstrong of Adrian accompany Mrs. Herbert Munger to St. Petersburg, Fla., this week. Mrs. Armstrong will spend some time there before going to Birmingham, Ala., to spend Christmas with her sister.

√

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McConnell were accompanied by Mrs. Lyle Grigg Tuesday when they drove to Madison, O. to visit Mrs. Kirk Williams and daughter, Wylda, whose father died last week.

√

Kalamazoo Mall Draws Praise and Shoppers

(Editor's note — Herald readers learned about the state's newest downtown business district shoppers' mall in Jackson in a recent Herald picture story presentation. This article reports on Michigan's oldest mall, at Kalamazoo, as prepared by a staff member of The Kalamazoo Gazette.)

By JERRY MORTON

Kalamazoo Gazette Staff Writer

The City of Kalamazoo will be 80 this year, but it has the vigor of a five-year-old.

Instead of looking back to past achievements, Kalamazoo is busy peering ahead to a new future that began five years ago this Wednesday with the opening of the Burdick Mall.

Since 1959, representatives of cities throughout the United States as well as several foreign countries have visited the "Mall City," anxious to learn how Kalamazoo is meeting a problem that has been plaguing American core cities for almost two decades.

Kalamazoo's downtown problem was typical of many American cities: A population spreading to the suburbs, stores and offices following the movement; more people driving proportionately more cars into and through the downtown, choking the narrow streets with traffic; old age of the buildings — in short, decay.

The three-block Burdick Mall, first permanent downtown mall in the U. S., has made a significant contribution in efforts to restore vigor to Kalamazoo's core, in view of the vast majority of community leaders.

"All indices indicate success," is the way Eton Ham, director of the Kalamazoo Municipal Research Bureau sizes up the mall's first five years.

"It has lived up to our expectations," he said. "In fact it has done more than we could have hoped for."

Since the mall opened in 1959, vacancies have dropped, building permits have increased and assessed valuation of property has risen in the downtown area, Ham said.

★

INVESTMENT has increased with greater rapidity in the downtown area than in the rest of the city, he asserted.

The total non-resident building permits issued for renovation and construction in the central business district averaged $386,000 a year from 1950 to 1958. But in the years 1959 through 1962, the annual average for permits in the downtown area was $1,374,000, an average increase of almost a million dollars a year during the first three years of the mall's operation.

Assessed valuation of property now stands at nearly $6,000,000 on the mall, but it was only $4,721,000 in 1957, Ham said.

Before the mall was constructed, its opponents feared that loss of parking would keep shoppers from patronizing the downtown stores.

Recent research bureau figures show, however, that there are now 2,354 parking spaces in the downtown area, nearly a 30 per cent increase over spaces available in 1957.

But the real proof of the mall's success may be found with the merchants and shoppers.

"To move forward, businesses must be forward looking," said jeweler Ray D. Pixler. "It's different from that dirty street we used to have."

★

RETIRED merchant Preston Browning, who worked on Burdick Street before the mall was constructed, sees the mall as a symbol.

"It forced everyone to work together for a common goal," he said. "Before that, there was no goal."

The merchants view the mall as a safe, clean place where shoppers can stroll leisurely from store to store, knowing that their children will be free from the danger of heavy traffic.

And what about the shoppers?

"Christmas shopping used to be torture," said Mara Bers of Kalamazoo. "I can not imagine why anyone could ever think of going back to the old way."

"I love it," said Mrs. Dorothy Shug of Marcellus. "It's a nice place to shop, and I don't mind traveling from Marcellus one bit."

Shoppers now frequent the downtown area in greater numbers than they did in 1958, according to police estimates and sample traffic counts that indicate a 30 per cent increase in pedestrian traffic over the five-year period.

Figures compiled by the City Research Bureau show they are buying more, too. Gross sales for all downtown stores for 1959 increased 15 per cent over 1958 and have been rising ever since, while county retail sales rose only 12 per cent during the Mall's first year of use.

The success of the mall has rubbed off on merchants immediately off the mall. Russell Powell, Michigan Avenue merchant, reports:

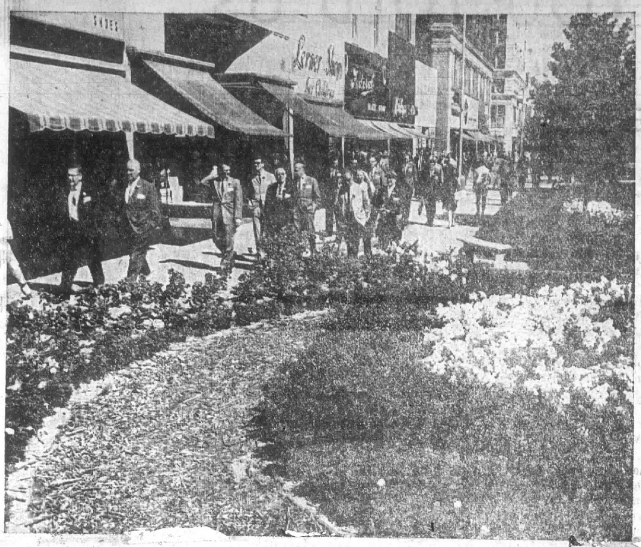
"The mall has helped me considerably even though I am not on it. I think it has met all expectations for the downtown as a whole."

Some may think of the mall as a one-shot promotional gimmick. It is actually just the first part of a comprehensive plan that envisions an entirely revitalized downtown area.

The "Kalamazoo 1980" plan was conceived and designed by Victor Gruen Associates.

★

UNDER THIS admittedly visionary plan, the central business district would be encircled by a graceful boulevard with limited access and speed of, say, 35 miles per hour.



KALAMAZOO MALL — This is the first block south of Michigan Ave., in Kalamazoo, at about the center of the Mall, with a former revolving stage covered by plantings (foreground). At center-left is a delegation of visitors from Canada

Motorists would drive from the "ring road" to parking lots within, but would not have free access inside the ring.

The planners envisioned a central business district of malls, shops, office buildings, high-rise apartments, plentiful parking, parks, fountains — everything you would expect to find except cars and traffic.

The plan received a setback last year when voters in an advisory election, said "no" to a $14 million Community Improvement Program that would have implemented much of the 1980 plan with bond issues, plus funds.

City officials, however, indicate they intend to go ahead with the work on a piecemeal basis.

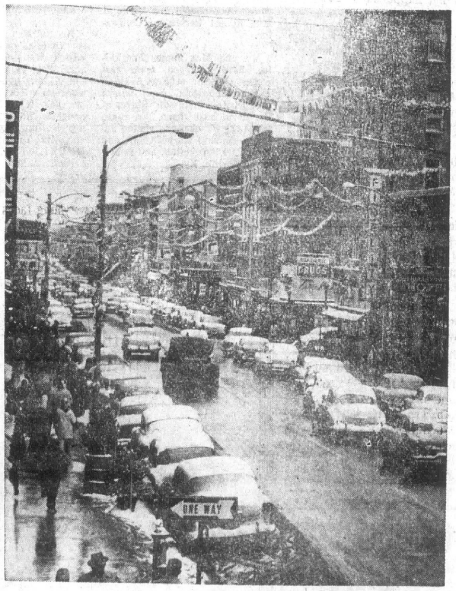
As for the mall, there was some opposition then and now to ripping out the traffic-choked, 40-foot wide street. But the opposition was never organized, before or after construction, and all surveys indicate overwhelming approval.

Most downtown businessmen agree that the novelty of the mall has worn off and that it is now up to them to keep the program active and appealing.

They also agree that the key to the success of any metropolitan area is in the center of town, for every great city must have a heart.

In 1959, Kalamazoo found a solution, and now most Kalamazooans will agree that its heart is in the right place.

IT HAS BEEN ONLY 5 YEARS SINCE KALAMAZOO'S BURDICK MALL . . .



. . . WAS A TYPICAL, CONGESTED, NOISY 40-FOOT WIDE DOWNTOWN STREET

Let's' Talk Turkey

the United States couldn't come up with a simple defense budget too.

Inspired by Andorra's thrift, she takes a mythical trip to the Pentagon to visit with the Secretary of Defense, but gets precious little sympathy.

He explains wearily that America needs all sorts of weapons and rockets, space men and A-bombs.

Here's the way the song goes:

☆

CHORUS

I want to go to Andorra, Andorra, Andorra
I want to go to Andorra
It's a land that I adore
They spend four dollars and ninety cents
On armaments in their defense
Have you ever heard of such confidence
Andorra, hip-hoorah!

I

In the mountains of the Pyrenees
There's an independent state
Its population 5,000 souls
And I think they're simply great
One hundred and seventy square miles big
And it's mighty plain to see
They spend less than five dollars on armaments
And this I've got to see!

CHORUS

II

They're governed by a council
All gentle souls and wise
They spend less than $5 on armaments
And the rest on cakes and pies
They don't believe in tommy-guns
Or planes to sweep the skies
But they bought some blanks for their cap-pistol
To shoot on their Fourth of Julys.

CHORUS

III

I wandered down by the Pentagon
This newspaper clipping in hand
I hollered I want to see everyone
In McNamara's band.
I said, Look what they've done in Andorra
They've put us all to shame
The least is first, the biggest is last
But they get there just the same.

CHORUS

IV

Now, the general said, my dear boy
You just don't understand
We need these things to feel secure
In our great and wealthy land
I said if security's what you need
I'll buy a couch for you
A head-shrinker is cheaper and quicker
And a damn sight safer, too!

Game Simulates Business Deals

A. W. Merz of Tecumseh teamed with four other men in Bellaire to run a mythical company for a simulated two year period — all in two days — and "talked" with an electronic computer in Detroit.

Mr. Merz, of the Tecumseh Equipment Co., Tecumseh International Harvester dealership, took part in a company management review conference at Bellaire along with 15 other IH dealers Nov. 5 and 6.

The teams competed against each other in running their "paper" companies. After decisions were made each quarter, the teams used a specially installed teletype typewriter to "talk" to the Burroughs B283 computer 275 miles away in Detroit. An analysis of their decisions in the form of a printed report came back from the computer within seconds.

Tipton School Takes On Indian Reservation Aspect

TIPTON — First grade youngsters here aren't answering these days to such ordinary names as Suzie, Jim and Billy.

Rather they are known as Running Deer, Morning Sun and Shining Star, etc.

It's all part of the study of an Indian unit being taught by Mrs. H. C. Bailey. The unit incorporates reading, language, art, social studies, science and math.

The group, known as the Pow Wow Tribe, has built a tepee and decorated it with Indian signs. The youngsters are making headdresses and have brought from their homes arrowheads, Indian dolls, totem poles, pottery, and other Indian items.

A movie about North American Indians will be shown the children that they may better understand the history and habits of the tribes.

Mungers Celebrate

TIPTON — An open house honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lester Munger on their 25th wedding anniversary was held Nov. 8 in Tipton Community Church. Their children, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Munger of Tipton and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Green of Tecumseh were hosts. About 150 relatives and friends attended.

A three-tiered cake, decorated in silver and white, and made by Mrs. William Vollmer centered the refreshment table.

Mrs. Muza Grove of Curtiss, O. poured from a silver tea service. Mrs. George Mattis of Adrian served the cake and Mrs. Fred Feight of Tecumseh the punch. Mrs. Kenneth Munger had charge of the guest book.

Others assisting were Mrs. Ray Stockinger, Mrs. John Becker, Mrs. Harold Radant and Mrs. Don Daniels.

Mr. and Mrs. Munger received many lovely gifts.

The Mungers have two grandchildren, Michael H. Green and Michael J. Munger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Munger of Tipton. Guests were from Tipton, Tecumseh, Onsted, Adrian, Ann Arbor, Manitou Beach, Manchester, Clinton, Britton, Milan and Clayton.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Poetic License

(Editor's note — Plymouth Mail Editor Dave Wiley viewed Michigan's 1965 license plates and gulped. We're reprinting the editorial he wrote after getting that initial peek.)

Brightly-colored, blue and gold 1965 Michigan license plates went on sale early this week and, frankly, they are a little too much.

It would seem that some clunkers at the state level have nothing better to do than daydream and come up with hackneyed slogans for Michiganians to carry across the nation on their automobiles.

The Madison Avenue mentality, not content with ruining the leisure hours we spend squatting in front of the idiot box, has extended its kindergarten sloganeering efforts to the Secretary of State's domain.

Apparently under the impression that simplicity would never do, some unknown clown with tourist dollars in his eyes took a reasonably presentable line and clogged it up with the addition of another word.

Not only did he mess up the cadence of "Water Wonderland", the addition of the word "winter" fouled up the balanced appearance of the plate itself.

Actually, though, if the trend continues — we can think up some dandy additions. Consider, in the event that George Romney is re-elected by the time you read this, "Womney's Water Winter Wonderland".

Or tongue twisters like, "Wilbur wooed Wilma in a Water Winter Wonderland".

Dorothy Parker, in book reviews, used to refer to herself as "Constant Reader". Once, after perusing a particularly childish volume for tots, she came up with a comment that sums up our feeling about the new license plate slogan.

"Tonstant weader," she noted, "awmost fwowed up." She's wight. Things have gone a wittle too far.

Whither Now, GOP?

In making a delivery to The Herald right after the election, Rumpf Truck driver Bill Sisson grinned, as he asked, "What happened to Barry?"

Our immediate response was right to the point: "He took a hell of a beating."

How else can the debacle of Barry Goldwater be explained? Few men have fallen so far and so completely. It wasn't a matter of great popularity for his opponent, rather, a move to keep the Arizona senator out of the White House.

Pundits all across the land have weighed and probed the vote. Primarily they have tried to get a line on the simple question, "What now, Grand Old Party?"

We, too wonder, how does the Republican Party pick up the pieces—and where will it start? Our guess is that a quartet of governors will gradually become the spokesmen, with George Romney playing the key role.

It's painfully obvious that the GOP needs a whole new face. Not just a swing away from Goldwater, but a vital, shiny, gutty approach.

It dosn't take a mental giant to see that right here in Lenawee County the time has come for a different tack. A giant step was taken four years ago when the Old Gang was "relieved" of its strangle hold on the party.

Considerable progress has been made since then, but in reality the party faithful will admit "it's a long way from home." What once was solid GOP territory is now gradually leaning Democratic.

Franklin Township saw the election of five Democrats for the first time in its history. The race for county sheriff actually was one, also for the first time.

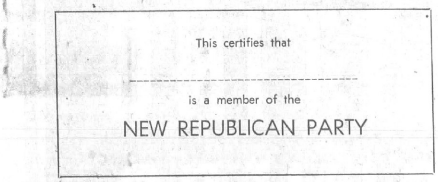
Yes, the Republicans won much of the rest, but the difference has narrowed considerably. By 1968, if the Republicans are content to have gone through four years at a relaxed pace, the edge can well belong to the Democrats.

No longer can Lenawee County Republicans sit back and watch the tide roll in for them. Organization and hard work, plus a lot of new, young faces are the first step.

That doesn't mean the loyal regulars must depart, simply that they should be the first to welcome the newcomers, not with a jaundiced eye, but with a sincere hope that the team must grow bigger.

We have an idea for a starter. Teams of regulars would move through the entire county, contacting new recruits for the party. Neatly printed membership cards (see illustration below) would go to everyone for a nominal donation of, say 50c.

From there, a solid battle plan would be built. Republicans should start now and not wait until a few weeks before the polls are scheduled to open.



Why Monday?

Well, how do you like it?

Opinions of readers and advertisers will, in the long run, decide the fate of this early-week edition. We definitely will continue as a bi-weekly until 1965, basing our decision to make it permanent or not on what folks tell us until then.

Going twice weekly was prompted by a number of things:

► A work-peak, climaxing on Wednesday, was becoming nearly impossible to handle physically.

► More and more stories, top-grade ones, just weren't getting in because of space limitations.

► Some stories have been going unwritten and pictures not taken because we knew there wouldn't even be room for what we already had in type and engraved photos.

► This would be one way to print more pages per week. During 1963, The Herald averaged 16.2 pages each edition. It's entirely possible that this figure will grow in the future to 18 or 20, maybe even 24, with two issues weekly.

► Tecumseh is bursting at the seams and needs a bigger paper.

That's the way things stand as we enter our noble experiment.

OUR READERS WRITE

TO THE EDITORS:

While I was attending school in Tecumseh, back in the late 40s and early 50s, I recall Tecumseh having a CAP squadron. Exactly what happened to this squadron, I do not know. It is my duty at this time to encourage communities to set up a local CAP Squadron.

Sincerely,
Judith A. Francoeur, S/M
Information Officer

(Editor's note — Miss Francoeur enclosed a story concerning CAP. It can be read at The Herald by interested persons.)

TO THE EDITORS:

At the close of a busy campaign, I would like to express my personal appreciation to you and to your newspaper for the fine coverage that you gave to the entire campaign.

While I was soundly defeated, nevertheless it was a great privilege for me to be the first woman nominated for this position and the fact of over a million votes will remain a warm memory for me.

Best wishes,
Elly M. Peterson

TO THE EDITOR:

Michigan has a great nickname, but it isn't always true. Water Wonderland means Michigan has great lakes, streams, rivers, etc.

The way I look at it Tecumseh is spoiling this name. Have you ever been behind Patterson School at the Public Park?

Evans Creek runs down by there and it is a disgrace to our nickname. Logs, rocks, sticks and debris clog this waterway which, with a little effort could become as beautiful as streams in other counties.

I am sure if the city would not bother with this matter, I know there would be enough boys who use this poor spot for fishing, etc., who would volunteer to clean this out.

I hope that some one will agree with these views and take action at once.

Paul Velandra Jr.

(Editor's note — Sounds like a fine idea. Any volunteers?)

17 Tons Of Seals

Christmas Seals—some 17 tons of them—were dispatched last week to more than two million Michigan homes as the 58th campaign to raise funds for the fight against tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases began.

More than 23,187 envelopes were mailed to residents of Lenawee County where the 1964 campaign goal was set at $11,500 compared with $10,972 contributed by county residents last year.

Hunts Go South

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Cameron have moved from their home on the Island in Evans Lake to the Don Hunt residence in Tipton. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt are spending the winter months in Zephyrhills, Fla.

STRANGE CARROT — Charles Spreeman, E. Monroe Rd., examines an oddity of nature, a carrot from his garden that grew in the shape of a human hand. What gives the story an eerie twist is the fact that four days before Mr. Spreeman discovered the "hand", one of his fellow workers at the Ridgeway sawmill, Vern Thomas of Ridgeway, accidentally cut off three fingers and the thumb of one hand.

Kiwanians Visit Hospital

Last Wednesday 14 members of the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club were invited by the workers at the Forney Clement Institute to meet at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

The Institute is sponsored and financed by the Kiwanis Clubs of Michigan. It was established 40 years ago to provide education and recreational facilities for children confined to the hospital. Recently the program was expanded to provide education for severely burned children.

Following dinner in the hospital cafeteria, the Tecumseh Kiwanians were lead on a tour. In the recreation center there were a few patients playing pool. The director explained that many patients play pool from wheel chairs and even portable beds.

The Kiwanians then inspected the hospital school where the pre-school room was of special interest. The tour ended with slides showing the school program in action.

The director personally thanked the Tecumseh Kiwanians for their support over the years.

Beautician Is Speaker

By DIANE MEYERS

Miss Sharon Martin, a beautician from Tecumseh Beauty Shop, was the guest speaker when six members of Iota Epsilon Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Mrs. George Underwood Jr. Nov. 4.

Miss Martin gave a brief talk on good hair grooming, demonstrated combing out a hairdo with Mrs. Robert Martin as model, showed fashion wigs and talked about the upkeep of them.

During the business meeting the members voted to go to the Lenawee Institute December 22 to have a Christmas party for the children.

After the meeting coffee and tarts were served by the cohostess Mrs. Kenneth Meyers.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Martin, Nov. 17.

Report Cards Are Changed

CLINTON—New report cards are being used at Clinton High School this year. These cards are paper and do not have to be brought back to school.

They also have space for comments by the teachers.

Little Garden Club Elects, Plans Holiday Festivities

Members of the Little Garden Club elected officers at their monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Charles Gross, 9404 Valleydale Pwy.

Officers elected were:

President — Mrs. Bill Clausen

Vice-president — Mrs. Richard Hammel

Secretary—Mrs. Donald Smith

Treasurer — Mrs. Judson Miles

Membership secretary — Mrs. Stanley Cook

Plans for possible programs for the coming year were discussed, with members offering suggestions and ideas. Among those brought up were a home flower show, spring tea, and a holiday greens show.

★

IT WAS ANNOUNCED by the program chairman, Mrs. Clausen, that the December meeting would be a holiday social to include the husbands of club members.

Past president Mrs. Carlton Cook announced that the yearly club tradition of each member taking a plant or flowers to a local shut-in before Christmas, would be continued again this year.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. H. W. Schoenlein, Mrs. Gross' mother from Ferndale, displayed and demonstrated fall and Christmas decorations made from many inexpensive items found in the home or gathered from along the roadside.

Many items included pine cones, pods or dried materials collected from around the nation during Mrs. Schoenlein's travels.

After the demonstration, a coffee and cake social was enjoyed by members and their guests.

Woman's Society Has Fine Service

Mrs. John Danforth presented an impressive devotional service Nov. 9 for the Women's Society of the First Bantist Church.

She said, "How can we be receivers of so many blessings and not want to give to others of our time, talent, prayers and [illegible]? As this Thanksgiving approaches there is so much trouble, hate, worry, war, grief and confusion in the world.

"We can perhaps do little to help with this but in our own little groups with parents, children, babies and older people together, let us know only love, kindness and appreciation of each other. Let the day be one we will never forget. Touch hands and give thanks."

★

A TRIO composed of Mrs. Danforth, Mrs. Harold Green and Mrs. H. Lee Prettyman sang, "Count Your Blessings."

Mrs. E. H. McConnell presented her collection of sea shells using the theme, "What God Hath Wrought."

Mrs. Orville Bishop, president, opened the meeting by leading the group in the singing of the hymn, "Take My Life," followed by a prayer by Mrs. Blair Bashore.

Ellen Snedecor was the hospitality chairman. Mrs. Thomas Brooks and committee served refreshments from a lace-covered table where Mrs. Ray Herrick and Mrs. Sam Clough presided over the tea service.

Maidens Tour Richland Furs

About 20 members, leaders and mothers of the North Franklin Maidens toured Richland Furs, Inc., in Blissfield Nov. 7. The group were taken through the vaults where new furs and customers' furs are being stored.

They were shown the process for "letting out" or stretching mink. The company has a small factory where remodeling is done but it does not make new garments.

The girls and their mothers also toured the retail store.

Arrangements were made at a meeting held Nov. 5 at the home of the leader, Mrs. Roger Williams.

Premium money from the Lenawee County Fair was distributed and refreshments were served by Karen and Carol Davenport.

Another meeting was held Nov. 12 at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Young, co-leader.

Dundee Seniors Present Play

DUNDEE — The Senior class at Dundee High School will present "The Glass Menagerie," a two-act play by Tennessee Williams, Nov. 20 and 21 at 8:15 p.m. in the elementary all-purpose room.

Admission charge is $1 for adults, and 50c for students.

LOOKING FOR DAYLIGHT — Tim Collins seems to be getting a pat on the back from Adrian's Jim Dunbar for his efforts in Tecumseh's conquest of the Maples. The speedy halfback displays the drive that has made him an asset all season in this short gainer. Dunbar turned in a fine performance for the Adrian defensive unit.

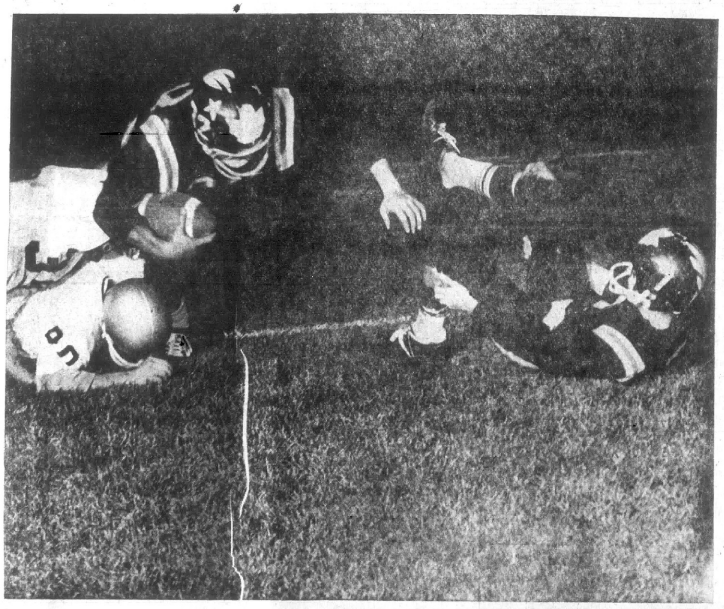
—Bootin' Pussy.



TIMBER! — Fine tackles like this coupled with an all-around powerful defense numbed Adrian's offensive attack. Tecumseh's shining linemen not only held their ground, but also threw the Maples for losses on numerous occasions.

AERIAL ATTACK — Adrian end Mickey Knight gets set for one of the long bombs attempted by the Maples in a futile search for yardage. Knight looked well throughout the game.

BACKFIELD ACE — Gregg McEnroe stretches for those valuable extra inches after taking the ball on an upfield jaunt. The evasive Indian fullback out-maneuvered Adrian pursuers for a total of 76 yards and one touchdown. The Tecumseh backfield put on a show that fans will long remember.

ARROW SHOWS BALL — Indian quarterback Jeff Osburn put the icing on the cake with this dive into pay dirt late in the fourth quarter. Osburn's value was realized throughout the game as he displayed his quick-thinking ability.

VOLUME 114 — ONE HUNDRED FIFTEENTH YEAR — NO. 8 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1964 | 16 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Pride and hustle were hallmarks of the 1964 Tecumseh football team.

"We weren't as flashy as '62, but this is the guttiest team I've ever had," was the capsule analysis by Coach Tom Fagan made in a steaming dressing room following the Adrian game.

And lest you get the idea that Tom is a snarling, bitter mentor — as our picture down below might suggest — please banish the thought.

The photo is used to help show the intense feeling engendered by a battle like the one last Friday night. (Incidentally, fans might be interested in our editorial comments on a story "reporting" the contest in a county seat daily. An editorial on the subject appears on the [illegible] section.)

Tom's fierce appearance, as he shouts defensive instructions to Ron Bolz, was an emotional reflection of the entire ball club and explains a comment he made in the locker room.

"We'd have licked them no matter who they put on the field. These kids had determination," (Their coaches, too.)

★

HE LIKENED the Adrian win to the one a week earlier against a spunky Riverside crew. When a score was needed, "we took the ball and moved it".

Coach Fagan has high regard for every lad who played with his '64 squad, but he couldn't be faulted for being especially pleased with his slender quarterback, Jeff Osburn.

JEFF OSBURN

"Jeff does more with less than anyone. He can't run or throw, but he'll lead the ball club," the coach said.

Truly a natural take-charge guy, Jeff was the steady hand which kept Tecumseh moving when it needed to roll.

The coach grinned when he recalled the last point-after touchdown attempt — a quarterback sneak by Tom Elliott.

A 190-pound defensive specialist, the dandy "Bump" got the nod to run the team on the final scoring try. So excited with the responsibility, instead of yelling "Hike" he snapped "52" and when the center didn't respond, Tom tried to grab the ball and the team was charged with backfield in motion — amid a round of hilarity on the field and along the sidelines.

★

ANOTHER LAD who delighted his coach every minute he was in action (and this included about each one the Indians played) was Don Baird, the husky halfback who could run and block; was a tiger on defense as an inside line backer.

The coach pointed out that Don had gone into the Adrian scrap emotionally keyed a dozen stories high. His fierce reaction on the field showed it.

Of all those wonderful young men, to wear grid togs this fall for THS, it's my opinion that Don is the best college football prospect

"EAT 'EM UP," PURRS COUNTY COACH OF YEAR TOM FAGAN TO RON BOLZ

Highway Projects Detoured

[illegible] plans no major highway improvements in Lenawee County before 1972.

That blow to residents hopes for better roadways was dealt Tuesday by Howard Hill, managing director of the department.

He and Edward Ballenbraum, chief planning engineer for the department, met with county officials on the Adrian College campus at the request of Willian Burchfield, Lenawee County Highway Engineer. The meeting was arranged by State Senator Haskell Nichols of Jackson.

★

MR. HILL insisted a traffic count shows too little use of M-52 to justify building of a bypass around Adrian.

He failed to heed the pleas of Mr. Burchfield and Clifford Miles, Adrian city manager, who pointed out that Lenawee County is the 18th in the state in revenue collected for the State Highway Department and yet receives little in return.

Principal To Talk

TIPTON — The Tipton PTA will meet at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 23.

Mrs. Rachel Schreiber, principal of North Side Elementary School in Ann Arbor, will speak on "Progressive Education".

Tuttle Will Expand, Adding 30 New Jobs

H. W. Tuttle Company will expand its operations and add to its employment force, if the city will provide sewer and water service to a 5,000-square-foot plant on Russell Rd., just east of S. Maumee St.

Harold Tuttle, president, says the company plans to start producing new products and needs additional space, plus 25 to 30 more employees.

Announcement of the new products is expected next month.

The Tecumseh firm already is leasing the Russell Rd. plant from William Mackey as a warehouse. If city utilities are made available, it will be converted to production purposes, at least by March of next year.

The Tuttle company presently employs approximately 120, and will add 25 to 30, mostly women. Basic operation planned for the company's new plant will be assembling.

Sewer and water to the Russell Rd. plant was turned down by Council at the Nov. 2 meeting. At that time, Otto and Evelyn Beaubien protested, saying the assessment would surpass the value of their property.

The Beaubiens are the largest property owners between S. Maumee St. and the plant. Since Russell Rd. borders along Raisin Township only property owners on the north side, inside the city limits, can be assessed.

Council Monday night asked Mr. Tuttle to have Mr. Mackey present another petition. Some city aid for the project was suggested, since proposed mains — affecting the assessment cost — were larger than necessary for the plant.

LEE SMITH AND HAROLD MATTIS ADMIRE HAROLD'S DEER

Why Go North?

Tecumsehland Deer Are Bigger

By DELAPHENE SHELTON

Tecumsehland deer hunters are finding less and less excuse for making their annual trek to the North Woods. At least five bagged bucks within a few miles of their home.

Chances are there have been others.

Probably the biggest animal was that shot by Harold Mattis of Brooklyn, who works for George Underwood Motor Sales.

He and Lee Smith of Clinton, Underwood service manager, left at 5:10 p.m. from their jobs to hunt.

Within 20 minutes, using a 12-gauge shotgun loaded with slugs, Mr. Mattis shot a 12-point buck, which weighed 213 pounds field-dressed.

Like the typical mushroom hunter, the men were carey about the exact location of the kill.

"It was in a woods east of Clinton," they said.

Mr. Mattis, who has killed seven deer on 13 annual trips to the North Country, is planning to go with his wife, Nancy, to Roscommon over the Thanksgiving holiday weekend. The trip will give his wife an opportunity to bag her first deer.

★

ANOTHER HAPPY hunter is Meryl Eaton, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Eaton, who killed his first buck Monday afternoon on the Eaton farm, 5695 E. Monroe Rd.

The youth was leaning against a tree in the Eaton woods while his father and older brother tramped through a neighboring swamp. A rustle in the brush alerted the youth, who turned to see two bucks and a doe.

He killed a seven-point buck with a single hollow-point .22 shell through the heart. A quick succession of shots into the air brought the boy's father and brother running to see what all the excitement was about.

The animal weighed 175 pounds field-dressed.

The Eaton farm has been in the family since 1837. Mr. Eaton said clan history reports that there was once a deer crossing through the farm and that Indians had erected a shooting platform in an oak tree, which once grew adjacent to where the Eaton home now stands.

★

THE DEER hunting season opened Sunday in Washtenaw County.

One of the lucky hunters was Eugene McCollom, 18, of 707 Tripp Rd., Tipton, who shot his first deer about 11 a.m. in the Twin Lakes area.

The young man remained at home when his father, Wilford McCollom, his brother Russell of Palmyra and Merle Smith of Adrian left for Foster City in the Upper Peninsula.

Eugene told his father, "I will get my buck right here at home."

Delbert E. King, 800 River Acres Dr., shot an eight-point

Servicemen's Names Sought by Auxiliary

Mrs. LaVern Seizert, rehabilitation chairman of the Underwood-Orr American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 34, is seeking names and addresses of Tecumseh men and women in the armed forces.

It is traditional in the unit to send a Christmas greeting to these service people. Last year 94 men and one woman were sent holiday remembrance.

Mrs. Seizert requests that families and friends of the service men and women contact her with correct addresses.

Her home is at 7950 N. Adrian Hwy. and her phone number is 423-4017.

C of C to Erect Informational Sign at Center

Tecumseh City Council gave permission to the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce Monday night to erect an information shelter-type sign at the Community Center.

Dr. Carlos Knisley, Chamber president, said the sign would be put up immediately west of the Community Center drive, and that it would include maps and other information about the area.

Residents Seek Curbs, Gutters

A petition for curb and gutter was presented to Council Monday night by property owners in the 600 block of N. Evans St.

The petition was accepted and referred to the city engineer for scheduling.

Accident Still Being Investigated

Police are still investigating the accident in which eight-year-old Ricardo R. Sanchez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Margarito Sanchez, 609 S. Pearl St. was killed on Nov. 8 when struck by a car driven by Francis John Opel, 18, of 909 Murray Dr.

Witnesses are still being sought.

Upcoming Monday

The Tecumseh Herald has several goodies planned for its Monday issue:

► "We've been bombed," William Burchfield, Lenawee County Highway engineer, declared Tuesday. He has good cause for his agitation.

► The Lenawee County Board of Supervisors is making news again and The Herald is preparing to release information on some shananigans that should interest every reader.

► Clara Waldron's second article on the history of Raisin Township relates how Adrian stole the county seat from Tecumseh after the residents had provided funds to build a courthouse. It was the end of a beautiful friendship.

$1,000 SHORT OF GOAL

Mop-Up Work Left

The Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive is within less than $1,000 of its $50,000 goal, Kenneth Conway, general chairman, announced this week.

He anticipates the campaign will go over the top by the end of the week but the drive will be held open until all contacts have been made, he said.

"We are very gratified we are this close to our goal," Mr. Conway added. "Our problem this year has been in getting a sufficient number of solicitors."

The commercial division, which has made 53 per cent of its contacts, expects to top last year's giving. Collection to date in this division are about $1,000 less than the amount collected in 1963.

Funds collected by the various divisions are:

Industry — $43,352.67
Commercial — $2,786
Professional — $1,456
Municipal — $206
Residential — $1,239.89
Total — $49,040.56

Psychiatric Social Worker Speaks at PTA

Mrs. Diane Grayson, Supervising Psychiatric Social Worker presently assigned to Lenawee County from the Ypsilanti State Hospital, will speak at Herrick Park PTA Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Grayson will talk on the subject of her responsibilities and problems pertaining to the rehabilitation of the mentally ill.

A question and answer period will follow Mrs. Grayson talk.

The regularly scheduled PTA business meeting will be held immediately after the discussion period.

Refreshments will be served.

Contractor Starts Project

Selders Excavation, delayed by work for the past week in Clinton, started construction on the GM Fisher Body Plant sewer Thursday.

Work began at the intersection of S. Evans St. and Russell Rd. The sewer will be laid south to Ives Rd., east to Occidental Rd., then north to the plant site.

City officials have notified Raisin Township Board that it intends to build the sewer, with or without the board's approval.

Township officials informed Council on Nov. 6 that its request for sewer approval had been denied.

Fear that the township would obtain an injunction to stop construction has lessened since the board has not responded to the city statement.

Estimated construction time for the eight-inch pressure sewer is seven or eight weeks. A lift station at the plant site also must be constructed and both sewer and station are to be operable by Feb. 1.

Behind Page One

A lady reader in Clinton was upset because we gave Roger Proctor such notice in reporting Clinton's homecoming victory. We lauded The Golden Toe for his game-winning place kick. The lady said "lots of others played fine games" and that they did. We congratulate everyone of the Redskins and their coaches. And thanks to the feminine reader for her reaction.

Mrs. Julian Strong of Ridgeway picked up a copy of the Oct. 29 issue of The Herald for her husband, a teacher at Melvindale High School, to put on the bulletin board. The article he was most interested in was "GM Seeks Well-Rounded Youths". This was going up in the office of the counsellors.

Hero of all the 40-plus guys around town has got to be Lou Groza, the place-kick artist for the Cleveland Browns. With tummy rolling over his belt, slightly, Lou couldn't [illegible] -core years. But there he was, banging a trio of three-pointers through the uprights, one being 47 yards.

A book becomes a classic when people who haven't read it start pretending they have.

Now it can be told — the Phantom Needler is Mrs. Russell Collins. All during the football season she was prodding her beloved Tecumseh Indians, including her son, star halfback, Tim. Before the Milan game she dispatched an anonymous banner to the high school, supposedly from the Big Reds, poking fun at such THS lads as "Bubbles" Baird, "Tippy Toes" Collins, et. al. Before the Adrian battle, Coach Tom Fagan received a crying towel from "The Maples," loaded with barbs. Monday Mrs. Collins confessed to the dastardly deeds.

A Raisin Township resident says that maybe officials there would cooperate more "if Tecumseh wouldn't act so high-handed."

Did you read the Monday edition? We'd welcome your comments, also any news for the early-week issue. Bring stories in Friday or Saturday.

Who won that game of tag Tuesday? Mrs. John Hamilton saw the contest outside her window, which took place between a squirrel and a cat.

Passes made at girls who wear glasses depend a good deal on frames.

Soon the gals on River Acres Drive will be donning their Easter bonnets — at least it wouldn't be too surprising if they did. Honeysuckle is in bloom at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Frownfelder, 809 on the Drive, and bridal wreath is displaying its best at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Perry at 714 on the same street.

"Happy Birthday, dear pastor, happy birthday to you." The congregation of 260 persons at the First Baptist Church gayly sang out the greeting for the Rev. Blair Bashore Sunday following the worship service. The dean of Tecumseh ministers was 56 years young Nov. 14.

There is always something to be thankful for. If you can't pay your bills, be thankful you are not one of your creditors.

"What terrible weather," said the usually jovial John Day, Monday. Looking out into the warm sunshine, it was difficult to agree until he commented further. "People aren't interested in buying my mittens, parkas and Christmas gifts when it's as warm as this."

We've just been looking through some old newspapers reading the headlines: "Kaiser Threatens All Europe." Ah, the good old days. —Mountain Messenger, Hindman Ky.

Tipton Jets Are Given Premiums

Members of the Tipton Jets 4-H Club received premium money from the Lenawee County fair and individual awards at the annual achievement night dinner Nov. 14, at the Tipton Grange Hall.

The Christmas party will be held Dec. 5 when an exchange of gifts will be held.

Refreshments will be served by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Radant.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stockinger, Mr. and Mrs. DeArle Brugger and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osburn are on the decorating committee.

Club members will arrange for the recreation.

Rev. Janeway Is Honor Guest

The Rev. Seal Janeway of the Missionary Baptist Church was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Brown.

Over 60 members of the church and friends attended the celebration.

Among the guests were the Jim Browns of Middlesboro, Ky. He is a brother of Wheeler Brown and with his family is visiting in his brother's home.

The Rev. Janeway received many fine gifts. At refreshment time a decorated cake highlighted the center of a serving table of many cakes and pies.

MOTOR VEHICLES are competing with deer hunters in the killing of animals.

The sixth deer to die in Tecumsehland since the season opened was killed Tuesday night after being struck on Tipton Hwy. one-half mile south of M-50.

The doe was hit by an automobile driven by Jeffery Parkes, 16, of 61 Pentecost Hwy., Onsted. The animal was turned over to John Boudreau of Adrian, state conservation officer. Mr. Parkes' automobile was damaged, but there were no injuries to the driver or passenger.

Mr. Bordreau reports that more than 40 deer have been killed in county traffic this year. Fifty-three were killed in 1963, he said.

★

DEER ARE MOVING farther south each year, Mrs. Boudreau pointed out, apparently attracted by farm crops.

"It's too bad for the farmer," she added, "but it does make for deer in wonderful condition."

Most truck drivers report the incident when their vehicles are involved. The conservation officer turns the carcass over to a public institution if the meat is in usable condition. Otherwise the animal is sent to an Adrian Tankage Co. for disposal.

Several animals have been given this year to Maple Lane Manor at Adrian.

Mrs. Agatha Camburn opened her home for the monthly meeting of the Macon Woman's club. Mrs. Charles Gorton and Mrs. Joseph Sheward assisted in serving the luncheon. Mrs. Floyd Barrett arranged a Thanksgiving program.

CHIEF HESMUCET SAYS "HI" — Chief Hesmucet was the winning name selected by Phillip Van Valkenburg for the mystery mascot of the Tecumseh High School in a contest sponsored recently by the cheerleaders. The name is Tecumseh spelled backwards and is pronounced Hes-muck-et with the emphasis on the second syllable. Phillip won two tickets to the basketball game for his selection. The cheerleaders are keeping the identity of the mascot a secret. The little Indian really created a lot of fun at a pep rally preceding the Blissfield game.

Methodist Church Burning Mortgage

Burning of the mortgage on the Educational Building of the First Methodist Church at 10 a.m. Sunday will be the prelude to further building, the Rev. Donald Porteous has announced.

At a recent special quarterly conference session officials voted unanimously to build a new church. They and members of the church will meet Jan. 21 at a second special quarterly conference to hear detailed findings of the building council.

Assisting the Rev. Porteous in the mortgage burning will be Aden Mead, chairman of stewardship and finance, and Lynn Noble, chairman of building council.

The Educational Building was purchased about five years ago from Mr. and Mrs. Donald Goddard to provide additional space for Christian education. The last payment was made Nov. 1.

The Rev. Porteous will speak Sunday on "Thanksgiving for What?"

Members of the senior and junior Methodist Youth Fellowships will go to the Chelsea Methodist Home Sunday afternoon, taking with them jams, jellies and canned goods provided by members of the congregation.

Square Dancers To Elect Leaders

An election of officers will highlight the session of the Tecumseh Square Dance Club Saturday, Nov. 21, at the Tecumseh Products Workers Union Hall from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The String Airs will present live music for the members and their guests.

Oliver Given Selling Rights for New Homes

Ernest H. Oliver, local real estate agent and insurance businessman, has been given exclusive franchise rights in the surrounding area for the building and selling of new-type houses by Component Houses, Inc., of Detroit, Michigan.

The houses, which can be sold on a finish-it-yourself basis, are not pre-fabricated, even though the parts are made in four-foot sections. The pieces are pre-cut at the company mill in Oregon, and pre-assembled into sections at Detroit.

Mr. Oliver has a model house located at Allen Road, ¼ mile east of the Tecumseh-Clinton Road, approximately two miles north of Tecumseh.

Institute Given $50

The 4-H Service Club elected Jim Nelson of Adrian Senior to head the group during the year ahead.

Ted Christenson of Morenci will be vice president, Mary Cox also of Morenci will be secretary and Larry Muck of Adrian will handle the funds for the county-wide organization.

Marv Ann Woodward of Clinton [illegible] the news.

Other business considered at the Nov. 11 meeting was to donate $50 to the Lenawee Institute.

The Club also decided to give assistance to the Kiwanis Club in their Christmas toy project.

Snowfall Funds Are Distributed

Lenawee County will not share in the $655,865 snow removal fund to be paid out this year to qualifying counties by the State Highway Department.

The county, with but 30 inches of snowfall last winter, falls 40 inches short of the necessary amount according to figures released Monday by state highway commissioner John C. Mackie.

Distribution of the money is based on a complicated snowfall, mileage and snowfall contour formula. Largest payment, $51,584, will go to Chippewa which had an average snowfall of 129 inches last winter. The largest snowfall recorded in Michigan last year was 246 inches measured at a station in Gogebic County.

Grandmothers Enjoy Dinner

TIPTON — A "Thanksgiving Day" dinner was enjoyed by the Grandmothers' Club Nov. 12, at the home of Mrs. Richard Vollmer.

Seven members and one guest, Mrs. Clifford Hardy, attended

During the business meeting it was decided to have the Christmas dinner at the Regent in Jackson and to return to the home of Mrs. Grover Swarts for an exchange of Christmas gifts.

A social afternoon, including euchre, concluded the party. Prizes were won by Mrs. Herman Titley and Mrs. Merrick Dibble.

Hymnology Studied

Mrs. Richard Carter presented a program, "Heritage of Our American Hymns" for members of the Abi-Evans Chapter, DAR Nov. 13 at the home of Mrs. Purnell Osburn.

She said that during the 20th Century there has been little change other than a gradual swinging back to more formal hymn singing.

Mrs. Neal Pearson, vice regent, presided, and gave a report on National Defense. She also read a letter from the DAR President General, Mrs. Robert Duncan.

Members decided to send $20 as a Christmas gift to the Kate Duncan Smith School in Grant, Ala.

Tea and coffee were served from a table decorated with fall flowers. Mrs. Don Smith and Mrs. Joseph Russell assisted the hostess.

Protestants Launch Appeal

The 11th annual Thanksgiving appeal of Protestant denominations for funds to carry on their joint program of food distribution to the world's needy will be marked Sunday, Nov. 22, in churches throughout America.

Highlighting nationwide services dedicated to the appeal, which seeks $1,073,850 to finance the SOS (Share Our Substance) program for 1965, through which millions of needy persons overseas will receive life-sustaining foods, will be the National Service of Thanksgiving in Washington, D. You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Help! help! Come on readers, help this poor forsaken columnist. I need more personal items so that You Told Us won't get pushed and battered so.

In the last several weeks it has been squeezed from one section to another, my "Head" has been usurped and one week I was shoved right off the page completely.

Now if I were just a bit bigger those meanies in the composing room couldn't manhandle me like that.

How about getting some interesting morsels over the wire to 423-2174 especially aimed at those servicemen and students as well as the senior citizens and those who are away from home.

Just like the Eugene Rosacrans in California we received a nice note from this week. People like to hear of the pleasant comings and goings of their friends.

Karen Mann and Richard Papworth Marry

By KAREN HARRIOTT

BRITTON — The Ridgeway Methodist Church was the setting for the Saturday afternoon wedding of Karen Anne Mann and Richard Irving Papworth.

The Rev. Robert Mitchinson performed the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Papworth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavaun Mann of Britton. Mr. Papworth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Papworth, 12910 Pennington Rd., Britton.

The bride appeared on the arm of her father. She wore a floor-length gown of tulle and chantilly lace with basque bodice and shoulder-length veil. The gown had a round neck, long pointed sleeves, and a full skirt of tiers of scallopde lace.

Her only jewelry was a white pearl necklace.

She carried a crescent arrangement of white chrysanthemums and yellow roses.

★

MAID-OF-HONOR was Sharon Mann, sister of the bride. Miss Mann wore a royal blue brocade dress with matching veiled hat and satin dyed shoes. Her bouquet was white fugi mums trimmed in blue centered around a large yellow mum.

Bridesmaids were Yolanda Esterline, aunt of the bride from Cambria, and Kathy Bailey and Sharon Sturtevant, both former [illegible]es of the bride. Their outfits were identical to the one worn by the maid-of-honor.

Best man was Lee Wagner, friend and former classmate from Dundee. Tom Cadmus and Ron Mastie, former classmates of the groom, served as ushers.

Music consisted of "The Perfect Love," "The Wedding Prayer," and "The Lord's Prayer" played by Mrs. Fred Schorber of Britton.

THE BRIDE'S mother was dressed in a royal blue wool suit and the groom's mother in a royal blue wool dress. Each wore black accessories and corsages of yellow roses.

A reception immediately followed the wedding in the parlor of the church with 300 persons present. The wedding cake was made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Dale Esterline of Hillsdale.

The new bride changed into a royal blue and gray checked suit with black accessories and a yellow rose corsage from her wedding bouquet before leaving on the honeymoon.

After spending a few days in Northern Michigan, the couple will make their home in Britton.

The bride and groom are both 1964 graduates of Britton. He is presently employed at Rawsonville Ford plant.

The engagement of Jill Louise Herman to A3/c Kimball L. Dabe is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Herman of Adrian.

Airman Dabe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Dabe, 502 Stacy St.

Miss Herman attended Ferris State College and is employed in the registrar's office at Adrian College.

Her fiance attended Grand Rapids Junior College and is stationed in the Aleutian Islands with the U. S. Air Force.

The couple is planning an early summer wedding.

Have You Ever Heard 'Danny Boy' Sung in Japanese

By KAREN HARRIOTT

BRITTON — Thirty foreign exchange students were entertained by Britton and Ridgeway Methodist Church members at a potluck supper in the Britton High School [illegible] Sunday evening.

Presently attending the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, each of the guests teaches English in his or her own country.

Entertainment began with group singing led by Ginger Frazier, of Britton and followed by two selections sung by Diane Bishop and Susan Smith of Ridgeway. A few of the exchange students then performed.

Eizo Tshikawa of Japan sang a medley of American songs ending with "Danny Boy" in English and then Japanese.

"Cana Dulce," a song telling of the simple life in Costa Rica, was sung by Mrs. Tris Morgan and Akia Abe of Japan followed her with two selections on the piano.

★

LUCY GUEVARA of Mexico and Mrs. Fresia Montoya of Chile sang a Mexican and then a Chilean song, followed by Mrs. Montya dancing "La Resfalosa," a typical folk dance of Chile. Mrs. Vapn Maempaa of Finland then performed a gymnastic dance.

An example of square dancing was given by the church members with the exchange students joining in.

MRS. JAMES PAUL NASS

Gail E. Elliott, James Paul Nass Exchange Vows

The marriage of Gail Elaine Elliott to James Paul Nass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Nass of 2019 South Huron Street, Ypsilanti is being announced by her parents, Mrs. Donna B. Elliott and George H. Elliott, both of Tecumseh.

The couple were united in marriage Nov. 11 in the Methodist Church in Marysville by the Rev. R. Brunger, who performed the double ring service in the presence of the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kiessel of Belleville.

After a trip in Northern Michigan, the couple will reside in Ypsilanti where both are students at Eastern Michigan University.

Scouts Planning Summer Camp

Scoutmasters of the Lenape District of the Wolverine Council are making preparations for summer camp at Kanesatake.

A dinner will be held Dec. 8 when troop reservations will be taken, the place to be announced at a later date.

Other troop leaders are welcome, but must make reservations and pay for their meal, according to the bulletin from the Council Service Center at Dundee.

The camping program for 1965 will be explained at the dinner.

4-H Youths Can Become Amateur Plant Scientists

Young folk entering into the Michigan 4-H Club program this fall have a chance to become amateur plant scientists, says J. Ray Gillespie, Lenawee county 4-H Club agent.

A new horticulture bulletin, Basic Plant Science, designed for 10-12 year olds, offers an opportunity to grow seeds and plants and experiment with them during the winter months.

It teaches beginners to grow plants from seeds, says Dr. J. Lee Taylor, horticulture extension specialist at Michigan State University and author of the bulletin.

★

HE SAYS that a plant seed is really a young plant which has not yet begun to grow actively. Starting with this seed, Mr. Taylor describes the life history of a garden bean and a yellow rocket plant through pictures and diagrams to teach 4-H'ers the different parts of the plant.

The new bulletin then tells why seeds and plants are beneficial to man and how man uses seeds as a source of food. The rest of the bulletin contains eleven exercises, five to be completed during the first year and six the second year.

Each exercise is flavored with scientific terms and contains a specific experiment to be performed.

If interested in participating in this new project, or for a copy of the Basic Plant Science bulletin, contact your local county 4-H extension office at the Court House.

● MRS. HARRY MOXLEY

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Proctor Funeral Home, Clinton, for Mrs. Harry Moxley, 68, of Ypsilanti, who died at the Saline Community Hospital Monday.

Mrs. Moxley had been in failing health for two years.

Born Jan. 28, 1896, in Clinton, she was the daughter of James and Carrie Smith Ferrick.

She married Harry Moxley in November, 1947, at Poplar Bluff, Mo.

Mrs. Moxley was a member of Golden Rod Chapter of the OES at Clinton and worked for several years in Beyer Hospital at Ypsilanti. She had lived there since her marriage to Mr. Moxley, who survives.

A nephew, Robert Way, of Clinton also survives.

She was preceded in death by a brother and a sister.

The Rev. George A. Miller officiated and burial will be in the Riverside Cemetery.

● WILLIAM LEO BACHTAL

Services will be held Friday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for William Leo Bachtal, 45, of 9540 Ford Rd., who died just after midnight Tuesday in the Tecumseh Products Company parking lot as he was leaving work.

Coroner Edward Braun said that Mr. Bachtal died of natural causes, probably a heart attack.

He was born Sept. 29, 1919, in Lenawee County, the son of Lyman and Vivian Bennett Bachtal.

Jan. 11, 1953, he married Elizabeth Phipps at Sylvania, O.

A resident of the Tecumseh area for many years, Mr. Bachtal had been employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. since 1947.

He is survived by his wife; six sons, Leo and Lyman, both of Lakeland, Fla.; Michael at Edwards Air Force Base in California and Gregory, Rickey and Gene, all at home; two daughters, Janet of Trenton and Sandra, at home; a brother, Robert of Adrian and three granddaughters.

He was preceded in death by two brothers and two sisters.

The Rev. Robert Mitchinson will officiate and burial will be in the Lenawee Hills Memorial Gardens.

● WAYNE ROBERT MOORE

Services were held Tuesday in Adrian for Wayne Robert Moore, 55, a former Holloway farmer, who was found dead in a motel in Gladwin Monday morning.

He was on a hunting trip and apparently died of a heart attack.

Mr. Moore was born in Holloway Nov. 9, 1909, the son of the late William and Lydia Roberts Moore.

He had been employed for the Lenawee County Road Commission for the past 20 years. His home was in Adrian.

He is survived by one son, Stephen Moore and two daughters, Mrs. James Crone of Adrian and Mrs. Ancel Renner of Onsted and six grandchildren.

Burial was in the Palmyra Cemetery.

● MRS. CLEMENT COVELL

Services were held Tuesday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Mrs. Clement Covell, 63, of 502 Adrian St., who died Saturday evening at Herrick Memorial Hospital where she had been admitted earlier in the day.

She was born May 15, 1901, in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Covell is survived by seven daughters, Mrs. Arvilla Creger of Ridgeway, Mrs. Margaretta Braden of Whitmore Lake, Mrs. Franklin Dauber, 1296 Munger Rd., Mrs. Mary Jane Stokes of Tampa, Fla., Mrs. Maxine Oulette of Windsor, Conn., Mrs. Ruth Drews of Whitmore Lake and Mrs. Milton Opel, 600 N. Union St.; four sons, Paul of Britton, Carl of Sutton Rd., and James and Richard, both at home; 37 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Four sisters, Mrs. Henry Korth, Mrs. Leon Gurtzweiler, Mrs. Wilbur J. Rumpf of Devils Lake and Mrs. William Gurtzweiler of Petersburg; two brothers, Ralph Piotter of Tecumseh and Roscoe Piotter of Flat Rock also survive.

Mrs. Covell was preceded in death by her husband Oct. 30, 1956. A brother and a sister also preceded her.

The Rev. Blair Bashore officiated and burial was in the Brookside Cemetery.

● MRS. NELLIE H. MEAD

Services were held Monday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Mrs. Nellie Mead who died Friday evening at the Evangelical Home for the Aged in Detroit.

Mrs. Mead lived in Tecumseh prior to 1920.

She is survived by two granddaughters, Mrs. Iris Galbraith of Pontiac and Mrs. Irene Jones of Kego Harbor.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Mrs. Gladys A. Denmark of Pontiac in 1961.

Burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

● DEBRA ANN SPOHR

Debra Ann Spohr, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Spohr, 12550 Pocklington Rd., died Sunday of injuries received in an auto accident.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lavern Spohr of Ewen, were also injured in the accident which happened near Wakefield in the western part of the upper peninsula.

Mr. Spohr, former Britton resident, suffered a broken leg and his wife, multiple cuts.

The little girl is survived by a sister, Mary Jane, and also her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Korba of St. Paul, Minn.

Wilkins Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilkin and daughters of Onsted were recent Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wilkin and family.

Pvt. R. L. Weyher Finishes Basic

Pvt. Ronald L. Weyher has completed eight weeks of basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

He enlisted in the National Guard May 1. He will be stationed at Fort Knox, Ky. for 10 weeks schooling in morse code.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Weyher, 9761 Britton Hwy., Tecumseh and graduated from Britton High School in 1960.

City Charter May Cancel Selection

A technicality in the city's charter may prevent Dr. George Wilson, of Clinton, from becoming Chief of Staff at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

According to the charter, the Chief of Staff must be a resident of Tecumseh. Dr. Wilson was elected by local physicians, and apparently without the doctors being aware of the residence requirement.

Council, learning of the problem Monday night, requested James Beardsley, city attorney, to investigate the legality of the election and report back at the Dec. 8 meeting.

Thanksgiving Day Services Planned

Thanksgiving Day services at the Christian Science Society, 111 N. Union St., will begin at 10:45 a.m.

The verse, "All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee," from Psalms 22, will be the Golden Text.

There are tigers—and there are Wide-Track tigers. (Have you priced a tiger lately?)
We make two: GTO, Le Mans. Same handsome looks, agile handling, plush bucket-seated interiors. Difference is, GTO muscles up 335 hp. Also standard: Hurst floor shifter, dual exhausts, special tires—redlines! Le Mans is tamer: 250 or 265 hp on order. Compare the Pontiacs with "sporty" cars. See what you get for how much. Then hurry back to Wide-Track tiger Town.

OLD ENOUGH!

Not old enough for a novel, a dictionary, an encyclopedia.

But old enough for the Bible!

For in these very years before she fully understands its truth, a child learns to respect God's Word. Reverence is born. A sense of the importance of religion develops.

The passages must be short . . . and sensibly chosen. Childish but searching questions must be answered. Mother and Dad will soon discover that explaining Truth to their child deepens their own comprehension.

Take advantage of a parent's most sacred privilege. Introduce your child to God. Make the Bible part of the family. Participate in and cooperate with the Church's program of religious education.

A child grows spiritually whose parents grow spiritually!

LINDA LEADS THE BAND — Linda Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bush, 106 S. Wyandotte St., has done an outstanding job leading the Tecumseh High School band this year. A junior, Miss Bush has had experience in the field, having been a majorette in the cadet band before moving into the senior band. With the six other twirlers, she attended summer camp to learn new routines and techniques. Miss Bush plays an oboe in the concert band. She was chosen to play the oboe because of her exceptional ability on the clarinet.

Basketball League Now Under Consideration

An independent basketball league covering three counties may be formed if enough interest is shown, states Don Moffatt, Tecumseh recreation director.

Teams from Jackson, Lenawee and Washtenaw would compete in this proposed circuit on a home and home basis.

If interest is great enough for this type of recreation basketball from various county communities, plans are to include both varsity and reserve teams, allowing players of various skills to participate.

Anyone interested in learning more of this tri-county basketball league may call Mr. Moffatt, 423-2107.

Mr. Moffatt will be meeting with other representatives of the three counties later this month and would like to have all area inquiries reach him before Thanksgiving Day.

Poore Gets Pair of TDs as CHS Wins

CLINTON — Fleet - footed Wayne Poore tallied twice as Clinton stopped Saline, 21-13, giving him 15 TD's for the season and the Lenawee County scoring title with 90 points.

Wayne scampered into the end zone from 40 and 15 yards.

Dennis Drazic, the Redsking talented passing star, flipped a TD toss to Bill Jedele that covered 60 yards.

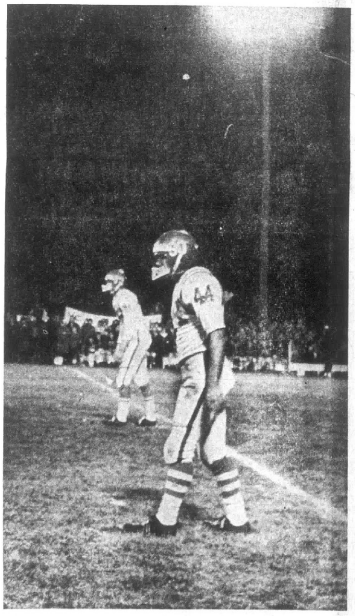
Thirteen completed out of 19 tosses by Dennis ate up 166 yards.

Roger "Golden Toe" Proctor nailed three extra points.

Defensively, the Redskins' Terry Brooks, Phil Smith, Poore and Jedele starred.

For Coach Phil Bareis, the year ended with eight wins, no losses and one tie.

Clinton	7	7	0	7	—21
Saline	6	7	0	0	—13



DEFENSIVE STANDOUT, TOO — Clinton's Wayne Poore (44 on shirt and 30 on his helmet) is Lenawee County's top scorer for the 1964 season, closing out the schedule with a pair of TD's as the Redskins stopped Saline. Wayne was outstanding defensively as a safetyman. In this picture he is awaiting action — the calm before the storm.

Census Underway

The 1964 Census of Agriculture, now being conducted by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce, in Lenawee County, will bring up to date farm statistics last collected in 1959.

Here are a few of the many facts recorded in the 1959 farm census for this County:

There were 3,124 farms in 1959, compared with 3,463 in 1954. The average size of farm was 136.8 acres in 1959, compared with 123.0 acres in 1954.

Fund Mails 11 Charity Checks

BRITTON — Members of the board of Britton-Macon Community Fund have expressed confidence the $1,700 goal of the Fund drive will be reached.

At a meeting Nov. 10 in the Britton library the treasurer, Mrs. Fred Bryan announced that $1,159.81 has been turned in by solicitors.

Among these contributions is $611 given by Tecumseh Products Co. employees at their place of employment and returned to the local fund by the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

Mrs. Bryan has sent to the charity agencies associated with the Fund these amounts:

Lenawee County Chapter, American Red Cross	$150
Lenawee County Corps, Salvation Army	$150
Wolverine Council, Boy Scouts of America	$150
Camp Fire Girls Inc., Tuckabatchee	$150
Britton Boy Scout Troops	$100
Britton Cub Scout Troops	$100
Britton Camp Fire Groups	$100
Britton Blue Birds	$100
Britton Summer Recreation Program	$235
Family Counseling Service of Lenawee County	$ 75
Michigan United Fund	$210

The Rev. Gustav Hannevik chairman of the Fund Drive, and members of the board of directors at the Tuesday meeting expressed appreciation for those persons who had assisted in the drive.

The board will elect officers at a meeting Jan. 12.

Addition Provides Classrooms, Office Space, New Library

By KAREN HARRIOTT

"The workmanship, as far as construction is concerned, is good. Numerous problems arose and were difficult at times, but it was well worth it in the long run," was the comment made by Supt. William Saxton concerning the newly-constructed addition to the Britton-Macon School.

At the present time finishing touches are being completed. Superintendent Saxton has announced the building will be dedicated in the near future.

Work began on this seven-classroom addition—which houses grades kindergarten through third, music and band students — in November, 1963.

Minion Construction Company of Ann Arbor was in charge of this $200,000 project. The electrical area was taken care of by Industrial Electric Company of Adrian, and Young and Ost of Milan did the plumbing and heating.

★

VARIOUS TEACHERS have expressed delight over the new addition.

Mrs. Lorene Edelbrock, who is teaching kindergarten for her ninth year, remarked, "I like the fact that the kindergarten is a self-contained room. We have our own restrooms, drinking fountain, and door leading to the playground. It is a great improvement."

Mrs. Clarence Schroeder and Mrs. Eugene Thornton, both elementary teachers, agree that the rooms are much brighter and have a more cheerful atmosphere. They said it is a pleasure they are a credit to the people and to the administration of Britton.

The new music and band room is a great deal more convenient, Britton Band Director, George Berryman, states. "Until this year the Britton band has had to compete with the sounds of gym classes and the stuffiness of a closed curtain stage every time they rehearsed — conditions that made it hard to appreciate music or even to hear it."

The room is equipped with more than ample instrument storage shelving, a stereo phonograph, a supply cabinet, and music filing cabinets.

"The music department," Mr. Berryman said, "is appreciative of its new facilities."

★

BRITTON-MACON School not only has been adding on, but also it has been remodeling. The former kindergarten room has been transformed into a library to serve the elementary and high school students.

Fourteen student librarians assist Sam Hamilton in this new library. Their job is caring for the books, assisting the students, and keeping the room neat and quiet.

One student librarian, Linda Dew, a senior, commented, "I think the library is a great improvement over the one we did have. We now have a greater opportunity for use of more and better references. The students can see how a library is operated and how to locate information without trouble."

Two of the former elementary rooms have been converted into a science room. This science room has laboratory facilities for 24 students.

★

ADMINISTRATION facilities have also been expanded. Three rooms, the superintendent's and principal's offices and the reception room have been doubled in size.

Secretary Mrs. Keith Halsey and part-time secretary Mrs. Eldon Reeck agree that the addition in space is appreciated by the secretaries and students. Mrs. Halsey added, "It is much, much more convenient."

Principal William Hetrick, asked to comment on the new addition, replied, "If the rest of the school was comparable to the new and the remodeled rooms, we would have fine facilities."

Another addition to the Britton-Macon School is a new drainage field and septic tank installed by the Bentley Sanitation Service of Ann Arbor. Consisting of an 80 by 150 feet drainage field, 4,000 gallon dosing tank and a 2,000 gallon storage tank, this project cost $10,793.63.

Curtain Coming Up

BRITTON — Action is mounting and the plot is thickening as the senior play takes shape. Performances of the comedy, "The Groom Said No," will be Friday and Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. in the gym.

Tory senior thespians have been working four weeks on their play. Dress rehearsal was held Wednesday, Nov. 18 in the afternoon for elementary students.

Six Journalism Students Attend Gathering at MSU

By KAREN IVAN

BRITTON — Six journalism students, accompanied by their instructor, Mrs. Gerald Henricks, attended several meetings on the Michigan State University campus Saturday.

The sessions were sponsored by the MSU School of Journalism and featured discussions by the students from various schools.

Three morning meetings, held at Brody Hall, covered editing the school newspaper, staff techniques, feature writing, and a general convocation.

★

AFTERNOON gatherings were in Kellogg Center and covered careers in journalism, advertising in school publications and special problems of school pages in town newspapers.

A lunch was served to all the students in Baily Dining Hall following the morning meetings.

Attending from Britton were Becky Bigelow, Mary Lou Hall, Karen Harriott, Sherry Squires, Dianne Ivan and this writer.

FHA Plans Field Trips, Pajama Party

By SHERRY SQUIRES

BRITTON — Field trips and a pajama party were among topics discussed at the monthly meeting of the Britton Future Homemakers Nov. 10.

The meeting was attended by 26 girls and Mrs. Fred Miller, advisor, in the home economics room.

Remaining activities for the year were planned, among them a dance, smorgasbord, tour of Sander's Candy plant and J. L. Hudson's in Detroit and a field trip to the Simplicity Patterns factory next spring.

FHA girls will invite FFA boys to a party in the school gym during Christmas vacation with the girls remaining for a pajama party in the gym.

After the business meeting, Kathleen Cheever gave the group a short report about the regional FFA meeting held Oct. 24 at Blissfield.

Sophomore girls served refreshments of cookies and Kool-Aid.

RECREATION ACTIVITIES

By DON MOFFATT, Superintendent

ART CLASS

The students of the recreation art class, during the past few weeks have studied paints and how to use them with proper use of the brush. Now in the remaining four classes, they will be delving into composition and color.

These art classes are being held at the Community Center on Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m. with this session completed Dec. 17. Howell Poucher, art instructor for these classes, invites anyone interested in this relaxing recreation activity, to stop in some Thursday evening at the center and visit the class.

The second session of classes, as well as a repeat session for beginners, will be started Jan. 7. Registration for these art lessons will be handled on that evening, and all interested area residents are asked to attend this free trial class.

INDOOR GOLF INSTRUCTION

Plans are now being made to provide golf instruction during the winter months at the Community Center. Ormond Eldredge, a well known area golfer and well qualified instructor, will be teaching the fundamentals for better golf both to beginners and to duffers alike. Not knowing just how many would be interested in this program, it is very hard to schedule the class sessions and hours. Would appreciate any comments and suggestions concerning our indoor golf program.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Last Thursday, 50 area senior citizens met at the Community Center to enjoy table games and cards and a special questionaire contest called, "Well, What Do You Know?".

Twelve questions were asked, concerning science, history and geography. Everyone enjoyed this short quiz and most were quite amazed with the correct answers. Mrs. Neil Pearson had the best paper, only missing on two questions, and received a bag of groceries for her prize.

During the short business meeting is was announced that the center will be open each Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m. that senior citizens may "drop in." No planned program will be scheduled for these drop-in days. In other words, it will be a "come as you are, do as you please" type of recreation enjoyment.

Some already have made plans and are now looking for a fourth for bridge. Others plan to meet at the center and then decide whether it will be cards, TV, shuffleboard, or perhaps just plain visiting with one another.

Fun Night Earns $850

The Tecumseh Acres PTA has realized a profit of approximately $850 on their fun night held Nov. 7.

Co-chairmen were Mr. and Mrs. Duane Bihlmyer and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Robison. In addition to room and concession chairmen which were announced previously, the following assisted:

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Green, dance chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Refner, spook house; Dr. and Mrs. Harold Oeamb, win-a-pet and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mitchell, sweet shop.

Prizes, given to students selling the most tickets in their class, were won by:

Grand Prize — Joey Mitchell; third grade—Kevin Osburn, Bob Lawson, Laurie Faling and Curt Beasley; fourth — Darlene Osburn; Larry Miller and Marilyn Cook; fifth — Robin Hensen and Tom Huber; sixth — James Crandall and Sylvia Steele.

Those who received the prizes for decorated socks were Jera and Jana Robinson, first, and Sandra Schultz and Beverly Robison, second. The limbo winner was Ruthann Green.

Tickets drawn for the door prizes were held by: Debbie Bausman, first; Shelly Mengerink, second; Delores Schultz, third; Thelma Van Hook, fourth and Gerald Potter, fifth.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBIE EARLING

A Teen Club dance is scheduled for Nov. 20 from 8:30-11:30 p.m. It will feature a live band. Regular admission will be charged.

The Latin Club will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday. The guest speaker will be the Rev. Thomas Collins, pastor of St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church. Father Collins will speak about the Latin language and its association with the church and why it is rapidly being replaced by the vernacular.

People of all denominations met at the First Methodist Church Sunday to hear the Gerald Janousek family relate their activities as missionaries in Africa during the past three years. A large per cent of those who attended were teen-agers.

Vivid and touching slides taken in Monrovia, the capital of Liberia, and in the "bush country" moved the younger attendants to discussion and contemplation of missionary life as a possible future career. They were especially impressed by the fantastic contrast between the primitiveness of the people of the "bush" and the life in the city.

Debbie and Susie Janousek spent Sunday afternoon with old classmates and friends. The first-hand knowledge they have acquired and their association with the Africans and other missionaries from all over the world is priceless to them. The Janousecks seemed extremely happy in their work and eager to return to the field and to hard rewarding endeavors next summer.

Marching season is over for this year and the bands have been reorganizing for concert season. The first concert will be a Christmas program.

Two-legged reptiles or exotic birds? Neither. They're fashion-conscious girls wearing the latest over-the-knee stockings. Long-johns are back in style this year in a rainbow of colors and a multitude of crazy patterns. So guffaw all you want, fellows. The plan is to keep warm and stay fashionable.

● LARRY B. SUTHERLAND

Services were held Friday in Detroit for Harry B. Sutherland, 77, of 1020 River Acres Drive, who died Tuesday at Herrick Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient for one week.

Mr. Sutherland retired from the lumber business in Detroit and had lived in Tecumseh for the last year and a half.

He was born at Grand Ledge May 20, 1887.

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Zella Hurd Sutherland, 713 Seneca, he is survived by a son, Harry of Northville; two daughters, Mrs. Harold Schroeder of Iowa and Mrs. Wilbur Andrews, 141 W. Brown St.; nine grandchildren and ten great grandchildren.

Burial was in the Detroit Evergreen Cemetery.

● MELVIN T. BERRY

Services were held Friday in Blissfield for Melvin T. Berry, 58, who died Tuesday at Bixby Hospital, Adrian after several years of ill health.

Born in Ridgeway, Oct. 10, 1906, he was the son of James Gordon and Sarah Elizabeth Davis Berry.

He was graduated from Ridgeway School and attended Tecumseh High School

He was engaged in farming and was a substitute mail carrier until blindness forced his retirement six years ago.

In 1930 Mr. Berry married Eva Peter, who survives. He also is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Arvel Fairchild of Longmont, Colo.; a son, Nelson of Blissfield and four grandchildren.

He is also survived by three sisters, Mrs. Hattie Satterla of Whitmore Lake, Mrs. Raymond Prather of Sigourey, Iowa and Mrs. Anna Baker of Kansas City and three brothers, Silas of Riga, and Dewey and Gordon of Blissfield.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, David and Charles.

Burial was in the Pleasant View Cemetery, Blissfield.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

American farmers have given our nation the most abundant supply of the safest and most wholesome food, at the most reasonable cost, of any people on earth. It is food — plenty of it, and the right kind — that makes possible our vast industrial machine and our thriving cities, because food is the very basis of life.

But there is tragic irony in the fact that American farmers who have laid the foundation for our society of abudance, have not shared proportionately, and equitably in its benefits. The American farmer's ability to produce has boomeranged against the farmer as, year by year, he sees the income of his city relatives and friends outstrip his own.

We see this picture here in Michigan. Our state is experiencing unequalled economic resurgence. Unemployment is down, and jobs are up. We lead the nation in personal income growth. Yet our agricultural economy is lagging.

★

THE RAPID SHIFT in America from a predominately agrarian economy to a predominantly urban, industrial economy has not helped. Agriculture simply has not caught up and too many farmers are trapped in the backwash of economic progress.

Farmers are getting a smaller and smaller share of the consumer's food dollar. Only 38 cents of that dollar finds its way back to the farmer who produced the food. He is hemmed in by rising costs. In the midst of prosperity and abundance, he isn't getting a fair shake and he knows it.

Take the problem of agricultural labor. There are plenty of farmers in this state who pay their hired man more than they make themselves. Now, no one questions the right of farm workers, whether permanent or seasonal, to a decent wage and a decent living standard. But what about the farmers, the ones who do the hiring? They are job-creators of our agricultural economy. Society asks too much when it asks a farmer to pay well when he, himself, is poorly paid, when it expects him to pay more for the labor he hires than he can earn himself.

★

THAT IS WHY, when I created the Governor's Commission on Migrant Labor earlier this year, I directed it to seek solutions to the problems of both the seasonal farm workers and the growers who employ them. The two groups are inseparably linked and, in a very real sense, the solution to the problems of each lies in the same direction.

Unless we act to better the economic lot of the American farmer, the family farm will soon be destined for oblivion. And I would suggest that farmers themselves, individually and through their organizations, with the assistance and encouragement of state government, hold the key to their own future.

Federal programs alone can never do the job. To some extent, the basic problem of American agriculture, and Michigan agriculture, exists because we have been letting the federal quarterbacks call all the plays. It's time we at home set out to solve some of the problems in our own way.

★

THE GREATEST NEED of American agriculture is for creative, industry-wide efforts to balance supply with demand — to adjust the flow of farm products to market, in years of overproduction. This is a need which no amount of federal tinkering can meet, short of total, iron control by Washington — something neither you nor I are willing to see happen. Federal programs can never fully take the place of self-help, local initiative, voluntary action, and state responsibility.

There is a need which can best be met by the people who are most concerned, working together to solve their own problems, to assure themselves a return on their efforts which is proportionate to that received by the rest of the economy.

We used to think that the farmer's greatest enemy was a year of under-production. But today — ironically — a good year can be a threat to the farmer's livelihood — a year when he produces more than he can sell at a reasonable price.

That's what happened to Michigan cherries this year, and it's Michigan grapes, and other Michigan crops. Unless we can learn to level out the peaks and valleys of production, to maintain a steady flow of farm products into the market place, we will not be able to increase the prices farmers get and the income they take home.

★

IT IS TIME for American farmers to take more of their future into their own hands, and Michigan farmers can lead the way. I urge every segment of Michigan agriculture to give serious consideration to this need, and I pledge that my administration stands ready to assist you in your efforts, through enabling legislation, technical assistance, strengthened market promotion, and research on new uses of farm products.

In Lincoln's words, "We must think anew and act anew" if we are to solve our own farm problems and then perhaps help others to solve theirs'.

U of M Reduces Requirements in Composition

Distribution requirement in English composition has been reduced from six hours to three for freshmen entering the University of Michigan.

Announcement of the change was made at a principal-freshman-counsellor conference held recently in Ann Arbor. Attending were John Pobuda and James Hoffman.

Credit for the reduced requirement was given to high school English instructors who, speakers at the conference said, are turning out "students better prepared in competent writing based on an analytical thinking and critical analysis."

For students still in need of training in the fundamentals of composition after one semester of Freshmen English, the University English department is planning a writing laboratory in which individual problems can be diagnosed and overcome.

4-H Club Plans for Achievement Night Program

The annual fall achievement program was planned by the Raisin Sliekers 4-H Club when they met Nov. 10.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Gray.

Announcement was made of The Christmas Tree Lane Tea to be held at the church Saturday afternoon, Dec. 5.

Following the program, refreshments were served by Mrs. Gray, assisted by Vera Gilbert.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

ORDER SEED NOW for sorghum-Sudan grass hybrids. Even though supplies of this seed will be larger this year, interest in this high-yielding summer annual is growing. Sorghum-Sudan grass hybrids are especially popular for green-chop and it thrives well when rainfall is limited. With more and more farmers including it in their overall forage program, better buy early. There's no telling how long the supply will last.

AVOID AUGER AND ELEVATOR FREEZE-UPS. Where ground-level augers enter a heated building, condensation often leads to freeze-ups. A heat lamp installed there will solve the problem. Be sure augers and elevators are cleaned well after using to avoid freezing of silage inside. U-trough augers in the open should be covered to keep out rain and snow. This will prevent breakdowns and prolong equipment life.

BUYING DAIRY COWS. A rule of thumb is to allow $1 for each pound of butterfat a cow produces in a lactation. Also important: A negative test for bangs; an easy breeder; free of mastitis problems; a fast milker; soft and firmly-attached udder; and production records of sire and dam, full sisters and half sisters. Watch cow being milked if possible to see how she handles and check her for general body conformation.

WATCH PIGS CLOSELY the first three to five days after farrowing. This is the most critical period for death losses from crushing, smothering and starvation. Keep temperature between 80 and 90 degrees and provide proper equipment to keep overlay at a minimum.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Lift Iron Curtain for Farm Bureau

Color slides of a recent trip to Russia were shown recently to the Jolly Farmer Farm Bureau Group by Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brooks of Onsted. The meeting was in the home of Mrs. Mabel Young.

The Brooks were part of a group of 80 Michigan farmers or persons associated with farming who toured Russia as part of a People to People program initiated by President Eisenhower.

All farms in Russia are government owned, the Brooks pointed out. Families live together on collective farms working the plot of land the government has designated for them.

They have also one or two acres of their own and perhaps a cow or pig. A government owned cow, the Brooks said, will produce 3,000 pounds of milk a year and a privately owned cow, 10,000 pounds. Privately owned acres produce more, also, they said.

MR. AND MRS. BROOKS made these observations:

The dwellings and people showed a lack of pride and interest. The crops were not put in rows and appeared to be planted in hills, hit and miss, across the fields. They had not tried—or found it impossible—to keep the weeds out for they grew higher than the crops.

The interpreter told the group as they passed a government-owned field of sugar beets, they would probably produce 15 ton per acre but a sugar beet grower from the group thought they would be lucky if they got five ton per acre.

The only one who appeared to be prospering on the collective farm was the farm manager.

A law has been passed recently that forces a man who has been a farmer for six years, to remain one indefinitely.

★

THE NATION'S largest University is in Moscow and has 10,000 students, Mr. Brooks said. Once educated its graduates are placed where the government wants them placed.

Moscow hotels, appearing to be 40 or 50 years old and whose walls are beginning to crumble, were actually 10 years old, he said.

After leaving Russia the group went to Poland where there are both collective and privately owned farms.

The Russian government, Mr. Brooks said, has not yet taken over farming completely because private farmers produce so much more and this extra production is badly needed.

The government will eventually take over these farms when it will best suit its purpose, Mr. Brooks added.

★

"AND the farmer, what will become of him. He and his family will be placed on a collective farm with several other farmers and their families. They will work for the state or perhaps disappear forever," Mr. Brooks said.

Such has been the case in East Germany where the Brooks visited next. At one time farming was an art here and the farmers were very shrewd and thrifty. They are no more. These farms have been broken down by the Russian government into state-owned collective farms. The people have been placed like so

Macon Area Residents Participate in Variety of Activities

Mrs. Mildred Bauer of Adrian, a Lenawee County nurse, told of her duties at a meeting of the Faith Circle. She explained ways members could assist younger mothers and some of the helps that were available through county services.

Mrs. Mildred Moore read the "new purpose".

Roll call was answered by giving thanks for many things.

It was announced also that seven servicemens' boxes are to be packed at the Joy Circle meeting Dec. 2. Members will welcome cookies and candies for the boxes.

The roll call will be answered in December by favorite cookie or candy recipes. Mrs. Charles Howell will have the devotions.

Co-hostesses for the November meeting were Mrs. Ray Williams and Mrs. Otto Hagens.

Couples Club will meet at the Airport Bowl at 7 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 21. Afterward they will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gorton for devotions and refreshments. Everyone is to have the first two chapters of "Your Home Can Be Christian".

'Harvest Festival" for the Chelsea Methodist Home is Sunday. All those who wish, are to bring to the Methodist Church, fresh vegetables, fresh fruits, jams, jellies, odd pieces of yarn, thread, cotton materials and quilting needles. The youth will leave the church at 2 p.m. to take them to the Chelsea Home. Shares of Happiness" at 50c a share may be purchased from the youth.

The General Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet Tuesday, Nov. 24. Executive members will meet at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Lora Hasted and Mrs. Bernard Tucker will arrange a program on "Money — A Tool For Fulfillment". Mrs. William Gorton will have the devotions. Mrs. Elton Osborne, Mrs. Harold Kuder, Mrs. Gerald Miller, Mrs. Otto Hagens and Mrs. Jack Crittenden will serve the refreshments.

Mrs. Eugene Hill, Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg, Mrs. Carl Hawkins and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore went to the Chelsea Methodist Home in Chelsea Nov. 11. They took a decorated cake to honor the 80th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Minnie Davis, a former Macon resident. Mrs. Blanche Wolfinger, Miss Margaret Helferich and Mrs. Wilma Briggs of the home were also guests. Mrs. Briggs is formerly of Macon.

Adelbert Hill of Swanton, O., is spending a few weeks with his sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill.

Following the last Britton football game Nov. 6, Robert and Leslie Rowe entertained the entire football team. The fellows enjoyed cards and refreshments. The coach was unable to attend.

Miss Mary Williams gave an interesting talk about her trip last summer with the Methodist Youth Caravan. She showed colored slides. The Senior youth served cider and doughnuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore were in Chicago from Friday until Sunday. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Noble and family, and Mrs. Edith Hampshire.

Harold Kuder and Carl Hawkins are among those in Northern Michigan for the deer hunting season.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

A novel touch has been added to a coule of Boysville's dormitories. St. Joseh Hall dorms have new drapes.

These colorful additions serve to replace the original drapery installed in the dorm when it was built in 1951. The patterns and colors were selected by the four dormitory prefects.

Cardinal Mooney Hall also has an addition. Twenty new reading lamps, purchased through trading stamps, have been installed in Brother James Reese's wing of the dorm. Lamps have been ordered for Brother Romain's dorm, and will be ordered shortly for Brother Francis' dorm.

▶

Friar Justin Lucio, OFM, an alumnus of Boysville, paid a visit to his alma mater recently. Friar Justin, a graduate of 1962, is now studying for the priesthood at Our Lady of Carey Seminary, a Franciscan house of studies, in Carey, Ohio. Friar Justin hopes after ordination to become a missionary to the Spanish speaking people in Texas.

▶

Saturday 35 boys from Boysville visited St. Joseph Academy in Adrian. The occasion was the fall dance, entitled "Frost and Flame," sponsored by the senior class of the academy. The boys had a wonderful evening of dancing and appreciated the invitation to participate in the dance.

▶

The Boysville Drum and Bugle Corps, under the direction of Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, traveled to Adrian Saturday, Nov. 14, to participate in the Veteran's Day Parade there. The corps marched from the armory to Monument Park, where a short ceremony was held. Afterward, the parade returned to the armory. This was the third parade the Corps has marched in this fall.

▶

Boysville's mimeographed newspaper, The Campus Info, is sponsoring a Thanksgiving essay contest for the boys on campus. They are urged to participate by writing their impressions of this historic holiday. First and second place winners will have their contributions put into print. As an added attraction, the first two winners will receive a book as an award.

▶

The sanctuary of Rosary Chapel on the Boysville campus is now adorned with a new green carpet. The purchase was made possible by Joseph Hughes of Detroit, it was installed by Alphonse orney and his son, Jeff, a student at Boysville.

▶

Another Boysville highlight of the past week was the quarterly change of jobs for the boys. Brother James Kinsella, CSC, posted the list, recently. Jobs are changed quarterly with the intention of adding a little variety to the chore of keeping Boysville's buildings neat and clean throughout the year. Chores range from dusting in a dormitory to cleaning the recreation halls.

▶

Brother Philip, CSC, Boysville Director, announced this week that the cleaning in the dining hall will be done by hired help. The decision was based on the need for more efficient cleaning in the food serving areas. The time the boys had available to do the job was insufficient to meet the standards required.

▶

Boysville welcomed 10 new boys to its campus on the weekend of November 7-8. A tip of the hat, in friendly welcome, goes to Charles D'Ary, John Grannel, Ron Langlois, Dan Mousseau, Steve Gamelin, Mike Robinson, Frank Sablack, Tony Hallesy, Bob Gallagher, and Jim Thomas. Gamelin, Robinson and Thomas have brothers who are students at Boysville.

▶

With the change of the quarter comes the distribution of report cards. They were distributed by the school principal, Brother Jeffrey Michels, CSC, noted by the boys, then collected and mailed to the parents.

Those making scholastic honors were:

High honors: Mike Bissonnette, Joe Gordon, Bill Kostka, Al Paille.

Honors: Jim Fedorko, Paul Scully, Mike Frei, Ed Johnson, Ray Lemanki, Dave Levites, Joe Pawlus, Keith Parker, Rick Currie, Mike Gandrean, Paul DeWaelsche, Sam Kirkland, Bob Schwanki, and Rolland Reich.

In addition, several boys made honorable mention. Boys who made high honors and honors will be treated to a dinner and a movie in the near future.

HUMAN BARRICADE — Adrian fullback, Steve Marshall got a look at some daylight on this play after teammates walled him in on a fine blocking maneuver. It was a short look, however, as an outstanding Tecumseh defensive unit held the Maples to short gainers throughout the game.

Legion Group Asks Servicemen's Names

CLINTON — The American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Carey Basham Nov. 3 with Mrs. George Bowman and May Brady as hostesses.

Christmas plans were started and a party with gift exchange was planned for Dec. 1 at the home of Mrs. Hattie Feldkamp.

A potluck supper will be served. The meat will be furnished. Junior members are invited to attend.

Auxiliary members request addresses of local servicemen by Dec. 1 so cards may be sent in advance of the holiday.

Mrs. Carl Garrison or Mrs. Charles Voll should be notified of the addresses.

The persons need not be connected with the Legion organizations.

Food brought to the meeting will be used for Thanksgiving baskets.

Any member still wishing to contribute should leave items with Mrs. R. C. Stauffer the week before Thanksgiving.

many slaves where the State wants them.

Before returning home the group visited Switzerland where beauty was everywhere and people, free to make their own decisions, were thriving.

★

MRS. BROOKS commented that she had gone to Russia with an open mind realizing the country was different from any other. It took her but three days to succumb to the feeling of suppression.

Mr. Brooks returned to the United States with a new and scrutinizing view of the nation's freedom.

"Every time our government does something for someone it takes away freedom," Mr. Brooks declared. "The goal of the Russian government is to take over the world."

VACATION WANDERINGS — BIRDS

Our trips are not aimed at, nor planned for, bird-watching. Fun though it might be, we find it impossible to be out at dawn, or to hike bird-trails. We enjoy scenery, things of interest which can be seen from the car, and, of course, picture-taking. Our vacations are oriented toward these and the birds we do see are regarded as bonuses — so much extra icing on the case, as it were.

Once across the Mississippi River we could not help but see hawks. They were all over — Iowa to Colorado and back to Missouri. We saw them everywhere and in all sizes, all shapes. Soaring in high lazy circles, sitting on fence posts, standing guard in dead trees and perched atop high utility poles. Several times we even witnessed 'lunch time' — freshly-caught mice, we thought.

★

TO NAME OUR hawks would be very difficult. Under the best viewing conditions they are hard to identify and when seen from a car — well, for us anything other than just "a hawk" is practically impossible. The little sparrow hawk is one exception; his size, only about 10 inches, is unmistakable. Although occasionally we see one around here, never have we observed their actions out in the open. Several times, while enjoying picnic lunches, these handsome characters performed and what a show! They hover!

Blue was by far the favorite color for this year's birds. The mountain bluebirds were great fun; often they kept us company. Bright blue birds with white tummies — pretty to see along the mountain roadsides. The western bluebird is another handsome character, a rusty red vest nicely complimented his blue suit.

★

IN THE PONDEROSA Pine country we saw several Stellar's jays. Big birds, 13 inches long, they are easily spotted because of their peaked top-knots, and rather unusual coloring — their front half is almost black and the back half a rich deep blue. Cocky looking and acting.

Another old friend from last year, the scrub-jay, is about the same size as our blue jay but lacks the crest. The bird has a white chin, dull gray breast, a peculiar spot on his shoulders which is almost a greenish yellow brown — elsewhere he is a rather pretty bright blue. Two newcomers to our bird list were: 1, pinon jay — robin size, all over dull blue and a surprisingly long, sharp bill; 2, phainopepla — 7 inches long, top-knot, glossy black and white wing patches visible in flight. The female lacks these wing markings.

★

BUT SPACE is running out so shall we jump to the four most exciting birds of this year's trip? One of our all-time favorites, and fortunately they are very numerous, is the magpie. If eis a big, brassy soul; a full 22 inches long, shiny black in color with white patches on wing, back and tail. His 'crowning glory' is a long, sweeping tail which can be 11 inches in length.

On the way to Cripple Creek, Colo., we had a superb chance to see a loggerhead shrike. An evil looking bird with a black eyemast, he was sitting on a fence post just a few feet from the car. Smaller than our robins, he had an over-sized round head and a slender black, white-edged tail; his head and back were gray, his front snowy white and his strong black bill had a cruel looking hook at its tip.

★

DAD AND I had our eyes elsewhere when Mom saw THE bird of the trip, a roadrunner! It was in a desert section, of course, and as Mom looked out the window, there he stood just at the side of the roadway. Long legs, long tail, long bill — what a thrill!

I was fortunate at Mesa Verde to have a real close-up of a raven. A huge black bird, rather ragged in appearance, he was soaring around a canyon screaming at the top of his croaking voice.

So it is that we must end our discussion of this year's trip — we didn't specialize in birds but those we saw added greatly to the vacation we now call 'the best ever'!

Briefs from Britton

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rohrback visited their daughter Judy at Bowling Green Friday. They took Tammee Tucker, who spent the weekend with Judy. The Rohrbacks returned Sunday and brought Tammee home.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Just Too Much

There were a lot of upset stomachs Saturday afternoon as Tecumseh folks tried to digest the report in a nearby daily of the THS-Adrian football game.

Written in a plaintive wail, the scene was set in the first two words, "A hurting Adrian high team . . ."

The third paragraph stuck like a chicken bone in throats of readers, "Despite Adrian's inability to gain on the ground, however, the outcome was not certain until the last 14 seconds when Jeff Osburn sneaked over from the one with Tecumseh's third touchdown."

Apparently the lad behind the typewriter was watching some other game, or reading his scrapbook of clippings from the days of Nelson and Rymal, neglecting the action at hand. He never did tell who scored Tecumseh's first touchdown.

The Maples and their press agents knew well in advance of the kickoff that Tecumseh was going to be mighty tough — and the old smoke screen of "we're laced with injuries" was carefully spread around the county the week before the battle.

If the daily's reporter had taken a close look at what was happening for 48 minutes on the gridiron Friday, this is what he would have seen:

► A Tecumseh team, so highly-keyed and determined that no Adrian crew could have beaten it.

► Tackling and blocking by the Indians that sent shivers through spectators.

► Complete domination during the final two periods by Tecumseh, with one exception, when the Maples hit for their touchdown on that long aerial.

► One of the guttiest THS units ever to be fielded here, with each kid's middle name changed for the season to Desire.

Unfortunately, the scribe was searching for excuses, not hard facts. It was an out-and-out case of Tecumseh clobbering Adrian, pure and simple.

A newspaper which tries to shelter its favorites by down-right biased reporting, flavored with obvious distortions, isn't doing them or itself any favors.

Clinton Rates Cheers

We'd like to extend congratulations to the folks in Clinton on their championship football team.

In stopping Manchester, the Redskins might not have turned in their sharpest performance of the autumn, but they ranked second to none in desire and drive.

A visitor attending a Clinton gridiron clash for the first time made some other quick observations.

► Clinton followers, young and old, are eager supporters of their team.

► The Redskin band plays expertly.

► Clinton badly needs and deserves better seating and lighting.

We've long pleaded for increased grandstands and new lighting in Tecumseh. It appears that between campaigns by the Exchange Club for more seats and lights by the Jaycees, these improvements are going to be made here.

Let us hope that Clinton, too, may somehow gain a physical football plant equal to its championship team and topflight band.

Here are three kinds of tigers. We sell two.

(Have you priced a tiger lately?)

The quick ones are ours. The agile ones. That's a Pontiac Le Mans, top left. Fierce. You can get it with 250 hp like most people. Or 285 hp like some. That's a Pontiac GTO, above. Ferocious. Comes complete with 335-hp Trophy V-8. Bucket seats. Hurst floor shifter. Dual exhausts. Heavy-duty springs. Redline tires. Even a real walnut dash. The whole package. Lithe. Lean. Nimble. That other tiger? A puzzled cat. He checked out a "sporty" kind of car, learned it doesn't come with fangs at that stripped-down price. You look around. You'll see.

Township Seeking To Halt GM Sewer

Raisin Township officials have decided to bar present construction of a sewer line to the new General Motors plant on Occidental Hwy. Supervisor James Mitchell said Friday, "I was out today and saw work had started on the south side of Russell Rd. If the men are working Monday, we will get an injunction to stop them.

"There's no reason this problem can't be settled in a few days. But if we let the city go ahead now, it never will be settled," he added.

Russell Rd. is the boundry line between the township and Tecumseh. The city has an agreement with GM to extend sewer service to the plant, but must cross Raisin to do so. Raisin officials, riled over what they consider Tecumseh's ignoring of their rights, may seek court action to halt the sewer line.

★

BEHIND the dispute is the fear that extending the city service will lead to annexation.

Calvin Zorn, Tecumseh city manager, said the line was going in the road right-of-way through the township. "We have permission from the county highway commission, and, through implication because we didn't hear differently, we thought we had permission of the township."

Meanwhile, Mr. Mitchell said officers of Argonaut Division of GM, which handles land development for the parent company, are trying to "mend fences" between the city and township.

James Edwards, division head, met recently with the township board. Another GM-township meeting is scheduled Tuesday night.

★

"WE WANT some restrictions on the line," Mr. Mitchell said. "I believe we are justified. We represent the people in this township, and they have been telephoning us to tell us they are afraid of annexation.

"I think we could go along with the sewer if no one other than GM south of Russell Rd. were allowed to hook on."

Mr. Zorn said the city had agreed verbally to limit the sewer usage to GM, but that no agreement had been signed.

★

THE CITY already has signed a contract for the sewer construction, and for expansion of the city's sewage treatment plant to handle the extra flow. General Motors will pay part of the cost.

Raisin Township officers found through an engineering study that the township could not afford to build sewage facilities. The population isn't large enough to warrant the cost now.

Also, the township has held up plans for road improvements and a possible fire department pending outcome of the sewer dispute.

Union Services Are Wednesday

Dr. Ernest T. Campbell, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Ann Arbor, will speak at the Union Thanksgiving Eve services at 8 p.m. Wednesday

Hosted this year by St. Peter's Episcopal Church, the service is one in a program sponsored throughout the year by the Tecumseh Ministerial Assn. The public is invited.

The church choir will sing evensong.

A holder of degrees from Princeton Theological Seminary with an honorary degree from Westminster College, Dr. Campbell came to Ann Arbor in 1962. He has been in demand as a speaker at institutes, conferences and the General Assembly of the National Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C.

★

"THANKFUL — For What," will be the subject of the Rev. Kurt F. Koeplin's sermon Thanksgiving Day at the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church.

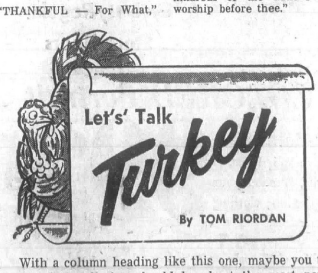
The worship service will be held at 10 a.m. with anthems by two choirs.

The Senior Choir will sing "Praise Ye the Lord" and the newly formed junior choir will sing, "Come Ye Thankful People Come."

★

SERVICES Thanksgiving Day at the Christian Science Society will begin at 10:45 a.m.

The Golden Text will be taken from Psalms 22 — "All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee."



With a column heading like this one, maybe you think this Monday's offering should be about the most popular bird in America come late November.

Forget it. This has to do with another table delicacy, namely the pancake.

Ever since devouring a delightful breakfast one early morning six weeks ago, at the new Aunt Jemima's Kitchen on US-12 at the US-23 intersection, I've wanted to relay the good word.

★

IT TAKES a while to wade through that delightful menu. Here are just a few of the choices:

► Pigs in Blanket — Three juicy sausages rolled in buttermilk cakes, served with apple sauce and whipped butter.

► Chocolate Delights—Three cakes, chocolate bits with rich whipped topping and chocolate syrup and ice cream.

► Mellow Blueberry Cakes—two large pancakes rolled with

IDLE NOW — This shovel being used to dig a sewer to the new General Motors plant in Raisin Township was idle Saturday. Whether it will operate Monday depends on the outcome of a dispute between Tecumseh and township officials.

School Board Votes Funds

After a lengthy discussion Monday night, the Tecumseh School Board authorized expenditures for improvements at the high school.

Over $5,000 was realized thru interest on a gift given the schools.

Improvements will consist of electric wiring for a welders shop, mats for doorways in the new addition, portable closets, toilet and soap dispensers, grading and construction of sidewalks, and creation of a teachers' parking lot behind the high school.

Twins' Mothers Benefit Patients at Ypsilanti

Mrs. Steve Kruger, vice-president, conducted the meeting of the Mothers of Twins Club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Rudd.

Plans were made for a Christmas party to be held Dec. 6 at 4 p.m. at the Deerfield Grange Hall. A potluck supper will be held and each member will bring gifts for her own children.

Preceding the meeting members made Christmas favors for patients at the Ypsilanti State Hospital. They also provided gifts to be sent to the hospital.

Mrs. Kruger won the passing gift.

Nearby Adrian Stole County Court House

(Editor's note — This is the second in a series of articles entitled "A Divided Raisin," relating the fascinating past of nearby township by the historian of Tecumseh, who was born and raised in Raisin.)

By CLARA WALDRON

From its beginning in 1834, Raisin township was divided loosely into two groups of settlers. Those in the northern part were, in large measure, friends or relatives of those who made up the settlement of Tecumseh, while the southern half was composed mostly of people of the "Society of Friends".

All were settlers from eastern United States, with the same conceptions of government, and their division was more or less accidental.

They organized the township in 1834, separating it from the larger Township of Tecumseh, which at first composed all of northern Lenawee, and elected officers from all the settled sections.

The first supervisor was Gabriel Wells.

Other officers included:

Clerk — Amos Hoag

School Commissioners—Thomas Chandler, Timothy Mitchel and William Gray.

Directors of the Poor — Darius Comstock and Thomas Sisson.

★

RAISIN WAS one of the few townships in the county with no incorporated village. Before rural mail delivery, there were post offices first at Sutton's Crossing, then at Raisin Center, Chases' Corners and Holloway, but attempts at further settlements ended, like one aspiring four corners dubbed "Little Hope".

Probably this situation was due to the location of the township, midway between Tecumseh and Adrian, for it is almost equally divided in its marketing allegiance to the two towns, a division which began early and was sharpened by the long-ago dispute over the county seat.

Initially the settlements of Tecumseh and Adrian were on the friendliest of terms.

When, in 1825, Quaker Darius Comstock came to "Pleasant Valley", now the Valley Rd. area, General Joseph Brown, also a Friend and one of the founders of Tecumseh, met him and, when Comstock had to return east for his family, General Brown built for him a spacious log house on the land he had chosen.

The two men continued to be friends but their relations became a little strained years later, when the new settlement of Adrian, which had been founded by Comstock's son, Addison, demanded the removal of the county seat from Tecumseh to that town.

★

AS SOON as it had been established in 1824, Tecumseh had been designated the "Seat of Justice" of the new County of Lenawee by order of the Territorial Legislative Council and a little later a Court House (a rather impressive one for its day) had been built by public subscription.

Adrian settlers had protested the location almost from the beginning, for the county seat meant prestige as well as profits and, while they had been forced to use the new court house they refused to accept it or pay their share of the expense.

In 1835 they petitioned the Territorial Council to have the seat moved to Adrian, giving as their reasons its more central location and the fact that the new railroad, the Erie-Kalamazoo, had now reached their town.

Tipton Students Study Ancestors, Old-Time Items

TIPTON — Fourth graders at Tipton School gathered many old items in connection with a unit on "Young Citizens of Early Days."

The items included sleigh bells, flat irons, candle molds and an ancient iron kettle.

After a social studies visit to New Zealand, the class is studying Japan.

In charge of the school show case for the month, the class showed the phases of the moon and wrote stories about the moon and added them to the display.

PTA Group Has Large Increase

The Ridgeway-Macon PTA membership drive closed Nov. 10 with an enrollment of 118. This is an increase of 21% over last year, while the number of pupils remained the same at the schools.

The PTA contest began Sept. 23 with each class competing for the highest perecentage of parent-members. The afternoon kindergarten, with 29 members in a class of 36 children, won, and will be given a party on a date to be chosen by the teacher, Mrs. Harriet Babcock.

Mrs. Paul Hover and Mrs. Harold Ruhl were co-chairmen for this drive.

Drive Is Over the Top

Tecumseh has kept its unbroken record of going "over the top" in fund raising.

The latest figure for collections in the 1965 Community Fund Foundation drive is $50,306, with more money expected to come in.

The goal was $50,000.

Kenneth Conway, drive chairman, said that the contacts still to be made should put the drive "well over the goal."

Final report will not be made until the end of the calendar year, as many contributors wait until late December to decide on the size of their gifts.

He added his thanks for the gifts made, and his appreciation for the work done by solicitors and others who added to the charitable drive.

TIRED FINGERS — The pen hands of Mrs. Robert Aten and her committee were well-worn after addressing nearly 500 invitations to the annual Holiday Ball of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. The ball will take place Dec. 5.

Weatherman Cooperating

Since the weatherman decided to cooperate, members of the Tecumseh Hospital Auxiliary know that the Holiday Ball will be a resounding success.

"An Old Fashioned Christmas" is the theme for the festive Saturday, Dec. 5 dance at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Mrs. Alton Snyder and co-chairman Mrs. R. S. Brown have arranged for music by the Art Smith Orchestra. The dance is semi-formal.

Beginning at 10 p.m., ending at 2 a.m., a buffet lunch will be served at the close of the dancing period.

OK, kids, we're looking for Letters to Santa. Send along your picture and if possible we'll include it. From here, letters will go to North Pole.

Those home ec students at Lenawee Institute are mighty talented, having baked an apple pie Thursday, delighting their teacher, Jan Baxter, who turned into quite a sampler.

Mrs. Earl Fritz called to tell us it would be quite a feat if the sewer reaches General Motors on Occidental by going east on Ives Rd. from S. Evans to Occidental and then north. Our faces are red.

Clara Waldron, author of many fascinating historical tales of this area, is not such a gadabout as was indicated in last week's Herald. Although her family was responsible for at least four homesteads in Raisin Township, some dating back more than a century, Miss Waldron called only one house "home" in the township.

Some of the sanitary conditions in Lenawee County are "deplorable" and certain land owners yip when called to task, reports a supervisor. Along these lines, take a look at the editorial regarding firing of a sanitary engineer on the back page.

A southern city school boardman has come up with the perfect solution for the dropout problem — but would kids and parents buy it? Since the automobile is blamed as the most important single cause for the high school dropout, he suggests that laws require a diploma be required before a permanent driver's license is issued.

Famed Educator Appearing Here

Dr. Frank C. Laubach, who has spent much of his 80 years teaching the world's illiterates to read, will be in Lenawee County Dec. 5 through 13.

He will appear at a dinner in his honor at Adrian College and before many civic organizations, telling of his work. He has travelled in virtually every free nation in the world, and is credited with having taught over 60 million persons to read in 311 languages in more than 100 nations.

The watchword of Dr. Laubach's campaign, "Each One Teach One," has become known throughout the world. He has taught Hindi in India, Gitonga in Mozambique, Bushanti in Nigeria, Coptic in Ethiopia, Kekchi in Guatemala and Sioux in the United States.

★

HIGHLIGHT of the educator's visit here will be his birthday dinner Dec. 7 at 6:45 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of Adrian's First Methodist Church.

The hall's capacity is 200, and reservations are available for $1.25 per dinner.

Robert B. Tuttle, host for Dr. Laubach's appearance, said Friday that Dr. Laubach's schedule of talks would take him to several areas of the county. Some time was available Dec. 11 and Dec. 12, if groups in Tecumseh would like to hear Dr. Laubach speak. Mr. Tuttle can be telephoned at 265-6055.

★

DR. LAUBACH does not mince words. He refers to the "ignorant and hungry people" throughout the world as the "Silent Billion," title of a book he published in 1945.

"Those people are getting hungrier," he said, "and they're getting more ambitious. They know they're 'hungry' because they're ignorant. The Communists know it too."

He said the gulf between their rising expectations and the reality of their achievement between their growing numbers and the falling food supply makes for a "fearful" situation.

★

INSPIRATION for Dr. Laubach's monumental work came to him from a headhunter on the island of Mindanao in the Philippines in 1930. Dr. Laubach was there trying to convert the savage Moro tribes to Christianity. Unable to persuade them, he at least hit upon a way of teaching them to write their own dialect.

He taught them phonetically, illustrating each syllable with a picture of the animal or common object that could be associated with the spoken sound. His idea was an immediate success. Excited tribesmen crowded into his hut to learn to read and write.

Shortly afterwards the money for the teaching ran out. Told that his people might have to discontinue their education, the Moro chieftain said, "If it stops now we are lost. Everybody who has learned to read must teach somebody else. If he doesn't, I'll kill him."

Adopting a gentler expression of the chief's thought, Dr. Laubach made the slogan, "Each One Teach One," watchword of his campaign against illiteracy all over the world in the past 30 years.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

"Tis not the feast so richly spread,
Tis not the word we say,
Tis not the greeting and the song
That make Thanksgiving Day."

This little poem gives one food for thought. Just what does make T. day? Is it the turkey with luscious dressing, the pumpkin, mince or apple pie, the laughter of the children and grown ups, too, or is it the deep feeling of gratitude that envelopes one as we think of the many blessings of this land.

Oh, how much has transpired since the pilgrims and Indians got together in the wilderness for that first feast.

Creswell will be ordained an Episcopal priest in December. He is the assistant rector in Dayton, O. and with his wife was an overnight guest of the Tecumseh Creswells. Godparents of the infant are Mrs. Archie Conkey and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Osworth. Mrs. Conkey and her husband of Grand Rapids were overnight guests of her parents and the baby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Boltz.

► ROLLER SKATING

Safety Patrol students have the opportunity to go roller skating free, on any Wednesday evening, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Skate Arena on M-52 in Adrian.

All that is needed is a Safety Patrol Courtesy Pass. Patrol students may obtain them from their principal or patrol leader.

► UNUSUAL VISITOR

Students at St. Elizabeth recently had an unusual visitor, a screech owl. He was brought around to all the grades by a fifth grader, Mary Ellen Beck.

Mary Ellen found the owl a few weeks ago on Halloween night. He was sick, but with much tender loving care at the Beck household, the owl is now in perfect condition.

The students were waiting for this fascinating creature to screech. However, the owl did not accommodate them.

► NEW OFFICERS

Eighth graders, at their class meeting Nov. 13, elected new class officers for the second term. They are:

President—Ruth Warner
Vice-president—Thomas Rohrer
Treasurer—David Laidlaw
Secretary—William Whiting
Social chairman—Carol Riordan

The newly-elected officers then gave acceptance speeches promising the class that they would do their very best in carrying out the duties of their office.

► COLORFUL WAYS

The fourth grade classroom is alive with artistic color and talent. First of all, there are brilliant graphs which teach the children their time tables and at the same time they brighten the room itself.

A mural, an art accomplishment of the fourth graders, shows how Tecumseh appeared 200 years ago.

Along with teaching the history of their town, it also displays their artistic ability.

► BASKETBALL

Basketball season started as players began getting in shape by first taking a few laps and the parking lot. After this, the boys set up practice lines for dribbling drills, dog shots and lay-ups.

The team will be coached by James Biscupski and Jeffery Robertson. They hope to schedule games with Chelsea, Addison, Adrian, and several other schools in this vicinity.

Finance Committee Assumes Vast Powers

There's a new odor around the Lenawee County Court House these days.

This one wafts its way through corridors and out cracks under the doors and windows, arising from the recent firing of County Sanitation Engineer Farhang Alai — and behind the scene lurks the fine hand of the Big Five.

On the job in Lenawee since March of 1963, Mr. Alai, a native of Iran, holds a University of Michigan master's degree in public health. His bachelor degree in the same field was obtained at the Institute of Terhan in Iran.

As a sanitation engineer here, Mr. Alai was given a specific job: enforce the county's sanitation code, covering such items as requiring that privies be at least 50 feet from wells and the like.

Mr. Alai had two strikes against him in performing his duties — he spoke with an accent.

When some citizens were told that there were violations on their property, there was a certain amount of grousing. Complaints went to supervisors, who were told that the county should get rid of "the foreigner."

Interestingly, when some of these complaints about "I can't understand him," were traced down, it was discovered that the complainers had been talking not to Mr. Alai, but to a part-time assistant—born and reared in Lenawee County.

Mr. Alai continues to work, pending final dismissal, but the supervisors have made his days here numbered.

His boss, Dr. Eleanor Skufis, who heads the County Health Department, told The Herald, "I was happy with the job he was doing." Supervisor John Hamilton, who also is on the Board's Health Committee and a Tecumseh Councilman said, "You can quote me that Alai is doing a good job."

Then why has he been dismissed, without even a replacement hired?

The answer makes an interesting story, although a little sordid and with just a hint of blackmail.

When the Health Committee, with Adrian Mayor Walter Bohn, as chairman, appeared before John Keller's four-man Finance Committee to discuss Health Department funds for the coming year, the subject of Mr. Alai was brought up by the quartet who held the county purse strings.

Messers Keller and his fellow committeemen didn't say that a requested increase of operational funds — from $19,000 to $22,000 — would get their OK if the Health Committee told Dr. Skufis to fire Mr. Alai.

They didn't say it directly, that is, but the idea was certainly implied.

The $22,000 figure did get an OK and the Health Committee did tell Dr. Skufis to notify the sanitary engineer that he was through. This, despite the fact that Dr. Skufis has been empowered to do the hiring and firing within her department — and she was satisfied with the work of Mr. Alai, concerned only that more people were needed to work with him on the giant task of Sanitary Code enforcement.

In reality, Mr. Keller's finance committee has issued itself vast powers. By holding tightly to budget allocations, this group decides who will or will not work for Lenawee County.

We haven't forgotten the way the Big Five manuevered the dumping of a competent three-year veteran on the County Road Commission so that they could give the $2,000-per-year job to a buddie who had lost a bid for re-election as a supervisor.

The sanitation engineer episode prompts us to wonder, "When will county government wake up and represent the people?"

BUILDING EXAMPLE — These dishes, presented to the Lenawee Institute, by the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club, are an example of the services provided to the community by this service club. Service for 80 was included, with a retail value of some $250. The Ohio China Co. made them available to the Kiwanians for $80. The presentation was made by Dr. George Burkhard and Harlan Dicks. Holding the dishes are Bill McNicol of Rural Adrian, Mary Burnett of Morenci and Rose Sipes of Onsted.

Kiwanians Plan Program of Building Community

Over 70 Kiwanians attended the Lieutenant Governor's Conference Thursday at the Odd Fellows Hall, where the members of the Tecumseh Club acted as host. Lt. Gov. Designate Fred Nash presided. Among the guests was Ernest Fletcher, Kiwanis governor for the Michigan District.

The meeting was called to discuss the goals for the Kiwanis Clubs of Monroe and Lenawee counties. The main theme for 1965 is community service.

The Tecumseh Club will strive to continue its community services by:

► Building, international understanding. This year they brought a group of Iraquian dancers to town for the Tecumseh Worlds Fair and donated $100 to the World Youth for Understanding movement.

► Building a responsible government. The Kiwanians sponsored a voting drive through the Herald and over WABJ radio.

► Building the highest standards of morality. This is achieved by establishing a code of personal and business ethics and by supporting a church attendance campaign.

► Building youth for leadership. Supporting Girl Scout, Boy Scout, Brownie and Cub Scout troops for the handicapped; working with the Teen Club, and giving financial aid to groups like the 4-H club are examples of this goal. The Tecumseh Kiwanis also provides aids for vocational training.

► Building a more abundant existence. This is accomplished by expanding programs to preserve local resources, such as Kiwanis Park.

Scout Executive Resigns Post

Alvin E. Jones Tuesday night presented his resignation as scout excutive of the Wolverine Council, Boy Scouts of America. The letter of resignation was read at a meeting of the executive board of the council meeting in the Council Service Center in Dundee. Mr. Jones will retire Jan. 3, 1965.

Donald Dennis, president of the council which comprises Lenawee and Monroe Counties and part of Wayne County, said Wednesday the personnel committee of the council will name Mr. Jones' successor next month.

The executive moved to Monroe 22 years ago from Owosso where he had served as assistant executive on the staff of the Tall Pine Council.

★

DURING HIS SERVICE the Wolverine Council has grown from 36 units with 765 boys and 256 adults to some 3,500 Cubs, Scouts and Explorers and 1,260 adult leaders. Camp Kanesatake on Washington Lake has grown from 27 acres to 104 with several new buildings and camp sites developed.

Mrs. Jones has been a leader in the den mother training program, has served on the camp staff and in the Dundee office.

He told his friends on the Council: "Mrs. Jones has quite a few things on her list that need catching up on and we have two granddaughters we are in the process of spoiling. There are many things to do and one just cannot stop being in scouting by a date on the calendar."

He and Mrs. Jones will continue to live at 539 Borgess Ave., Monroe.

Winter Arrives!

Winter hit here Friday with a vengence.

After an extended spell of Indian Summer, the long-delayed arctic air moved in, plummeting temperatures and glazing roads.

Trees were downed by high winds in some areas, but no major troubles with power or telephone lines were reported here.

Traffic came almost to a standstill in amny areas as blowing snow blinded drivers.

A rash of small accidents went in the books of city and state police and the sheriff's department, but no serious collisions or injuries were reported.

Most accidents involved hilly roads where cars went off the highway.

County road commission trucks were out Friday, removing felled trees and salting intersections. They were back on the roads Saturday morning. All roads were reported passable, but most local roads and some through highways were still as he crossed the railroad tracks on N. Evans St. by Moore Lumber Co., according to city police. glazed.

No relief is in sight for the cold spell. Temperatures well below freezing were forecast Friday for a five-day period.

Two Tecumseh accidents were directly attributed to the weather. At 7:30 a.m. Friday, Ronald James Forsythe of 5847 Holloway Rd. lost control of his car

At 8 a.m. Paul Burns, agriculture teacher at Tecumseh High School, entered Maumee St. from the school's circle drive. He was unable to get traction, and Melvin J. Schroeder of Ridgeway was unable to stop his car in time to avoid hitting the Burns vehicle, city police reported. They issued a summons to Mr. Burns for failure to yield the right of way.

Bernard E. Rickard of 5744 Holloway Rd. backed into a car driven by Helen Marie Jewell of St. Clair Friday afternoon. The accident occured in the parking lot behind the Strand Theater. He received a summons for improper backing.

TO THE EDITOR

I have been building new homes in Lenawee county for almost 15 years. In all this time I have always tried to boost Adrian, and the Lenawee county area.

There are many nice things that can be done here if all the people try to understand the problems we have and cooperate to help make Lenawee a better place to live.

One of the sore points with many of the townships has been the Lenawee county health department.

Here is an agency that even though they have been understaffed and criticized greatly, have stuck to their guns and tried to make rural living healthier.

We have been taught the proper methods of sewage disposal and water safety. Naturally, when these new things come about, some of us are die-hards and try to buck any change.

Others are selfish and do not care for the safety and welfare of our neighbors.

Dr. Eleanor Skufis and Frank Alai have done an excellent job in correcting many of the sewage and health problems in this area.

With the increased potential we now have in Lenawee and the dwindling water supplies, we still have a long, hard, uphill battle ahead of us.

Many of these problems will have to be tackled on a county-wide basis. So let us all get behind our health program before it is too late.

Club Celebrates Its 70th Anniversary

The 70th anniversary of the founding of the Tecumseh Monday Club was highlighted Nov. 16 in the Methodist Church by the re-enactment of the charter meeting held in the home of the late Mrs. C. A. Wright.

Mrs. E. J. Aebersold directed the skit featuring 12 members of the club each in costume, portraying ladies of 1894 attending the organizational session.

★

MRS. J. M. MULVANEY as Bill Wright's grandmother, had charge of the staged meeting, handing out leaflets on Greek art which the group decided to study.

Mrs. Clifford Knudson and Edith Ingersoll, in rockers on stage, gave a resume of the early days of the club, organized when the ladies decided they needed more culture.

Miss Ingersoll told of the projected aims of the group and the many good causes to which it has contributed.

There was another organization in town at the time called "The Research Circle", she said.

The Tecumseh Monday Clubbers, meting every week, 24 weeks a year, sometimes worked as long as 18 months on a paper for presentation to other members.

★

OTHERS BESIDES the organizing president who were portrayed and those in the cast were:

Mrs. Howland — Mrs. Clyde Bailey

Miss Gertrude Hialey — Mrs. Albert Todd

Mrs. E. B. Wood — Mrs. Ralph Westgate.

Mrs. Bert Lowe — Mrs. Judy Slagh

Mrs. (Dr.) North — Mrs. John Lott

Mrs. John Hicks — Mrs. Robert Bonner

Mrs. C. A. Slayton — Mrs. Fred Nash

Louise Phelps — Mrs. Louis L. Schneider

Mrs. Bills — Mrs. George

Mrs. Hall, Hazel Beland's mother — Mrs. Aebersold

★

MRS. TED LaBounty modeled the 1894 wedding dress of Mrs. Wayne Hendershot, mother of Wade Hendershot.

Mrs. Jennie Satterlee modeled a dress that she made for herself 70 years ago.

Other dresses worn by the cast were borrowed from the Tecumseh Chapter of OES.

Mrs. Wilfred Waldron played background piano music during the style showing.

Seventy-one former members and members attended.

Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Lott, still in costume, presided at the tea table where refreshments were served by Mrs. Veva Conner and her committee.

our own Special Blueberry Compote and flecked with powdered sugar.

► Banana Nut Pancakes — two large pancakes full of nuts folded around chopped bananas, with rich whipped topping and butter pecan syrup.

► Swedish Pancakes — four delicately rolled thin egg rich cakes, served with whipped butter and lingonberries. A connoisseur's delight!

► Hiawaiian Pancakes — two large cakes filled with crushed pineapple, rich whipped topping, sprinkled with coconut.

► French Suzettes Flambe — dainty egg-rich cakes, browned and rolled with strawberry jam, flecked with powdered sugar and served with our own orange suzette topping.

If these don't do the trick, guests are invited to order a Family Platter, designed to fill up four hungry wolf-hounds. Actually, this is the special of the house and includes fruit juice, scrambled eggs, bacon and sausage, golden brown pancakes, buckwheat cakes, buttermilk pancakes, Iowa corn cakes.

The quartet who calls for this one will rise slowly from their table.

★

AS FOR SYRUPS, each table has a lazy susan holding half a dozen dispensers with six flavors running through maple, blueberry, pineapple and a couple of others.

Although the pancake is King around Aunt Jemima's, this spotless restaurant also serves meals of all varieties late into the evening.

There are three large dining rooms, each boasting different decor and furnishings. Everything is immaculate.

Clinton and Lillian Clark, the owners, have several other Aunt Jemima's Kitchens, which is a franchised chain of restaurants.

If you like pancakes, visit Clarks' spot.

Clara Waldron Is Key Club Speaker

By MRS. ROBERT MORSE

Clara Waldron, local historian, spoke to members of the Artist Key Club Wednesday morning.

Her informative talk on Chief Tecumseh was the beginning of a club project.

It will see members and their instructor, Russell Stienke do do portraits and paintings based on their interpretation of this great man.

Members feel that in view of the increased knowledge available about Tecumseh that the town needs a newer symbol to more accurately portray his heritage. The old chief, as Miss Waldron so aptly phrased it, did not name the town simply "Indian" but named it a personal "Tecumseh."

★

THE SHAWNEE tribe, of which he was a chieftain, wore a more simple headpiece than the western warbonnet.

It is also improbable that he had such stylized features. A contemporary describes him as having a high protruding forehead and a broad, open, countenance.

The only portrait which is believed to be of Tecumseh hangs in the Chicago Museum of Natural History and was painted by an unknown artist sometime before 1813.

THIS PAINTING appears to stress his white affiliations by placing him in clothing and hairdo of the era.

The eyes, however, seem to capture some of the noble projects o fthis great humanitarian.
